In Saturday starters of the VOBL up Toronto way, the Oshawa Transporters (strengthened since taking the OBA intermediate "A" title last year) hadn't much trouble downing the Burners, while Oakville Oaks slaughtered Dependable Caterers. The Oaks unveiled a smart southpaw, who had hitting and fielding support. The Caterers will have to rebuild to be contenders, by the looks of it. Oshawa has some okay twirlers in Cec. Hall, lanky Fred Spellman (with minor pro experience), Bill McTavish and Lefty Bill Dadson, as well as Jack Durston, though he is moving in June to B.C. Others in the lineup are Brabin, Gingerich, Mroczek, Barnes, Chaszewski, Etcher, Keller, Varga, Joskoski, Litch and McArthur. They also hope to add a USA college hurler soon.

Playing the Mounties

Switching to the gutted-stick sport, Peterborough Trailermen trek tomorrow to Mimico to tackle the Mounties in an OLA senior "A" fixture. Secretary Chuck Rowan states that the Mounties, out of competition last season, have a better squad now than in the past several years, Don (Scotty) McPhail being one of the returning veterans from Orillia. Hamilton Tigers are still in the question mark category, but Lefty Jordan promises his club will give them all a run for it as the lacrosse schedule progresses. The Petes, feeling understandably chipper after their 10-9 opening win in St. Catharines, looks for a hot return match in the opener here this Friday night against the Athletics. Local club has a holiday game in Hamilton on May 24.

St. Kitts' scribe commented after the Friday fray: "As long as the Petes have Moon Wootton in goal, they'll have a pretty fair claim to the Mann Cup. He produced minor miracles in their 10-9 win as, in strictly territorial play, Athletics enjoyed a 75 percent advantage. Powless and Smith were teammates last year of the Moon and probably now realize his worth to their old club. Neither boy was able to score a single goal, although they literally had bushels of opportunities. Seems as if that small net may keep lacrosse scores down this year, which is all for the best. One defeat this early isn't any reason to get panicky, but it proves the A's will have to really work for any title. This league is very evenly balanced." Yes, indeed; we see no shoo-ins on the horizon.

Louis, Schmeling Get Together, "Good Friends"

By TOM BRANAGAN

CHICAGO (AP)—It wasn't a bit like old times when Joe Louis and Max Schmeling got together again.

Both parties were much too friendly Sunday night. And they resembled only slightly the two excellent fighters who exchanged pulverizing ring victories in the late 30s.

Louis, now a paunchy 40, and Schmeling, 48 and mellow, got together at a Chicago night club in a visit sponsored by mutual friends.

It was the first time they had met since Louis "nearly killed" challenger Schmeling—the words are Max's—defending his heavyweight boxing title in June, 1938.

Two years before that Schmeling handed Louis his first professional boxing defeat with a 12th-round knockout. Louis didn't lose another fight until after his retirement as champion in 1949.

There were frequent reports before and after their second fight that there was hard feeling between the two but there was no evidence of it Sunday night.

AGREE GOOD FRIENDS

"We were the victims of bad propaganda," said Schmeling. "There never was any bad feeling on my part."

Louis agreed. "We're good friends," he declared.

Both also agreed on the reason Schmeling kayoed Joe in their first fight, when Louis was thought to be invincible.

"I watched Joe fight," said the German, "and I watched pictures of his fights. I noticed that every time he jabbed with his left hand, he did not return to a high protective position. He would drop it, leaving the whole left side of his head wide open. I made him lead and then I would cross with my right, when his left was down."

"He taught me never to drop my left again," grinned Joe.

Schmeling, who arrived from Germany Saturday, is going to referee one or two preliminary bouts on a Milwaukee fight card Tuesday.

Pitching: Mike Garcia, Indians, joined growing ranks of one-hit pitchers by holding Philadelphia to single by Joe Demaestri in second-game victory, 6-0 after Indians won opener 12-7.

Williams' 8 Hits Fail To Save Twin Bill For Sox

By JACK HAND, Associated Press Sport Writer

Poor old Ted Williams. With a steel pin in his left shoulder and sharp pain torturing his body every time he swings hard, the lanky Boston Red Sox slugger is hitting only .727 after one full day's work. Wait 'til the man gets his strength back.

"I've had better days," said Williams Sunday after smashing eight hits in nine times at bat in a doubleheader at Detroit—a performance that may well be the big story of 1954. "It hurts like hell every time I swing."

Although Williams got into a game at Baltimore Saturday as a pinch hitter and finished in left field, going hitless in two trips, this was his first real test since he broke his collarbone.

MADE 'EM WONDER

Those who saw him hit two homers, a double and five singles and drive in seven runs at Detroit wondered how he did it.

The Red Sox still lost both games 7-6 and 9-8 in 14 innings as the Boston pitchers gave up 27 hits.

Cleveland seized the American League lead by 10 percentage points over Chicago by knocking off Philadelphia twice 12-7 and 6-0 with Mike Garcia allowing only one hit in the second game, a fourth-inning single by Joe Demastri.

It was the third one-hit game in the majors within a week and the eighth of the season.

Chicago slid out of the lead by dividing a pair with Washington. The White Sox won the first 10-5 with Minnie Minoso driving home six runs but bowed to Washington's capable Bob Porterfield in the 3-1 second game.

Don Larsen, young Baltimore righthander, snapped a six-game New York Yankee winning streak with a three-hitter 6-2 in the second game after Allie Reynolds shut out Dave Koslo 2-0 on three hits.

SPLIT DOUBLEHEADERS

All National League clubs split doubleheaders except the Phillies and St. Louis Cards, whose second game was halted by Philadelphia's Sunday curfew. Solly Hemus' pinch triple helped the Cards beat reliefer Jim Konstanty in the opener 7-3. The Phils led 6-3 when the second was suspended after six innings. It will be completed today.

Brooklyn edged within six points of the leading Phillies by dividing with Cincinnati. Gil Hodges' homer with the bases loaded off Herm Wehmeier gave Preacher Roe his first victory 4-2 but Bud Podbielan beat Russ Meyer for a 7-2 Cincinnati edge in the second.

Johnny Antonelli faced his old Milwaukee mates for the first time since he was traded in the Bobby Thomson deal and whipped the Braves 9-2 as New York Giants bounced back from an opening-game 3-2 defeat in 10 innings.

Joe Garagiola led a 17-hit Chicago attack on Pittsburgh with a perfect 5 for 5 in the first game 12-3 victory. Then Jake Thies clamped down on the Cubs with a four-hitter to earn a 5-1 decision.

Native Dancer Stages Brilliant Win

NEW YORK (AP)—Native Dancer staged another of his breath-taking matinee thrillers Saturday when he came from far behind to defeat Straight Face by a neck to win the $39,200 Metropolitan Handicap at Belmont Park.

Any doubts of the Dancer's greatness were wiped away as Alfred Vanderbilt's four-year - old, backed down to 1 to 4, finished with his characteristic late rush to end the mile in 1:35 1-5 while carrying 130 pounds. That is just 2-5 of a second slower than the track record set by Count Fleet in 1942 when he was a two-year-old and had only 116 pounds.

The Dancer also equalled another, older record, Man O'War's proud mark of 20 victories in 21 starts.

JITTERY MOMENTS

A crowd of 38,090 had its jittery moments as the favored Dancer, carrying the heaviest weight of his career, raced far back of the leaders in the nine-horse field. In the stretch, however, the Dancer responded as usual.

He passed one horse after another. With an eighth of a mile remaining only Straight Face and jockey Ted Atkinson were left. But they were leading by 3½ lengths and it seemed impossible.

But the Dancer, coming like an express, drew even with the Greentree flyer and about 40 yards from the wire rammed his nose in front to stay.

He paid $2.50, $2.20 and $2.10. Straight Face paid $2.80 and $2.10. Jamie K, six lengths back of Straight Face, returned $2.20 to show.

Hamilton Team Breaks Relay Record

NEWMARKET, Ont. (CP) — A team from the Central Secondary school of Hamilton Sunday broke the Canadian interscholastic senior mile relay record at the Pickering College track meet here.

The four-man Hamilton team covered the distance in 3:28.2, eight-tenths of a second faster than the old mark.

The record-breaking mile was the highlight in a program of 14 relay races that attracted more than 200 competitors from 30 high schools in southern Ontario.

Penalty Goal Gives Glasgow Victory

MONTREAL (CP) — A penalty goal within 10 minutes of the final whistle by veteran George Young Sunday gave Glasgow Rangers a 1-0 victory over Chelsea of London in an international exhibition soccer game played before 10,920 fans.

The victory gave Glasgow a 1-0 lead in their best-of-three North American challenge series against the Pensioners. They meet at Toronto June 5 and again at New York June 6.

Rangers' goal came at the 35th minute of the second half to give Glasgow a deserved win.

Led in attack by Scottish international right-wing Willie Waddell and in defence by skipper George Young at full-back, the Scottish side dominated play throughout most of the game.

Richmond Clouts Buffalo 13-6

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Richmond Virginians, one of two new entries in this year's International League, whacked out a 13-6 victory over Buffalo Bisons Sunday in a game that might presage a halt to any more drops into the loop cellar.

Richmond, currently in seventh place, take on the Bisons again tonight. It will be the second appearance of a new outfield that accounted for 11 hits and nine runs in Sunday's doubleheader. The Bisons took the nightcap on the strength of Sammy Meeks' three-run homer, 5-4.

The league - leading Rochester Red Wings polished off the Montreal Royals 3-1 but they are only 10 percentage points ahead of the surprising Havana Sugar Kings, who clubbed the Syracuse Chiefs twice 9-2 and 2-1. The Ottawa A's and Toronto Maple Leafs divided a doubleheader. The tail-enders won the first 6-5 and the Leafs the nightcap 6-2.

Carruthers Decides To Quit Boxing

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Australia's Jimmy Carruthers, undefeated bantamweight champion of the world, Sunday night announced his retirement from boxing.

The 24-year-old 118-pound titlist scored his 19th victory last May 2 when he outpointed Chamreon Songkitrat of Thailand in a 15-round title bout in Bangkok.

Since turning pro on Aug. 15, 1950, Carruthers won 11 bouts by knockouts and eight by decision.

He won the world title by knocking out Vic Toweel in one round on Nov. 15, 1952. He defended the crown three times. He knocked out Toweel, of South Africa, in a return bout in 10 rounds on March 21, 1953, outpointed Henry (Pappy) Gault of Spartanburg, S.C., in 15 rounds on Nov. 13, 1953, and then successfully defended against Songkitrat.

TIME TO QUIT

He said he made the decision entirely on his own.

"I feel I am at my peak in fighting and n my opinion, that is the time to get out of it."

Carruthers earned a net of $67,000 in boxing. He said he would go into the hotel business.

A tournament to determine a successor undoubtedly will be set up by the recently organized World Committee for Professional Boxing.

The committee listed Carruthers' challengers as Robert Cohen of France, Songkitrat, and Pierre Cossemyns of Belgium.

Locals Beaten By Toronto In Cricket Tilt

Toronto Grace church defeated Peterborough - Whitaker "A" cricketers by 50 runs Saturday with 127 for six wickets declared to 77 in a match delayed by the downtown parade.

T. Clarke, the Peterborough skipper elected to field and Grace opened with Cole (captain) and Lewis against the bowling of Clarke and Booth. The Grace pair played cautiously at first but it was not till Clarke was relieved by G. Smith that P-W got its first wicket. Smith had Lewis in early trouble and on the fifth ball of his second over had bowled him cleanly for seven.

Cole was joined by lefthander Orr and the score rose against varied bowling until Orr was clean bowled by K. Roberts for 16 with the score 53 for two. Cole started to hit out but, with his count at 33, he gave a hard catch to Clarke off Roberts' bowling.

Connell helped raise the score and at the interval it was 127 for six, Connell having 40 not out after a shaky start. In the interval, the Grace Church skipper declared the inning closed.

OPENED FOR P-W

B. Roberts and D. Whitaker opened for P-W against Anstee and Sinclair, and were batting confidently until the score of 22 when B. Roberts was caught off Anstee. This started a collapse as Peterborough lost two more on successive balls by Sinclair, both clean bowled. Bedford came in and spoiled the hat trick, but Sinclair kept home batsmen in trouble and took two more wickets before getting a well-earned rest by his skipper.

Only Bedford seemed able to master their bowling, with W. Smith giving him some good support near the end. It closed for them at 77 with Bedford 29 not out for a creditable display against a keen attack. Carr and Sinclair did all the damage for Grace church, Carr having four wickets for 22 and Sinclair five for 11.

KAYOED SOCCER STAR

DETROIT (CP)—A stout young waterboy gave his team his best Sunday. He kayoed the opposition's star.

It happened in full view of 7,000 soccer fans as Toronto's Ulster United battled Germany's Fortuna Dusseldorf to a 2-2 tie in University of Detroit Stadium.

Midway in the second half, just after the Toronto team had tied the score, their water boy, Joe Wood, moved onto the field to refresh goalie George Anderson.

During the lull, Karl Grammminger, the German's fleet centerforward, wandered downfield to Anderson and Wood. Suddenly Wood brought a sweeping left from the ground, catching Grammminger flush on the jaw.

"He kicked my bucket," Wood explained.

Grammminger dropped as though axed. He lay there unconscious for several minutes. Finally revived, he returned to play. But nobody knew what to do about Wood. Police escorted him out about five minutes later after he had returned to the bench.

Says Festival Puts Canada On Cultural Map

TORONTO (CP)—British director-playwright Dr. Tyrone Guthrie, who this year directs the Stratford Shakespearian Festival, said Saturday the festival may put Canada on the cultural map if its growth and popularity continues.

On his way to the 1954 festival at Stratford, Dr. Guthrie said in a stop-over interview that the festival may make Europe aware there's culture in Canada after all.

He suggested the festival company might make a tour of Europe in a few years if and when it gains more experience.

NEW OBJECTIVE

The festival is "still too new in the field but if all goes well the company might very well go over together some year—to the Edinburgh Festival—for example."

He said last year's festival had raised Canada's cultural reputation on this continent but nowhere else.

Referring to James Mason, British star of the festival's 1954 summer season who will play the lead in a Greek tragedy, "Oedipus Rex," Dr. Guthrie said "we have the handsomest man in the world and we're covering him up with a mask."

Mr. Mason is due to arrive Monday in Stratford with his wife, Pamela, and five-year-old daughter, Portland.

Push Work On Heligoland

By RICHARD O'MALLEY

HELIGOLAND (AP)—This German island in the North sea has earned a reputation for its pirates, submarine pens, lobsters and stubborn folk who weathered two world wars.

The words for the German anthem, Deutschland Uber Alles," were written on Heligoland in 1841 by a German political refugee. Germany's great pirate, Klaus Stoertebeker, and his crew hid out there. German U-boats of both wars used it as a base.

It has been called "Gibraltar of the North," "pearl of the North sea" and a "damned trouser button."

NEARLY ALL TALES TRUE

Its present mayor, Peter Rickmers, who was born on the island 30-odd years ago, says:

"Nearly anything you want to call Heligoland is true."

Today, snorting bulldozers, rumbling trucks and the clang of hammers bellow a song of reconstruction in the cause of peace.

Heligoland is 130 acres of red sandstone poking out of the blustery North sea about 25 miles from the German mainland. Britain took it from Denmark in 1807 and traded it to Germany when Otto von Bismarck, the "Iron Chancellor," offered German holdings in East Africa.

German parliament members protested angrily that he had given away a valuable colony for "a damned trouser button."

But Bismarck recognized Heligoland's strategic value. It was a natural base in case of war and a vantage point close to the bustling traffic lanes of the North sea.

SMASHED BY BOMBS

In the last war, the Allies mounted a 1,000-plane raid April 18, 1945, which showered bombs on Heligoland for 102 minutes. Their mission was two-fold: To smash Hitler's concrete submarine pens and to blind the eye of a vigilant outpost.

Casualties were light. Nearly all Heligolanders were snug in bunkers gouged deep into the cliffs. But physical damage was tremendous. The city perched atop the cliffs and beach buildings were wiped out. The submarine pens became a jumble of grey wreckage.

Less than a month later the war was over for Germany and for approximately 3,000 Heligolanders.

Britain took over the island again. The islanders were evacuated to the mainland and Heligoland was used as a demolition site for captured German ammunition. Later RAF planes used it as a practice bombing range.

RETURNED TO GERMANY

The West German government and Heligolanders waged a highly vocal campaign for its return. Finally, on March 1, 1952, the island was returned to Germany.

Now it's a closed island, subject to casual visit only by government permission. Five hundred brawny workmen, half of them native Heligolanders, are busy putting it back in shape.

It will cost about $20,000,000 and take several years to restore homes, mainly for the people who used to live there. When restoration is completed, Heligoland again will be a busy lobster-fishing port and, in summer, a North sea tourist attraction.

Children's Knocked Out Teeth Can Be Put Back In Again

TORONTO (CP) — Youngsters were tipped off Saturday to pick up knocked out teeth and hurr to a dentist to have them put back in again.

Dr. Ralph Sommer of the University of Michigan, said childrens' teeth can be made as good as new if they are put back immediately.

Dr. Sommer told delegates to the annual conference of the Society of Dentistry for Children that after preparation, the tooth can be replaced in its original position and wired to adjoining teeth. Healing action occurs within a week. He also told of a new technique which may eliminate the need of extracting abscessed teeth.

BEING STERILIZED

Decayed teeth now are being sterilized by the use of antibiotics and other drugs, Dr. Sommer said. The tooth structure hardens and need not be drilled away. The antibiotics kill the bacteria, prevent decay from spreading, and the tooth structure becomes firm.

The society recommended fluoridation as a means of attacking decay.

A panel consisting of Drs. S. A. MacGregor, Armacost Cox, Gordon Nikiforuk, Wesley J. Dunn and R. L. Scott, said community fluoridation is much the cheapest and safest way to prevent tooth decay in children.

The average child costs its parents about $26 each year in dental care, the doctors said, while community fluoridation costs about 10 cents a person a year.

FUNERAL SERVICE

New Zealanders Said To Have Worst Teeth

WELLINGTON (Reuters) — New Zealanders are said to have the worst teeth in the world and dentists blame this condition on a lack of fluorine in the diet.

Seventy-three per cent of New Zealand's adult population wear false teeth.

Dentists have recommended that fluorine be added to the drinking water to help rectify the deficiency, but their pleas have met stiff opposition.

An organization called the Anti-Fluoridation Society has been formed by a group of persons to resist what they describe as "a mass medication scheme which is against all democratic principles."

Excess of fluorine, these people claim, has ill effects on the heart, bones and kidneys.

So far, the only place in New Zealand where fluorine is added to the drinking water is at Hasting, where the borough council inaugurated a scheme last May in spite of much local and national opposition from the Anti-Fluoridization Society.

WILL MAKE COMPARISON

Plans have been made for an annual examination of Hastings' school children and their teeth will be compared with those of school children at Napier, a town a few miles away.

The heaviest blows against the Anti-Fluoridization Society's case have been dealt by dental experts from Europe and North America who came to Wellington for a world health organization dental seminar.

These dentists said that for prevention of dental decay, artificial fluoridization, where the natural content of the drinking water is insufficient, has had astounding results in their countries.

Whatever the outcome of the controversy, authorities hope that it will jolt the New Zealander out of his lethargy towards what has become a national problem.

The two units were assembled by RSM Hugh Davidson and prepared for the march past shortly after 8:00 p.m. Major Lloyd Grose directed the inspection formations and Lt.-Col. H. R. Hammell accompanied Major Cummings on the reviewing stand. The units passed the reviewing stand in close column of batteries and then close column of route. The 50th HAA regimental band under the direction of Sergeant C. Gallagher was in attendance.

Following the two march pasts, the units assembled at the east side of the parade grounds and advanced in review order for the presentation of arms. Major Cummings took the salute.

SKILLS DISPLAYED

For the next two hours various groups of the reserve forces displayed the skills acquired through military training. Under a warm May moon men went about such disciplined business as mobilizing, demobilizing, setting up and aiming an HAA gun, handling a Bren, and demonstrating wrecker techniques. Inside the armouries lectures and drills on such things as propellor shaft intricacies, and signals were carried out.

Probably the most colorful display of the evening was the band drill as it marched sharply up and down the parade ground to the accompaniment of its own bright, measured music. Major Cummings was assisted in his inspection by 2nd Lt. R. L. Strawbuden, S/Sgt. C. G. Barnhart, Sgt. L. J. Edwards and Capt. Thomas Duffield.

DEPEND ON RESERVE UNITS

Canada is growing so swiftly, said Major Cummings, that it is impossible for her to maintain a full-time army capable of adequately defending the country. The cost of developing such natural resources as the Labrador iron-ore fields, western oil, and St. Lawrence seaway, is very large, and so, we must depend to a large extent on our reserve forces.

Major Cummings felt that the Peterborough parade should be larger and suggested that each man act as a recruiting officer, and do his best to enlarge the force. He termed the inspection a "very satisfactory one", with special praise to the work of the band, and said he was honored to have made the inspection in Brig. Dunn's absence.

Ottawa Faces New Pressure To Increase Allowances For 'Burned Out' Veterans

OTTAWA (CP)—The government likely will face new demands this week for increased allowances for Canada's 40,000 "burned-out" veterans and their dependents.

Higher allowances are expected to be sought by opposition parties and representatives of the Canadian Legion at meetings of the 31-member Commons veterans affairs committee which held its organizational meeting Friday. Walter Tucker (L—Rosthern) was named chairman.

The committee was set up to give detailed study to a number of bills affecting veterans which have been introduced in Parliament by the government. However, the terms of reference do not permit members to discuss veterans legislation not specifically referred to the committee.

During debate on establishment of the committee opposition party members complained that they would be prevented from discussing allowances unless amendments were made to the War Veterans Allowance Act and sent to the committee. They also noted that Prime Minister St. Laurent indicated April 30 that the government does not plan to increase allowances this session.

MEETS WEDNESDAY

The committee will hold its first meeting Wednesday to hear general representations by the Canadian Legion. It is expected the legion will urge increases in allowances and that the committee's terms of reference be broadened to permit members to discuss all their representations, including those for higher allowances.

Opposition party members of the committee also are expected to press for a review of current allowances and a broadening of the terms of reference. Col. A. J. Brooks (PC—Royal) moved a motion in the Commons to achieve this but it was ruled out of order by Speaker Rene Beaudoin.

Under the War Veterans Allowance Act the basic allowance now is $50 a month for single veterans and $90 for married veterans. The legion and opposition members want these rates raised to $60 and $120, respectively.

Total permissible income ceilings now allowed are $720 a year for single recipients and $1,200 for married men. The government has been urged to raise these ceilings to $1,200 for single men and $2,000 for married recipients.

Existing rates were described in the Commons by opposition members as completely inadequate in the face of today's cost of living. They said the inadequacy of the rates is the most urgent veterans problem facing the country.

Planning To Publish Second Daily In Hamilton

HAMILTON (CP)—Andrew Peller, president of Pelmar Enterprises, announced Sunday night he has taken an option to buy the Hamilton Printing and Publishing Co. Ltd., and will publish a daily newspaper in Hamilton.

The publishing company owns the Hamilton News, published three times a week. The sale price was not announced. Mr. Peller said he has not decided whether his newspaper will be a morning or evening paper or when it will start daily publication.

The Hamilton Spectator, an evening paper, is the only daily newspaper now published in this city of some 300,000 residents.

Mr. Peller, former owner of the Peller Brewing Company here, said negotiations were completed Saturday. Terms of the agreement provide for the purchase from Unitype, Inc., a subsidiary of the International Typographical Union, of real estate, equipment and all shares and assets of the publishing company, including the subscription list.

SAYS CITY GROWN UP

Mr. Peller said:

"Hamilton has grown up. Its citizens desire and should have another daily newspaper. It is essential that a metropolitan area of 300,000 population should have more than one avenue of printed expression."

The News was first published in 1947, soon after the ITU called a strike at the Spectator. It was published twice weekly for 2½ years. It started publishing thrice weekly in 1950.

The plant has been under lease to the Hamilton Printing and Publishing Co. Ltd., by Unitype Inc. The ITU decided last month to publish the paper only once a week.

Franco Attacks British Rule

MADRID (Reuters)—Generalissimo Franco—using the pen name "Macaulay"—Sunday published a blistering attack on British rule in Gibraltar.

The Spanish head of state said Queen Elizabeth's visit to "the Rock" last week had sharpened Spain's feud with Britain over control of the fortress.

Writing in the Falange newspaper Arriba, "Macaulay" demanded that Gibraltar "shall no longer be the scene of the licentious recreation of the British soldiery."

Franco also alleged that Gibraltar is the centre of smuggling on Spain's south coast from which "British tax collectors in Gibraltar are getting such a satisfactory income that it covers all the local expenses."

The Queen's visit, he said, had "united Spaniards in the sad decision that Gibraltar shall not go on living at the expense of Spain."

1,000 Citizens Join In Rally To Mark 150th Anniversary British And Foreign Bible Society

"Far too many people defend the Book of the Lord, without due regard to the Lord of the Book," Dr. Emlyn Davies told nearly 1,000 citizens in the Brock Gardens Sunday night. Occasion was the 150th anniversary of the founding of the British and Foreign Bible society.

Biblical writings are "not an end in themselves but a means to an end," said Dr. Davies, scoring those who look upon the scriptures as something remote, impersonal, above criticism and as an object of worship. Scriptures "have no value at all," said Dr. Davies, "if they fail to introduce the reader to the mind of Christ and the mystery of God."

The modern Bible, Dr. Davies continued, represents a "deliberate and purposeful selection" on the part of the Christian church to "marshal the best evidence" which will enable the reader to become acquainted with Christian beliefs.

Although the Bible is the "authentic norm for building the church, and the sourcebook of all knowledge," the scriptures are not all that has been said about God and the church by prophets and martyrs, but a distillation. The Epistle of James, for example, is a relatively new addition which was attacked by some when first included.

Similarly, said Dr. Davies, many scriptural writings have found no place in the modern Bible. Among these are the epistle of Clement of Alexandria "which shows a keen penetration into the mind of Christ" and the book of Diocletian which gives a graphic picture "of the status of the Christian believer in the light of eternity."

SABOTAGE THE FAITH

A too rigid adherence to isolated items of scripture can sabot[illegible] and enervate faith, Dr. Davies continued. He cited the story of Christ and the Sadducees (as related in Luke 22:27-39) in which they were confuted by their own rigidity of thinking.

(The literalist Sadducees, doubting the Resurrection doctrine, of which no direct mention is made in the five books of Moses, wondered what would happen in the case of a woman who outlived one husband after another to a total of seven. Who would be her husband in heaven?

(Christ referred to the Sadducees' own source to show the validity of the Resurrection doctrine, since separate entries mention God as the "God of the living" and as God as the "God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob," all of whom were dead in Moses' time. Hence they yet live.

(There would be no marriage problem in heaven, for "they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage.")

This led Dr. Davies to castigate modern-day Sadducees who "prodigally waste their spiritual resources by closing their ears to the Lord of the Book . . . confusing the words of men with the word of God." The power of God, he added, cannot "be confined to the literary output of men."

A genuine knowledge and love of scriptures is, however, a vital cornerstone of faith, said the speaker. The scriptures are the "authentic means whereby we learn the mind of Christ and the mystery of God."

A knowledge of scriptures, furthermore, is more than memory work and more than an appreciation of eloquent literature. Dr. Davies recalled a Shakespearian actor who brilliantly recited the 23rd Pslam, but did not produce the same effect on his listeners as a wheezing and elderly cleric. The reason was that the "actor knew the Psalm. The minister knew the Shepherd."

The purpose of the scriptures, and the reason for their selective nature is summed up in St. John's Gospel, said Dr. Davies. The reference is to the verse which describes the purpose of the scriptures thus: "that ye may know that Christ is the son of the living God and may have life in His name."

PARABLE OF THE SOWER

A recent Examiner editorial was the theme of remarks from the Rev. H. Egerton Young, district secretary of the Upper Canada Bible society, who presided at Sunday's mass meeting. The editorial wondered how many of the Bibles sold under the aegis of the society were being read. Mr. Young recalled the parable of the sower and the seeds (Matthew 13)to suggest that some Bibles must inevitably "fall on good ground."

But only those who truly possess the scriptures can share it with others, said Mr. Young. He was referring to a type of chain-letter, which is going to 60 nations and will be signed by thousands. The letter is designed not only to solidify Christian beliefs in all lands, but imposes on each pledgee an obligation to improve his own acquaintance with the Bible. Many pledged as they left the Gardens Sunday.

This is a particularly propitious time for disseminating scriptures, said Mr. Young. He called for support for the society's current drive for funds, which will help to reduce the total of the "thousands of languages yet unreached by the society." More money will also produce more Bibles for India, which nation Mr. Young predicted would shortly be cut off from Christian missionary influence.

Greetings from the Ministerial Association were brought from the Rev. Maurice Poole, who was among a sizeable group of clergymen on the platform. Mr. Poole described the work of the Bible society as "second only to that of the church itself."

[illegible] the Rev. A. S. [illegible] man, Dr. Davies is an Oxford post-graduate in ecclesiastical history and held the chair of theology at the University of Cardiff before coming to Canada. He was also secretary of the Students' Christian Movement in Wales.

Dr. Davies came to Canada to accept a call to Toronto's Yorkminster Baptist church, largest in the country. In addition to his address at Sunday night's meeting, he spoke at both services of Park St. Baptist church Sunday. He was introduced by Mr. Roblin as a man whose forte is the "clarity of his Biblical interpretation."

Thanks and acknowledgements to various individuals who helped to make the rally a financial and numerical success were expressed by James McClenaghan of the YMCA. Mr. McClenaghan is chairman of the canvass for Bible society funds, now under way.

Assisting in the program, in addition to those mentioned, were the Rev. I. H. Pollock, the Rev. Gilbert Smith, and the Rev. F. H. Parlee, Musiacl selections were provided by the Salvation Army band under R. G. Routly and by a quartet from St. Andrew's United church, accompanied by Harry Northrop. R. F. Routly, brother of the bandmaster, led in hymn singing.

DOMINION DRAMA FESTIVAL AWARDS were made at the closing dinner of the week-long festival on Sunday. Top honors went to the Montreal Theatre group. Awards winners display their trophies and citations, left to right, Betty Mitchell, Calgary, English language play; Edna Pozer, Calgary, best festival actress; Henri Norbert, Montreal, best director; Gordon Robertson, Kingston, best actor; George M. More Seamen May Join Montreal Strike

MONTREAL (CP) — Waterfront authorities are waiting to see whether the crew of a newly-arrived coastal vessel will join 74 British seamen who are on strike for increased wages. A decision was expected today.

The strikers, from the British colliers Shelldrake, Cibou and Mont Alta, say their wages are not sufficient to cope with Canadian prices. Many of them must support families at home in Britain.

There has been no violence in the strike which began when the Shelldrake men allegedly refused to put to sea May 8, but 29 men have been arrested on charges to which they pleaded not guilty.

The Shelldrake sailed from here Saturday, manned by a crew flown from Britain and leaving 18 of her regular crew members to face charges. They will appear in court Tuesday.

McCarthy Plans Speech In Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senator Joseph McCarthy (Rep.-Wis.) said Sunday he is drafting a foreign policy speech which may be delivered on the Senate floor before he takes the witness stand—perhaps late this week—in his fight with army officials.

McCarthy would say only that he plans to discuss American policy in general but some of his friends said the speech may be the prelude to a double-barreled attack on top Republican as well as Democratic critics.

Matches Start Fire

TORONTO (CP)—A package of matches left in a fur coat was blamed by fire officials Saturday for a blaze which swept through Birkan's fur storage vault here where 5,000 fur and cloth coats were stored. Officials said less than half the coats were damaged but damage will be more than $20,000.

18th Battalion Reunion In Toronto

TORONTO (CP)—About 100 First World War veterans, many of them blind or lame, attended the 35th annual reunion of the 18th Battalion, the Western Ontario Regiment, here Sunday.

They marched into Metropolitan United church to hear Rev. F. G. Brisbin and Rev. William Surman pray for peace.

Bugles blared and drums rolled as the group then marched under police motorcycle escort to the cenotaph in front of city hall where Padre Surman pronounced the benediction.

Writer Succumbs

TORONTO (CP) — Mrs. Annie Wilson Caswell, 81, author and short story writer, died Sunday. Her stories were published in the United States and Canada. She also wrote a book, "Susan of Sandy Point."

Five Years Ago Johnny Ray Broke, Now A Big Star

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Five years ago a broke would-be actor from Dallas, Ore., petitioned a studio for a job. He was rejected. Today he's back on the same lot working in a multi-star film for a reported $100,000.

The young man's name is Johnny Ray, and he's appearing in "There's no Business Like Show Business." He, Mitzi Gaynor and Donald O'Connor play the children of a show-biz couple, Ethel Merman and Dan Dailey. Also in the cast is a girl name Marilyn DiMaggio.

"Imagine me with all those big names!" he says in amazement. "Why, when I was here in 1949 I tried to get a job. They turned me down cold, and I don't blame them. I wasn't ready for it. That's why I don't feel sorry for young kids who try to get a break nowadays. Maybe they aren't ready either."

I met Johnny at lunch, and he appeared handsomer than most of his photos make him appear. He also appeared more restrained than his professional singing would indicate, although he is given to emphatic statement, usually in bebop

He wears a hearing aid dur- ...ersation but takes it off while performing, and has some trouble in taking direction because of his hearing.

MARRIES OFF MITZI

"My only regret is that I have only one line with Marilyn Monroe," he said. "Otherwise I couldn't be happier. I play the son who abandons show business to become a priest. In the end, I marry Mitzi Gaynor to her boy friend."

Since he struck the national consciousness with his moistened ballads, Johnny has made a fortune. He has been singing throughout the United States, Canada and England ever since, never staying more than three weeks in one place. Now he is settled here for the duration of the picture and has taken a house for $550 a month. Ironically, it's the same as his total year's income five years ago.

Eight Hurt

PRINCE GEORGE, B.C. (CP)—A locomotive and four baggage cars plunged to the bottom of a 30-foot gorge Saturday after a mountain torrent ripped out a section of the Canadian National Railways right-of-way 29 miles west of here. Eight persons were injured, one critically.

RISING AGAIN

The steel frame of the new Loblaw store on George St. is being put together these days, and is beginning to take shape again.

A FISH STORY

Outdoor columnist Pete McGillen has a genuine fish story with which to regale his readers. Doing some midnight fishing at Burleigh Falls, Pete landed a pickerel weighing in at 10 pounds, two ounces. It's the largest reported in the opening stages of the pickerel season.

CATCH BIG ONES

Reports of big pickerel taking the baits thrown at them over the weekend keep pouring into the Examiner. Max Rishor hooked and landed an eight-and-a-half pounder at Burleigh Falls while Frank Vyse caught a seven-pounder off Kelly's Island, Chemong Lake.

320 ON CGE TRIP

The CGE Quarter Century Club trip to Barrie Saturday realized all the details of the planning of program for the 320 members who travelled on the special CNR train. Among the veterans of the plant were three of those now in retirement, Fred Shannon of Toronto, Robert S. Cotton and R. G. Cottrell. Ian McRae was also there from the head office.

SIDESWIPED

One minor accident, causing a total of $150 damage, was reported to provincial police over the weekend. At 7:30 p.m. Sunday two cars were in collision on the Warsaw road, three miles east of Peterborough. Drivers were William Parker, 20, 245 Woodbine Ave. and James Rusaw, 39, 644 Montrose St. Police say Parker was attempting to pass Rusaw when he sideswiped him. Constable Don Lacombe investigated.

STUDENTS VISIT OTTAWA

Grade seven class of Queen Mary School, accompanied by Mrs. H. Dunham and teacher, D. Watson, visited the Parliament Buildings in Ottawa, where they were luncheon guests of G. K. Fraser, M.P. Immediately following lunch the group viewed periods of squad drill and riding exercises at the RCMP barracks in Rockcliffe. During the remainder of the afternoon the class saw the residences of the governor general, the prime minister, the French and American Embassies, the archives building, the war museum and the National War Memorial.

Owner Grabs Outboard From Trunk

Five Toronto Youths Caught Taking Outboard Motor

While a car containing five Toronto youths was being turned around in his driveway, William J. Jones of 431 Brioux Ave. early Saturday managed to grab his stolen outboard motor out of the trunk.

He also got the licence number and OPP Constable Lyle Erskine of Cobourg took the youths into custody a couple of hours later after they had dawdled in Bewdley for a spell of pickerel fishing.

CHARGED WITH THEFT

The sequel came in magistrate's court today when the car driver, 24-year-old Robert Nicholson of 69½ O'Hara Ave., Toronto, was charged with theft. He was remanded a week on $300 bail.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones have a cottage on the Otonabee river, on the North Monaghan side of the Bensfort bridge. About 3 a.m. Saturday they were awakened by the sound of a car driving into their long driveway.

After it had been there a couple of minutes, and was apparently being turned around, Mr. Jones went outside with a flashlight to see what was up—and possibly be of assistance.

OUTBOARD MISSING

Once outside he saw that his outboard motor was missing and he ran to the car containing the five youths. As they were still unable to get straightened away, he reached into the trunk and retrieved his motor. He noted the licence number and phoned the OPP.

Later OPP Constable Erskine, who had been alerted by radio from Peterborough headquarters, noticed the car parked in Bewdley. He apprehended the youths as they came back from fishing.

OPP Constable Emmett Crough questioned two of the youths and laid a charge of theft against Nicholson.

Boys Display Gym Techniques

The annual YMCA boy's department closing gym demonstration was held Saturday evening with a capacity crowd in attendance. There were 116 participants ranging in age from 8 to 14 years and displaying gym techniques ranging from animal mimic exercises to tumbling and work on the parallel bars.

Junior leaders conducted the show and sponsored a rummage sale of goods misplaced at the "Y" during recent years. They collected a total of $14 from the sale for their club fund. Intermediate leaders, James Heffernan, Tom Krogh and Bob Whitton, performed a special show on the horse and parallel bars. Bill Davis and Fred Huffman, as clowns, spiced the junior tumbling club display with their antics.

RUSHED TO HOSPITAL—Mrs. Elwood D. Thompson of Windsor was rushed to Civic Hospital today following an accident about a half-mile south of Kendry station, 10 miles south of Peterborough. Ambulance attendants, Art Wilfong (right) and Junior Nisbett (left) along with Robertson Young of Peterborough, driver of the second car, carry Mrs. Thompson to the ambulance. The Thompson car (in background) was forced into the ditch on the slight grade, finally coming to rest after striking a culvert. —(Examiner Staff Photo)

No Complaints From Farmers About Weather

"I don't hear any complaining from farmers of this district about the weather delaying spring seeding, chiefly oats," Frank C. Paterson, agricultural representative, said today.

"The seasonal seeding job is just one side of the agricultural picture hereabouts. On the other side, and increasing in importance, is the flourishing state of the fields of fall wheat, hay and pasture.

"The conditions that have been holding up the spring work have been working wonders in the fields of forage and wheat. Milk and meat are major crops in the Peterborough area. Right now cattle are in grass about a foot high and the wheat is looking just as promising as it did a year ago."

Mr. Paterson said his comment was not to be interpreted as dismissing the spring seeding, and the place of oats in the economy of present day farming.

FASTER SEEDING

"For instance, a Smith township farmer told me this morning that he has his crop in, except eight or ten acres in a couple of wet spots. He seeded 16 acres in one day recently. Farmers are so equipped with machinery and so efficient is their operations that sowing 20 acres is not the slow and serious problem it used to be in their fathers' time, even 15 or 20 years ago."

What could be serious, Mr. Paterson said, would be frost and its effect on the tender lush forage and the winter wheat.

"Our farmers are facing the conditions that actually exist. It would be a great help if we could turn to the cash crops they have in Western Ontario, including corn and soybeans. It is a fact that fall wheat is probably our main cash crop and our people are doing a better job than ever with wheat, as was shown by the average last year and the fact that Robert Armstrong headed the province and W. W. Dawson stood fourth.

"Naturally it has been a trial of patience waiting for favorable conditions for spring seeding, but it was the moisture that did a lot to bring on the wheat and grasses while interfering with the seeding place in the program.

"There are many people who began life on the farms and then moved to the cities. Most of them are hardly aware of the changing trends in farming and how our farmers have adapted themselves to them. I think our city friends have been more worried about the seeding job than most farmers have been.

MODERN CHANGES

"We have been urging fertility of the land and the switch to long-term grass mixtures for pastures, with grass silage. We have some good seasons for that kind of farming."

One of Mr. Paterson's policies which he has been strongly advising: increase the volume; cut down the overhead; less cost per unit, whether it is 100 pounds of milk, a fat steer or bacon hog, just as they do in factory production.

Can the farm carry more beef animals? Part of the answer lies in a program to increase the production of home-grown feeds, including oats.

Finally, there is the effect of mechanization when a rush job has to be done, as with farmers during the last month, in taking quick advantage of the cultivation they could do on their lighter land, and getting that spring crop in the ground fast. Their facilities and methods are more elastic than they used to be and, as a result of that improvement, they can in a day, even the farmer working

Shriners Hold Pilgrimage In Aid Of Hospitals Fund

Said the citizen to the reporter: "Isn't your story kind of superfluous. The only people in Peterborough who don't know the Shriners are in town are in the cemeteries."

Everybody and his brother-in-law lined George St. and milled about Confederation Park Saturday, goggling at those who cavort in the playground of masonry and, in there more serious moments, underwrite the costs of 17 hospitals for crippled children. Occasion was the first Shriner's pilgrimage to Peterborough since 1925. Most of the pilgrims were members of Toronto's Rameses temple.

To the tune of no less than four bands, scores of pilgrims, many of whom did not look as if they considered marching for their favorite cup of tea, trudged from the CPR station to city hall under a bright May sun which looked as if it had been ordered especially for the occasion. It was probably the noisiest (albeit very melodic) parade in the history of this staid city.

Sidewalks were packed as the Shriners, led by a police escort, headed north. Preceded by colors of the Shrine, the Commonwealth and the United States, the Havelock pipe band led the procession. The swirling skirl of the bagpipes provided fitting mood-music for that which was to follow.

Two more bands from the Rameses temple followed, separated by Shriners wearing business suits and fezzes. One band was composed entirely of drums.

But the piece de resistance was the fourth band, than which more spectacular has ever been seen hereabouts. Fifing their fifes, clanging their cymbals, and pounding what seemed an ancient version of the tambourine, sundry gentlemen in Arab costume banged down the street. One little lad on the sidelines looked awed, then suddenly made a beeline for the protective skirts of his mother.

IMPRESSIVE LOT

The Bedouins were an impressive lot, complete with scimitars and preceded by a white-bearded bugler. Unkind souls were heard to remark that the impression of bellicosity was somewhat lessened by the facts that at least two Arabs were wearing horn-rimmed glasses, and the bearded bugler was astride not a camel but an Oldsmobile.

Trailing the scimitar-and-cymbal lads were several characters resurrected from an 1890's tintype. Lifting their voices in song, these gentlemen, clad in everything from long underwear to plus fours, were packed aboard a replica of an early vintage Yonge Street car. Most of these ancient trams were, incidentally, put out to pasture, but a few survived and are now the nucleus of Ottawa's transportation system.

All eyes turned right as the Shriners passed a reviewing stand erected in front of the city hall. Senior Shriners, including potentate Fred Midgley of Toronto, took the salute, together with Peterborough's mayor Norman Graham.

Burden of the mayor's address of welcome to the Shriners was that the "city is wide open to you, so have the best day of your life". The mayor waxed eloquent on this great city, nestled in the heart of the Kawarthas and proud owner of the world's largest liftlock. As an afterthought, the mayor suggested that his wide-open invitation be modified, and requested that the city hall be left standing.

Briefly turning to a more serious theme, Mr. Graham sketched the less publicized works of the Shriners— their aid to crippled children. He estimated that at least 250,000 children have been treated through the generosity of the Shriners at the Shrine's 17 North American hospitals. Two of these hospitals are in Canada.

The "warm welcome" given the Shriners by the mayor and the citizens of Peterborough left him "warmly touched" potentate Midgley avowed. He, too, touched on the work of the Shrine with crippled children, pointing out that maintaining the 1,000 beds in Shrine hospitals costs more than $3,000,000 annually.

Only children of parents who cannot pay are admitted to these hospitals said Mr. Midgley. The first such hospital was established 23 years ago, and all costs are underwritten by the more than 725,000 Shriners in the United States and Canada.

After the city hall ceremonies, the parade adjourned to the parade square in front of the armories. The sidtwalk audience followed them over and they were not disappointed.

At the parade square, citizens were treated to as brilliant a display of precision marching as they are likely to see for some time. Guided only by a whistle blown periodically, yellow-uniformed members of the Shrine band swiveled through a bewildering assortment of drills while the crowd cheered, clapped and chomped their popcorn.

After dinner at the Brock St. Gardens, Shriners paraded again, though with a spot less zest than they had shown in the afternoon More drills and demonstrations were later staged at the gardens.

The Rameses Temple Shriners from the local Kawartha club were joined by fellow-Shriners rfom the local kawartha club (Norman Elliott, president) and from Campbellford, Norwood, Havelock, Lindsay, Feneion Falls and Bobcaygeon.

Saturday's pilgrimage was the first since 1925. In that year Peterborough's Gus Hay was potentate, and there was a Peterborough pilgrimage. The Rameses temple unit, around which Saturday's pilgrimage was built, has been in operation since 1888.

The Shrine has been called the "playground of masonry" a phrase which won added credence when slapstick, silent-screen comedian Harold Lloyd became imperial potentate of the international Shrine.

Shriners are 32nd degree Masons or members of the Knights Templar Order.

Apart from their hospital work, Shriners are perhaps best known for their circus, which regularly tours the continent and regularly brings in a great deal of money for the hospitals. And if you're a child, chances are you can see the circus free.

Amateur Yegg Tackles Safe With Screwdriver

An apprentice safecracker flunked his test hopelessly early Sunday morning.

There it was in all its glory. A big two-ton safe in Woods Truck and Equipment Co., 465 Aylmer St. N., containing Saturday's business receipts. Surely a challenge to any up-and-coming yegg.

HOW DID HE GO ABOUT IT?

Now who do you suppose this would-be Jimmy Valentine went about his job?

Sandpapered his fingertips, maybe, for that extra-sensative touch to detect the slightest movement of the tumblers? Not him!

Prepared a special "soup" that would neatly blow off the combination or the hinges? No — not this boy!

He attacked the massive steel safe with a screwdriver. Afterwards it took the sharp eyes of the city detectives to notice a couple of scratches on the safe door. Then the abandoned screwdriver was found nearby.

It was enough to make an experienced safecracker weep. The cops laughed.

$1.50 LEFT IN TILL

The best this amateur could do was scoop up $1.50 that had been left in the till, the money from a late Saturday customer. As the safe was already locked the Woods people hadn't bothered to unlock it; they just dropped the cash in the till which (fortunately for the burglar) was left open.

This is the third recent break-in at Woods Truck and Equipment Co.; two of them have been in the last three weeks. The biggest that the burglar has made so far is a finger ring, valued principally as a keepsake.

City Auto Electric, 254 Brock St., is keeping pace with the Woods company. They too have been broken into three times in the last month. Early Sunday morning it happened again.

A few coppers were removed from the open cash register. Nothing else was taken.

At both places entry was made by forcing a rear window. As a matter of fact, at City Auto Electric all the breakin artist had to do was remove a piece of cardboard. The place had been burgled so often that the window pane still hadn't been put in from the last time.

"The glass people just haven't had a chance to catch up," quipped an employee today.

Windsor Family Given Hospital Treatment; Car Forced From Road

Driver Sought To Avoid Head-on Collision On Sweeting's Hill On Highway 28, Second Car Was Passing Truck On Hill

Three members of a Windsor family were treated in Civic Hospital at noon today for injuries they received shortly after 11 a.m. when their 1954-model car was forced off the highway on Sweeting's hill, 10 miles southwest of Peterborough.

Elwood Thompson, 36, the driver, received bruises and a stiff right knee, but no broken bones;

Mrs. Thompson, his 35-year-old wife, sustained a cut over the left eyebrow and left eyelid that bled profusely, and she also suffered shock.

Brian, their four-and-a-half-year-old son, had a small scalp cut, and their daughter, Brenda, escaped with only a shaking up.

COMING FROM OTTAWA

Thompson, who had just got his 1954 model car, was coming from Ottawa and had nearly reached the crest of the steep hill on the Port Hope highway when he was confronted by the oncoming car of Robertson Young, 279 Sherbrooke St.

Young was coming toward Peterborough and was trying to pass a truck when he and Thompson saw each other—both about the same time.

Thompson turned right to avoid a head-on collision and his car went off onto the west shoulder of the highway and along the west ditch for 187 feet before being jarred to a stop by a culvert at the entrance to Richard Hume's farm.

The impact of hitting the culvert at the edge of the built-up driveway was sufficient to bounce the car up onto the driveway. It also threw Mrs. Thompson forward against the windshield, cutting her eyelid and eyebrow.

The injured were treated by Dr. S. L. Rutledge.

SCENE OF FATAL CRASHES

Sweeting's hill is a steep grade 10 miles southwest of the city, just north of the newly-gravelled highway, No. 415. Because of the sudden dip there it has been the scene of many accidents, including several fatalities in recent years.

Young was coming from Port Hope with his wife's nephew and family, just over from Scotland. He said he saw no cars coming and turned to pass the truck. As he was abreast of it he noticed the southbound Thompson car coming up the hill. It was Thompson who made the move—turning off into the ditch.

None of the five occupants of the Young car was injured. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Young there was Robert Forrest (Mrs. Young's visiting nephew) and his wife, May, and their four-month-old daughter, Christina.

At first the Youngs thought the Thompson car had got safely by on the west shoulder but when they looked back they saw the smashup.

OPP Constables Bruce Tillson and Ernest Lunn investigated.

5 People Hurt In Mishaps On City Streets

A 73-year-old woman received a cracked shinbone and a broken wrist Saturday afternoon when struck by a car at Simcoe and Water Sts. She was one of five people injured in three city accidents during the weekend.

Mrs. Warren Boyce, 73, of 185 King St., at 3.15 p.m. Saturday was crossing from the northeast corner of Simcoe and Water Sts. when she was struck and knocked down by a southbound car driven by Everett Ferren, 41, of 236 Perry St.

Mrs. Boyce was carried from the intersection to the Peterborough Club and then taken to Civic Hospital by Nisbett's ambulance. She sustained a fractured right wrist and a cracked tibia in her right leg.

Ferren told police he was watching the heavy traffic as he went south on Water St. and didn't see Mrs. Boyce, who is believed to have started to cross the intersection diagonally, until he was only a few feet from her. He said he swerved to the right, but the left front fender of the car struck her.

PCs Eldon McDonald and Cec. Bowyer, who investigated, placed the point of impact at seven feet southwest of the manhole in the middle of the road.

Daniel Griffin, 17, of 684 Lundy's lane was arrested 9 p.m. Saturday and charged after colliding with the rear of another car on Aylmer St. south of Charlotte St.

PASSENGER IN CAR

A passenger in Griffin's car, Edward Sanders, 21, of Benson Ave., received a cut over his left eye that had to be stitched by Dr. H. G. Carleton. Nellie McCrea, 57, of RR 7, Peterborough, a passenger in the other car, sustained a bruised right shinebone.

The accident occurred after McCreary had stopped in the line of traffic on Aylmer St., waiting for the traffic light to change. Then, it is alleged, Griffin's vehicle crashed into the rear of his car.

Damage to McCreary's car was a broken rear bumper, and $80 damage, mostly to the grill, was caused to Griffin's.

Neither driver was injured in the collision nor was Mrs. McCreary, a passenger in her husband's car.

Sgt. Andre Dalton investigated.

Three cars were involved in a chain reaction accident early Sunday night on George St. that caused minor injuries to two people and a total of $365 to the vehicles.

George E. King, 20, of 266 Glenmanor Dr., Toronto, stopped in the northbound line of traffic, midway between Charlotte and King Sts. A second car, driven by 50-year-old James Welch of 140 Park St., stopped behind him. However, a third car, driven by 20-year-old Patrick Q. Cadigan of Ennismore township, crashed into the rear of Welch's vehicle, causing it to bump ahead into King's.

Mrs. James Welch, 42, a passenger in the middle car, sustained a bump on the jaw and temporary stiffness in the neck and left arm. Cadigan's forehead, left wrist and left elbow were scraped.

Damage to the front end of Cadigan's car was $275. And there was $70 to Welch's and $20 to King's.

Constable James Armstrong investigated.

FROM WHENCE HE CAME

An unidentified fisherman, resting peacefully by the Buckhorn rapids, Sunday, was shocked into life. His nature's own bait, a worm, had been dangling limply in the water for some time, when suddenly the line straightened and the reel began to whine. The ensuing battle gave the fisherman every indication that he was about to be the champion pickerel hauler of the weekend—but the expectation was short-lived. A 35-inch muskelunge was brought to heel and promptly returned to the water. "Last year it was a 17-pounder at Young's Point," he exclaimed in despair.—J. F.

Ladies' Aid Gives Farewell Party

FOWLER'S CORNERS (ENS)—An enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mrs. Stewart Mitchell, Thursday evening when her friends of Lakevale Ladies' Aid gathered to bid farewell prior to her moving to her new home in Peterborough.

The evening was spent playing cards, and singing, with Mrs. Mitchell singings solos accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Richmond.

Mrs. Bruce Scott, on behalf of the ladies, presented Mrs. Mitchell with a cup and saucer. Mrs. Mitchell thanked the ladies, inviting all to come to her new home.

Lunch was then served bringing a very pleasant evening to a close.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell and Betty will be leaving for Peterborough the later part of May.

Montreal Group Wins At Dominion Drama Festival

By PAULINE KENNEDY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

HAMILTON (CP)—After a week of eight plays from scattered parts of Canada, the Dominion Drama Festival ended Saturday on an optimistic note for the future of Canadian theatre.

Adjudicator Hugh Hunt awarded the Calvert Trophy for the best play to a French-Canadian group, La Nouvelle Equipe of Montreal, for their presentation of "Le Roi David," written by Jean Filiatrault of Montreal.

It was the second year the top award has gone to a Canadian-authored play. Last year the trophy was won by La June Scene Players of Montreal.

Speaking on the festival in general, Mr. Hunt said:

"I have never seen either in Britain or on the continent an amateur drama festival where there was more eager audience response or such a high standard of acting, production design and choice of play."

BURDEN ON LITTLE THEATRE

Mr. Hunt said Canada has no real professional theatre so the main burden of its establishment is on the Little Theatre movement. It would be through Canadian plays of the quality of "Le Roi David," that such a professional theatre could be realized.

The following awards were made at the festival:

The Henry Osborne Challenge Trophy for best male actor to Gordon Robertson of Kingston Domino Players for his Christopher in "The Playboy of Western World;"

The Nell Jefferis Challenge Trophy for the best performance by a woman to Edna Pozer of Calgary Workshop 14 for her role of Jennet in "The Lady's Not for Burning;"

Best director award to Henri Norbert for direction of "Le Roi David;"

WIN PAQUES

The Saturday Night plaque for the best supporting actor to Gilles Pelletier of La Nouvelle Equipe of Montreal for his portrayal of Ruben in the winning play;

The Saturday Night plaque for best supporting actress to Dorothy Bener of the Hamilton Players' Guild for her playing of Mrs. Danvers in "Rebecca."

The Martha Allen Challenge Trophy for the best visual presentation play in the festival was won by the Trail Little Theatre of British Columbia for the production of "For Love or Money."

The plaque for the best presentation of an English-language play aside from the Calvert winner, went to Workshop 14 of Calgary for "The Lady's Not for Burning." A similar plaque for the best French-language play, aside from the Calvert winner, went to the College of St. Boniface players for their production of "Le Malade Imaginaire."

Mr. Hunt said he made this award even though the best play was another French play because of the superior acting by Robert Trudell in the role of Argan.

BEST PRESENTATION

La Nouvelle Equipe Theatre took the Sir Barry Jackson award for best presentation of play written by a Canadian. Mr. Filiatrault was given the $100 author's award for the best play by a Canadian.

"Le Roi David," was written in classical French verse by Mr. Filiatrault, a former newspaper man, who has also written a book.

Director Henri Norbert experimented with a new acting technique in Le Roi David." Instead of using the form of the Comedie Francaise or the realism of modern drama, Mr. Norbert coached his cast in a more austere form. The actors, by voice and facial expression were able to convey action and emotion in the play.

It was because of this "daring experiment" and the quality of the Canadian-written play. Mr. Hunt, said, that he picked it for the Calvert Trophy.

Mr. Hunt criticized the Kingston Dominto group for attempting a play out of the troup's reach, but lauded the lead actor, Gordon Robertson, for holding the performance together.

Fine Cattle

LONDON (CP)—Canada took the largest number of pedigreed cattle from the United Kingdom last year of any overseas country. Of the 513 shipped to Canada, 406 were beef shorthorns.

Administration May Reject Senate Demand

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration may reject senatorial demands for information on how far its top officials went in laying the groundwork for army charges against Senator Joseph McCarthy (Rep. Wis.).

Such a rejection was forecast over the week-end by a high Republican source who declined to be quoted by name.

Army counselor John G. Adams is under instructions to produce for the Senate investigations subcommittee a written directive backing up oral instructions he said he received not to tell any more about a Jan. 21 high level administration conference.

Joseph N. Welch, special army counsel, said that he would do his best to get such an order in writing but couldn't guarantee that would be done.

Adams testified Wednesday he was directed at the conference by White House staff chief Sherman Adams to prepare a report on alleged pressure by McCarthy and his aides to get favored military treatment for a former sub-committee consultant, Pte. G. David Schine.

McCarthy and two staff aides, Roy M. Cohn and Francis P. Carr, have charged Army Secretary Robert Stevens and John Adams used Schine as a "hostage" in efforts to head off a McCarthy investigation of alleged Communists in the army.

McCarthy has repeatedly alluded to the dispute as one involving primarily John Adams and Cohn. The former's testimony that it was Sherman Adams who first suggested that he prepare a chronology of his relations with McCarthy and Cohn seemed to indicate that the White House itself had taken a hand. Spokesmen there have declined comment.

Publication in mid-March of a chronology similar to that Adams described, followed by the firing of counter-charges from the McCarthy side, led to the current televised inquiry by the sub-committee. McCarthy normally heads it, but has stepped off while the accusations are being investigated.

Boon To Camera Fans

Scientists Discover Way To Make Bad Photos Good

WASHINGTON (AP)—Scientists at the national bureau of standards, the government's central laboratory, have come up with something millions of camera fans may come to love—a device for making good pictures out of bad ones.

But it may be in demand for other things: identification of bombing targets—catching crooks—diagnosis of disease.

A bureau of standards scientist said the process is something like this:

Say you have a photo that is dim and fuzzy.

You set the negative up in the view of an electronic scanning tube, much like the picture tube of a home TV set.

This scanning tube examines the negative much more sensitively than is possible for the human eye. It discerns differences of light and shade that the eye cannot make out.

Thus, it sharpens up the picture, making lines and sharp light and shadow areas out of what the eye could see only as fuzzy areas.

It passes the sharpened image to another electronic tube, where the picture shows up like a picture in your TV set. A new photo of the sharpened image as it appears on the face of the viewing tube makes a good picture out of a bad one.

Bureau scientists estimated that such a set might be produced commercially for between $300 and $500.

Believes Liquor Sends Most Women To Jail

TORONTO (CP)—A silver-haired 59-year-old grandmother says one of the biggest jobs in dealing with women ex-convicts is "helping them back to a place of self-respect and gainful employment."

Senior Major Marjorie Woolcott of the Salvation Army is no amateur on the subject of jail and rehabilitation. She has spent many years at her work of goodwill.

"Even after the law has exacted its penalty, the jail stigma often makes job-hunting a frustrating experience," says Maj. Woolcott. She claims that work is the best method of rehabilitation.

Maj. Woolcott came from Southend-on-Sea, England, to work with her late husband, Joseph, in prisons across Canada until his death eight years ago. They spent five years working with prisoners at Guelph reformatory. Now she carries on at the Don jail and Mercer Reformatory for Women in Toronto.

BLAMES LIQUOR

Maj. Woolcott, who takes an occasional week-end off to visit her five grandchildren, was asked what makes women wind up in police court?

She replies that after 39 years' police work she is convinced liquor is responsible "for 90 per cent of all the trouble that women get into."

In her work Maj. Woolcott has caused some raising of eyebrows.

She tells of a recent Sunday afternoon when she was seen on a street-car, equipped with Bible, prayer book and an open bottle of whisky.

"No matter how incriminating this evidence may seem, there's an explanation.

"A young man was loud and boisterous. I knew he could be arrested for having the open bottle on the street-car so I asked him to sit beside me.

"He did. He gave me the bottle and quietened down.

"Then," says the uniformed grandmother, "I could hardly get home so I could pour the stuff down the drain. I'm down four-square on booze."

Beaton-Milburn Wedding

Baskets of spring flowers and pink and white carnations made a lovely setting in the Lakefield United Church Saturday afternoon for the wedding of Mary Milburn, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Elmer Milburn, of RR 4, Peterborough, to John Campbell Beaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beaton of Toronto.

The Rev. H. C. Wolfraim performed the ceremony. Mrs. T. E. Rath played the wedding music and before the bride entered the church Mrs Ray Jackman sang the "Wedding Prayer."

During the signing of the register she sang, "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a gown of chantilly lace over satin with Peter Pan collar showered with pearls.

From the Vee waistline, the floor length lace skirt, featured a redingote effect with lace scallops revealing a finely pleated tulle dress beneath and falling off to a chapel train. A Juliet cap held her finger tip veil of nylon net and she carried a spray bouquet of white gardenias and stephonotis.

Miss Barbara Sudden of Toronto was maid of honor and Mrs. Donald J. Milburn was bridesmaid. Little Janice Harrison made a charming flower girl. The attendants were in bouffant gowns of Windsor rose, inredescent taffeta styled with deep cut necklines back and front, tiny cap sleeves, and gathered skirts over stiffened crinolines. They wore white nylon gloves and headdresses with flower trim and each carried a cascade of pink and white carnations, blue sweet peas and stephonotis. The flower girl, also in rose taffeta with bouffant gathered skirt, wore a band of flowers in her hair and carried a nosegay of pink and blue sweet peas.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Douglas Beaton and ushers were Tom Milburn, brother of the bride, Hugh McElroy Paul Stone and Ross McIntyre.

The reception was held at the Kawartha Golf and Country Club. The bride's mother received in a gown of lattice blue crepe with lace panels in the skirt, white picture hat and white accessories and wore a corsage of sweetheart roses. The grooms mother received in a gown of copper tan, pure silk, wearing matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Music during the reception was by pianist, Mrs. Elizabeth Telford and violinist Mrs. Kevin Leahy.

For a wedding trip to New York and Washington the bride donned a navy faille coat dress navy hat, shoes and hand bag, a dusty pink, cashmere coat and her going-away corsage was of white gardenias.

Following their return they will live at 1 Cheritan Avenue, Toronto.

The bride is a graduate of Macdonald Institute Guelph and the groom a graduate of O. A. C., Guelph.

Some New Ideas Offered On Kind of Showers To Give

Hostesses often prefer to give miscellaneous showers for brides, feeling that each guest is entitled to exercise her own taste in the selection of a gift for which she pays. Such showers are acceptable, of course, and many useful gifts are provided. However, the diversity of articles detracts somewhat from their value.

No matter what good intentions motivate a miscellaneous shower, the result is apt to be a collection of mismatched items—towels in warring colors, cups that have nothing in common with plates, kitchen utensils of various makes. And certainly, duplications are inevitable.

A better idea is to concentrate on one department of housekeeping, as this will put the bride farther ahead in her home furnishing.

A specialized party is easier for the hostess, too, because entertainment decorations and food can be planned around a single theme. The party will have a certain unity that a miscellaneous shower lacks, and guests will leave with a feeling that something definite has been accomplished for the new household.

The kitchen shower is popular, because there is such a variety of things to choose from, and so many things are needed to establish a working kitchen. The complete outfitting of a kitchen is a very expensive undertaking, too, and because of this, the hostess who gives a kitchen shower is responsible for a very real contribution.

TRY THIS

Why not have a pots-and-pans shower? Find out in advance what kind of utensils the bride prefers and in planning this type of shower keep in mind that a double boiler, three sizes of frying pans, with one large kettle suitable for soups and stews, and two or three sauce pans will suffice for top-of-the-stove cooking needs.

For baking, three layer pans with the device that loosens the bottoms of cakes are desirable, along with one large square loaf pan, two oblong pans, an angel-food pan, a few bread tins, two cookie sheets and two or three pie tins. Cookie sheets with rims are best as they can double as trays.

You may not be able to invite a sufficient number of guests to supply all the pots and pans mentioned above, but if you have made a list of these basic needs, it will mean that only really useful things will be presented and eliminate those odd pieces that are so apt to pop up at showers.

Another idea for a successful kitchen shower is for the guests to club together to buy one large appliance, one that will keep her remembering these kind friends for many years to come.

You might also give a kitchen supply shower, if there have been many showers and pocket books a waxing a bit lean. Permit only such economical offerings as soaps, cleansers, pot cleaners, soap chips, bleach, starch, furniture wax and silver cleaner. They will really help the bride's housekeeping budget get on its feet.

INCLUDE GARMENTS

No household ever has enough towels. The towel shower is always a success because such items are so completely useful and because towels make such a beautiful array when unwrapped.

This shower could include a beach stole for the bride. Simply buy two yards of good quality terry cloth. Hem the sides and add two rows of bedspread fringe to each end. It will add a glamorous note to her trousseau.

If someone in the group sews well, a terry robe or beach coat could be made without too much trouble and terry cloth scuffs can be purchased to match. A clever note, provided you have a real seamstress in your group, would be to make matching beach robes for bride and groom. In any case, at your towel shower, why not include a terry shirt for the groom?

WHAT ABOUT BOXES?

It's amazing how many different kinds of boxes are used in a home. You could give a box shower and serve a box supper.

Stamp boxes, recipe boxes, hose boxes, pencil boxes, cigarette boxes, powder boxes, hat boxes, tool boxes, lunch boxes, glove boxes, bread boxes, plastic boxes for refrigerator use, spool boxes, cannister sets, blanket boxes, window boxes, handkerchief boxes, cake boxes, sewing boxes, strong boxes—any or all of them would find a place in the new home.

Plastic has become such an important household item that an entire shower could be devoted to it. Whole sets of dishes in plastic may be bought if guests care to go in together. Baskets filled with picnic cutlery and dishes are also useful.

An attractive shower that solves once and for all that clothes closet problem features articles for storing wearing apparel. But check on the bride's color preferences first.

Gifts could include hat boxes, garment bags of all sizes, shoe racks, shoe bags, space-saving hangers for blouses and skirts, padded hangers with sachets, belt and glove racks, plastic laundry hamper with a zipper in the bottom, shoulder covers for garments, sweater boxes and gloves boxes. And why not remember the groom with a tie rack, trouser hangers, broad-shouldered coat hangers or metal hat holders to fit on a door?

SURE TO THRILL

A scent shower is one to thrill every bride. Ask the guests to bring sachets, soap, bath powder, bath salts, pretty puffs, perfume or cologne.

You could also have a shower at which the bride's pet hobbies were featured. Or you might decide to have a glassware shower. Linen showers are often given, and in these cases guests often go together to buy a lace or damask tablecloth.

Any one of the showers mentioned will prove of practical value. These ideas will start you thinking, and you will perhaps develop an entirely new and original one.

A book just published this month, entitled "Shower for All Occasions," has these and other suggestions, and includes correlated ideas covering food, decorations and entertainment.

Business Girls Of PG & CC Start Season

The weatherman had the Business Girls of the Peterborough Golf and Country Club somewhat disturbed for a short time on Sunday when a large number of girls turned out for the golf opening. The girls started their two-ball foursome in spite of threatening showers but before they had gone far sunshine was smiling down upon them.

After nine holes of golf a putting competition was held for the BG's who had helped with painting the furniture in the clubhouse.

After golfing, the girls enjoyed a turkey dinner. Miss Esther Might, captain of the BG's, presided at the head table. With her were other members of the executive, as well as Mrs. O. M. Steer, president of the ladies' section and Mrs. O. B. Westbrook, "godmother" of the BG's.

The table was lovely with a floral arrangement of roses donated by Mrs. S. J. Williamson.

Miss Might welcomed the golfers, extending a special word of welcome to new members. Mrs. Westbrook spoke and entertained with stories. Mrs. Steer extended wishes for a succesful year and thanks for helping with the painting of chairs. Miss Marie Battle read the secretary's report and the treasurer's was read by Miss Anne Crowley.

The point system that is to be adopted in the 9-hole section this year was explained by the captain.

Mrs. Steer assisted with the presentation of prizes. A birthday prize for which only new players were eligible was donated by Mrs. Steer and won by Miss Evelyn Wagester.

Low gross was won by Misses Betty Goldie and Doris Savigny; second low gross by Eleanor Whittaker and Eleanor Collins; least number of putts by Betty Castle and Georgie Hardill; concealed hole (prize donated by Mrs. Joe Watson) by Vivian Sullivan and Flinda Simmons.

Most honest golfers were Jean McManus and Anne Crowley. Mrs. C. G. Graham's prize, for which only girls who helped with painting could compete, was won by Miss Isabel Bullock.

A special prize, donated by John Lavictoire, was won by Miss Dorothy Langley.

Alf Hill (club pro) spoke on the "Game of Golf" under the headings of "Etiquette of Golf" and "Rules of the Game." He asked the girls to make use of the facilities of the Pro Shop and at all times to feel free to go in and ask questions. He is again having group lessons on Thursday nights.

Business Girls will meet each Tuesday night and are looking forward to a successful season of golfing and fellowship.

Parental Duties

A convention which has caused much unhappiness and has resulted many times in awkwardness is following the engagement should the bride's parents call on the groom's parents, or vice-versa?

The proper thing to do is after the engagement of the bridegroom-to-be and his family should go at once to call on the bride-elect's parents.

In some cases the parents of the young couple live in separate cities and it is not possible to make personal calls. Letters should then be exchanged.

Vows She's In Love With Married Teacher

DEAR MISS DIX: My English teacher is a married man of 27, but I've been in love with him for three years. Of course he knew nothing about it, until a friend of mine told him. He has always ignored me, and continues to do so. When he first came to our high school and I fell in love with him, I though it might be puppy love, but I know now that there will never be anyone else for me. I'd be happy if he just said "Good morning" to me, but even though we ride to school on the same bus, he never speaks to me. If I could just discuss my problem with him, I know I'd feel better. Can you suggest any way in which I can make him understand?—D. S.

ANSWER: The young man understands only too well, and from past experience is handling the situation quite adequately. No good-looking male teacher ever held a job in a co-ed school without becoming the object of tender affection. Schoolgirl crushes are old hat to these men, and I can assure you they are usually more annoying than flattering. To be successful at the job, a teacher must absorb a good deal more than book learning; knowing how to dodge unpleasant complications that can grow from girlish adoration is a major requirement.

You claim that if your particular crush talked to you, you'd feel better. You wouldn't! You'd want one word to lead to another, until you forced a date. A little attention from him, and you'd quite forget all the principles you've ever learned about leaving other women's property alone. No girl, familiarity beyond the bounds of the classroom is not for you.

WASTING TIME

While you waste your time mooning over an unobtainable male, the boys and girls in your class are having themselves a fine time dating, dancing, partying and planning for a pleasant summer. Better join the activities before you find that high-school social life has completely passed you by, cheating you of one of the happiest periods of your life. If you want to hero-worship, better join a Perry Como or Eddie Fisher club; the emotional involvement will be much less detrimental. I'm sure your poor teacher is considerably embarrassed by your avowed-by-proxy love, and will be greatly relieved if the same proxy could carry the news of your recovery.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: I have just graduated from high school and expect to be married in September. My problem is the girls who flirt with my fiance. They literally push themselves at Gene. He tells me the way they act when I'm not around, and then assures me there is nothing to worry about. What can I do about these "female wolves?"—JAN.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: It's quite possible that your fiance is somewhat exaggerating the effect of his charms upon other young ladies; perhaps he wants you to believe he's so irresistible that you overlook other (more obvious) faults in him. It's extremely doubtful if girls would pay him so much attention unless he gave some encouragement.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: My husband has been shipped to Japan and, shortly after his arrival there, he wrote and asked for a divorce. We have been married just a year and I'm staying with his parents. They are very nice to me, and are quite upset over the divorce suggestion. I haven't answered his letter yet, since I really don't know what to do.—FAITH B.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Refuse the divorce until he comes home. In the meantime, write as often as possible, keep your letters affectionate, with ample assurances of your loyalty and plans for the future. Have his family write in the same vein, in a general effort to alleviate the homesickness and loneliness that besets many servicemen. He needs every bit of morale-building you can possibly send.

Young Quebec Woman Best French Language Poet

By RICHARD DAIGNAULT
Canadian Press Staff Writer

QUEBEC (CP)—A virtually unknown young Quebec woman who writes verse with a verbal scalpel is termed by one of France's top critics "a great contemporary French-language poet."

Andre Rousseaux, literary critic of Le Figaro in Paris startled a meeting of the Canadian Women's Club here with adjectives like "extraordinary" and "very great" for the verse of Anne Hebert of Quebec.

Miss Hebert, a tall, black-haired woman who works for the National Film Board, was so little known generally that a Paris preview "Esprit" last year published some of her manuscript poems in the belief she lived in France.

Mr. Rousseaux said he was amazed when he read Miss Hebert's poems in a book given him by a friend. He described "Le Tombeau des Rois"—Tomb of the Kings—as "assuredly a very great poem."

HAS BIG SALE

That poem is the title of a 73-page volume which publisher Paul Michaud of Quebec says has sold 1,000 copies, "a probable record for a local book of poetry."

"Le Tombeau des Rois," a cold-blooded dissection of the human psyche where feelings are born, live and die, has been described as poetry written "living in the desert of one's own mind and daring to live there."

Miss Hebert, whose work is full of word clashes—"hands melted like water", "love changed into salt", "fingers of sand and flowered palms"—was reared in a distinguished Quebec family where poetry always held a special place.

Her father, Maurice Hebert has written poetry and a cousin, the late St. Denys Garneau, was one of Quebec's better-known poets.

Of delicate health, she left school early and spent summers in Ste. Catherine de Portneuf, a softly rolling rural district where an ancient family manor still stands.

Her first book of verse drew limited attention. Last year, after a 10-year lapse, she showed her heavily pencilled manuscripts to novelist Roger Lemelin and literary friends who urged and arranged publication.

An intimate friend says Miss Hebert writes poetry as a jeweller cuts stone, slowly, carefully and persistently.

KIDNEY ACIDS Rob your Rest..

Many people never seem to get a good night's rest. They turn and toss—blame it on 'nerves'—when it may be their kidneys. Healthy kidneys filter poisons and excess acids from the blood. If they fail and impurities stay in the system—disturbed rest often follows. If you don't rest well get and use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's help the kidneys so that you can rest better—and feel better. 136

MARY MOORE SAYS:

Fooled By A Bargain In Steaks

I was taken in. Was I ever chagrined. And me old enough to know better.

Quite blithely I sashayed into a store where red brand steaks (only 4 to a customer) were advertised at 49c per lb. I asked the butcher to cut me two, each 1¼ inches thick. They cost $2.69. My sisters being steak fiends I took one to their house, stuck it in the freezer compartment and chilled my own at home for future reference.

Future reference time arrived two days later when Pete's buddy Thorny turnd up at the door at 5:15 p.m. He is graduating next week and just about to leave our part of the country to go home to Sault Ste. Marie. He had come to say good-bye, but missed Pete because he is still writing his exams.

I figured I needed four heavy eaters to make the serving of that nearly 3-lb. steak worthwhile, and I had that many what with my precious Marianne and Herbie due any minute.

So I let the steak warm to room temperature, then put it under the broiler at 500 deg. Fahr. These boys like their steaks well done, so when it reached that stage the potatoes were mashed, the asparagus was tender, the salad was tossed, the fruit was cupped, the cheese and crackers ready, the coffee dripping, and the table set. (Everybody shared the work automatically for I had not left my desk until I heard Thorny's knock.)

Thinking I had their favorite meal I happily set to carve the steak—but the plaguey thing was tough! To their credit my polite young people chomped through it smilingly, but my smile was a fake.

I suppose what I had bought was sliced from fresh - killed unhung beef—and me supposed to be a trained meat buyer!

I then phoned my sisters warning them to use that meat tenderizing stuff on theirs before passing it off on guests.

QUESTION: Would you please tell me if the "Reducers' Dressing" you described in the paper will sour quickly? M. E. C.

ANSWER: No, if it is kept covered and refrigerated.

QUESTION: Would you please give me a recipe for pineapple (or preserves) ... Mary.

ANSWER: Hello Mary. I am glad you asked for this at this time.

PINEAPPLE PRESERVES

Pare fresh pineapple, remove eyes and cut fruit into small pieces or cubes and measure 4 cups. Cook it in 4 cups water in covered pan until tender. Add 4 cups sugar and cook until fruit is clear and syrup has thickened somewhat. Heat must be low. Pour into sterile jars and seal with sterile tops.

One of my favorites is

PINEAPPLE AND STRAWBERRY JAM

Pare and remove eyes from one medium-sized fully ripe pineapple and put through medium blade of food chopper, being sure to catch the juice. Mash - generous quart fully ripened choice strawberries, which have been washed and hulls—mashing until all berries are reduced to pulp. Combine fruits—there should be 3½ cups—if you have more do not add it. Put mixed fruits in large saucepan and add exactly 6½ cups granulated sugar, mix well and bring to a full rolling boil over high heat, stirring constantly. Boil hard 3 minutes. Remove from heat and stir in 4 oz (½ bottle) liquid pectin, stirring and skimming by turns for 4 minutes, to prevent floating of fruit. Pour into sterile jelly glasses, filling to within ½-inch of top. Cover at once with fresh hot paraffin, adding second coating when cold. Cover with paper covers. Makes 9 6-oz. glasses.

McKEE HARVESTING SYSTEMS

Why not call on our Field Men to help you plan a Harvesting System for your Farm? We have the experience to assure guaranteed results. Our systems apply to every crop, Grass, silage, hay, grain threshing, and seed harvest. Use McKee Harvester to pick up swathed grain and haul it to your threshing machine. We manufacture special conveyors to elevate it into your thresher. Remember, ONE 25 H.P. Tractor, ONE McKee Harvester and Wagon, and ONE Man can bring in enough grain to keep a threshing machine running continuously. Two Men can do the job which formerly required 7 or 8.

HAVE YOU ORDERED YOUR McKEE HARVESTER?

Did you ever rise early on a quiet June morning to slip off to your favourite fishing spot only to find some one has been there before you? Rather frustrating, isn't it? The man that telephones up in June and expects to get a McKee Harvester could find himself in the same dilemma. Let's face it! We have about 25 in stock, but a carload is scheduled for Kelowna, B.C. Plus a carload for Regina, Sask. We prefer to do business with Ontario farmers, but we certainly can't maintain a manufacturing plant on last minute orders.

Buy direct from the Company or Factory Salesmen.

Police Matron Addresses Havelock CGIT

HAVELOCK (ENS) — "When choosing a life partner, do not be in a rush. Give marriage serious thought; choose a boy interested in church, for you cannot do without God and Christianity in your homes."

his was the advice given by Mrs. M. Shadgett, police matron, of Peterborough, in her address to the Havelock CGIT at their mother and daughter banquet in the Sunday school auditorium of Havelock United church.

"Have a good time,," continued Mrs. Shadgett, "for what suits you at 18 will not suit you at 22 and what suits you at 22 will not suit you at 25. Mrs. Shadgett said she took her position as police matron not for the sake of the job but because it appealed to her as a means of doing some good for people, especially young girls. Her parents were Salvation Army officers; her mother had been the first police matron in Kingston and had also served for a time in Peterborough.

LOVES WORK

Although on 24-hour call, Mrs. Shadgett said she loved her work; it was no hardship. Sometimes it was very encouraging and other times very discouraging. In many of the experiences she related, drinking was the cause and involved mothers of small children as well as girls of 14 years.

"If you girls have good Christian homes, appreciate them and thank God for them," she said. Mrs. Shadgett also admonished the girls to take the advice of their mothers.

"Often you may feel a little rebellious but nevertheless thank God for your mother," she said. It was not very often you found a person who attends church getting into trouble.

She also described how the mentally ill people are looked after in her department. She advised mothers to make companions of their daughters and make them feel that they can come to their mother with all their problems.

PROGRAM

Mrs. Shadgett was introduced by Mrs. R. G. Newman, leader of the CGIT. A vote of thanks was extended by president Doris Newman, who presided.

The toast to the Queen was given by Shirley Jewell. The toast to the mothers was proposed by Jo-Ann Kennedy and replied to by Mrs. Bert Jewell. Ann Hubble gave the toast to the CGIT. Jean Kennedy, assistant leader, proposed the toast to the church, to which the Rev. R. G. Newman replied.

The girls presented the CGIT purpose and song, followed by a vocal solo by Shirley Jewell, with the Rev. R. G. Newman accompanist.

A chorus was sung by the girls, with Mrs. Newman at the piano. Taking solo parts were Jo-Ann Kennedy, Ann Hubbel, Doris Newman and Shirley Jewell.

The banquet opened the event. The girls carried out a decoration scheme in pink, yellow and pale green, under the direction of Miss E. Clarke. Cut-out cardboard dolls, painted with various colored dresses, with gum drops as a base, made attractive place cards.

THERE'LL BE NO EXCUSE for a leaking faucet or a bare table where these young students are concerned. They are entrance class pupils at Queen Alexandra public school down to Central school for their special manual and domestic training classes. The odd thing is that the boys learn to cook and the girls learn to hammer and saw; all part of a program designed to aid domestic efficiency. Judy Perks, Ellen Curtis and Dianne McNamee (top left) show how not to operate a power saw. Instructor Cookson Munro insists that only one person at a time operate the saw. Cook, Peter Wood, and waiter, Allen Madigan share a private joke as they prepare to serve cheese snacks to their guests (top right). The art of apron sewing doesn't seem too difficult judging from the smiles sprouting on the faces of Ted Cooney and Jerry Levine (lower left) while Carole Hollingsworth and Mary Jane Simmers (lower right) keep speculative eyes on Barbara Sullivan's plane work.—(Examiner Staff Photos).

Boys Take Domestic Science Lessons Girls Have a Turn at Manual Training

By JACK FINN

"Look, dear, you get the dinner and finish that mending in the corner. I'll sharpen this knife for you and then get at the wiring in the cellar," said the bride.

"Want the potatoes scalloped or shall I make a salad?" queried the husband.

Domestic conversation similar to this may just possibly occur within a few years although the course was not designed for such an extremity. For the past three weeks public school students in the eigth grade have been learning the traditional trades of the opposite sex; boys are cooking, mending and serving, girls are sawing, planing and nailing together.

STARTED 4 YEARS AGO

This policy is not new in Peterborough; it originated here four years ago at the industrial arts department at Central school, the product of an idea conceived by instructor Cookson Munro and authorized by the board of education.

Entrance class pupils from Queen Alexandra, Queen Mary, King George and Central schools gather at the Central school workshop for five two-hour weekly sessions in the spring of the year. There are 91 boys this year learning the practical arts of cooking, mending, sewing and serving, under the direction of domestic science teacher Mrs. Mary Ann Scott. At the same time, Cookson Munro is instructing 96 young ladies in such things as practical wiring and knife - sharpening. There is a total of six classes in attendance this year, two from Queen Alexandra and Central, and one from the remaining schools.

This is the third year such classes have been held. Last year Mr. Munro's health prevented him from teaching the special courses. The initial classes were held in 1951 and a number of other cities took up the program the next year.

"The course is designed to give young men and women some practical knowledge which will enable them to carry out simple domestic chores," said Mr. Munro.

PRACTICAL LESSONS

The pupils are not only learning things of practical value, but they are having a good deal of fun in the bargain. The girls have each completed a small wicker basket and are presently constructing a decorative trellis. In so doing, they make use of power tools as well as the hand plane and saw. The most important factor is that they learn to use the tools correctly and safely.

As for the boys, they eat the food they prepare and it is consequently of high quality. A few of them are exceptionally lucky. They are chosen as host and guests; sit at a decorated table and are waited upon hand and foot. Others are kept busy making aprons, towels and even rifle cases.

And so when these youngsters take on a few more years they should not utter cries such as: "Nelly, will you press my blue trousers," or, "You'll just have to do something about that faucet, Harry, it's driving me crazy." Whether they practice them or not, they will understand some of the mysteries of domesticity.

14 Teachers Resign At Blenheim

TORONTO (CP) — Resignation of the 14-member teaching staff and "pink" listing of Blenheim district high school was announced Sunday by the Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation.

The federationa said action against the school, 15 miles southeast of Chatham, was taken in protest against delaying tactics by the Blenheim school board in dealing with requests for salary adjustments and an increase in maximen allowable pay.

They said the "pink" listing means all federation members have been advised not to accept employment at the school until the dispute is settled. The staff resignations are effective at the end of the school term.

The teachers want an increase in maximum salaries to $5,000-5,200 from $4,600-4,800. The request would not mean an across-the-board increase. Only two or three teachers would be affected at the present time by such changes.

At Blenheim, M. K. Jackson, chairman of Blenheim district high school board, said Sunday night the board has not officially accepted the resignation of its 14-member teaching staff. He expressed hope a solution can be reached on the salary dispute when the board meets Tuesday.

Blind March On Rome

ORVIETO, Italy (AP)—A ragged column of blind people shuffled down the road from this hilltop city in Umbria today, soaked by rain but vowing to complete their 250-mile march to Rome. Prime Minister Opens New Hospital

STE. FOY, Que. (CP) — Prime Minister St. Laurent said Sunday the "courageous attitude of a world free, united and ready to defend itself has sown the seeds of doubt in the minds of those who might entertain aggressive designs."

He spoke at the official opening of a $6,000,000, 325-bed veterans hospital here, five miles from Quebec City. Welcomed by 10 veteran-patients in wheelchairs, he turned at one point to a group of children and said:

"I hope you will never have to come here as veterans."

The prime minister stressed that Canada always stands ready to negotiate differences with any country. But he made an apparent reference to current East-West deadlocks over Korea and Indo-China when he recalled that the Pope had said in 1948:

"There are goods which are of such importance to society that it is perfectly lawful to defend them against unjust aggression."

"The defence is even an obligation for the nations as a whole who have a duty not to abandon a nation that is attacked."

Mr. St. Laurent said the new hospital is one of the best-equipped in Canada, reflecting "our feeling that we cannot do too much for the men and women who were wounded or lost their health as a result of service in our armed forces.

AVOID REPETITION

"And as we remember them and the things for which they fought, we must renew our resolve to seek in every honorable way to avoid any repetition of what we have experienced twice already in this century."

Mr. St. Laurent said that despite many recurring "new incidents" created by despotic leaders, Canada still believes negotiated peace is possible.

"It is difficult to understand the attitude of those who," by their acts of injustice and their despotism, run the risk of bringing on a new world war, when the heavy losses and effects of defeat which the instigators of the last two world wars have brought on themselves are still apparent."

New Strawberries Louisiana Variety

New crop strawberries are coming from Louisiana, and Earl McIlwain of National Grocers, agrees that there still may be the odd quart from the deep freeze. New potatoes have been arriving from California, and before the week is out there should be some from Alabama.

The southern product is likely to be firm as a result of the reduction in potato acreage in that state, 22,000 acres last year against 12,000 this season.

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—The Control Yuan, Nationalist China's highest watchdog body, has instituted impeachment proceedings against 57-year-old Lin Pin, minister of justice since 1950. Charges against him include: violating regulations governing courts and jails; ordering subordinates to employ certain of his relatives; protecting a district court official accused of embezzlement; and delaying the handling of a case of bankruptcy.

Police Identify Woman Slain In Montreal

MONTREAL (CP) — A grey-haired woman, whose cruelly mutilated body was found Friday sprawled in a pool of blood in a disused foundation pit, was identified by police during the weekend as Mrs. Emile Rousseau of no fixed address.

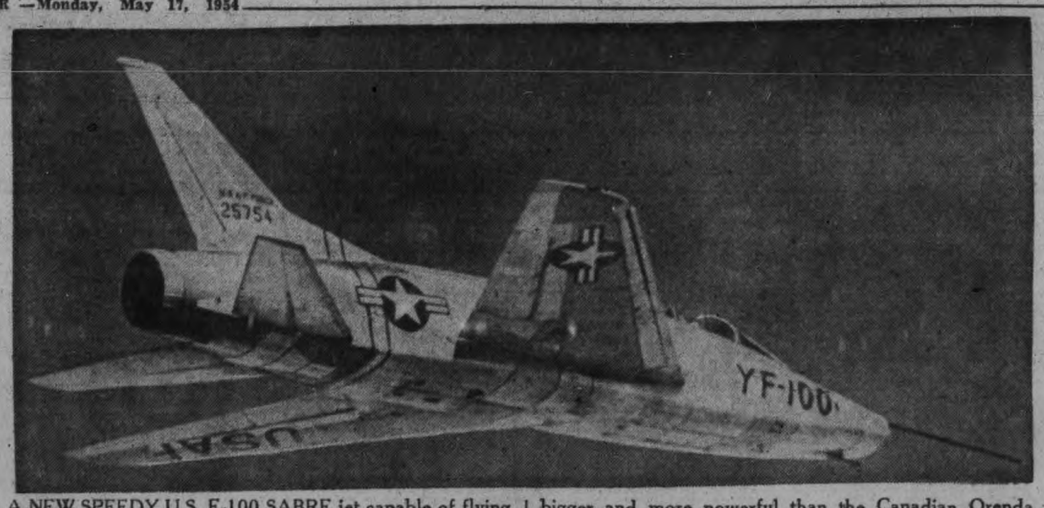
Police said 51-year-old Leo Poitras of St. Lin, Que., held as a material witness in the razor slaying of the middle-aged widow, told them he met the woman in Viger square early Friday and could remember nothing more until he was found beside the body in an east end field off Notre Dame St. He said he came to Montreal Thursday.

The woman, between 40 and 50 years old, had been slashed about the face. Her throat had been cut with a razor and her lower lip sliced from her mouth.

BLAME SEX MANIAC

Assistant Inspector Henry Bond of the homicide squad termed the killing the work of a sex maniac and said the victim had been bitten on the wrist and upper thigh. There was evidence of perverted sex acts.

When two 10-year-old boys came on the body it was lying face down in the six-foot pit. Three empty wine bottles and a sandwich littered the pit and Poitras was stretched out in what police described as an alcoholic stupor. The woman wore a wedding ring and a signet ring.



A NEW SPEEDY U.S. F-100 SABRE jet capable of flying about 1,000 m.p.h. eventually may replace the F-86 as the front line fighter for the RCAF. The supersonic Sabre is bigger and more powerful than the Canadian Orenda jet engine that is being installed in the F-86. However, should the RCAF decide to adopt the F-100 a Super-Orenda engine may be developed for the craft.

Pope Fears Science Bringing Ruin Of World

VATICAN CITY (Reuters)—The Pope said Sunday "the brilliant conquests of science and technology" are carrying the world towards "desolation and ruin."

He was broadcasting to the Roman Catholics of Switzerland, gathered in a congress at Fribourg.

The 78-year-old pontiff, still convalescing from a grave illness, made three separate speeches—in French, German and Italian, the official languages of Switzerland.

The theme of all three was the danger of materialism and its inability to control the products of modern science. Though he did not mention them, the Pope was understood to be referring to nuclear weapons.

He called on Catholics to fight materialism "by your prayers, your love for Christ, your struggle against sin and for the purity of the soul, by all these supreme values of the religious life and by that which is the fruit of it your public engagement in the cause of God, of Christ and of His Church."

Crowd Enjoys Choir Of 700

KITCHENER (CP)—A crowd of more than 6,000 was impressed by the singing of a male choir of more than 700 voices here Saturday night.

Seventeen choral groups, seven from Ontario and 10 from the United States, joined voices in the annual Big Sing presented by the Ontario district of the Associated Male Choruses of America.

Luman Bliss of Midland, Mich., association president, said the crowd was the largest paid audience the AMCA has had at a mass choir concert in North America.

The event was sponsored here by the Kitchener - Waterloo Y's men's Club. The choirs donated their time, talent and expenses. Profits from the production will be given to a fund for YMCA youth activities.

Choirs participating included the Cockshutt Choir, Brantford.

Efficient Chamber Requires $40,000

Any city should have a chamber of commerce budget of between 50 cents and $2 per capita, local secretary - manager James M. Fraser said today. This would mean a budget in Peterborough of about $40,000, instead of the present $17,000 budget "under which we're starving to death."

The larger the city, the lower would be the cost per person, said Mr. Fraser. Since Peterborough is a middle-sized, city, he estimated a dollar per person would be the ideal amount of working capital. Lindsay, on the other hand, would need about two dollars a head while Toronto could operate on a 50 cents per capita basis.

Whatever the size of a city, from one to two per cent of its population should be members of the commerce, Mr. Fraser continued. Present membership of 400 in Peterborough is, thus, a minimum and should go as high as 600 or 800.

Fire Threatens Village

MURRAY RIVER, P.E.I. (CP)—Fire which started from an exploding oil stove in a restaurant destroyed seven buildings on the south side of this resort village Sunday and the loss was estimated at $70,000. The blaze threatened the entire village of 1,000 persons at its height. Firemen from Charlottetown, 43 miles from here, and neighboring Montague battled the fire to a standstill after four hours.

Indian Government's Ban Curbs Trade In Monkeys

By O. M. GREEN

LONDON (OFNS) — Dealers in Calcutta, and farmers in many parts of India, are disturbed lest a thriving business in the export of monkeys is harmed by a Government decision.

From Calcutat—the chief, though not the only, export centre—twenty thousand monkeys are shipped annually, chiefly to the United States for medical experiments. This Calcutta trade brings in about three hundred thousand dollars a year, and dealers say it could be made worth a million dollars. But this year the Indian Government has declared a close season of five months, from April 1 to August 31, and banned the trapping or export of monkeys in that period.

Sharp opposition has been aroused, not only from the dealers but from the provincial governments, which complain that their agricultural programs are ruined by the ravages of the monkeys. The federal government's case is that it is seeking to preserve the country's fauna, and that it is only a matter of common humanity to safeguard monkeys in the months when young families might be left to starve through the snaring of their parents.

ONCE FOUND IN EUROPE

Hundreds of species of monkeys, apes and baboons flourish in Asia, Africa and tropical America. Once they were found in Europe, where their last stronghold is now Gibraltar. But of all the varieties, the Macaques, which thrive from India to Japan, are by far the best known—hardy, long-lived in captivity and recklessly prolific.

In Calcutta the public treat them as pets. People go to Casuarina avenue, which is rich in monkeys, to feed them; as in London people gather to feed the pigeons in Trafalgars Square, or in Rome at the great piazza in front of St. Peter's.

But it cannot be denied that the monkeys are a nuisance. In the days of the British Raj, they so infested government house and gardens in Calcutta that they had to be hunted down before order was restored. Since then, however, they have returned as plentifully as ever.

20 MILLION MONKEYS

A recent report from India estimates there are at least twenty million monkeys in the United Provinces (now Uttar Pradesh) and that they annually devour or spoil $50 million worth of food.

Other provinces which suffer badly are Bihar, Orissa and Madhya Pradesh. Orissa, the report says, is offering one rupee (20 cents) for every monkey's tail brought in.

The dealers see the other side of the picture. They point out that apart from government decisions, the weather brings its own close season: in the cold months, far fewer monkeys can be exported. In December and January, it is said, shipmasters will not take them at all. In the Government-imposed close season, monkeys certified for medical work may be exported by air; but this costs an extra twenty-five rupees per monkey.

NEARER HOME

One might ask why American doctors do not go nearer home for their subjects. South America swarms with monkeys of all sorts — the Dorocoulis, with its huge eyes, the only nocturnal monkey known, which lies hidden all day, and comes out only to feed at night; the howling monkey with its amazing roar, which can be heard for several miles; the dainty Capuchin, with its highly developed brain, more intelligent than any except the great anthropoid apes, gorillas, chimpanzees and orangutans.

Presumably the monkeys of India are more easily trapped. In default of them during the close season, it is said that America is importing three thousand to four thousand monkeys a month from Manila, in the Philippines. This is a sobering thought for the dealers of Calcutta, not to mention the farmers of Uttar Pradesh, Bihar, Orissa and Madhya Pradesh.

Mortals, Immortals Lesson Sermon Subject

That man can gain health, happiness, and imortality by relying on the spiritual facts of God and man taught by Christ Jesus was emphasized at Christian Science services on Sunday. The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mortals and Immortals" included the accounts from the Bible of how Christ restored to life the only son of the widow of Nain. Explaining the basis of Jesus' healing power, the following passage was read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures: "Jesus never asked if disease were acute or chronic, and he never recommended attention to laws of health, never gave drugs, never prayed to know if God were willing that a man should live. He understood man, whose life is God, to be immrotal, and knew that man has not two lives, one to be destroyed and the other to be made indestructible."

Find Housewife's Body In Ditch

MT. CLEMENS, Mich. (AP)—The body of an attractive 29-year-old Detroit housewife was found lying in a shallow ditch in a lover's lane 12 miles southeast of this Macomb county community Sunday.

Assistant prosecutor Elvin L. Davenport said the body was identified as that of Idell Logan by the woman's husband Joseph, 30. Davenport said Logan told him his wife committed suicide by shooting herself Saturday night while they were visiting relatives in the Detroit suburb of Hamtramck.

A wound under her right eyebrow might have come from a small calibre gun, police said.

Logan said he was frightened so he loaded the body into his car and dropped it in the ditch, according to Davenport.

Logan was held without charge for further investigation.

Fear 700 Lost

TOKYO (AP)—Sixth-eight Japanese fishing boats with an estimated 700 crew members still are unaccounted for off Hokkaido in an area swept by a storm the previous week-end, the maritime safety board announced Sunday. So far 54 fishermen and 66 ships have been rescued.

Say New Base Ran Up Road Costs

Wren Promises List Of Names After Porter Row

TORONTO (CP)—The introduction of a granular base in highway construction in Ontario in 1950 was chiefly responsible for a large part of the $15,705,557 over-run in contracts let in that year, J. D. Millar, former deputy minister of highways, said today.

Mr. Millar, testifying before the Ontario legislature's select committee investigating irregularities in the department, said the tremendous increase in the number of vehicles on provincial highways resulted in the "drastic change" in highway construction policy and as a result a number of 1950 contracts were let for grading only.

"The contractor has no control over the amount of the granular base used," he said.

BREAKS DOWN FIGURES

Mr. Millar, now deputy minister of public works, said of the 212 contracts let in that year—the peak year for the department—26 were trans-Canada highway contracts which ended in a $9,000,000 over-run. Ordinary contracts estimated at $40,000,000 had an over-run of approximately $6,000,000, or 21 per cent.

Department officials testifying at the first hearing last month said a 15-20 per cent over-run was always expected.

"The $6,000,000 over-run was not too far out of line," said Mr. Millar.

Explaining various contracts listed in the report given Monday by H. A. Cotnam, provincial auditor, Mr. Millar said that in 1950 the department was hampered by a severe shortage of engineers.

Albert Wren (Lib-Lab—Kenora) asked if all contracts let in 1950 were adequately pre-engineered.

"Yes, but I would like to have had the opportunity to do a great deal more . . . but we were rushed for time . . . and short of staff," said Mr. Millar.

ENGINEERS START LOW

Opposition leader Faruqhar Oliver asked if Mr. Millar would then say that the recommendation made Friday in the report of J. D. Woods and Gordon Ltd., Toronto management consultants, of more pre-engineering would be "impractical."

"No, I would welcome more pre-engineering," replied Mr. Millar. However, he said, the department couldn't get a sufficient number of engineers. The department pays a starting salary of $2,960.

"That's part of your trouble then?" said W. J. Grummett, CCF house leader.

"To some extent, yes," replied Mr. Millar, "but we still couldn't get engineers with so much competition."

Mr. Grummett asked why, on some contracts, the final price was doubled or tripled at completion of the work. Mr. Millar said it was due to conditions encountered during construction.

Bombing Resumed By French

Vietminh Charge New Attacks Sabotage Agreement

HANOI (Reuters)—The French high command tonight announced the first official news that a Vietminh Communist army of 30,000 men is marching on the Red River delta, last French bastion in northern Indo-China.

HANOI (AP) — The Vietminh conquerors of Dien Bien Phu have released 18 more French Union wounded from the fallen fortress, the French high command announced tonight. The news came after French planes resumed attacks on rebel troops streaming eastward toward the vital Red river delta.

The high command announcement did not indicate whether the casualties had been turned over before the heavy air assault, centring on a highway neutralized since Friday as a hospital route for the Communist-led rebel wounded.

The high command reported that the 18 had arrived in Luang Prabbang, the royal capital of Laos, by helicopter from the northwest Indo-China fortress which held out 56 days against the Communists. Only 11 of the 753 reported subject to evacuation had been brought out previously.

The command said it could not say whether their release meant the Vietminh had accepted new French proposals to speed up the airlift.

SAYS PRISONERS HIT

(In Geneva, a Vietminh spokesman charged the French had sabotaged the agreement for evacuation of the wounded. The spokesman, Hoang Van Hoan, Vietminh ambassador to Red China, told a press conference also that the new highway bombardment had killed 15 French prisoners of war.)

A three-man French mission had flown by helicopter to Dien Bien Phu this morning to press for rebel acceptance of a six-point French plan to speed evacuation of the wounded. It was headed by Dr. Pierre Huard.

The French air assault smashed at Vietminh troop and truck convoys moving along the 70-mile highway between Dien Bien Phu and Son La, the main route toward the Delta. Other planes also hammered Vietminh forces in key sectors of the Delta area.

NO REPLY TO WARNING

French broadcasts had told the Vietminh the air attack on the 70-mile highway between Dien Bien Phu and Son La—main route toward the delta—would start again unless the rebels agreed to the French plan by midnight Monday.

The high command said no answer was received. At 11 a. m. today bombing of the highway was resumed, a massive assault by B-26 and Privateer bombers, and fighters from land and carrier bases.

Son La is 80 miles from the westernmost perimeter of the French delta defences, expected to be the next target of the four Vietminh divisions which crushed the fortress of Dien Bien Phu.

Prime target of the air strike was the strategic 70-mile highway between Dien Bien Phu and Son La.

The French had stopped bombing this highway last Friday after the rebels had agreed to permit evacuation of 753 of the 1,300 to 2,000 French Union wounded caught in Dien Bien Phu when it fell.

Negligence Charged

TORONTO (CP) — James Francis Howell, 33-year-old truck driver, was arrested today and charged with criminal negligence in the death of a 14-month-old baby, asphyxiated in a fire at a city rooming-house in February. He was remanded one week. Howell was landlord of the six-bedroomed building. He is said to have made between $50 and $60 a week in sub-letting.

Howe Prefers Canada Build Seaway

OTTAWA (CP)—Trade Minister Howe said Monday night he would have preferred to have Canada build the multi-million-dollar St. Lawrence seaway project alone.

Entry of the United States into the construction picture will not change things materially, he added.

But every dollar that has gone into development of the St. Lawrence-Great Lakes waterway has been Canadian and he would have preferred to have Canada build the last 128 miles, too.

Mr. Howe aired his views on the power-shipping project in reply to interviewers' questions over the CBC's radio program, Press Conference.

OTHER QUESTIONS

Replying to other questions, Mr. Howe said termination of the government's emergency powers act on May 31 will not mean that the government will no longer have authority to control the economy. It still had the Defence Production Act which is administered by Mr. Howe's defence production department.

Defence spending had been levelling off, but he did not expect the rate of spending would change sharply over the years. Aircraft production had been mapped out for the next five or six years and the spending rate would be maintained "fairly well."

The Canada-U.S. trade committee, formed of cabinet ministers in the two countries, had been a useful forum to air economic and trade grievances between the neighbors. Canada had complaints, but so did the U.S. It had been complaining that Canada shipped too much food into "sensitive" U.S. areas.

He said the U.S. still may violate international trade pacts, but under the committee's functioning, the breaches would not come suddenly and unexpectedly.

Mr. Howe believed, however, that retaliatory action must be considered very seriously if there

2 Australian MPs Gave Information To Russ Agents

CANBERRA (CP)—The Petrov spy documents list two and possibly three members of Australia's House of Representatives as having unwittingly given information to Soviet agents, the royal commission on espionage was told today.

The commission's counsel, W. J. Windeyer, made the revelation during the second day of preliminary hearings into the story of Russian spying in Australia told by Vladimir Petrov, former Soviet embassy third secretary here who quit the Reds and was given political asylum.

The counsel said one of the documents turned over by Petrov related to U. S. and Japanese interests in Australia. He said it was 37 pages long, but did not disclose its contents.

Windeyer said one of the two members of Parliament mentioned in the papers as unwitting informants was from the Liberal-Country party government coalition, and the other was from the opposition Labor faction.

NAMES NOT REVEALED

Windeyer did not reveal their names nor indicate the importance of the information the Russians gleaned from what he termed unguarded remarks.

But spectators at the public hearing gasped when he said government employees had passed information and copies of documents to agents of the Soviet MVD (the ministry of interior and its secret police).

Windeyer quickly added that none of these Australians held high positions. He said the MVD concentrated on subordinate personnel with access to government information, seeking to seduce them with favors, bribes or blackmail.

HOT NEWS, COLD HEARERS

Windeyer told diplomats and reporters, huddling in overcoats in the unheated Albert recital hall, that the Russians concentrated on penetrating the external affairs department.

Petrov had disclosed that two of his predecessors were able to secure confidential and secret information particularly from the foreign ministry, Windeyer said.

Windeyer said that Soviet leaks had been drying up because the contacts lost interest or became afraid. Perhaps, he added, in some cases the contacts had ceased to be employed in places where they could help.

Other documents disclosed by Windeyer today painted a picture of far-fetched Russian attempts to obtain blackmail on persons who might be able to help them.

Workers Trapped After Blast At Refinery

NORWALK, Calif. (AP)—An explosion touched off a roaring fire among petroleum tanks in the Rotschild Oil Company refinery here today and first reports said several employees were trapped in fire-rimmed buildings.

Ambulances were dispatched along with fire apparatus. But sheriff's deputies and county firemen said that heat from the billowing flames was too intense for any one to approach the structures.

At least eight big tanks were enveloped.

Remand Heir To Fortune

TORONTO (CP) — John Smallman, 20-year-old heir to a $2,800,000 fortune, appeared in court today for preliminary hearing on a $41 robbery charge and was remanded to June 22.

The son of a prominent London, Ont., family, Smallman was charged April 20 with robbery in connection with the beating and robbing of Lawrence Nash by three men here a week before Christmas last year.

Nash said he was taken for an auto ride by three men he met in a tavern and then was beaten and robbed of $41. He required hospital treatment for facial injuries suffered in the beating.

Smallman, who became heir to the $2,800,000 estate of a great-aunt at the age of 14, has denied complicity in the robbery. He has been receiving an allowance from the estate while he worked in Toronto as a jewelry salesman and soon will receive $500,000 from the estate and half the principal in four years.

Smallman is married. He and his socially-prominent 23-year-old wife settled in Toronto after a Mexican honeymoon. They have two children.

Discover Body, Question Two

TORONTO (CP) — Police today questioned two men in connection with the death Monday night of 40-year-old Dorothy Birch, an attractive brunette whose body was found lying on a double bed in a ground-floor room on Jarvis street in central Toronto.

An autopsy was ordered to determine the cause of her death.

Chief of detectives Archie McCathie said there were bruises on the woman's body and legs. He added that the police are not sure whether the marks are connected with her death.

Chief coroner Smirle Lawson said the marks on the body did not appear severe enough to indicate she had been slain.

Detectives said there were signs of injuries from previous beatings.

Mrs. James Horan, wife of the landlord, said two roomers told her they believed Miss Birch was beaten by a man Monday night.

Other roomers said there was a drinking party in the woman's room Monday night.

Pearson Resumes Delegation Leadership

GENEVA (Reuters) — L. B. Pearson, Canadian external affairs minister, arrived today by special plane from London to resume leadership of the Canadian delegation at the Far East conference.

He has been attending a meeting in London of an atomic energy sub-committee of the United Nations disarmament commission.

Commons Defeats Plan For Cattle, Hog Support

OTTAWA (CP)—A CCF proposal for government-supported floor prices on cattle and hogs was defeated Monday night in the Commons. The vote was 115 to 28.

Social Credit members voted with the CCF on the motion by A. M. Nicholson CCF-Mackenzie for a floor price not less than the three-year average price through 1951-53. Liberals and Progressive Conservatives opposed the motion.

Mr. Nicholson said the average price for the suggested base period was $26.05 a hundredweight for beef and $29.05 for hogs.

He said sale and prices of cattle, hogs and milk have fallen off since the peak war years, despite increases in population.

At the same time, farm incomes dropped 22 per cent between 1951 and 1953, while production costs continued to rise.

He quoted bureau of statistics figures showing that only 10 per cent of Canada's farming families earned enough to pay income taxes.

G. H. Castleden (CCF—Yorkton) said a board is necessary to give producers assurance that they are not being exploited by meat packing plants. At present three large firms controlled 60 per cent of Canada's meat packing business.

J. H. Ferguson (PC — Simcoe North) said the CCF should not criticize the meat-packing industry without suggesting how the meat could be sold under socialized ownership of the industry. No CCF member had enough business experience to take over the industry and run it.

"I'm sick and tired of it . . . let's have some honest reason from these people here and not tear these companies down."

Republic Has Orderly Voting

DUBLIN (AP)—The Republic of Ireland today conducted one of the most orderly parliamentary elections in its brief history.

Accounts from all 26 counties of the independent republic said voters turned out early in a good humor to make a choice between followers of Prime Minister Eamon de Valera and John A. Costello.

Polling stations were open 12 hours (until 4 p. m. EDT).

The prevailing mild weather is expected to give de Valera some advantage. The 71-year-old prime minister's Fianna Fail (men of destiny) party draws its chief strength from rural areas.

Fianna Fail will need heavy backing in the farming districts and villages to win a majority in the 147-seat Dail (parliament).

Girl 7 'Dies' For Brief Time

NEWMARKET (CP)—A seven-year-old girl "died" Monday for a few moments when her heart stopped beating during an operation for the removal of a cyst from her wrist.

Doctors at the Newmarket hospital massaged Annie Foster's heart and started it beating again, hospital officials said.

The girl is in critical condition and blood transfusions are being given her today.

Mrs. R. K. Waites of Mimico, an aunt, said she had been told by the hospital that extreme fright, as the doctors started to administer the anasthetic, might have caused the girl's heart to stop beating.

Annie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Foster of Queensville, about 30 miles north of Toronto.

Polio Victim Not Any Worse

EDMONTON (CP) — Frank J. McNulty, formerly of Peterborough, 40-year-old convicted arsonist stricken with polio three months ago while in jail awaiting his appeal against a three-year sentence, was described as "no worse" today by hospital officials. He is still in an iron lung.

Police in St. Thomas, Ont., hold a warrant charging McNulty with murder in connection with a fire in the YMCA there in which two men died. McNulty received a three-year sentence in Calgary Jan. 14 for setting fire to the Salvation Army hostel there. He has appealed.

Destruction Of Reports Too Casual—Oliver

TORONTO (CP) — Farquhar Oliver, Ontario Liberal leader, said today he is amazed at the "casual way" provincial auditor Harvey Cotnam "passed over destruction of records in the highways department by junior clerks on the orders of higher-ups."

Mr. Cotnam, testifying before the legislature's special committee investigating reported irregularities in the department's handling of construction contracts, mentioned the loss of the records Monday.

He told an interviewer that he will insist at some stage of the hearings that the fullest disclosures be made of "what records were destroyed by junior clerks and what higher-ups ordered these records to be either destroyed or changed."

Manpower Wastage Cuts Army Strength

OTTAWA (CP) — Manpower wastage in the army is so high that the army's strength now is almost exactly the same as two years ago, a government white paper on defence disclosed Monday.

Army strength at March 31, 1952, was 49,278; at the end of last month, 49,978.

The navy and air force fared better. Navy strength increased to 16,955 from 13,505 in the two-year period and the air force to 45,596 from 32,611.

Wastage is the number of personnel who leave the service for one reason or another. But the chief reason is no desire to re-enlist.

In the 1952-53 fiscal year, 10,204 men enrolled in the army but 11,204 left it, an over-all decrease of 820 in the year. The main reason was that many members of the special Korean force who signed up for only 18 months did not re-enlist.

Steel Workers Begin Talks

PITTSBURGH (AP) — United States Steel Corporation and the United Steel Workers of America (CIO) today kick off the first major U. S. labor negotiations of 1954 with the big union's bargaining power weakened by a slump in the industry since late last year.

The talks mark the opening of the union's new contract drive in the basic steel industry, employing some 600,000 workers. Contracts expire June 30.

As negotiations get under way, an estimated 190,000 steel workers are idle because of layoffs, an additional 257,000 are working only part-time, and mill operations hover around 70 per cent of national rated capacity.

This leads observers to believe the union will do everything possible to avoid a strike, and thus won't be able to exert full bargaining pressure.

Causes Near Riot

Strip Artist Invades Office Mayor Yells For Help

BARI, Italy (AP)—When the lady walked into his office and stripped down to brassiere and panties that's when the mayor yelled for help.

Police turned out in force, there was a near riot in front of city hall, two Communist officials and the lady were arrested—and today there may be a big strike in protest against the arrests.

Mayor Federico Cancalara of the city of Minervlino Murge, population 20,000, says the whole thing started two months ago when he publicly resigned from the Communist party.

Nothing happened until Monday when the lady—who police says is known as "Latte e Burro" (milk and butter)—walked in and said she must see the mayor. As soon as the door was closed she started stripping off her clothes and yelling for help.

The mayor yelled, too.

300 SPECTATORS

But by the time Milk and Butter was down to her last garments the door burst open and there stood the secretary of the local Communist party, the secretary of the Communist-led local chamber of labor and a crowd of about 300.

Police finally saved the mayor from the crowd and arrested Milk and Butter on a charge of falsely pretending to have been a victim of assault, and arrested the two Communist officials on charges of an "outrage to a public official." Police said the woman admitted she had been paid 25,000 lire ($42) for the strip act.

Council May Seek To Call Off Inquiry Into Affairs Of County Home For Aged

OWEN SOUND (CP) — Grey county council may seek to have a judicial inquiry into affairs at the county Home for the Aged called off.

The county council asked for the inquiry May 7 after five women employees of the home at nearby Markdale made sworn statements alleging drinking and indency at the institution. Judge J. G. Harvie was named to conduct the inquiry, scheduled for May 27 and 28.

Warden George Mannerow said today that 30 of the 40 members of the county council have signed a petition asking that a special session of the council be held to rescind the resolution calling for the inquiry.

The petition also asked that Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Gould, suspended April 27 as manager and matron of the home, be dismissed and that tenders be called for successors.

Owen Sound city council, which helps to maintain and operate the home, passed a resolution Monday night endorsing the county council's action in requesting the judical hearing.

Eden Annoyed At U.S.

Gives Luncheon To Smooth Differences

GENEVA (AP)—Britain's Foreign Secretary Eden invited State Undersecretary Walter Bedell Smith of the United States to a private luncheon today that apparently was aimed at smoothing new American-British differences.

The differences developed late last week after the U. S. and France opened discussions on possible U. S. intervention in the Indo-China war.

Eden was reported chagrined that he was not informed of the talks.

PRESS EXCITED

Some British newspapers described the situation as the most alarming development in Allied diplomatic relations since the Second World War.

Eden called on Smith Saturday and was reported to have asked for information on the French-American talks and an explanation why the British government was not informed. U. S. sources said Eden was reassured by Smith on the situation at the meeting.

Smith was understood to have told Eden that the failure of the U. S. to keep Britain informed was an unintentional slip-up, and assured it would not happen again.

Authoritative sources said Eden's complaint had been based entirely on the failure of the U. S. to keep him informed.

GOING TO PARIS

LONDON (Reuters) — British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden plans to leave the Geneva Far East conference Friday to attend celebrations in Paris marking the 50th anniversary of the Anglo-French friendship agreement, it was disclosed today.

A government spokesman said Eden would return to Geneva later.

Central America Latest Target

Moscow Turns Loose More Red Agitators

WASHINGTON (AP) — United States authorities said today they are convinced Moscow has turned loose Communist agitators to foment strife and chaos in Central America.

This belief is based on recent developments in Costa Rica, Nicaragua and Honduras and climaxed now by an apparently large shipment of arms to Guatemala from Communist-controlled Stettin, once a German port but now incorporated into Poland.

The state department here announced late Monday that an unspecified quantity and type of arms now are being unloaded from a cargo ship of Swedish registry at the Guatemalan port of Puerto Barrios.

The announcement said that "because of the origin of these arms, the point of their embarkation, their destination and the quantity of arms involved, the department of state considers that this is a development of gravity."

BLOCKADED SALES

For a number of years the United States has blocked all arms sales to Guatemala. It has repeatedly charged, too, that Guatemala is the centre of Communist agitation in Central America and that its government is "playing the Communist game."

Looking back over unrest in Central America during the last six weeks, U. S. authorities believe the signal for this activity came from Moscow late last year.

At that time, they recall, Guatemala's three chief Communist leaders visited Moscow. Since then, they point out, these events have occurred:

On April 3, Nicaraguan exiles from Costa Rica unsuccessfully tried to assassinate the anti-Communist Nicaraguan president, Anastasio Somoza. He is regarded as one of the most active anti-Communists in Central America and an arch-foe of Guatemala.

A cache of arms was found along a lonely stretch of the Pacific coast of Nicaragua.

At the end of April, almost all of the banana workers in the northern sector of Honduras went out on a wildcat strike. Workers in shops, telephone exchanges, and hospitals also struck, paralyzing the entire area. Guatemala lies just to the north of Honduras.

Malan's Bill Introduced On Voters Roll

CAPETOWN (Reuters)—A joint session of parliament today accepted the introduction of Premier Daniel Malan's bill for placing colored voters on an electoral roll separate from white voters.

The joint session voted 163 to 14 in favor of allowing Malan to start the bill through legislative processes toward enactment as law.

It marked a new step in the premier's battle with the courts for approval of a key part of his racial segregation program.

The bill seeks to validate the Separate Representation of Voters Act, 1952, which was declared invalid by the appeal court.

All previous legislation in the colored vote issue has failed to get a necessary two-thirds majority of a joint sitting of both houses.

Jacobus Strauss, leader of the opposition, said his United Party would not refuse the prime minister leave to introduce the bill.

SEES DEFEAT FOR BILL

The introduction of the bill, he said, will provide an opportunity for debating the measure—and the opportunity to defeat it.

The Nationalist government is 15 votes short of the two-thirds majority necessary to pass the controversial bill.

Malan wants colored voters — mixed blood citizens who vote with whites—place on a separate electoral roll. Like African natives, they would be given a few white members to represent their interests.

Hopes To Foster Closer Realtions

LONDON (AP) — Evangelist Billy graham said today that when he returns to the United States he will do all he can "to foster closer ties between American and Britain."

Graham, whose British crusade ends May 22, told a press conference that 1,336,500 persons have attended his London meetings since they began March 1, with 28,209 attesting publicly their conversion to active Christianity.

These public declarations, he said, were three times more than at any other crusade he has conducted.

"We have never been treated with such generosity and hospitality as we have had here. The British audience catches on to almost anything quicker than an American audience, Graham said.

He said a "spiritual tide" had been developing in Britain ever since the war.

He said follow-up arrangements had been made by a committee of clergymen to introduce those who testified at his meetings to their nearest church.

Graham said he plans to return to Britain next year to extend his crusade to Oxford and other English provincial cities.

School Principal Collapses, Dies

TORONTO (CP) — Russell G. Cole, 49, principal of Shirley street public school, collapsed and died of a heart attack Monday while coaching a softball game.

Born near Wooler, Ont., Mr. Cole attended public school in Winnipeg and graduated from Belleville high school and Toronto Normal School. He began teaching at Consecon, Ont., and came to Toronto a year later.

Mr. Cole was president of the Toronto Public School Principals Association in 1952-53.

Surviving are his widow and one daughter. A sister, Mrs. O. B. Ragsdale, lives in Belleville.

CCF Sees Credit Extension Answer To Unemployment

LINDSAY (ENS)—The CCF solution to the unemployment problem was outlined Monday night by Rev. Fred Young at a meeting held in Lindsay under the auspices of the United Steelworkers. Mr. Young is a former United church clergyman, who left the church to become active in union activities. On the invitation of president C. H. Millard, he took a position with the United Steelworkers of America. He no longer preaches.

'We will never see the end to the problem of unemployment while a Liberal or Conservative government is in power. We must bring into power a government that will plan production for the good of the people. We did it during the war—but it was called socialism and the old parties got rid of it as soon as they could."

Mr. Young blamed unemployment on a system which he claimed did not allow the workers to buy the products of their labor. He pointed to the difference between the gross national product and the actual income through wages and salaries in 1953.

He said the surplus being built up because the public has no purchasing power was brewing trouble for the future.

PEACE BRINGS CRISIS

The surpluses, he continued, went into arms production during the Second World War and the Korean War and into the Marshall Plan between the wars. Peace has again brought the crisis.

One solution to the problem both of unemployment, and the housing shortage, he said, would be to employ the Bank of Canada to extend credit to Canadians for the home building at two to three per cent interest. This would put Canadians to work building the houses.

"We have the money and the men and the materials to put over such a program but we haven't the government that will do it," the speaker continued. The CCF has been driving for this program for years.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY

He pointed to the shortage of hospital accommodation and the future need for schools as other avenues where government programs could aid the unemployment situation. "The Frost government must undertake these" he said, pointing to the Saskatchewan health set-up. Turning briefly to highways he stated: "What is needed in Ontario is more highways and less highway robbery."

The answer to the country's major problem, he said, lay not in the promises of business that the last half of the year would bring better conditions but in a permanent solution by a government that placed human values above political ones and human welfare foremost.

The meeting which was called mainly as a climax to a CCF organization campaign ended when a membership call was put out by Lucas Nicholls, organizer. An organization committee was then set up for the riding association.

Had Nowhere To Take Beer

It was beer for a friend and just plain hard luck for 74-year-old John Hawkins, no fixed address, when police caught up with him on May 16 in the city. Hawkins had a case of beer in his possession, but seeing that he did not have any residence, he could not have been taking it anywhere legally.

So Hawkins appeared before Magistrate W. R. Philp QC today and pleaded guilty to a charge of having liquor in a place other than his residence.

"But it really wasn't my beer" said Hawkins. "I was delivering it to a friend."

Magistrate Philp: "Yes, but this is a charge of having it. We are not concerned with who owned it."

As this was Hawkins' second conviction for this type of offence, he was fined $50, costs $2.50, and in default one month's imprisonment.

Hawkins was not able to pay his fine, so the city has arranged temporary accommodation for him for at least one month . . . in the county jail.

Expect Chou To Reply To West's Proposal

GENEVA (AP) — The Western powers today went into their second private meeting with the Communists on an Indo-China peace. They still hoped to find out whether the Reds would halt the fighting without first seeking a political settlement.

It was generally expected that either Russia's foreign minister Molotov or China's premier-foreign minister, Chou En-lai, would reply to Monday's Western proposals for a quick cease-fire to be followed by political talks.

The Western plan was submitted to the nine-party conference by France's foreign minister Bidault just before Monday's closed-door session ended.

The proposals were understood to follow Bidault's original plan for an Indo-China truce, but to be more detailed.

That plan called for immediate withdrawal of all Communist Vietminh forces from Laos and Cambodia and the assembly of all troops in Viet Nam, the third French associated states, into agreed zones.

22 Organizations Back Appeal For Auditorium

Twenty - two Peterborough clubs and organizations have completely endorsed the need for an auditorium as a wing of the Memorial Centre reported the citizens' auditorium committee at a meeting Monday evening.

At least six other organizations have given approval to the principle of the brief, revived and revised from its first presentation to City Council in 1946.

The committee held its third general meeting Monday at the Public Library with Miss Katharine Macdougall in the chair.

One letter received by the committee expressed disapproval of the brief on the grounds that such a building would be impossible. Miss Macdougall replied that the architect of the city of Hamilton is an expert in such matters, and that the Cleveland auditorium, one of several such buildings in the United States, is successfully in operation. Further information was supplied by James Fraser who reported attending a theatrical performance in one wing of the Cleveland auditorium a Sportsmen's Show attended by 14,000 people was taking place in the other half of the building with no interference of sound.

Archdeacon W. P. Robertson pointed out that a glorified rink would not be a fitting memorial to our service men. Though auditorium space is less limited than in 1946, cultural groups and activities have increased in even greater proportion.

Mrs. Heber Rogers said that as there is not enough money for the Memorial Centre in any form, it is the opinion of many that it will be necessary to go to the public for more money in any event.

This is the probable extent to which the inclusion of an auditorium in the Memorial Centre plans would affect the average citizen. The average assessment in this city is about $5,000. Debentures for a half million dollars for twenty years would mean an increase in the tax rate of less than a mill, or less than $5.00 annually on the average tax bill. The annual increase would be even less on a thirty-year debenture.

Hugh Niven pointed out that industry bears a heavy part of the load of taxation in this city. It was generally felt, however that industry would support the idea of a two-unit Memorial Centre.

The opinion was expressed that if it came to a showdown between an arena and an auditorium the latter was more essential. This opinion did not meet with general approval. It was conceded that this city needs both a fine arena and a suitable auditorium in its Memorial Centre.

"A definite statement should go to the public," said Archdeacon Robertson. "The public should be asked whether it wants a rink, an auditorium, or both, and be given the financial details."

Mrs. Sullivan moved that a letter and a copy of the revised brief be sent to the board of education, the Library board, and the separate school board.

It was unanimously decided to accept as soon as possible the published invitation of the building committee for the submission of briefs.

Miss Musa Cox, Mr. Hugh Niven and Mrs. A. H. Heideman agreed to act as an interim committee of chairmen of the citizen's auditorium committee during July and August.

Two Australian

He said one document on Australian reporters and radio representatives was a "farago of facts, falsities and filth."

The document, known as "H," was written by an unidentified Australian who went to the Russian embassy to write it. It ranged "from the reasonable to the obviously fantastic."

In one place, a man was alleged to be an embezzler and to have lured a woman into degenerate conduct and encouraged her to become a dipsomaniac.

It also suggested another man had a woman friend with a venereal disease.

One "rather well known person" was said to have sought adulterous intercourse with a woman on the promise she would be safe if the Japanese came to Australia.

are further breaches of international trade pacts.

He had attended high-level talks in the U.S. and there was agreement among the authorities that business will pick up sharply in the last quarter of 1954.

He did not agree with a suggestion of the Canadian Exporters Association that Canada provide overseas countries with long-term credit as a means of boosting exports.

Britain, for one, did not want such credit. It increased her indebtedness.

An interviewer recalled that Senator W. Rupert Davies (L — Ontario) had suggested the International Trade Fair in Toronto does more to boost imports than exports. Mr. Howe replied that a trade deficit—that is more imports than exports—sometimes means a big investment program for Canada and for that reason is not very serious. He said Canada may have another deficit this year, but it may not be so large as the one in 1953.

Rev. F. Rishea Dies Suddenly Of Heart Attack

The Rev. Francis Leo Rishea, parish priest at Wooler since 1941, died suddenly of a heart attack at his residence about 9 a.m. today.

Father Rishea was born in Peterborough, son of the late Harry Rishea, and his wife, Alexina Goselin, and would have been 46 years old on May 29. The family home for years has been at 495 Romaine St., where his mother lives.

He attended the Sacred Heart School and St. Peter's High School, and completed his education at St. Augustine's Seminary where he studied for the priesthood. Father Rishea was ordained at St. Peter's Cathedral May 21, 1932, by the late Bishop Denis O'Connor.

He served as assistant priest in the parishes of Trout Creek and Lakefield previously to his appointment to Wooler in 1941.

Father Rishea leaves his mother, his sister, Marie, at home, and one brother, Vincent Rishea of St. Catharines. His death will be a shock to his many friends, including the priests of the diocese of Peterborough. Father Rishea celebrated mass as usual this morning, and apparently was in normal health, suggesting the suddenness of his death.

His pastoral duties included the parish of St. Alphonsus at Wooler, and also Holy Angels Church in Brighton.

A funeral mass will be held Thursday at 10.30 a.m. in St. Alphonsus church, Wooler, and a second one Friday at 10 a.m. in Sacred Heart church, Peterborough. Burial will be in St. Peter's cemetery.

Says New Base

Attorney-General Porter said the contract price is only an estimate, and the only fixed price in the contract is the unit price.

Clare Mapledoram, (PC — Fort William) said if there was more pre-engineering the final figure would be closer to the estimate.

WREN PROMISES LIST

Mr. Wren said Monday he would prepare overnight a list of names of persons the Liberal opposition planned to call before the committee. The promise was made during a heated argument with Attorney-General Porter.

The verbal battle concluded a day which had heard testimony of "substantial" gifts from contractors being received by departmental employees "as high as any level."

The attorney-general, Mr. Wren and Opposition Leader Farquhar Oliver sparred over Mr. Wren's claims that he had important evidence to bring before the committee.

SHOULD TELL COMMITTEE

Committee chairman Kelso Roberts (PC — Toronto St. Patrick) sparked the debate when he said if any member had any evidence to offer the committee should be informed.

Mr. Porter said he understood that the Liberal Opposition members had evidence.

"Let us know what it is so we will know what to do about it. . . The onus is on you to show us what you have."

"We'll pick our own good time," retorted Mr. Oliver.

Mr. Wren said he would prepare a list of names and addresses overnight and present it to the committee today.

"As soon as . . . reports and relevent matters are completed. . . I'll be prepared to call them."

OTHER DEVELOPMENTS

The day brought about these other developments:

1. Evidence that contractors who bid too low on highway contracts were treated more generously in deciding classification of material to be moved.

2. Testimony that some highway construction records were destroyed after the highways investigation got under way.

3. Introduction of a report that showed the provincial government paid $15,705,557 more than was contracted for on highway contracts let in 1950.

4. Sweeping changes in the administration and policies of the highways department were proposed.

5. Kelso Roberts, committee chairman, announced that the committee would inspect the Fort William division of the department, scene of the original investigation begun last fall.

SAYS RECEIVED GIFTS

Duncan Gordon, of J. D. Woods and Gordon Ltd., Toronto management consultants appointed by Premier Frost to study departmental operations, said he had learned of employees receiving gifts from contractors.

"Like a car?" asked Mr. Oliver.

"No, I was not thinking of anything as valuable," said Mr. Gordon. "The presents were beyond what is considered a normal Christmas gift."

Under questioning by Mr. Wren, Mr. Gordon said safety deposit boxes of some employees had been checked but he would not disclose their contents as "those are matters that are before the courts."

Woods and Gordon, in a 21,000-word report tabled before the committee Monday, recommended that the practice of employees accepting gifts be discontinued and that any infraction of the regulation result in instant dismissal.

WHY NO PUNISHMENT?

Mr. Wren wondered why the report did not recommend punishment to those employees who had accepted gifts in the past.

"If you adopted that practice it would be completely and absolutely wrong. . ." replied Mr. Gordon.

C. E. Janes (PC—Lambton East) drew a chuckle from the committee when he asked if it was in Mr. Gordon's opinion that the gifts "had been given for personal gain."

"That is impossible to answer," Mr. Gordon said. Under further questioning he said the receivers of gifts "might go as high as any level."

Had Couple Beers Guess Impaired

A Toronto man, John M. Fraser, was charged in court today with having been impaired while driving his car. Magistrate W. R. Philp QC asked him whether he pleaded guilty or not guilty.

Said Fraser: "Well, I had a couple of bottles of beer, but. . . ah. . .I don't know".

Magistrate Philp: "You'll have to plead one way or the other".

Fraser: "Well then, I guess I'm guilty."

OPP constable E. Fred Lunn told the court that he had seen Fraser's car wandering about highway 28 on the afternoon of May 13. The vehicle had been swerving from shoulder to centre line and back again. Oncoming traffic had been obliged either to stop or give Fraser's car a very wide berth.

The constable added that Fraser had smelt strongly of alchohol and had been a little unsteady on his feet.

Fraser was fined $50, costs $2.50, with an alternative of a month in jail.

Rebel Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap insisted that the French must hold their fire on the highway so his own wounded could be moved.

USED FOR TROOPS

The French later contended Giap actually was using the highway to funnel troops and war materiel toward the Red river delta, seen by the French command as the next big rebel target.

When the French found they could move only 11 wounded in two days by helicopter and small planes, and Giap refused to permit repair of the airstrip to let bigger planes land, the high command said it was no longer bound to hold off its air strikes.

It said that such an airlift would take at least a month, and by then Giap could move out all his men and materiel.

Late Monday night the French commander-in-chief, Gen. Henri Navarre, broadcast an offer to supply engineers and heavy equipment for putting the Dien Bien Phu runway back into shape on condition that both men and materiel be returned after the operation.

He asked that once the mercy flights were resumed, no ceiling be placed on the number of planes allowed to land and take off.

Buyers from South America and the United States bought 31 head.

Raul T. Ghiso of Buenos Aires paid the highest price of the day when he bought Rosafe Sovereign Reflector, six-month-old calf, from J. M. Fraser of Streetsville, Ont., for $1,500. Can't Remember If Stole Gear

Edward Aslagsen, 40, of Toronto, is having trouble with his memory. In court today he could not remember whether or not he had taken a collection of baseball gear from a parked car in Peterborough.

He told Magistrate W. R. Philp, QC: "I know nothing about this. If I can't remember it, I can't very well plead guilty, can I?"

Aslagsen also pleaded not guilty to the theft of other articles from another car. He pleaded guilty, however, to two more charges concerning the theft of a blanket, two pairs of sunglasses, and a pipe.

Aslagsen was then taken downstairs and shown some of the articles, notably the baseball gear. When he returned again to the court, he told the magistrate that he had see the equipment, and now was not sure whether he should plead not guilty.

Crown Attorney John A. Bradshaw, QC, thought that the court had better remand Aslagsen for a day or two and then maybe he might change his mind again.

The magistrate agreed.

Suggest New Church In St. Alban's Parish

Building of a new church in St. Alban's parish in the south end of the city was recommended on Monday night to the church wardens, Walter J. Thompson and Albert Maskell, by the advisory board. Because of the growth of the congregation in recent months the necessity for such a step has become apparent. The church would be built on Monaghan Rd. at the corner of Cameron St. on property already owned by the church.

It is expected that a chairman for a financial campaign will be appointed within two weeks, in order that a canvass of the parish may begin in September.

Expert Identifies Finger Print In Simcoe Trial

SIMCOE (CP)—A fingerprint expert said at a preliminary hearing Monday that a print belonging to Joe Glen Lotharp, 23, of Detroit, one of two Americans, charged with the murder of a service station operator, was found on an oil can in the station.

Cpl. Dennis Alsop, Ontario Provincial Police photographer and fingerprint expert at the London headquarters, testified that one of three latent prints on the oil can was the same as a print of Lotharp's right middle finger taken after his arrest Feb. 5.

Lotharp and Jerry Simmons, 47, of Syracuse, are charged with the Feb. 3 murder of Bruce Beatty, 68, of nearby Renton.

LYING IN BLOOD

Beatty was discovered lying in blood in his home at the rear of the service station. He died of brain injuries. Ida, his 63-year-old wife, was badly beaten and still is in critical condition. She has been unable to talk to police since the attack.

Grant Hartley, a service station operator near Clearville, testified earlier that Simmons used the name "Homer Ames" when he bought gasoline with a credit card Feb. 2.

Harold Little, a garage employee here, identified Simmons as the man who represented himself as "Homer Ames" when he brought his car in for repairs Dec. 24, 1953.

Beatty's nephew, Bernard Jones of RR 3 Waterford, told the court Simmons was the Negro guest introduced to him as "Mr. Ames" at a Christmas dinner he attended at the Beatty home.

SAYS SAW TWO

Thomas Tyrell, operator of a service station near Beatty's station, testified that he saw two negroes in a car outside the Beatty place Jan. 31.

Mr. Tyrell said he saw what appeared to be an identical car outside Beatty's station Feb. 2.

Detective Fred Friday of the Detroit police department submitted two toy pistols and a bundle of clothing which he said were found under the seat of Lotharp's car.

More than 60 exhibits have been submitted and 21 witnesses examined so far in the hearing. Some 30 witnesses remain to be heard.

BEARDED AXEMEN OF THE QUEEN'S OWN—The Queen's Own Rifles of Canada celebrated their 94th birthday of the regiment's founding with much parading and festivity. The 2nd Battalion, now serving with the 25th Canadian Infantry Brigade in Korea, held the colorful ceremony in the brigade area with guests from both the American and British armies. The pioneers of the Queen's Own are permitted to grow beards and carry double-bladed axes on parade. Here the three soldiers that led the parade are posed with their formidable weapons as they adopt the position of "Port Axes." Left to right: L/Cpl. Charles Wilson, of Toronto; Rfn. Refused Permit, Claims Discrimination

COBOURG (ENS) — Hints of discrimination against the feminine sex were tossed about at Monday nights' council meeting when Mrs. Milton Lacey of Camborne told council that Chief Constable Pearse had turned down her application to drive her husband's taxi cab because he wanted no woman cab drivers in Cobourg.

Mrs. Lacey and her husband live on a farm west of Camborne and now that farming is busy, he wants to put more time on the land and she wants to drive his taxi cab. However the bylaw states that the chief of police has the last word on who should receive a taxi license.

"The cheif stopped me from driving and when I asked him why he said that there would be no lady cab drivers in Cobourg. I have a chauffeurs license and have had no accidents." Mrs. Lacey told council.

RALLY TO SUPPORT

Mrs. Lacey had some strong moral support behind her at the council meeting in several members of the Cobourg Business and Professional Women's club and they included Mrs. Margery Pewtress, who is Ontario president and Mrs. Catherine Gaiger, president of the Cobourg branch of that organization.

Mayor John D. Burnet observed that he trusted it was not a case of the chief turning her down simply because she was a woman, and Councillor Lilliam Richards commented that if it were the case then it was discrimination against her sex.

"Why was my application turned down?" Mrs. Lacey wanted to know. Perhaps, Councillor Rolph, as chairman of the police commission, would know, suggested the mayor.

"It is not because she is a woman," declared Councillor Rolph. He added that there were some other reasons in the chief's mind, he felt, but he had not probd into them and would back the chief's stnd. The by-law stipulated that the chief has the authority to grant or withhold the taxi permits and council, when the matter was taken up with th ememberS, decided unanimously to leave the by-law as it stood and the chief accordingly had made his decision," said Councillor Rolph.

DEFIANT

Mrs. Lacey was defiant. She wanted to know who was boss, the council or the chief. Councillor Alex McKinnon suggested that the council see the chief about it and find out what his reasons were. Council agreed to hold a meeting with the chief.

Mrs. Lacey then wanted to know when the meeting would be held as it had been "kickin around" since January 15 and she and her husband were tired of waiting to see what would be done about it.

"Please credit us with the intention to arrange the meeting as soon as it can be arranged. You can't pick a night at random for a special meeting. These members of council are not free every night. You as a non-resident of Cobourg are going to farr to suggest that this cuncil would delay a meeting with the chief of police," said the mayor.

"When you do have a meeting. I want all the reasons the chief has against me having a license, written out," demanded Mrs. Lacey.

"You will get a complete report as soon as possible," the mayor replied.

Yosheda To Seek Loan

TOKYO (AP)—Prime Minister Yoshida will seek a $120,000,000 loan to buy United States farm surpluses when he visits the U.S. on his world tour, the newspaper Asahi said today. Asahi said the Japanese government plans to use the loan to buy surplus wheat, raw cotton, barley and soybeans. Yoshida will leave June 4 for a visit to the United States, Canada, Britain, continental Europe, India and Pakistan.

Cut In Mill Rate Seen Equalized Assessment Plan

CAMPBELFORD (ENS) — The new system of equalized assessment under the new county system was explained to members of the Rotary club at the Monday meeting here, when Garnet Shields, assessor for the United Counties of Northumberland and Durham was guest speaker.

Mr. Shields told the club that the principle of equality between assessments in the same area is of primary importance in the over-all picture of tax collection. As long as there is a common basis of assessment in the 23 municipalities in the counties, it will matter little how much of an increase there might be in any particular area.

There are two methods of arriving at the value of a property: depreceiation from original cost or rental and capitalization method. The latter is computed on replacement cost. Formerly there was a great variance between municipalities.

Under the new set-up there are five zones under urban assessment ranging from the largest town where all services are offered by the municipality, to the small village with no services provided.

There are six zones in rural Northumberland and Durham. The amount on which the taxpayers of the county will pay has been increased from about $35 million in 1950 to more than $55 million in 1954 under the new assessment.

This, said the speaker, will mean a drastic reduction in the mill rates throughout the counties and the overall effect will likely be to provide for a fair and equitable basis on which to collect the county levy.

In former years, municipalities which had a low assessment and a high mill rate profited when it came to paying for county services, but this condition will be remedied by a single standard of practice in assessment throughout the counties.

Mr. Shields said that assessing is a profession, requiring a great knowledge of the law, the building trades and the duties of an assessor. This knowledge, together with common sense, makes for a good assessor.

Good Start Reported Campbellford Pickerel

CAMPBELLFORD (ENS) — Both local and visiting fishermen reported good catches of pickerel over the weekend as the season got under way with the help of the weather man. American cars were very much in evidence on the streets of the town on Saturday, with at least a half dozen states represented. The fishermen who tried their luck in the Healey Falls area appeared to fare better then most others. Good catches were reported from that area, with most of the enthusiasts having little difficulty in bagging their limit.

"Plane" Missing

STRATFORD (CP) — If any farmer finds an aircraft on his fields it belongs to the RCAF station at Centralia. The aircraft is a model plane built by one of the station's airmen. The motor-equipped model vanished into a thick cloud when it was caught in an updraft and was chased seven miles by airmen in a car before they lost it.

YOUR WATCH

"Box of Wonders"

A columist said a watchmaker needs the skill of a surgeon and patience of a flagpole sitter after visiting a jeweler for 8 hours! Below are a few reasons for that statement and why cleaning a watch is not as simple a procedure as many people believe when serviced correctly!

The average watch contains 200 parts which in cleaning have to be disassembled, polished cleaned and oiled.

It would take 20,000 of your smaller watch screws to fill an ordinary thimble.

Balance wheel pivots are not more than 3-one thousanths of an inch in diameter which travel 6,000 miles a year.

Speed of this balance wheel is controlled by a hairspring which is literally as fine as a hair.

Boy Battered By Attacker

MONTREAL (CP) — A seven-year-old boy was battered into unconsciousness and suffered two fractured arms Monday when he was attacked in an east end field.

The youngster was taken to hospital in serious condition after he regained consciousness and managed to walk to a street.

Police said the boy described his attacker as about 23, six feet tall, 145 pounds.

They said the boy had been choked with a chain he wore around his neck and had been kicked and punched.

The youngster told police he was walking through Baldwin park when "this man asked me if I wanted to play cowboys." He said his attacker then led him to a field and "started beating me up."

Air Force Helps Save Burning Hotel

TIMMINS (CP)—Prompt action by the United States air force 912 squadron in warning station firefighters Monday night saved the Ramore hotel from destruction by fire while 40 beverage room customers drank beer, oblivious to the fact the attic of the building was in flames.

The fire, believed to have been started by spontaneous combustion, caused about $200 damage. A telephone operator called the American base for aid when told of the fire.

Fake Attack

NEW YORK (AP)—An "atomic attack" on television tonight will be pure fiction, ABC said Monday night. The network said the dramatic show to be put on at 9:30 p.m. EDT over the entire network will be realistic and authentic, thanks to the help of civil defence authorities.

Red Plane Crosses Neutral Korean Zone

SEOUL (AP) — A Communist plane crossed the Korean neutral zone and flew south as far as Seoul today while Defence Secretary Charles E. Wilson of the United States, South Korean President Syngman Rhee and other officials watched a U. S. 8th Army review 65 miles to the northeast.

The U. S. 5th Air Force said radar tracked the Red plane southward, but it never was seen. A spokesman said it apparently was a jet.

U. S. Sabre jets tried without success to intercept the intruder.

The 5th Air Force said the incident will be reported to the military armistice commission as a violation of the Korean truce.

Peturrson Freed On $3,000 Bail

TORONTO (CP)—R. F. Petursson, former dominion government highways inspector in the Port Arthur district, appeared before a justice of the peace at Toronto city hall Monday and was freed on bail of $3,000 on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the Ontario government in connection with highways irregularities.

Petursson, one of 11 men charged with conspiracy last week as a result of investigations into alleged road contract irregularities in the Fort William division, arrived in Toronto by plane Saturday from Vancouver where he had been working.

He will appear in court later for preliminary hearing on the charge.

He is the first federal official to be charged in the investigations.

Chiang Claims Red Warship Sunk

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — The Chinese Nationalist air force said its planes sank a 1,500-ton Communist warship and damaged a smaller vessel today.

The attack occurred near Sanmen bay, 150 miles south of Shanghai.

The air force said eight 500-pound bombs sank the warship and an unannounced number set an 800-ton ship afire and apparently left it sinking.

All Nationalist planes returned safely.

Gas Field Discovered

WEISER, Idaho (AP)—The city of Weiser may have stumbled into the natural-gas business. City officials say a well for the municipal swimming pool and for use in care of lawns has poured out at a steady 20 pounds pressure. The city has installed a meter to see if the gas can be put to use commercially.

Cease-Fire Priority Asked

NEW DELHI (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru declared today that an Indo-Chinese cease-fire should be the priority business of the Geneva conference, with haggling over the war-torn country's future deferred until after the fighting is halted.

Speaking in a foreign policy debate in the Indian parliament's lower house, the premier urged a loose union of Communist and anti-Red factions in both Korea and Indo-China, with full unification to be worked out gradually.

Korea, he declared, must be united to prevent a renewal of the war there and "unity can not be imposed by one side or the other."

He recommended that the North and South Korean governments preserve their separate functions but join in a temporary authority for the whole country.

Without elaborating, Nehru said the same principle could be applied in Indo-China once a cease-fire is obtained there. But the primary business in Indo-China, he insisted, is to stop the fighting.

The Indian leader said he has seen signs of progress in the Geneva talks. The statesmen of both sides there were making an "earnest attempt" to reach an agreement.

Brazil Students Riot

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Forty-three persons were injured and 18 buses smashed Monday as students rampaged in Belem, Brazil, against a bus fare increase, the Meridonal news agency reported. Authorities blamed "Communist elements" for the incident, which left the city's 200,000 inhabitants virtually without transportation.

Stations And Tracks

Everything does not come to him who waits; it depends on how he waits. If he waits passively like a sitting toad with its mouth open, he will not get the fly. If he waits loudly and alertly, things may come his way. Peterborough waited patiently but not silently for forty years for a new Post Office It —and we modestly say, this newspaper —took as many oportunities as possible to agitate for the building. There were forty years of exhorting and complaint, but at last the Government moved; our new Federal Building is now being completed. For thirty years Peterborough people—and this newspaper—have clamoured for better railway stations, preferably a union station. The Examiner's latest outcry was raised a fortnight ago. The City Council is and has been as anxious as other Peterborough people to have a railway station suitable in style, convenience and stature to this bustling city. Our readers will have noted with cheerful hearts that a full-dress conference on the matter is to be held Thursday afternoon. The thirty years of waiting seem to be producing some results

* * *

The meeting with the Council will be attended by headquarters representatives of both railway companies, of the Board of Transport Commissioners and of the Provincial Department of Planning and Development, and by the city's planning consultant, Mr. Gordon Culham. We do not expect a miracle of decision, a union station right away, or the removal of all the worst level crossings, but we have a right to hope that steps will be taken towards some necessary improvements.

* * *

The city representatives should be as firm and hard-headed as they have been with the Bus Company about the lack of an adequate bus terminus. They should not be fobbed off with pretty generalizations that sometime something will be done. The Board of Works and Alderman Anglesey already know the "disgrace" (his word) of the two stations. Something should be done not sometime, but now and within a given time. It is probably useless to ask for a complete rebuilding of all awkward or annoying railway features in the city. Railway business in and out of Peterborough may not warrant this financially, for the railway companies have not kept pace with the growth of Peterborough business, industry and population. Yet it is ridiculous to expect two stations built for a town of ten or twelve thousand people with a handful of industries, to be sufficient for a city of 42,000, 15,000 other people in the district, and for manufacturing and commerce which have multiplied tenfold.

* * *

A union station is desirable, and, we suggest, feasible, even without laying a network of new lines and abandoning old ones. There is already a junction of the C.P.R. and C.N.R. rails near the C.P.R. station which, Dr. Faludi suggested in his 1947 Master Plan for the city, should be the site of the union station. Some improvement in the lines is necessary; the 76 level crossings of 1947 still exist, and more have been added as the city has expanded. Thursday's meeting is the time to get the wheels turning for a new station or improved stations, and to eliminate tracks which interfere with downtown traffic. At present the city is disgusted by both the stations and the tracks.

Convention On Human Rights

As in the United States, a convention has drawn up a Declaration of Human Rights for Europe. This Declaration, which was completed last September, has been ratified by 15 nations. Holland was the most recent nation to add her ratification to that of United Kingdom, the Federal German Republic, the three Scandinavian countries, Luxembourg, Greece, Ireland, the Saar, and Iceland.

The Declaration is eminently practical, in that it covers only laws that can be legally enforced. (1) the right to live protected by laws, (2) freedom from arbitrary arrest and imprisonment, (3) freedom to hold whatever opinion one desires (religious or political) and to impart ideas to others either by speech or writing without interference by public authority, (4) freedom from slavery or forced labour, (5) the right of public assembly and the right to form and join trade unions, (6) no right can be refused on grounds of sex, race, language, religious or political opinion, or other opinion.

The main endeavour of the convention was to assist "backward" countries, and prevent their exploitation. The greatest Administrator of "backward" nations (England) has agreed to co-operate with the U.N. in bringing 42 of her colonial territories under her ratification. This realization of the rights of the people in the backward colonies is a great step forward. Unlike some other countries with suzerainty over exploitable colonies, Britain accepts the moral authority of U.N. to intervene on matters of human welfare in territorial possessions. This is so because the British people themselves have a high regard for human right, their own and those of others.

The 1954 Drama Festival

For the second year in succession the principal award in the Dominion Drama Festival has gone to a group presenting a new Canadian play, of an experimental nature, written in French. It is interesting that our French playwrights appear to be better and more adventurous than those in our country who write in English. We mention the fact; we draw no conclusions from it, for we cannot think of any reason why it should be so.

We are sure, however, that the Dominion Drama Festival is one of the most important agencies this country possesses for bringing together people from all parts of Canada, to engage in a friendly competition. Approximately twelve thousand people attended the festival performances in Hamilton; they came from every part of the country, and the competing groups ranged from Newfoundland to British Columbia. They submitted themselves to a form of criticism never encountered in the professional theatre, and they accepted the judgements of the adjudicator in a generous spirit. Plays were performed in English and French. As the Festival judge, Mr. Hugh Hunt, said in his summing up, this festival is unique in the world, both for its standard of excellence, and for the national character which it has developed. He might have added that the Festival is also unique in that it receives no assistance whatever from the Dominion government, althought it is of Dominion importance, and is not run to make money for anybody. Its patron at present is the Calvert Distilleries, but for many years it managed by begging and borrowing from people interested in the development of the drama in Canada.

The Dominion Drama Festival is the cradle of most of the professional theatre we now have in Canada. It is, in the most self-sacrificing manner possible, cutting its own throat, for it is obvious that those contestants who do the best work are going to become professionals as soon as they can. The rancour between professional and amateur in Canada is virtually non-existent. At one of the Festival events Mr. Lorne Greene, one of the most widely recognized of Canadian actors, paid a generous and serious tribute to the work of the Festival, and gave it all the credit for his own beginning in the theatre. The Festival represents Canada's way of creating a national enthusiasm for the theatre, for promoting high theatrical standards, and for feeding and encouraging what will be, in time, our professional theatre.

To return once again to the winner of this year's first prize, Le Roi David by Jean Filiatrault of Montreal, we may see that the Festival is also encouraging experiment in theatre work. This play deals with the Biblical story of the love of David and Bathsheba, performed in modern dress, and written in the French classical style; it was simple, noble and moving in writing and performance and it marks a forward step in native Canadian drama. The Dominion Drama Festival may be proud to have brought forth such a play. Canada may be proud of having brought forth the Dominion Drama Festival.

The High Commissioner's Visits

We welcome to Peterborough Lieutenant-General Sir Archibald Nye, the British High Commissioner. Sir Archibald is spending two days in the city and many Peterborough people will have the opportunity to see or hear him as he tours factories, receives a civic welcome, is dined, and addresses clubs and fellow-officers. General Nye is received here not only because he is the first U.K. High Commissioner to visit this city; we greet him for his own personal achievements and charm. A distinguished soldier and a barrister-at-law, His Excellency has served his country and the Commonwealth notably. Not the least of his service is in the splendid fashion he is carrying out the duties of his present office.

Roger Bannister of Britain is the fastest runner ever to move on the Earth and his recently-set record has won much admiration. With characteristic German regard for method and mechanism, Herr Woldemar Hermann Gerscholer has made this comment on Bannister's record: "The boldest advance in the unexplored regions of human efficiency". What would the good Herman say about Hermes? He would probably measure the vibration of the godly messenger's wings.

Foreign Legion: Its Cult

By ST. JOHN DONN-BYRNE

SIX BATTALIONS of the French Foreign Legion have disappeared from the strength of this famous corps in the battle for Dien Bien Phu. Two of them were parachute battalions and two formed two-thirds of the Legion's famous Thirteenth "Half-Brigade," which captured Narvik in Norway in 1940, made its way to Britain and served brilliantly with the British Eighth Army. The others were of the Second and Third Regiments of the Legion.

✧ ✧ ✧

ALL were highly-trained and battle-tempered units. Exactly what proportion of the Legion these losses represent is a secret; but the Legion has never in its existence had more than fifty thousand men. Unofficial estimates here are that the six battalions probably comprise fifty per cent of the Legion's strength in Indo-China. Of all the French Union forces engaged in the battle for Dien Bien Phu, the Foreign Legion had the largest investment and its contribution to the garrison's stand was entirely in keeping with an almost fanatic resolve not to fall short of the standards set by desperate and embattled heroes who wore the "white kepi" in past wars.

THE KEYNOTE of the Legion's "disdain for death" tradition is expressed in the name "Camerone," and it is the custom in the Legion to speak of this remote Mexican outpost in the sense of "doing a Camerone." It derives from an episode in 1863 when sixty-two legionaries and three officers fought off two thousand Mexicans. At dusk there were only five survivors, and these launched a counter-attack with their bayonets. The commander of the force was a certain Captain Danjou, whose image the camera, recently invented, fixed for all time as a tall, studious-looking man. Danjou lost a hand at the battle of Sevastopol in the Crimean War, and wore a wooden substitute. This wooden hand was discovered in the ruins of the haceinda after the battle, and is now preserved as an almost sacred relic. The Legion's part in the defence of Dien Bien Phu will certainly be written into its military history as a well-done "Camerone."

It was once said that if the British Navy is the silent service the Foreign Legion is completely dumb. But even the Foreign Legion has succumbed to the habit of public relations. It maintains a colonel in Paris who deals more or less tolerantly with the efforts of the Press to dramatise his corps. He himself has a record of distinction high even for the Legion, and emphasised gaudily by the ribbons on his tunic.

✧ ✧ ✧

POPULAR NOVELS are his idea of the worst possible publicity for the Legion. While I was with him he spoke on the telephone with another journalist who wanted to get some idea of the atmosphere of the Legion, and wondered if that were possible in Paris. No, said the colonel firmly; only in North Africa or Indo-China. But, he added, if you really want to find out what the atmosphere is like, come along and we will be glad to sign you up for five years.

✧ ✧ ✧

THE OFFICERS of the Legion are mainly Frenchmen whose passing-out marks at St. Cyr qualify them for entry. The centre of the Legion's activity is at Sidi Bel Abbes, and its service is confined mainly to North Africa and the East.

✧ ✧ ✧

THE COLONEL explained the Legion as he saw it. The men who join are mainly those who wish for some reason to rearrange their lives. Their motives are often political, and it so happens that the Legion has had its phases of Italian, German and Spanish numerical superiority, related to outbursts of political suppression in one county or another.

✧ ✧ ✧

MORE THAN three-quarters of those who apply are turned down. The colonel has daily letters from men in the United States and Canada applying to join but expecting to have their fares paid to France. There are not many Britons in the Legion, and the Irish are surprisingly uninterested. Frenchmen can join only by giving a false nationality, and on the whole prefer their metropolitan regiments. Nationalities in any case do not matter in the slightest, since on joining every man becomes a legionary—a nationality in itself.

✧ ✧ ✧

THE LEGION does not tempt recruits with false pictures of conditions. The pay of the basic legionary is about seven pounds (sterling) a month—nineteen pounds if he is in Indo-China. His food when possible is French, and he gets the normal French Army ration of wine with his meals. Surprisingly enough legionaries are not particularly interested in the wine; but as the colonel explained, many of them come from beer-drinking countries of north and central Europe.

✧ ✧ ✧

THE OLD CONCEPTION of the drunken legionary has disappeared with the modernising of the force and its new dependence on technical skills. If a man has a record of drunkenness he is not allowed to sign on again after the first five years.

✧ ✧ ✧

WHAT WAS it it that made these men of fifty-two nationalities, with neither the call of cause or country, fight with such amazing stubborness at Dien Bien Phu? There is, says the colonel, a fierce loyalty in the Legion itself. The motto of the Legion is "Honour and Fidelity." Its heroes are Captain Danjou and General Rollet — a spade-bearded warrior whose appearance is much imitated. The Legion's symbols are its regimental standards, its proud memorials and the wooden hand of Captain Danjou. "It is a cult," the colonel said.

MONOLOGUE

Discussing his tennis technique, a stout, amiable, bald man panted, "My brain immediately barks out a command to my body. 'Run forward, but fast!' it says. 'Start right now! Drop the ball gracefully over the net and then walk back slowly.'"

"And then what happens?" he was asked.

"And then," replied the stout man, "my body says 'Who, me?'"

THE PEST

The chemist was getting exasperated. He had been explaining and pricing dozens of articles to the shopper, who didn't really want to buy anything.

Finally she picked up a bottle. "Is this Pet Exterminator reliable?" she asked. "How is it applied?"

"You take a teaspoon every half-hour, madam," the chemist replied pointedly.

All-Powerful Students

By PHILIP DEANE

IT IS some years since Mahatma Gandhi was assassinated, but people on the Indian sub-continent still fast "unto death," and still go on strike as they did under the Mahatma's leadership. Today, however, the fasters and strikers have rather different motives.

Students have become very proficient. Recently one hundred and twenty of them walked out of the examination room of Calcutta University complaining that the questions were too difficult; and that despite the fact that they had already compelled the authorities to reduce the minimum pass level to a forty per cent. mark. Forty per cent. is apparently too much. The Calcutta High Court certainly thinks so, since it has just given its decision in favour of a student who sued his university for not passing him although he had received a marking of thirty-eight per cent.

But then, students are powerful on the Indian sub-continent. It was the students who organized the "United Front" which defeated the Government in the elections for East Pakistan. The students' leader, who is only eighteen years old, contested the election against the Chief Minister, and won by a crushing majority, thus contributing to undermine the position of the Pakistan Government which has negotiated the military assistance pact with the United States. The students organise parties, canvass and hold meetings, when these methods also fail the students, and anyone else who cares to, fast in order to impose their point of view.

It was such a fast by a respected local leader which last year forced the Indian Premier, Mr. Nehru, to create a new State within India's union, the State of Andhra. This is a linguistic State—its frontiers are supposed to encompass all the people in India who speak Telugu. With Andhra as a precedent the other linguistic groups of India are demanding that they too should be given "linguistic States." This would cut right across the present administrative divisions of the country and bring inevitable chaos, at least temporarily.

In this same State of Andhra a local notable has begun a fast to prevent the repeal of liquor prohibition. A respectable local elder has been fasting in another State because rich landowners are not donating enough land to the poor. And in Bangalore a politician has been fasting to prevent the Government from building a new "Legislative Mansion."

But the champion faster at present is the convict undergoing life imprisonment in Jodhpur Gaol, who refuses to eat until his guards are given higher pay. Proof of how seriously even this fast in taken comes from a Government Press not which points out that even since March 10, 1953, when the convict started his fast, he has been tenderly cared for in the local hospital to which he has been transferred, and has been constantly fed artificially by his guards. "Every effort," says the solicitous note, "is made to save the convict's life."

What's Wrong With Education?

(OTTAWA JOURNAL)

Under the heading "What's Wrong With Education", Dr. R. S. Harris of the Department of English, Toronto University, writes a searching piece.

What is mainly wrong, says Dr. Harris, is that a student's general education is not completed with high school matriculation. In Britain the student's general education is completed at the time he matriculates. In Canada it is too often otherwise, with our universities compelled to have remedial English courses.

"We must be reminded of the powerful influence represented by athletics, the movie, television and the dance hall, which combine in a remarkable fashion to produce a generation of young men who read little and write less."

And Dr. Harris has a sharp reply for those who say that the young Canadian of today reads as much as his father did:

"It is sometimes suggested that there is no evidence to support the statement that the student of today reads and writes with less proficiency than did the student of 10, 20 or 30 years ago. Even if true, the suggestion is entirely pointless; the present state of affairs is not improved by knowing that the situation was equally bad or even worse when father was a boy."

And the present situation, on Dr. Harris' evidence, certainly calls for improvement. Thus:

"No statistics are needed to convince the Canadian professor of the 1950's that his students have read very little. True, the high school graduate has read the four Shakespearean plays in his course of study. What is more significant is that very few students appear to have read a fifth Shakespearean play—one they did not have to read. Or a second novel by Charles Dickens or Thomas Hardy. Or another sonnet by Milton to go along with 'On His Blindness'."

Here, we believe, Dr. Harris puts his finger on the real trouble wtih our primary and secondary schools: Their failure to imbue young people with a love of education; with a reverence for it. Give a young man a hunger for learning, a love of it for his own sake, and he will take care of his own general education. Taught the value of education, of the vistas of enjoyment and a better life which it opens up for him, and he will do his own reading, get to know the best things the masters have felt and said, come to reverence speech, and to know to how to write it.

How this may be done no one can say easily; there is so much, so many influences, in between. But we shall never do it, and perhaps not even try to do it, without understanding what is we should aim it.

Bible Message

(From The Authorized Version)

And Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the Lord which saidst unto me, Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred and I will deal well with thee . . : Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and the mother with the children . . .

And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day . . . And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

And he said, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob.

And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and has prevailed . . . And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel: for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved. (Gen. 32:9, 11, 24, 26-28, 30.)

✧ ✧ ✧

And Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, Esau came, and with him four hundred men . . . And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck and kissed him: and they wept . . .

And he said, What meanest thou by all this drove which I have met And he said, These are to find grace in the sight of my Lord. And Esau said, I have enough, my brother; keep that thou hast unto thyself.

And Jacob said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: for therefore I have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, and thou wast pleased with me. (Gen. 33:1, 4, 8-10.)

One Hundred Years of Tension

(Kingston Whig-Standard)

We do not think there was an exaggeration in the warning of U.S. Admiral Arthur Radford, chairman of U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, that the massive militant nature of the Communist threat makes possible a period of turmoil that will last for a century. It seems quite clear that the length of this period of tension depends on the objectives of the Communists. And since the West does not know precisely what these are, it can only turn to periods in history in which a period of tension was imposed by one or more nations because of the ambitions of one or more. And there have been such periods.

We can, if we wish, go back to the Punic Wars, when the row was to see who would control the Mediterranean. These wars did not last for a hundred years, but, with a break of about fifteen years, they came fairly close to it. From a glance at history, it seems certain that tension was established for the greater part of a hundred years.

Then, if we want another example, there is the Hundred Years' War. Again, it doesn't last quite long enough, but who is going to complain of five years off in a century? Ninety-five years will do for us anytime anyone wants to start distributing tension. Then, from the time of Napoleon on through 1870 and beyond, we do not imagine that the French were free from tension as far as the Germans were concerned, and if we remember correctly, there was a period in there in which "perfide Albion" was a national nickname well thought-of.

Almost any nation can establish a period of tension, and if it can do so, why not a hundred years? All things being equal, that is a most respectable period for tension to be maintained. We advise no one to sell Admiral Radford short. His advice is as good as any we have heard, and better than most, in recent months. The people of the Western democracies had better prepare themselves to live under international tension for the remainder of their natural lives.

Enthusiasts Listen For Forgotten Island

WASHINGTON — The "Island the World Forgot" is being remembered briefly as radio amateurs of the Americas listen for short wave signals from a tiny coral outcrop in the eastern Pacific.

Clipperton Island, a lonely atoll 670 sea miles southwest of Acapulco, Mexico, is to go on the air if an expedition of U.S. "hams" reaches its goal. Their storm-battered schooner, engines disabled, had to radio recently for rescue aid, however.

Their distress call indicated that the isle still carries a jinx. For on that insignificant speck of rock amid empty ocean, ten degrees north of the Equator, occurred not only piracy and shipwreck, but also one of the most fantastic and tragic stories in the annals of adventure, the National Geographic Society says.

FORGOTTEN GARRISON

Although France now owns Clipperton, until 1931 its claim was contested by Mexico. In the years leading up to the first World War, fertilizer was dug from the island, and a small Mexican army garrison was maintained there.

In 1914, amid political upheaval in Mexico and the outbreak of World War 1, supplies for the colony in Clipperton, numbering at least 30 men, women and children, somehow were forgotten. Ships simply stopped coming.

After a year the desparate commander, Captain Ramon de Arnaud, took the only three men still strong enough to pull oars and set out to row to the mainland, 675 miles away. They were never heard of again.

A hurricane struck soon after. Then the lighthouse keeper went insane, murdered the remaining men, and set himself up as king. One of the women he sought to enslave killed him with an axe as he slept.

On July 18, 1917 — after three years of isolation — Clipperton was visited by the U.S.S. Yorktown while on Naval patrol. Three women and eight children survived. Their terrible story was pieced together as they were taken to the mainland. But because war still raged abroad, the tragedy received little notice at the time.

SHIP OF STONE

Clipperton is a low, narrow ring of coral roughly seven miles around, enclosing a landlocked lagoon. A single high rock justs 62 feet above the sea, resembling a sailing ship from a distance. From 1943 until the end of World War 11, a U.S. Navy weather station was maintained on Clipperton, 2,000 miles west of the Panama Canal and 3,000 miles east of Hawaii.

Mexico long mapped the ocean outrider as the Island of Passion (Isla de la Pasion), following a legend that sailors of Cortez, landing there in the 1500's, fell into a fight among themselves. In 1705 the island reputedly became the lair of John Clipperton, freebooting renegade mate of the English navigator Dampier.

The island was forgotten until 1858 when a French ship landed a boat to hoist the imperial colors of Napoleon III. Mexico protested, but did nothing else for 40 years. Then in 1897, a year after another French man-of-war visited the island, it sent a gunboat of its own.

Ownership of the island grew more controversial after a British company received a concession in 1906 to work phosphate deposits there. The question was referred to the International Court at The Hague with no result, and then to the King of Italy for arbitration. After thinking it over for 22 years, the Italian monarch awarded Clipperton to France.

Other than the U.S. Navy weathermen, however, only a few shipwrecked fishermen have lived on Clipperton since the tragedy of 1917. All that remained in 1949 were a few rails from the phosphate era, a ruined building or two and a rusted steel jetty at the edge of the reef, washed by surf.

More Than Million Attend Graham's Crusade In Britain

LONDON (Reuters)—Evangelist Billy Graham said in a radio interview Monday night that 1,284,000 persons had so far attended his services during his three-month London "crusade" which ends here Saturday.

"The response has been phenomenal," he said, "larger than any in the United States."

Graham was interviewed by Rev. John Huxtable, chairman of the committee of evangelism of the British Council of Churches.

Graham told him: "If we had room for 25,000 instead of 12,000 . . . we would have filled every seat every night."

FOLLOW UP CASES

He said 27,827 persons had made their "decision for Christ." Of these, 48 per cent were under the age of 25.

"We have followed up every single case and have been in touch with ministers and clergymen to insure they contacted every one," he said. "We have received growing co-operation from church men."

Graham said he has made no definite plans to return to England but added that he probably would visit provincial cities in Britain next year.

Magazine Criticizes Censorship

MADRID (AP)—A church magazine, the only publication in Spain that does not have to submit to censorship, has strongly criticized the government's censorship policy.

Ecclesia, official magazine of the lay branch of the Roman Catholic church in Spain, carried the criticism signed by Jesus Iribarren, a member of the directing committee of Catholic Action, a lay organization in the church.

The article was published Saturday.

"Systematic censorship lowers the professional level of newspaper men and newspapers in general," Iribarren wrote. ". . . Newspapers lose the faith of the public. . . ."

PAPERS RESTIVE

He added that a Catholicism and a national unity "which must be protected every day with guidance of imposed editorials and the order of obligatory silence" must be weak and disjointed indeed.

Other Catholic newspapers have been restive for some time over having to submit to censorship, especially on religious matters. Even declarations of the Pope have been cut sometimes.

Ontario CCF Urges Provincial Relief

TORONTO (CP) — The CCF party's Ontario executive said today the provincial government should provide relief, without delay, for "the thousands of workers" whose unemployment insurance benefits ended last month and who are unable to find work.

In a statement the executive said: "The provincial government, with its swollen surpluses, has quite sufficient resources to provide adequate relief for the unemployed."

"Municipal taxes have already reached the breaking point and responsibility for the employable unemployed should not be sloughed off on the hard-pressed homeowner."

The executive said the province could later "put pressure" on the federal government to assume a proper share of the burden.

Baseball School Promotes Healthy Youths

The Peterborough baseball school will help to step the "gathering momentum of juvenile delinquency" Bill Sisler, onetime pitcher with the Cleveland Indians told the Peterborough Rotary club Monday. Mr. Sisler is director of the school, which will continue for eight weeks after school closes in June.

A sports program which will "hold boys attention and keep them out of the poolrooms" is essential in an age when there are so many other diversions, said Mr. Sisler. He felt the baseball school would not only uncover top Peterborough athletes but would give all youngsters an opportunity to learn and play in a "strict but wholesome" atmosphere.

Mr. Sisler is touring service clubs and other organizations, promoting the baseball school idea. Tuesday he speaks to the Sales-Ad club. At Monday's meeting, he was introduced by Elmer Heard and thanked by President Paul Irwin.

Waxing speculative, Mr. Irwin informed Mr. Sisler that Peterborough has produced the world's champion lacrosse team for the past three years. "Why not the same for baseball," Mr. Irwin asked.

INCREASE OF $700

It was reported that the Easter Seal drive, now over, has netted $7,500 for crippled children. This is $700 above last year's figure, and inspired president Irwin to pay tribute to J. E. Girven, who was in charge of the campaign.

Carroll Cisco, manager of the new Simpson-Sears store was formally indicted into the Rotary club. He was presented by the Rev. Henry Cotton of St. Andrew's United church.

A postcard was read from Charlie Kingan, who is now in the Isle of Man. Mr. Kingen sent along a picture of a gleaming new post office.

Will Conduct Summer Ball Schools

MOOSEHEART, Ill. (AP) — The Loyal Order of Moose fraternal organization announced today that it will conduct baseball schools for youngsters in more than 1,000 United States and Canadian communities this summer.

The schools will be for boys seven years old and older, said Carl A. Weis, national director of civic affairs for the fraternity.

Weis said various minor and major league players and college and high school coaches have been invited to serve on the faculties.

Tempting Traps

VICTORIA (CP)—Cyanide guntraps baited with catnip and seal-oil will be used in cougar-control experiments, replacing dogs and hunters. The guns automatically discharge when the animal tugs at the bait.

Champagne Drinkers

WINNIPEG (CP)—More champagne is drunk in eastern Canada than in the West, according to H.B. Lanson, a French exporter who visited here. He said his firm at Rheims exports 1,000,000 bottles of champagne annually, of which 12,000 come to Caada.

Choose Six Chess Players For Argentina

TORONTO (CP) — A Canadian team of six top chess players was named Monday night to compete in the international chess team competition in Argentina next September.

Bernard Freedman, international representative of the Canadian Chess Federation, said the six—four players and two reserves—were chosen from among 30 of Canada's best chess players. They will go to Buenos Aires for the international meet there Sept. 1-26.

Mr. Freedman said the probable lineup of the team will be: Daniel A. Yanofsky of Winnipeg, Canadian champion; Frank Anderson, Toronto, Canadian co-champion; Paul Vaitonis, Hamilton, and Maurice Fox, Montreal. The two reserves are Dr. Fedor Bohatirchuk, Ottawa, and Dr. Nathan Divinsky, Fort Garry, Man.

The international meet, held every four years by the Federation Internationale Des Echecs which Canada joined in 1932, is contested by teams from more than 35 countries. Canada has played in the international event only once before — in 1939 when Argentina was also host and when Germany won by default. At that time Britain and France, the other finalists, refused to play Germany because war had broken out.

In the same meet Canada tied with Iceland to win the consolation award.

STRONG RUSSIAN ENTRY

The national teams for the 1954 competition include a strong Russian entry. They will compete in a round-robin tourney for the Hamilton-Russel Cup which has been in world chess competition since shortly after the First World War.

The Argentine government earlier announced it will pay the expenses of all the teams participating in the tournament.

Mr. Freedman, who is also vice-president of FIDE and was the co-organizer of the Canadian Chess Federation in 1932, said the six-man team was picked by a federation committee of five in Winnipeg.

Yanofsky, who has been Canadian champ several times before, is also the 1953 British chess champion.

Recently we wrote a piece on Johnny Crough, former Peterborough man and at one time Canada's greatest all-around deaf performer in sports. Comes a copy now of the O.A.D. News commenting on the writeup and adding this item: "There is another oldtimer of athletic note who was a participant at the Peterborough tourney of the O.B.A.D. in the person of Dan Gerow. Now in his 70's he was quite an athlete in his day, having been a member of the Belleville OHA intermediates of 1907 to 1912. Many oldtime Peterborough hockey players recall Dan as one of the most vigorous players on the Belleville teams which visited the Liftlock City in those bygone days. Incidentally, Bill Mayfield, association president, is Dan's son-in-law."

The five-team men's City Softball League pries off the lid in the Bowl d'Ashburnhan this week, opening with a twin bill Thursday eve. TPT Petes play Seabrooke's at seven, and that's followed by UEW and the new entry, Outboard Marines, in the nightcap clash. After that, the men's loop operates each Tuesday and Thursday night (with Saturday available for rained-out tilts) in double-headers till playoff time in August. Prexy Bob Batley, Secretary John McPhee and other executive officers have been busy lining up the loop, and the schedule will be out any day now. Looks like a lot of action for folks over that way from here in.

Two Frays Coming Up

Trailermen trek to Mimico tonight for an OLA senior "A" fixture, and begin their home season Friday in Miller Bowl 'gainst the St. Catharines Athletics. The Mann Cup champs fielded just a so-so- squad in St. Kitts, yet managed to eke out a 10-9 victory. As they round into shape and have more players available like Thorpe, Powell, Hildebrand and one or two more—they'll prove tough defending champions once more this semester, we expect. But they'll find the A's tougher, too, with Powless, Roger Smith and Soper added to a lineup which includes Fravelle, Howe, Nelson Doug Smith, Davies, the Fricks, Moore, Bradshaw, Dewar, Corcoran, Martin and a few more. The A's will really try to spoil our opener just as the Petes ruined theirs last Friday night.

* * * * * *

We see in the Victoria Times where the railbirds in the lacrosse arena were raving last week as Jack Bionda strutted his stuff in practise. They just "never seed anything like it" to paraphrase and this may amuse eastern OLA senior fans, who didn't rate the Brampton and Hamilton star as quite the tops in Canada. But they think he's really terrific out there on the coast. They also are quite tickled to have signed up easterners like Goalie George Johnston of Yorks, Jack Sibbald and, of course, Petes' Nipper O'Hearn. The Vics decided to build this season after losing to Petes in last year's Mann Cup final, and at this early date it looks like the Vics will be coming east next September for another crack at the big cup.

Old Satch in Riverside?

Manager Joe Lowrey is practising the Petes' ballsters up this week as they prep for their home opener in the afternoon Monday against Belleville Batas of the VOBL. A traditional May 24 opener for local diamond followers. Tony Kotowski, Junior West or Brian Wade will likely get the starting slab assignment, as Jerry Frizzelle pitched the tilt last weekend in Toronto. Joe is still seeking one more good flinger for his mound corps. Schedule should be released one of these days, but the Petes have nothing coming up within the next week except the May 24 fixture. They have been approached by the Harlem Globetrotters, a touring Negro ball team, for an exhibition here this summer, probably in July, that team planning to play in Toronto, Belleville and a few other Ontario centres, also.

* * * * * *

Of particular interest in the Globetrotters' lineup is old Satchel Paige, all-time great colored hurler, who has quit the major leagues to resume his beloved baseball barnstorming career. The ageless Satch is still some shucks as a thrower, having an assortment of deliveries that are little short of being illegal. He rates Ted Williams as the greatest batter he has ever seen. "Joe DiMaggio?" scoffs Satch, "Huh, he went nothing for 66 against me!" While Paige has toured the States many times, we can't recall hearing of him strutting his stuff before in Ontario. We hope the Petes can line up this attraction for some sunny night this summer in the field that flows by the Otonabee River.

Jablonski Leads Hitters, Has No Jinx Fear

NEW YORK (AP)—The "sophomore jinx" holds no fear for Ray Jablonski of the St. Louis Cardinals — currently the National League's leading hitter with a .373 average.

The 27-year-old third baseman has rapped out 47 hits, most in the league, and 15 of them have been belted for extra bases.

Bobby Avila of the Cleveland Indians has taken over the top spot in the American League batting derby with a .378 average.

Granny Hamner of the Phils is right on Jablonski's heels with a .370 mark.

RANKS THIRD

Although Duke Snider suffered a 12-point decline, the Dodgers' outfielder ranks third at .361, followed by Stan Musial of the Cards in fourth with .360. Musial, last week's pace-setter, saw his average fall 22 points. He tops the league with 23 runs batted in.

Avila raised his average 32 points by going 14-for-30. He also leads the American League in hits with 42.

Chicago White Sox infielder Cass Michaels is runnerup to Avila with a .362 average.

Cleveland slugger Al Rosen and rookie Harry Agganis of the Red Sox are tied for third with .359 apiece.

Rosen headed the American loop in RBI's with 33.

Saddler Loses Split Decision To Fleet Algerian Khaifi

NEW YORK (AP) — Featherweight champion Sandy Saddler and Percy Bassett, the "interim" king, had better stick to the 126-pound class from now on.

The champ expected a romp against Hoacine Khalfi, a 3-to-1 underdog, Monday night at St. Nicholas Arena and lost a split decision to the fleet Algerian lightweight.

Bassett found himself in way over his head against Orlando Zulueta at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway and lost a unanimous verdict to the clever Cuban with the snapping left jab who is ranked second among lightweight contenders.

Khalfi's stunning success was the second major upset in four days for the French stable of Jean Bretonnel, who saw Jacques Royer a 5-to-1 long shot, outpoint Tiger Jones Friday night at Madison Square Garden.

Khalfi used superior speed and a solid right hand punch to offset Saddler's left-hand punching and roughing tactics.

"Saddler did all the forcing," yelled Charlie Johnston, the champ's manager. "But he wasn't as sharp as he should be. We don't have to defend the title until Oct. 21 (six months after Sandy got out of the army). Right now Luis Perez looks like the best bet."

Saddler weighed 132½ and Khalfi 135 for the bout, which opened a Monday night TV (Dumont) rival for Eastern Parkway (ABC).

Tex Sullivan estimated a gate of $1,100 and house of about 650 at St. Nick's. A crowd of 1,200 was announced in Brooklyn.

Zulueta, a 13-to-5 choice, won as he pleased over Bassett.

Zulueta's manager, Hymie Wallman, is looking for the winner of the June 2 lightweight title bout between Paddy Demarco and Jim Carter at San Francisco.

Reg. Edmunds Prexy Of N. Durham League

BETHANY (ENS) — A meeting of the North Durham Baseball League was held in Bethany with Reg. Edmunds elected president and Vincent Jackson as secretary-treasurer.

The league this year is comprised of teams from Janetville, Millbrook, Keene and Bethany. The first games of the season will be held here on May 24th.

The local Athletic Association have planned a good program for the holiday, beginning with a parade at 12:30 when good prizes will be given for best decorated vehicles; races for all ages; two baseball games and two girl's softball ames; a variety entertainment in the town hall in the evening followed by a dance.

Sudbury Welcomes Wolves Back Home

SUDBURY (CP) — Eighteen days after they left for the West with high hopes of bringing Sudbury its first Allan Cup since 1937, Sudbury Wolves returned Monday to a rousing welcome from faithful supporters.

The Wolves brought no hockey trophy with them. They were defeated by Penticton V's four games to three, after being ahead 3-1 at one stage.

Almost 1,000 fans showed up at the airport. The players and coach Max Silverman were distributed in a dozen convertibles and the cavalcade proceeded to the city, where crowds lined the streets.

Young Jockey Paralyzed

CHICAGO (AP)—Jockey Herbert Cavalier is paralyzed and in "very critical" condition today as the result of an injury suffered in a three-horse spill at Sportsman's Park Monday.

The 19-year-old apprentice from New Orleans suffered a spinal cord injury and is reported near death at St. Anthony's Hospital.

Two other jockeys, William Carroll of Chicago and Ronnie Baldwin of Warren, Ohio, both 22, suffered minor injuries in the collision.

A hospital physician reported Cavalier's entire body is paralyzed.

The collision occurred during Sportsman's fourth race. Cavalier's mount, Skitterygusset, stumbled and fell and was piled into by mounts ridden by Carroll and Baldwin.

THE Calvert SPORTS COLUMN

by Elmer Ferguson

Ted Williams never went out of his way to win the approval of fandom. Rather, the reverse. He was completely indifferent either to plaudits or jeers, and he became, in his heyday, one of the sports figures fandom loved to hate.

When he was called into service from his $100,000 per year job as an outfielder-hitter, public sympathy switched to him. Here was an older man who had done a full hitch of combat flying; a man whose big earning power couldn't last too much longer. And he had to give up everything and go back to work at an Army captain's pay.

But while many were shedding tears for him, Ted Williams said: "My case is not unusual. A lot of men besides me are being called back to service, and a lot are losing plenty of money, too. It would be nice to wake up some morning and find all the world at peace. But men are being called, and if it's my turn, it's my turn."

And what a job he did of getting himself back into shape and hitting .407 when he finally returned to baseball near the end of last season.

Then came that broken shoulder in the first 20 minutes of 1954 practice. From that accident there developed a new sidelight on Williams, the man who supposedly didn't get along with sports writers, wanted no part of them.

After the accident, he was whisked away from the clubhouse for an examination to determine the extent of the mishap. He left in his baseball pants, with a large blanket around his shoulder.

Later, when it was time to return to the clubhouse, others suggested that Ted instead go right to his living quarters, to avoid the crowd and to rest. But he insisted on returning immediately to the ball park "because all of the writers are expecting me."

Now fandom is beginning to appreciate Williams. And why not? In baseball and in armed combat Williams has been great. Everybody is rooting for him to have one more big year.

In a way, the case of Ted Williams is not unlike that of Jack Dempsey. As long as he was champion, Dempsey was far from popular. But after he was beaten he became a public idol.

Fandom is like that. Once the star becomes the underdog, fandom has a way of rushing loyally to his side.

Phils, Cardinals Split Pair; Cubs Win 10-6

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Clevelands' slim hold on first place in the American League is in jeopardy. Ted Williams is in town.

The lanky slugger has arrived with Boston Red Sox for a two-game series with the league-leading Indians, starting with a night game tonight. If there's one player who can knock the Tribe from their top perch, it's Willlams.

Just ask the Detroit Tigers. Monday the Tigers decided not to pitch to Williams, and it wound up costing them the game.

Williams came to bat in the eighth inning with the Red Sox trailing 3-1. There were two out and a runner on second.

INTENTIONAL PASS

Fred Hutchinson, Tiger skipper, ordered pitcher Ned Garver to pass Williams intentionally. Jackie Jensen, next up, hit Garver's first pitch into the seats for a three-run homer—and gave Boston a 4-3 win.

In the National League, Walter Alston's Brooklyn Dodgers are in an exact first-place tie with Philadelphia Phillies.

The Dodgers benefitted from Monday night's intra-league warfare when the Phils and St. Louis Cardinals split a pair. Philadelphia whipped St. Louis 8-4 in a game started as the second half of Sunday's doubleheader and suspended after six innings by Pennsylvania curfew. In the regularly scheduled game, St. Louis won 8-0. Joe Presko scattered seven hits for the first St. Louis shutout of the season.

In the only other games the Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 10-6. The other clubs weren't scheduled.

St. Louis unleashed its home-run power in the full-length contest. Wally Moon, Rip Repulski and Ray Jablonski hit for the circuit.

Hank Sauer brok a 2-2 tie in the fifth inning with a grand-slam home run that set the Cubs on the winning trail at Pittsburgh. The homer was his 12th of the season.

Havana Clubs Syracuse 5-1

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Havana Cuban Sugar Kings, in their first year in the International League, are enjoying first place after a blistering seven-game winning streak, but club officials are complaining about the attendance.

The Kings handed Syracuse Chiefs their sixth straight defeat in Cuba's capital Monday night, 5-1. Havana moved into first place five percentage points ahead of the idle Rochester Red Wings.

In the only other game, Ottawa Athletics defeated Toronto Maple Leafs 7-5. Fred Gerken's sixth-inning triple with two on gave the capital club their victory in an uphill battle.

Bobby Maduro, president of the Sugar Kings, said attendance has been less than expected.

"Paid attendance for the 21 games played in Havana so far is estimated at 91,000," he said. "We had expected about 110,000 but rain has washed out several games."

Thompson Speedboat Ready For Tests

LONDON, Ont. (CP) — "Miss Supertest," a speedboat owned by Jim Thompson of London, was towed here Monday for fitting and when it is ready Thompson hopes to crack the world's speedboat racing record.

Built in Sarnia, the boat is 31 feet long and 12 feet wide. It is an almost exact model of Slo-Mo-Shun IV, the world's fastest speedboat. The boat will be tested first on the St. Clair river near Sarnia.

200 Associates At Foulds Funeral

TORONTO (CP)—Football paid its last respects Monday to W. C. (Billy) Foulds, one of the best-loved men the game has known who died last Friday.

Nearly 200 men who played with or against Billy early in the century or who were associated with him in the governing of the Canadian Rugby Union from 1919 to the present attended the funeral services. Included in the gathering were football officials from Ottawa, Montreal, Hamilton and Toronto.

There were such great old-time stars as Hamilton Laddie Cassels, Dr. Harry Griffiths, Dr. Jack O'Connor, all of Toronto, and Dave McCann of Ottawa.

Foulds, '6, quarterbacked University of Toronto's Grey Cup-winning teams in 1909-10, coached Toronto Argonauts of the Big Four in 1919 and was a member of the CRU rules committee from 1920 until his death. He was president of the CRU in 1921 and again in 1937 and was chairman of the Rules committee from 1920 until 1949.

2 Canadian Drivers Take Daily Double

HAMBURG, N.Y. (CP) — Two young Canadian drivers, both driving three-year-olds, accounted for the daily double of $31 Monday night, beginning the first full week of racing at Buffalo Raceway.

Scotch Al (Bid Gilmour) trotted to victory in the first race and Ettie Hanover (Chapman) won the second.

A 7-5 favorite, Glowing Song, won the C trot for owner S. F. Love of Milton, Ont.

Another Canadian horse, also a favorite, Dream Girl, owned by Wes Litt of Stratford, Ont., won the fourth race. Harold Wellwood drove the nine-year-old mare in second position until the stretch where he took command.

Johnny Chapman of Toronto brought in his third winner of the night in the feature when the 3-5 favorite, First Purdue, won the B pace in 2:07.

Dennes Wins Unanimously Over Kelly

MONTREAL (CP)—Earl Dennis of New York Monday night won a unanimous decision over Bryan Kelly of Niagara Falls, Ont., in a 10-round welterweight bout at Mont St. Louis Gymnasium.

Dennis weighed 142 pounds, Kelly 138¼.

Judge Johnny Gow scored it six rounds for Dennis, three for Kelly and one even. Roch Bouchard had it 5-2-3 and Billy Zed 4-3-3.

Kelly had beaten Dennis two months ago at Holyoke, Mass., winning nine out of 10 rounds.

He then was booked for the biggest bout of his career in two weeks time against George Araujo at New York's Eastern Parkway Arena.

NO KNOCKDOWNS

There were no knockdowns Monday night but both fighters connected with jolting blows. Dennis showed best in the last three rounds which he won by a good margin.

He seemed to have Kelly on the verge of a knockout as he hammered the Canadian with solid punches to the head.

It was an even and lively fight in the early rounds with the battlers taking turns on the attack. Dennis scored with long-range blows to the jaw while Kelly had the best of it when he kept on the move, using a left jab to advantage.

New Trial Ordered For Reece

TORONTO (CP)—The Ontario Court of Appeal Monday ordered a new murder trial for 48-year-old Harry Reece of St. Catharines on the grounds that the jury had been misdirected by the trial judge.

Reece was under sentence to be hanged June 6 for the stabbing of Mrs. Florence Ricker in St. Catharines last Oct. 21. He had been living with the woman.

Chief Justice J. W. Pickup and four other justices agreed in a written judgment that Mr. Justice Wilfred Judson of the Supreme Court of Ontario had failed to adequately place before the jury the theory of the defence that Reece was too drunk to form intent at the time of the murder.

Mrs. Ricker was found in a pool of blood after a wine-drinking party.

The trial judge had directed the all-male jury that Reece should be held criminally responsible for the murder unless his mind was a complete blank. This was an erroneous statement of law, the Appeal Court said.

APPEARED CONCERNED

At the time the appeal was heard, Chief Justice Pickup and Messrs. Justice R. E. Laidlaw, Wilfred D. Roach, J. A. Hope and J. K. Mackay appeared concerned about the extent of drunkenness of the accused and the possibility of intent to murder.

Mr. Justice Judson handed down the death sentence although the jury recommended mercy.

Mr. Justice Laidlaw said during the hearing that he was struck by the way the trial judge had repeated during the trial that "the case for the crown is that this man knew what he was doing."

Defence counsel W. C. LaMarsh said the term should have been that Reece was "capable of forming an intent." Crown counsel W.C. Bowman argued that the terms were synonymous.

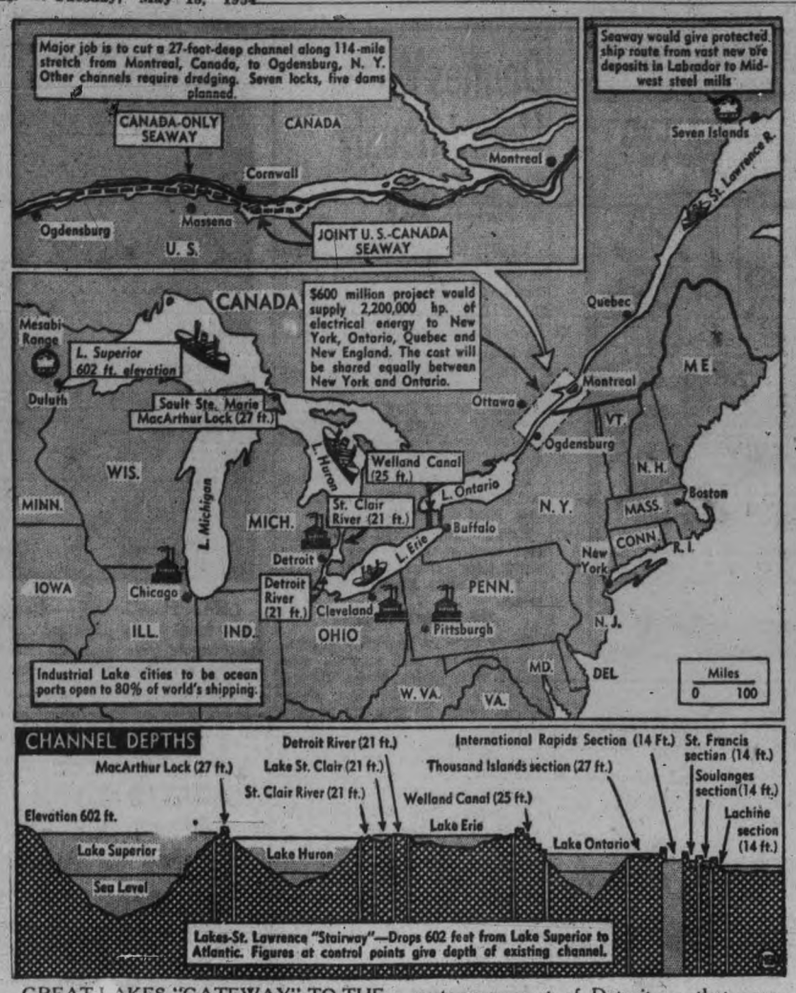
Tessier admitted he was one o two men who trussed up th couple in their home Dec. 16 an robbed them of more than $1,00

Police said the man is als wanted by Lachine, Que., polic for assault and robbery of a ga age attendant Dec. 20.



GREAT LAKES "GATEWAY" TO THE ATLANTIC—When President Eisenhower signed the St. Lawrence Seaway bill, a 50-year debate ended, and a dream became a reality. After completion the Seaway will link the large port cities on the Great Lakes with the Atlantic Ocean. Major project at present will be to cut a 27-foot-deep channel from Ogdensburg, N.Y., to Montreal, Canada, shown in detail upper left. The next project will be to enlarge and deepen all waterways west of Detroit, so that ocean-going vessels can travel between the Atlantic Ocean and the Mesabi Range in Minnesota. The Seaway is expected to play an important part in the defence plans of both the U.S. and Canada, and is expected to fill the Mid-west steel mills' need for new supplies of iron ore from the Quebec-Labrador fields. Varying water levels of the canals and lakes along the waterway are shown in chart at bottom.

Germans Take Low Wages, Outsell Canada

TORONTO (CP) — Low wages and the German worker's willingness to put up with them while his country gets on its economic feet are enabling West Germany to outsell Canada not only in world markets but in the Dominion itself, a Toronto financial writer said Monday.

Albert Turner, the Toronto Telegram's assistant financial editor who has just returned from a tour of West Germany, said in the first of a series of stories on that country's post-war comeback that the national wage average there is only $30 weekly.

The German workers, however, are more interested in preserving their country's competitive position and keeping their jobs than in getting more money right now, Turner wrote.

Wages are 50 per cent of the cost of a pipe wrench costing $1 to make in Canada, Turner wrote. The same tool made in Germany cost 65 cents despite higher material costs and included a wage factor of only 20 per cent.

Consequently, said Turner, the German manufacturer can profitably land the tool in Toronto at less than manufacturer's cost here, with transportation, taxes and duties paid.

Refused To Tell Source Of Liquor Jailed Month

A man who was not able to satisfy Magistrate W. R. Philp QC as to where he had obtained four cases of beer, was Monday fined $100, costs $2.50, for having beer not purchased on his individual permit, and also given a month in prison for failing to tell the court who had purchased the beer for him.

He was Leonard Taylor of Curve Lake Indian reserve. Taylor pleaded guilty to the charge of having the beer illegaly. After being warned that he could receive imprisonment for failing to give an adequate explanation of how he had acquired the beer, Taylor told the court that an unknown man had bought it for him.

He said that he had been in a city poolroom and had asked a man, whom he knew only by sight, to buy him four cases of beer. He had given the man an extra $2 for the service.

Crown attorney John A. Bradshaw QC: "You mean that you are asking us to believe that a perfect stranger bought four cases of beer for you?"

Taylor replied that he had seen the man once before. He had heard him called "Slim" by others in the poolroom, and had played a game with him on one occasion.

Mr. Bradshaw: "What did you want four cases of beer for?"

Taylor: "To drink".

"We are having far too much trouble with you fellows out on the reserve and as I've said before, the time has come to call a halt", commented the magistrate. "I find that your explanation is not good enough."

OPP constable Ken Barber testified in the charge against Taylor. He said that he had stopped a cab in which Taylor had been riding. In the back of the vehicle had been four cases of beer owned by Taylor, who had intended taking them to the reserve.

Hopes Talks Fruitful

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent expressed confidence in the Commons Monday that the Geneva talks on Korea and Indo China may yet bring about peace.

Lords' Leader Praises Queen

LONDON (Reuters)—Lord Salisbury, leader of the House of Lords, said today there were many far outside the boundaries of the commonwealth to whom the British crown "shines out like a beacon on a dark night."

"Today the British crown is known throughout a distracted world as a symbol of all that is sane and good," he added.

Salisbury, Lord President of the Council, was moving a loyal address to the Queen on her return from her commonwealth tour.

He added: "The immense service Her Majesty has done at the present critical juncture in our history by this historic journey through the commonwealth and empire is impossible to value."

Lord Jowitt, leader of the opposition, said that the Queen "by her charm, her grace and dignity and by her thoughtfulness for others, has endeared herself further to her peoples."

Wildcat Strike Cripples UK Trains

LONDON (Reuters)—A wildcat strike of engineers and firemen, objecting to sleeping away from home between shifts, today crippled the rail network serving the western side of England.

Extension of the unofficial strike to sympathizers at depots in other parts of the country hung in the balance.

The dispute began at Newton Abbot, big Devonshire centre, Sunday night over the proposed reintroduction of "lodging turns," which the nationalized railroad executive claim are necessary for economy and efficiency.

It spread to Bristol and today to Paddington, London terminus for the southwestern strip of the country to Birkenhead in the noath.

H-Bomb Victims Making Progress

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Japanese doctor who treated the 23 Japanese fishermen who were victims of the March 1 hydrogen blast in the Pacific has reported success in the first phase of their treatment.

Dr. Masao Tsuzuki, professor emeritus of Tokyo University and head of the medical division of Japan's atomic bomb and casualty research committees, said Monday that the illnesses of all the men have been stopped from growing worse. He said he was informed by telephone from Tokyo that all were slowly getting better.

Originally Tsuzuki had predicted that 30 per cent of the fishermen would die, based on experience he gained from treatment of victims of the Hiroshima and Nagasaki atomic bomb blasts in 1945.

Uses Loudspeaker To Bless Pilgrims

VATICAN CITY (AP)—For the first time in history, loudspeakers today carried the blessing of a pope to St. Peter's Square.

Pope Pius XII came to a window of his apartment and blessed 2,000 pilgrims in the square below. They included French, British, Germans and 100 United States sailors.

A microphone beside the pope carried his voice down to two loudspeakers which had been attached to columns near the bronze gate.

Council Turns Down Increase For Maroons

CHATHAM (CP) — City council Monday night voted 4-2 against an arena commission recommendation that hockey manager Jack Stewart's contract be changed to give the Chatham Maroons a 70 per cent split of gate receipts instead of 60.

Council sent back the request to the commission to find an alternative solution.

The Maroons are the local entry in the Ontario Hockey Association's Senior A league.

Petrovs Enjoy Blowing Darts

CANBERRA (Reuters) — Grim details of Soviet espionage were interrupted today as an Australian security official described Vladimir Petrov and his wife trying to blow darts from a Borneo Indian blowpipe at a morning tea party.

George Ronald Richards, first witness to appear before the government spy probe here, described the incident to show the Petrovs have been under no restraint since the former Soviet embassy official and his wife sought asylum here last month.

Richards, assistant director-general in charge of operations in the Australian security and intelligency organization, described a visit he made with the Petrovs to the home of W. J. V. Windeyer, chief Commonwealth counsel.

He said the three of them arrived in Windeyer's suburban Sydney home about 11 a. m.—just in time for the morning tea.

Richards said the Petrovs made friends with the dog and spent most of the time in the garden. Later Windeyer showed them a blowpipe he had brought from Borneo, and they practised shooting darts. They had a drink before leaving.

He said Windeyer had wanted the Petrovs to visit his home to assure himself they were well and not under any duress.

Trip For Farmers Planned To U.S.

As secretary of the Peterborough Crop Improvement Association, Frank C. Paterson reported today twelve seats remaining in the bus that has been chartered for the educational trip to Pennsylvania during the first week of June.

Mr. Paterson has been in communication with the Pennsylvania extension service, counterpart of the Ontario Department's service. With that co-operation an interesting itinerary has been drawn up.

The party leaves Peterborough Wed. June 2 at 7 a.m. from the bus terminal, King St., and will travel by way of the Ivey Lea bridge, through New York state to southwestern Pennsylvania, then westerly to State College, and back home by way of Buffalo arriving here Saturday evening.

Farms and other places of practical interest to farmers will be visited during the four days. Total distance to be travelled is about 1,200 miles. Transportation and incidentals cost $20, meals and hotel accommodation for three nights will bring the total to about $50. Most of the men who made the Ohio trip last year, are going to Pennsylvania.

This trip is planned by the Association for its practical benefits, and the executive is hoping that all the seats will be taken. It may be years before another travel journey for educational purposes is undertaken through the east.

He claimed she was a back seat driver. A restraining order was issued against the woman.

Storm Stops Search For Flying Cigar

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (Reuters) A snowstorm Monday stopped an all-out search by police in Gaellivare Paris, Swedish Lapland, for a "flying cigar" reported to have crashed there.

Local inhabitants had reported seeing a hot, glowing, orange cigar about a yard long which passed swiftly through the air before falling noiselessly to the earth.

Some said the cigar had a bulbous nose. Others said it was double-headed.

An earlier mysterious object which the Laplanders had reported to the police turned out to be a weather balloon.

Children Present Three Plays

Young Thespians, some of them no more than eight, delighted their parents and other interested citizens as the Peterborough Children's Theatre presented three productions at the library Saturday afternoon and evening.

An adaptation of Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream" by Robertson Davies led off the junior festival. Although competition from the Shriners' parade outside was stiff, the young artists performed well at what was their first attempt at Shakespeare. The production was directed by Mrs. Irene Campbell, who also produced all three plays.

Some of the youngest members of the children's theatre, including eight-year-old Richard Holt as the dormouse were involved in an hilarious production of Lewis Carroll's classic from "Alice in Wonderland," "The Mad Hatter's Party." Children lived the roles under the coaching of director Barbara Malsch.

Mrs. Campbell's husband, John, was author of "Nice Mice," a comedy designated to appeal to both adults and children. Makeup for this play was handled by Miss Lyn Littlefield and Miss Genevieve Thompson, while Mr. Campbell doubled as make-up man in the Shakespeare production.

Costumes for "The Midsummer Night's Dream" were loaned by the community theatre, while mothers of the stars designed the costumes for the other productions. Staging and lighting for all three were handled by John Holt and Frank Ball.

The following children took part in the three productions:

Midsummer Night's Dream: Susan MacKay, Allison Low, Tom Caldwell, Catherine Nott, Jennifer Davies, Rosemary Epston, Lynda Swartz, Marlene Harrison, Marilyn Ephgrave, Margaret Whitfield, Judy Honey, Terry Crowley.

Mad Hatter's Tea Party: Marlene Harrison as Alice; Joy Elliott as the March Hare; Richard Holt as the dormouse; David Epston as the mad hatter.

Nice Mice: John White, Jennifer Davies, Terry Crowley, Judy Honey, Marilyn Ephgrave, Ellen Matthews, Sylvia Crowley, Evelyn Cherney, Maureen Carter, Sheila McKeever, Elaine Marks, Marg Whitfield, Sheila Scutton, Richard Holt.—D. C.

Norwood 4-H Club Planting Trees

The 4-H Forestry Club of Norwood High School is planting 5,000 red and jack pines today in Asphodel township on land bought by the municipal council as a means of co-operating with the student boys and girls.

The council is also providing the trees, John Bell, Zone forester, informed The Examiner.

Ken Best, assistant agricultural representative, who is supervising 4-H Club activities in the county, took off this morning to help in directing the project. Incidentally, this is another of the community affairs the Asphodel council has promoted this season.

The 4-H Forestry Club of Lakefield High School set out more than 15,000 trees two weeks ago, the second instalment of their ten year undertaking to plant a total of 150,000 at Nassau.

MILLIONS OF TREES

The Ontario Department of Lands and Forests is distributing millions of trees this season from the five provincial nurseries, Mr. Bell said. Most of the shipments are for the renewing of timber resources on Crown land and in forests under agreement with the province. Many other allotments are to private land owners.

This work might be regarded, in part, as the reverse side of the Christmas tree business which provides income for many people beyond the farming fringe whose land is probably suitable for not much more than growing conifers.

The 4-H Club forestry site in Asphodel is about three miles east and south of Norwood.

3,000 Watch Strange Lights In Steeple

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP)—Some 3,000 persons, the largest crowd in three nights, came for a look at the strange, flickering lights in a church steeple here Monday night.

Police finally draped a tarpaulin around the steeple of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church to disperse the onlookers.

A parish priest has scoffed at the belief the lights come from supernatural causes, saying that they are mostly a reflection of colors from a corner traffic light.

A reporter said the lights on previous nights seemed to change colors at the same time as the traffic signal, but that Monday night the light was whitish instead of orange, yellow and pale green.

The pastor, the Rev. Francis J. Sexton, has been besieged by telephone calls and visitors for the last few days. He drove away to an unannounced location to get some rest Monday.

The lights have appeared nightly for the last three weeks, but attention on them was focused late last week when the church sexton, Matthew Guarino, 64, died of a heart attack in the choir loft, just below the steeple. He had climbed the stairs to try to find the source of the glow, police said.

Huge Plastic Balloon Launched For Navy

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—A huge plastic balloon, perhaps the largest of its kind ever made, was launched at 6. a.m. CDT (7 a.m. EDT) today.

The balloon, made by General Mills, Inc., for the United States office of naval research, was sent many miles into the air with a cargo of secret instruments.

One source, who could not be quoted by name, indicated the balloon was at least the size of one unsuccessfully launched here Sept. 3, 1952. Fully inflated, that balloon would have been about the size of an 18-story building.

Bible Translation Needed To Stem World Communism

Arise ye prisoners of salvation. Throw off the shackles of your birth.

These words have a "tremendous emotional appeal" to the world's army of underprivileged people, Rev. H. Egerton Young, area secretary of the Upper Canada Bible Society told the Peterborough Rotary club Monday. These are the opening lines of the Communist "Internationale."

Whether or not one is impressed by the message of the Bible, translating scripture is "very relevant to the tense world situation," said Mr. Young. He saw biblical translations as the opening wedge to show the world's demoralized and dispossessed that the appeal of communism is spurious.

The characteristic mien of the western world citizens is "primarily to think of their own well-being while three-fifths of the world is starving and illiterate." Spreading Christian truths can thus become a political weapon which will allow "the world's children to grow up free from war, working together towards their common destiny as children of God."

NOT PACIFISTS

Christians, Mr. Young continued, are not pacifists. Those who read the Bible are "the first to rebel" against tyranny. Tyranny comes in many disguises, and "communism is but one manifestation of the secularism which plagues our age." All forms of totalitarianism tend to "reduce Christianity to a helpless cog."

The work of the British and Foreign Bible Society, of which the Upper Canada Society is an affiliate, centres around translation. Mr. Young recalled that portions of the scriptures have been translated into more than 1,000 languages but "there is still much to be done."

Many of these languages have never been written before. The society is thus providing primitive cultues with a literature, for the written word is "the beginning of education." A written language tends to "raise tribes from jungle law."

Biblical translators run into etymological difficulties which sometimes make their job almost hopeless, said Mr. Young. He pointed out the difficulty of translating comprehensibly such abstract but meaningful nouns as faith, hope, and love.

A pragmatic approach must be taken by the translators. A tribe in Eritrea, for example, reads the majestic "let not your heart be troubled" passage as "Don't shiver in your liver."

BRAILLE SCRIPT

The Canadian society is co-operating in translating Bible into a universal braille script, recently developed by UNESCO to make braille a common mode of expression. Each braille translation of the bible contains 20 large volumes. For those who cannot finger-read, the society also produces talking records of the scriptures.

An important function of the group on the home front, said Mr. Young, is with new Canadians. These are given bilingual bibles, both their tongues and English. This helps immigrants learn English and keep in touch with their faith.

Returning to the international aspect of the bible society's work, Mr. Young stressed the militant attitudes of many Christians in Soviet-dominated lands. He cited the case of one devout Lithuanian who saw war as the only hope for the world. "Millions are praying for peace," said Mr. Young, "but we must remember that many are praynig for war—believing it the only way for the gospel again freely to be distributed."

This is "especially frightening in this atomic age." The bible society should recognize these attitudes and seek to "create a world atmosphere in which war no longer is necessary."

DISTRIBUTION IMPORTANT

Distribution of scriptures is important in 1954, since in many lands Christian missionaries have been forced to retreat. Mr. Young felt the focal point of the society's work should be India, with more than 300 Indian tongues and only two translations of the Bible.

Indian translations must, furthermore, be made by eastern minds, said Mr. Young. The society is encouraging converted Brahmins to work at translating, since Christian missionaries may be forced to leave India within five years or less.

The speaker drew an analogy to communist China, which has expelled Christian missionaries. But "before the doors were closed we had planted many Bibles."

Although seven more languages were added to the total of those translated into Scripture in 1953 and 200 languages are being worked on (45 of these tongues with no written literature) the society is still a long way from its goal. Fewer than a third of the world 3,000 known languages have had translations of even a portion of scripture.

Mr. Young was introduced by YMCA secretary Jim McClenaghan. A Malton native and Victoria college graduate, Mr. Young spent his pre-war ministry at a far north Manitoba mission field called God's Lake. During the war he served as chaplain with the engineers, returning to assume his present post as district secretary. He was thanked by the Rev. Arnold Mathews.

May Ask Engineeers Study Canal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Representative Winston Prouty (Rep.-Vt.), said Monday he may ask that U.S. army engineers look into the feasibility of a 27-foot canal linking the proposed St. Lawrence seaway and the Hudson river.

The canal—once planned as part of the seaway authorized under legislation signed last week by President Eisenhower—would extend from the St. Lawrence, through the Richelieu river, Lake Champlain and into the Hudson.

It would shorten the distance between New York City and Great Lakes by as much as 1,500 miles, Prouty said.

Open Hearing On Simcoe Murder Charge

SIMCOE, Ont. (CP)—Two men charged with murdering 68-year-old Bruce Beatty at his Renton service station appeared Monday before magistrate H. P. Innes for preliminary hearing.

Jerry [illegible], 47, Syracuse, N. Y., and Joe Glen Lotharp, 23, Detroit, were arrested Feb. 5, two days after Beatty was found critically injured in his home at the rear of the service station.

Beatty died in hospital the night of the beating. His 63-year-old wife, also badly beaten, is still in critical condition. She has been unable to talk since the attack.

L. T. Pennell, Brantford, counsel for Lotharp, moved for the exclusion of all witnesses.

Raymond Chambers, Simcoe, said he "gassed up" at the Beatty service station Feb. 1, then entered the restaurant part of the premises and saw Lotharp and Simmons. Mrs. Beatty also was there, said Mr. Chambers.

Chambers said he next went to the station Feb. 3 and found no power on the pumps, so could not serve himself, his usual custom. He went inside and "saw blood all over." He heard some one moaning. It was Beatty.

"I went across the street and phoned the police," said Chambers.

Dr. James R. Harker, Simcoe, said Beatty died of brain injuries. Some of the wounds were "rather clean-cut" but one was not. The clean-cut wounds suggested a sharp instrument. The other indicated something blunt.

The U.S. Defence Department says the Sparrow is rocket-powered and fully manoeuverable at supersonic speeds, yet light and compact enough to be carried in multiple units by fighter-type jet aircraft. Information about its weight, range and performance have been withheld, but an aviation magazine estimates that the Sparrow is capable of speeds up to three times that of sound.

Fear 14 Drown At Weekend In Michigan

DETROIT (AP)—At least 14 persons are unreported and feared drowned in Michigan lakes.

If all are dead, it will mark one of the state's most disastrous weekends in drowning fatalities with a total of 22 lives lost. Eight persons were drowned earlier in bathing and boating mishaps.

The coast guard and Selfridge Field air base searched vainly on Lake St. Clair Monday for eight in two families, including four children, unreported since going out in a boat Sunday.

Their 18 - foot motorboat was found capsized Monday three miles off Jefferson beach on Detroit's suburban east side area.

Two who were drowned earlier were a Korean war veteran, Richard Schlarb, 20, Detroit, and his 16-year-old bride, Geraldine, when a wave swamped their motorboat.

Five companions clung to the boat until rescued. Schlarb was drowned in a futile effort to save Geraldine, his bride of two months.

HUNT THREE BOYS

State police dragged Griffin lake near Flint, for three boys feared drowned when their borrowed boat capsized. The boys, wards of juvenile court, were Tim Montel, 16; his brother, John, 14, and Kenneth Clayton, 13.

On Lake St. Clair searchers all but gave up hope in the attempt to save the two missing families.

The eight known to have been aboard the capsized boat were Walter C. Yeomans, 40, of Grosse Ponte Woods, owner of the boat; his wife, Lilth, 36, and their two sons, Wally, 12, and Thomas, 7, and Mr. and Mrs. David MacLerie of Detroit and their two children.

Also vainly sought on Lake St. Clair was some trace of an unreported rented rowboat missing since Sunday with two unidentified men and a woman aboard.

Admits Guilt Awaits Sentence

James Atkins, 25, an army private from Peterborough, on Monday afternoon was remanded to May 25 for sentence on a charge of breaking, entry and theft at Steinkrauss's tobacco warehouse last March 25.

He had previously elected speedy trial before Judge John de N. Kennedy in Peterborough county court and pleaded guilty. The further remand is to get his army record.

Charged as an accomplice in the breakin, 26-year-old Lorne Cromie, also of Peterborough, elected speedy trial. He did not enter a plea when arraigned Monday afternoon before Judge Kennedy, and he was remanded to May 26.

His counsel, Gordon H. T. Farquharson, pleaded unsuccessfully for less than two sureties on the $1,000 bail asked by the crown, but this was opposed by Crown Attorney John A. Bradshaw, QC.

"A man who reaches the age of this accused ought to be able to get two sureties—other than his mother," said Mr. Bradshaw.

Gerald Hogan, 24, of RR 3 Peterborough, the third of the trio that police charge broke into the warehouse, had pleaded guilty in magistrate's court and was sentenced to six months definite and four months indefinite in reformatory.

Graduates Told Teachers Most Important

HAMILTON (CP) — More than 225 McMaster University graduate and post-graduate students were told Monday that too little is said about men and too much about systems and methods.

Kenneth G. B. Ketchum, headmaster of St. Andrew's College, Aurora, said at the university's convocation ceremonies that the teaching profession "is a vital and rewarding profession and the nation needs you desperately."

Mr. Ketchum said what most is needed in education is the teacher.

"But what is taught a student, though important is not so important as the person who teaches it."

Graduating students included those on four-year honors course, three-year general arts course, and wo[illegible]n the five-year nursing course and extension department students.

Degrees were conferred by chancellor E. C. Fox, assisted by vice chancellor G. P. Gilmore.

Agree Municipalities Shouldn't Pay Gov't Taxes

OTTAWA (CP)—Parliament's three opposition parties agree that municipalities should not be required to pay federal sales and excise taxes on their purchases.

A motion by Opposition Leader Drew to that effect was supported by the CCF and Social Credit leaders in the Commons Monday but was ruled out of order before it came to a vote.

His motion, technically non-confidence in the government, sought Commons support for exemption of municipal councils and school boards from excise taxes and the 10-per-cent sales tax on equipment and supplies.

Mr. Drew said that if municipalities are not to be given wider taxing powers through a general reallocation of tax fields, they should receive relief from increasing costs by way of tax exemption.

Speaker Rene Beaudoin studied the motion for two hours before ruling the proposal out of order on the grounds that the topic already has been discussed this session during the budget debate. Furthermore it related to a budget resolution before the House for sales tax exemption for municipalities on purchases of certain types of road-building and fire-fighting equipment.

BACKED BY CCF

In the interval, however, the proposal was backed by CCF leader Coldwell, Social Credit leader Low and other opposition members, and opposed by two Liberals.

At the start of the sitting, Defence Minister Claxton tabled a 58-page white paper on defence, listing the achievements of the country's defence programs and sketching in some of the future plans.

Mr. Drew's proposal had been presented in previous sessions, and was a plank in his party's general electio platform last summer.

He said the tax exemptions are needed by municipalities, caught between rising costs and limited taxing powers.

WANT SAME RELIEF

It was only proper for municipalities to receive the same tax exemptions granted provincial governments, since they were the legal creations of the provinces.

Mr. Drew referred to his recent proposal for a federal-provincial conference to reallocate taxing powers among the three levels of government.

That proposal was rejected by Prime Minister St. Laurent, he said. If municipalities were not going to be given a stronger financial footing, they should receive some other relief.

Their financial difficulties often meant they could not finance their share of federal plans such as house-building and civil defence, and such programs were not carried out.

WRAPS ARE OFF — Photodiagram above shows the United States long-secret T-43 tank, just unveiled at Chrysler's Newark, Del., tank plant. It's the nation's newest and biggest military tank, with fire-power to outslug any tank in the world today. Designed by U.S. Army Ordnance and Chrysler engineers at the Detroit Arsenal, the T-43 has been in production at the Newark plant for more than two years. The giant completes an entirely new series of U.S. tanks, designed since World War II, which includes the T-41 light tank and the Patton T-48 medium.

Russia Gives Austria Warning

VIENNA (Reuters) — Russia's high commissioner in Austria Monday told the government to prevent "anti-Soviet activities" or face retaliatory action.

Ivan Ilyichev issued the warning in person to Austrian Chancellor Julius Raab and Vice-Chancellor Dr. Adolph Schaerf.

He also accused the Austrian government of tolerating anti-Soviet activities and allowing anti-Soviet and militaristic literature to be smuggled into the Soviet occupation zone.

Ilyichev said that unless these "subversive actions" are curbed, Russia will insist on strict obedience of all decisions regarding the control of Austria, taken by the four occupying powers — Britain, the United States, Russia and France.

Ontario Passing Buck—Oliver

TORONTO (CP) — The Ontario government is "passing the buck" to the federal government in an attempt to avoid provincial obligations, Ontario Liberal leader Farquar Oliver said Monday night.

The provincial government should be prepared to accept its full responsibility of government in fields recognized as being under provincial authority, Mr. Oliver said. He spoke over an Ontario network of the CBC's free-time political broadcast on provincial affairs.

Mr. Oliver said municipalities have a right to look to the province for financial assistance, especially when provincial revenues have been more buoyant than ever before.

Education, health insurance and civil defence were all provincial matters. Ontario's position that the federal government should absorb all civil defence costs was weak because Ontario probably needed civil defence more than any other part of Canada.

Seeks Order To Permit Duplex House

Sam Moldaver Goes To Supreme Court To Overrule City

Sam Moldaver has applied to the Ontario Supreme Court for an order of mandamus requiring the city to issue him a building permit to erect a double duplex dwelling at Dumble Ave. and Nicholls St.

City clerk E. A. Outram told city council Monday night he had been served with notice of motion of the application last Friday and had turned it over to city solicitor W. F. Huycke, QC. This is the third such application in less than three weeks.

On May 6, Chief Justice J. C. McRuer of the Ontario High Court granted an application for an order of mandamus requiring the city to issue a permit to Neil R. Sloggett to enable him to build a motel at 390 George St. S. John Corkery, who acted as legal counsel for Mr. Sloggett, is also acting for Mr. Moldaver.

A week ago, council's finance committee instructed city engineer A. E. Chalmers to continue to refer to the planning board all applications for building permits which he considered did not conform to the provisions of the proposed zoning bylaw.

ISSUED PERMIT

At the same time, the city instructed the engineer to issue a permit to John Conlin to erect a service station on Parkhill Rd., between Reid and Donegal streets.

The city was earlier served with notice that Mr. Conlin had applied to the Supreme Court for an order of mandamus for the permit. The decision to grant the permit before the Supreme Court hearing got under way was taken on the advice of the city solicitor.

Monday night, the committee of the whole council recommended issuing a building permit to Donald W. Clarke to make his house at 268 Lansdowne St. into a duplex dwelling.

John Currelly, who appeared with Mr. Clarke as his legal counsel, said his client had applied for a permit for a duplex in 1953 but had been granted a permit only for a single dwelling. The house was now at the stage of construction where it could still be made into a duplex.

City engineer A. E. Chalmers told the committee, after the regular council meeting, that Mr. Clarke's application had gone to the planning board who had recommended issuing a permit for a single dwelling because of the size of the lot, which had a frontage of only 39 feet. A council resolution limits frontage to a minimum of 40 feet.

OTHERS CONVERTED

Ald. Harold Rehill pointed out that other properties, flanking Mr. Clarke's, had been converted into two-family dwellings in the last few years. He said Mr. Clarke's house seemed to be well built.

The committee adopted Ald. Pat Anglesey's motion, seconded by Ald. Alene Holt, to grant the permit for a duplex.

Mr. Moldaver's application for an order of mandamus is scheduled to be heard by the Ontario Supreme Court on May 25.

City's Debentures Sell At Highest Price In Recent Years; 9 Bids

Issue Totalling $482,640 Sold At More Than 3 Cents Above Par, After Interest Rate Reduced To 4 Per Cent.

City council Monday night accepted a bid of 3.167 cents above par on a debenture issue totalling $482,640.17.

The bid was the highest of nine received and was entered by a group consisting of Nesbitt, Thompson and Co. Ltd., Imperial Bank of Canada, the Dominion Bank and Harris and partners Ltd. The lowest bid was 2.377 cents above par.

The fact that all the debentures, both long and short-term, bear interest at only four per cent strengthens the belief that the sale is one of the best in recent years. A January issue, bearing interest at 4½ per cent on long term debentures and 4¼ on short term ones, brought only 1.54 cents above par. An issue of short term debentures a year ago, bearing 4¼ per cent interest, brought a bid of .246 cents below par.

REDUCED INTEREST

Finance committee chairman Ald. Pat Anglesey told council the interest rate on this debenture issue had been reduced to four per cent because of the fact that the present market for debentures was very strong. But he didnt think anyone had anticipated the bids would be as high as the city did receive.

Ald. Anglesey said the bids had been opened Monday afternoon in the presence of himself, Mayor Norman Graham, city treasurer A. S. Couper and auditor Ed.

The issue comprises 20-year debentures totalling $85,000 for the board of education to cover the cost of the addition to Grove school; $36,000 for 20 years for the utilities commission for the gas department; $42,022.86 for 20 years for the waterworks department; $73,607.40 for 10 years for sidewalks; $152,395.05 for 10 years for pavements; $93,614.86 for 15 years for sewers.

Disc Passes Over Boy, Escapes With Broken Arm

KEENE (ENS)—Five-year-old Ne" Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Richardson, escaped death or serious injuries, when a set of double discs pulled by a tractor passed over his body. His only injury was a fractured arm.

Neil had been left by his mother on the farm of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stillman, R.R. 3, Keene, in the Ontonabee township. Mrs. Richardson was acting as substitute teacher at Zion school for the day.

About 3 p.m. Mr. Stillman was driving his tractor, attached with double discs, down the farm lane, Neil, playing with his cousin, Linda Stillman, evidently decided to climb on the tractor and fell between the tractor and the discs.

The front bar of the disc knocked the boy down in front of the row of discs. Mr. Stillman did not see the boy. Mrs. Stillman saw the accident from a distance, but could do nothingg.

Neill's body went between the razor-sharp wheel discs as the implement passed over him.

Dr. Nelson Ford of Keene was called and he rushed the boy to Civic Hospital where he is being treated.

Girl Awarded $3,706 From Accident

Nancy Parnell, 19, a punchpress operator who lives at 318 Euclid Ave., on Monday afternoon was given a Supreme Court award totalling $3,706.05 damages in compensation for being thrown from a motorcycle two years ago and seriously injured.

The defendant, Donald D. Sproule, of 1308 Monaghan Rd., admitted liability for the accident but contested the amount of the general damages.

In her statement of claim, Miss Parnell asked for $206.05, the amount of hospital and medical expenses (agreed on between the parties), and $10,000 for pain, suffering and permanent disfigurement (disputed).

(As she is under 21 years, Miss Parnell had to sue through what is legally termed her "next friend," in this case her father, John M. Parnell. J. C. N. Currelly was her legal counsel.)

Mr. Justice King, presiding at the non-jury sittings, now in its second week, assessed her general damages at $3,500.

DEEP CUT

When thrown from the rear seat of the motorcycle, Miss Parnell suffered mild concussion, a five-inch laceration extending from her forehead through her eyebrow and eyelid that went to the bone, cuts on her right foot and knee, and a punctured right thigh.

The injured girl was in hospital for five days, convalescent at home for three month, and continued to suffer discomfort for 18 months. At present she claims that, when she is tired, her injured right eyelid droops till it is half closed; and she has facial and leg scars.

"On the evidence I feel that it is probable (Miss Parnell) will enjoy an improvement with respect to the droop of the right eyelid," said Mr. Justice King, "but the scars will remain."

The justice described the scars as "noticeable but not repulsive."

The accident in which Miss Parnell was injured occurred about 11.30 p.m., May 16, 1952. She was riding on the rear seat of a motorcycle being driven east on Highway 28 by William Foster, 18, of 368 Water St. Sproule, driving a car west on the highway, apparently didn't see Foster's and a second motorcycle and he started a left turn into the Hitching Post.

In the evasive action that followed, Foster's motorcycle went through a ditch, up onto the Hitching Post driveway, and hit a parked car. Foster and Miss Parnell were both tossed onto the gravel unconscious.

Dead Rose Bushes Offered City's Amateur Gardeners

By HARRY THEOBALD

Why shouldn't the Horticultural Society appoint one of its executive members to whisper—or shout—in the ears of managers of certain downtown stores that it is about time they gave the hybrid tea rose the consideration it deserves.

Consignment of bushes of named varieties are offered on the counters along in April and early May. Customers buy them in the attraction of their price and promise of bloom. It happens, however, that some of them appear to have died in transit, wherever they came from, and others wither in display. Many are in bud and putting forth shoots. This business of a few weeks is casually repeated year after year, and strangely without protest from the public who in many instances buy lifeless stock.

SOME REWARDING RESULTS

Some people have had rewarding results from the roses they bought with bushes that were alive when they were taken home and made ready for planting. One such flowering return might cultivate membership in the Horticultural Society, but dead gads are a disillusionment that should be charged to insensitive merchandising. It seems to be a case of the blind leading the blind when those kind of bushes are permitted to be put on store counters.

The dead bush or one with only a faint spark of life left in it, is bound to snuff out whatever interest prompted its purchase. One display a few weeks ago retained only the final utility of starting a bonfire. The whole lot was as dry as tinder. That observation does not apply generally to the stores that bought in roses this season.

At one counter some of the buxom Peach variety, that cost $2.50 to $3 a few years ago, were priced at 59 cents. Most of them looked vigorous and a bargain.

Range of varieties was sufficient to plant an attractive garden, providing bloom this summer, if all the bushes were vital; and they weren't.

VARIETIES OFFERED

Some of them were: Crimson Glory, a grand dark red; Briarcliff, a rosy pink; Mme. Jules Bouche, a fine white; Betty Uprichard (accent on the first letter, not syllable, of the surname), an old favourite of Dickson propagation; Condesa de Sastago, a blend of yellow, red and copper; Herbert Hoover, scarlet and yellow, and quite a number of dead bushes in that bundle; New Dawn, a climber whose blossoms look like enlargements of the crab apple bloom; Fashion, a floribunda of pinking-peach buds.

One of the stores offered a few specials at $1.49, including the glamor name Comtesse Vandal, a coppery orange, that had all the appearance of full value for the extra money.

REQUIRES UNDERSTANDING

This springtime business in some of the big stores is a seasonal specialty that requires understanding behind the counter, and evidently beyond that spot to some ultimate executive. The dead bush is a dud. The person who buys is getting no value for his money, or hers, for many women are buyers. The management wouldn't offer corresponding trash at any other counter, nor tolerate it, any more than the company would. How is it possible that rose bushes should be an exception. Some of the customers are buying a hope, and getting a gyp, however unintentional it may be.

Repetition of this observation and experience spring after spring exhausts patience. If the novelty stores will not do a sympathetic job for the selling of roses they should leave the bushes to the florists and nurserymen.

Fewer Americans Come To Fish In Kawarthas

Though fishermen crowded the Kawarthas in unprecidented numbers during the weekend for the opening of the pickerel season, observers at some points say that there were fewer Americans.

This was especially true at Bobcaygeon, insurance man Russell Shields, told the Examiner today. Did he think it was the result of the government's recent decision to abolish the family fishing license? Mr. Shields did not know, but he did hear that tourists were disgruntled about having to buy individual fishing licenses. However, they accepted the new ruling when applying for their permits, Mr. Shields added.

The new ruling had the resort owners in the district stirred up, too, and in the third week of April members of the resort section of the Chamber of Commerce and others held a meeting of protest. Their unanimous decision was that by abolishing the family fishing license it would be detrimental to the tourist industry in the Kawarthas.

PREPARE SAMPLE

Members at the meeting agreed that chamber manager James Fraser should prepare sample of a querry slip which they would see were completed at their resorts by Americans to see if they did or did not favour the changes, and why. This program was undertaken immediately by the chamber but results to date have been disappointing.

Members at the meeting who said they would each distribute hundreds of these forms have been very slow in ordering them and when they did, they seemed to think that 100 forms per resort would be sufficient for a survey. Very few members ordered more than one pad. And there are now less than 5,000 slips requested.

It was thought by Mr. Fraser that at least 35,000 forms should be printed and distributed, to get a comprehensive survey under way. The chamber is having 10,000 slips printed and hopes that members will distribute them all.

New Signs Still Direct Traffic Up George St.

Highway routing through Peterborough is a mess.

A visitor arriving at Peterborough from the east on Highway 7, headed for Port Hope, might after conscientiously following the designated labyrinth through the heart of the city, arrive at Lakefield. The provincial route map directions through Peterborough contain ambiguity.

Why? Because traffic entering the city from the southeast, northwest or southwest is collectively directed toward the central section and business district, and, when it gets there, is confronted with the Charlotte-George St. no-left-turn sign.

Consequently, traffic coming from the east on Highway 7, intending to follow Highway 28 through to Port Hope, might easily be diverted up George St. to Charlotte, be forced to turn right to Water St. (a combined 28 and 7 route) and follow Highway 28 north toward Lakefield and Bancroft.

NO SOLUTION

Discussions between city officials, chamber of commerce men, and representatives of the department of highways, have been held in the past to solve this problem, but the desire to route as much traffic through the business section of the city as possible, still seems to overshadow the need for clarity of direction.

George St., from Charlotte to McDonnel St., is marked Highway 7. So is Water St., but it is also marked Highway 28. To start for Port Hope on Highway 28 from the corner of Charlotte and George St., traffic must proceed east on Charlotte, north on Water, west on McDonnel, south on George (Highway 7, and finally west on Charlotte (Highway 28).

Some of the indicators along George St. marking it as Highway 7 have been removed through the years. They are being replaced by the department of highways today to continue to direct traffic through the heart of the city.

Rhode Island Red Hen Gets Honors In Statewide Poll

WASHINGTON, — Sentiment usually plays the major role in selection of state birds, but it bowed to reality in a recent Rhode Island contest. The Rhode Island red hen, noted for its succulence and egg-laying ability, walked off with the honor of a statewide election.

The commercially popular red hen polled 1,500 more votes than its closest rival, the hummingbird. The osprey, bobwhite and towhee finished far behind. A total of 20,783 votes was cast.

Thus the nation's two smallest states have now decided on a barnyard fowl as the official bird, says the National Georgraphic Society. In 1939, Delaware picked the blue hen, renowned in colonial days for its cock-fighting progeny.

KENTUCKY WAS FIRST

Choosing a state bird is a modern custom. Kentucky initiated the practice in 1926 when it selected the cardinal. Similar campaigns, sponsored by women's clubs, Audubon societies and nature groups, were soon begun in a half-dozen other staes.

Today the cardinal is the nation's most popular bird. Seven states have chosen it. Runner-up with six titles is the meadowlark. The mockingbird has been honored by five states, the bluebird and goldfinch by four apiece, and the robin by three. Thirty-five states have passed their selections into law.

Citizens of several states have delved into history for their bird representatives. Thinking back to 1848, residents of landlocked Utah named the sea gull as their favorite. In May of that year, vital wheatlands planted by early pioneers were attacked by huge swarms of crickets. Men, women and children vainly battled the pests. Suddenly, from the islands of Great Salt Lake appeared thousands of gulls. They gorged themselves on the invaders and saved the wheat.

A grateful people erected a monument to the gull in Salt Lake City, and the bird is protected by state law.

"IN MEMORIAM"

Because it recalled nostalgic memories, the yellowhammer woodpecker, or flicker as it is commonly called, was adopted by Alabama in 1927. A fighting unit of young Alabamians nicknamed themselves "Yellowhammers" during the Civil War, and marched into action with flicker feathers in their caps.

Alabama is the only state to select a woodpecker. Louisiana, the only seacoast state to choose a sea bird, picked the big brown pelican. Even though it has the longest coastline of any state, Florida selected the land-loving mockingbird. California turned to its own valley quail.

Pennsylvania's ruffled grouse and South Dakota's ring-necked pheasant are the only other game birds to rate official adoption.

Notable omissions in the list of state birds include the whippoorwill, the catbird, and such beauties as the scarlet tanager and waxwing. Starlings and English sparrows have been bypassed, too.

Three years ago the Minnesota senate passed a bill naming the loon as state bird. Perhaps fearing jokesters, the legislators reconsidered and killed the motion a few days later.

Change Legislation On Radio Operators

OTTAWA (CP)—The government took action Monday to make it possible for non-British immigrants to be employed as radio station operators in Canada.

It also asked Parliament to continue in legislative form authority for the United States government to employ American operators at U.S. government radio stations in this country.

The two proposals are contained in a bill to amend the Radio Act introduced in the Commons by Transport Minister Chevrier. The proposed legislation received first reading.

The Radio Act provides that no one may operate a radio station in Canada unless he is a British subject. All Canadian citizens are British subjects.

Sees Private TV With Many Promoters

HALIFAX (CP)—A top spokesman for Canada's private television industry said Monday Canadian TV should have many promoters because government control alone would lead to news suppression and distortion.

T. J. Allard, executive vice-president of the Canadian Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters, said the Canadian television industry must be made up of competing sources of news, information and entertainment because "it is not in the nature of man to be capable generally of any great degree of objectivity."

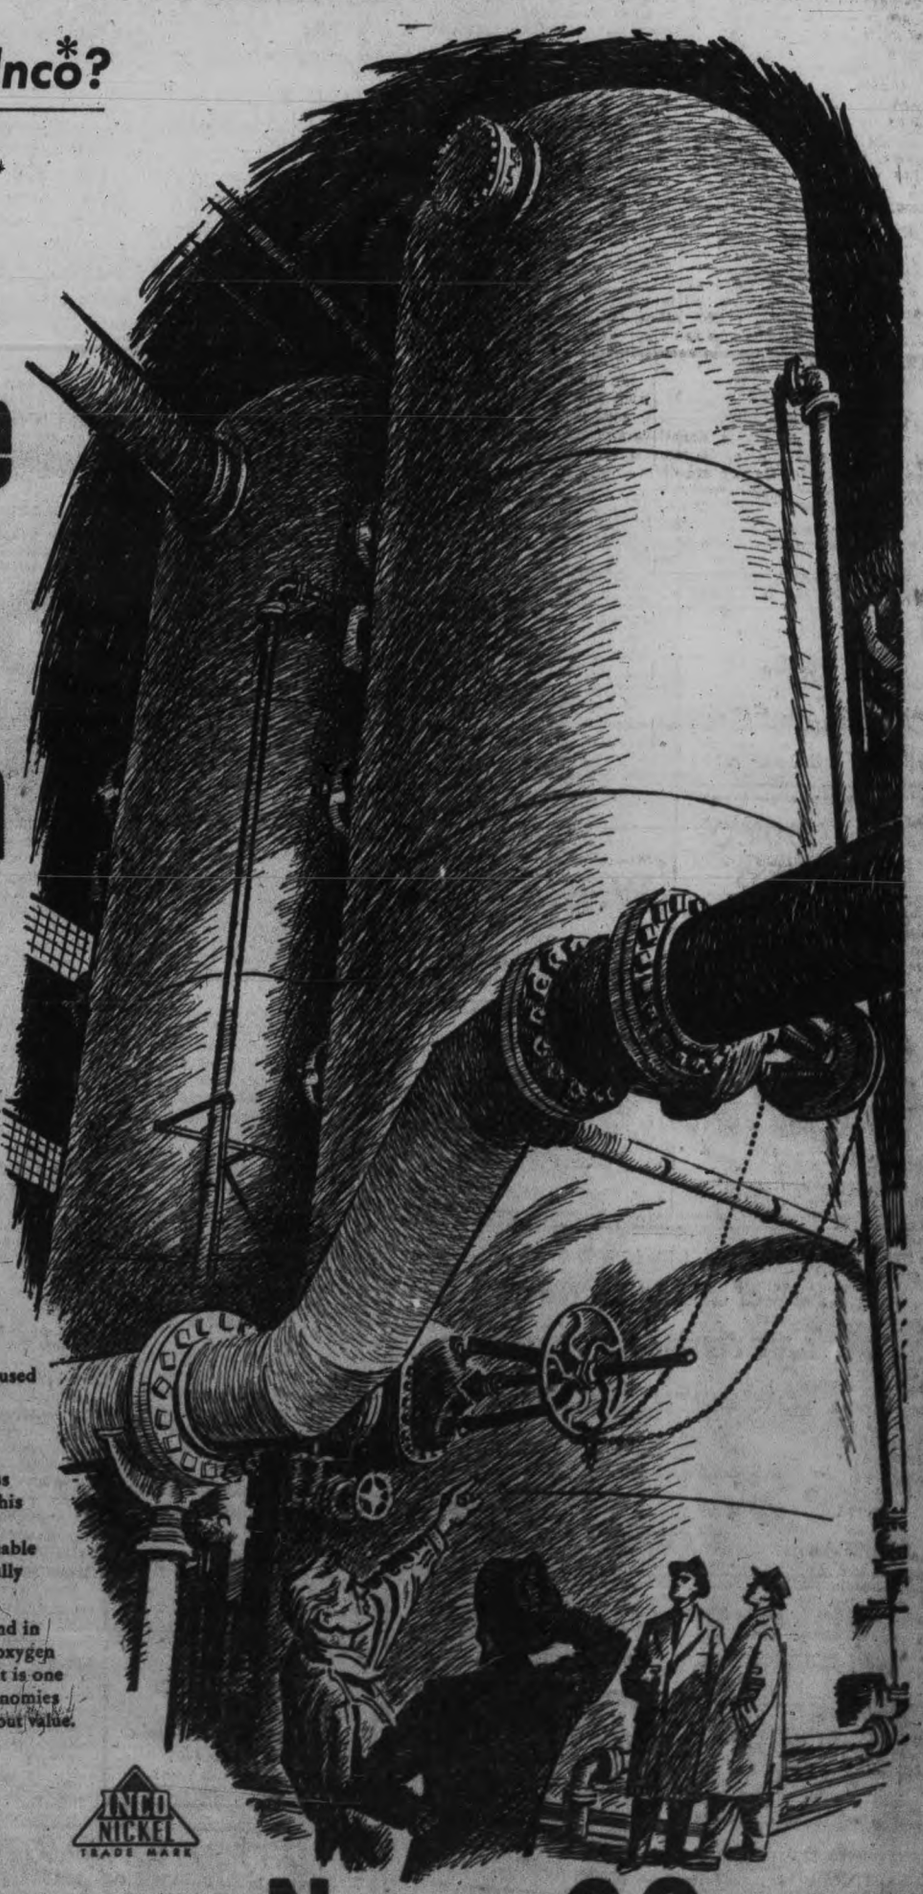
What's news at Inco*?

We freeze 300 tons of oxygen a day out of the air



Every two minutes in this modern plant, a blast like an elephant's snort tells of a modern miracle that is taking place. Under pressure at 280° below zero, air is being liquefied and the oxygen separated from nitrogen and other elements. The blast is caused by the expulsion of the nitrogen.

The oxygen, thus obtained from the air, is conducted through a pipe-line to the smelter where it is used in Inco's new oxygen process of flash smelting the copper concentrates. This process eliminates the use of coal and makes possible the economical production of a valuable by-product—sulphur dioxide—which eventually is used in making paper.

This oxygen plant, the first of its size and kind in Canada, produces more than twice as much oxygen per year as all other plants in this country. It is one example of the way Inco introduces new economies and finds uses for by-products formerly without value.

Tug Skippers Get In Trim For Big Race

By ART BRYDON

WINDSOR (CP)—Tugboat skippers, as a general rule, are a clannish lot who like to gather for a quiet drink, puff their pipes and tell a few tales of fresh water sailing.

Once a year, in the Detroit-Windsor area, friendliness is lost in the propeller - lashed Detroit river as the only international tugboat race on this continent gets under way. This year's race, the fifth, starts about 1 p.m. Saturday.

The race, sponsored by the International Tugboat Racing Association, was the only one of its kind in 1950 when it started. Now it is copied in Seattle, Wash., and New York, but without the international flavor.

The Canadian entries are provided by Captain Earl McQueen of Amherstburg whose spunky Atomic won the 1950 and 1951 races. After the first battle, river skippers named McQueen "the grey tox of Amherstburg."

USED CANADIAN SIDE

He whipped the Atomic up the Canadian side of the river where currents were weaker. It was an easy win.

In 1952, John Roen V of Sturgeon Bay, Wis., romped home to roars of rage from other skippers who claimed she was a "ringer" because she exceeded the 115-foot length provided by the rules. Rules were suspended and Roen V came home ahead complete with two guest staterooms and a cocktail bar.

John Roen III of Sturgeon Bay won the race in 1953 with Atomic third. Sachem, a Detroit tug, came second.

OUT FOR CANADA

McQueen's men, working overtime, at top speed and in secret are out to bring the winners trophy back to Canada this year. The steam tug Abert has been converted to diesel power and is expected to be in top shape.

The Atomic will be among the 17 entries, as will the faithful old Patty McQueen, which generally chugs cheerfully along in the rear.

At the last association meeting, several skippers wanted entries to close a week before the race but the majority "allowed as how about two minutes before the starting gun was lots of time." The race will be run entirely in Canadian waters and prizes presented on the Canadian side of the river.

The boats are classified as to horse power, from 0 to 200, 201 to 300, 601 to 900 and over 900. All leave the starting line at the same time. The first boat home in each class receives a prize.

Out At The Kawartha

The ideal golfing weather of last Saturday proved a perfect lure to Kawartha golfers. Starting time was 10:00 a.m. this year which is a very excellent arrangement. Entrants had the choice of playing either 9 or 18 holes. The early starting allowed many to get away in good time and so that a goodly number played the 18.

The winners were as follows: 18 holes—First flight: Low gross, Jack Haldimand; first low net, C. Heath; second low net, C. MacDougall. Second Flight: Low gross, A .Caccavella; first low net, A. Dainton; second low net, R. Mounce. Third Flight: Low gross, R. Shadgett; first low net, D. Kidd; second low net, B. Bergey; third low net, J. Rodgers; fourth low net, W. Fell.

Nine holes—Low gross, J. Raine; first low net, J. Corbett; second low net, F. Welford; third low net, F. McGillen; fourth low net, C. Corbett.

The Sunday ball sweep proved very popular and the winners of this were the following: First low gross, W. Crowley 81; second low gross, I. MacGillivray 81; third low gross, M. Akers 81. First low net, T. Caccavella 66; second low net, P. Pryde 67; third low net, K. Hill 68; fourth low net, A. Buckton 69; fifth low net, W. Durant 69; sixth low net, C. Grant 70.

Ian MacGillivray pulled the hat trick with a birdie three on No. 7 and won for himself the first case of coke donated to those scoring birdies on this hole.

This coming Saturday is visitors' day out at the Kawartha. This is the day when members may bring their friends out for a game of golf and, give Lex the old poo bah because there will be no green's fees. In the evening the annual opening dance will be held and this promises to be one of the best yet. Members are also permitted to invite their friends to stay for this gala event. The tom-toms start at 9:00 p.m. and the swingin' and swayin' will last until the lost chord is found.

Walls Earns 10-Round Beshore Decision

EDMONTON (CP)—Earl Walls of Toronto, Canadian heavyweight boxing champion, Monday night earned a unanimous 10-round decision over Freddy Beshore of Los Angeles in a one-sided non-title fight. Walls weighed 194, Beshore 192½.

The 25-year-old Walls, who has 26 knockouts in 36 professional fights and ranks eighth as contender for the world heavyweight title, kept the Californian at the end of repeated left jabs throughout. There were no knockdowns.

The bout, before a crowd of 5,500, was originally scheduled last month but was postponed when Walls injured his right hand in training.

LITTLE DIFFICULTY

The Canadian Negro, who held advantages in weight, height reach and age, found little difficulty with the 31-year-old Beshore's close-in style. Beshore's only effective punches were looping rights.

Walls staggered Beshore in the second and fifth rounds but Beshore always managed to hang on briefly and then come up with a flurry of blows to stave off a knockout.

Police Arrest 11 Reds In Karachi

KARACHIE, Pakistan (AP) — Police today arrested 11 of Karachi's Communist leaders, and indicated more will be rounded up shortly.

The arrests were made under the Pakistan Safety Act which permits jailing without trial, and were launched in the wake of warnings by Premier Mohammed Ali that "the foul conspiracy of Communists should be crushed" in this Moslem state.

The prime minister blamed last week-end's bloody labor riots in East Pakistan, which claimed more than 300 lives, on the Reds and "other elements inimical to Pakistan."

HOLD 100 IN E. PAKISTAN

East Pakistan police have already jailed about 100 persons, terming some of them enemy agents and saboteurs. Communists in that area separated from West Pakistan by almost 1,000 miles of India, have been backing a campaign to detach the eastern area from the central government.

All is reported determined to ban the Communist party—in East Pakistan at least—as a result of the riots which broke out Saturday at the Adamjee jute mills in Narayangunj. More than 100 bodies were reported found in the trouble area Monday, bringing the known dead to over 300.

Missionary Work Taking On "New Look"

MONTREAL (CP) — Three women who have devoted their lives to helping the people of the Far East said Monday missionary work has taken on a new look.

Bessie M. MacMurchy, a nurse, Elsa Peter, who classes herself a social missionary, and Dr. Minnie Gomery, a medical missionary, said their vocations now consist of "helping people to help themselves."

Here to address a mass missionary rally sponsored by combined church and social organizations, they agreed in an interview that the new development is giving missionary work new strength.

Miss MacMurchy, a native of Collingwood, Ont., is taking an advanced nursing course and on her return to India, where she has worked for 20 years, will teach graduate nurses in their native Hindu. A Presbyterian, her course is under the auspices of 10 different missions in central India.

SAYS NATIVES FRIENDLY

She has worked among the aboriginal Bhils of that area, who have been "on the whole friendly to missionaries, although somewhat skeptical of hospitals and modern medicines."

"We're overcoming that, however," said Miss MacMurchy. "We even have had witch doctors among our patients in the hospital."

Miss Peter, a third-generation missionary, helps in carrying on a program of economic and technical assistance in Pakistan under the auspices of the Church of England.

Dr. Gomery, a native of this city, now is 79 and was one of the first Montreal women to win a medical degree.

Fiance In Service Refuses Setting Of Wedding Date

DEAR MISS DIX: When I graduated from high school I was engaged, with the wedding scheduled in five months. However, my fiance was drafted, so he thought it best to postpone the ceremony. When he came home on leave, he didn't refer to our marrying. He seemed annoyed when I broached the subject. Later, I insisted on arrangements being made and he said he thought an indefinite postponement would be advisable. I tentatively suggested a time and he said, "We'll see." Now, months later, he refuses still to be pinned down. My mother wants time to make plans for a nice wedding, I'm 20. Mac is 23, and we've been engaged for three years. Surely that's time enough for him to make up his mind. He constantly assures me of his love, and is with me every spare minute he has when he's home. Should I go along with these constant postponements, or break-off?

LILA

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: The handwriting is on the wall, Lila, for you to read if you'll only take the time. Devoted as Mac apparently is to you, his devotion doesn't carry far enough to cover the responsibilities of marriage while doing an Army stretch. The young man is wiser than you are in seeing the difficulties that would beset you now, as husband and wife, and his vague commitments for the future actually hold little assurance for you.

WHEN HE'S OUT OF UNIFORM

Perhaps when he's finished his service, he'll be glad to settle down to domesticity—perhaps he won't At least, he's being honest enough to refrain from setting a date, and he probably would be more open about his ideas for the future if you didn't nag him constantly. The very best way to handle your problem is to break the engagement, continue your friendship with the lad, and let the future take care of itself.

It isn't fair for you to be kept dangling, but believe me, it would be far more unfair, to both of you, to enter into a marriage with a reluctant partner. Many young men, especially those in service, are so unsettled, emotionally and economically, that they feel it's impossible to count on a perfectly prearranged future until they are back in the world earning a living. Mac needs sympathetic understanding, and if you can bide your time I'm sure you will be amply rewarded. After all, you're both very young, he'll be out of service within a year, then you can resume where you left off, if matters have come to no other conclusion.

DEAR MISS DIX: Two months ago I was introduced to a young serviceman of 22. I fell in love with him at first sight, and he declared his love for me. But, after two weeks of dating, he admitted he was married. His wife is older than he, and he married her for her money. He doesn't love her. However, he hasn't mentioned getting a divorce. He leaves next week for duty in a distant state and I'm afraid I won't ever see him again.

F. D.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: And won't you be the lucky one! As soon as he reaches the new base some other girl will be handed the same line, and probably will be as gullible as you. In the meantime his wife, who almost certainly has no money but what he condescends to give her, is eating her heart out waiting for him to come home. One of life's greatest tragedies, it seems to me, is the utter waste of charm which could be diverted to good purposes. If men, or women, who can so easily win other people, would only exert the same effort in the cause of a principle or an ideal, how many candles they could light in tthis dark world of ours.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: Though I am by no means a raving beauty, I have frequently been told I'm attractive. I'm a good student at school and have lots of friends, but rarely a date. When I do date, the boy seems to like me, but doesn't call again. Some of them have dated me six or seven times, then they drop me. I don't usually kiss a boy until the third or fourth date; my girl friends say this is the trouble. They think I'm too reserved.

WILMA

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: You claim a scarcity of dates, yet boys date you six or seven times. That doesn't seem like a dateless existence to me. Perhaps you make it obvious that your regular schedule is "no kissing until the fourth date." Some boys actually do appreciate more discrimination on the part of their girl friends. You have nothing really to worry about, Wilma. Just continue to be your friendly, pleasant self and the dates will keep coming.

Women's Royal Army Corps Head Named Brigadier

LONDON (CP)—Col. Mary Railton, 47, will become the only brigadier in the Women's Royal Army Corps next September and the boss of 6,500 women.

The colonel with the crisp air of command succeeds retiring Dame Frances Coulshed, CBE, as director of the corps. Only the Princess Royal will then hold superior rank to the woman who started 16 years of service life in the voluntary, unpaid ranks of the First Aid Nursing Yeomanry. The Princess Royal, daughter of the late Queen Mary, is controller-commandant and a major-general.

Col. Railton joined the FANY's in 1938, then transferred to the army. She started her wartime career as a corporal driver and held a commission by 1940. Later she became senior commander of the Auxiliary Territorial Service group at Scottish command headquarters.

The ATS became the WRAC in 1949. Since last September Col. Railton has been deputy director at southern command.

Her new command will last just three years. Compulsory retirement comes at 50. Col. Railton is a non-smoker, a moderate drinker with a taste for travelling, walking, music and theatre. For off-duty she likes casual country clothes. She is blue-eyed and five feet, seven inches tall.

Two Portable Appliances Very Popular

Versatile, quick, attractive — any or all of those adjectives can well be used to describe the latest in portable cooking equipment.

Two appliances in particular, the deep-fat fryer and rotisserie, have been so improved that many dealers now rate them as the most promising sellers on the market.

The appeal of these electrical cooking wonders stems from the fact that they're so convenient. Being portable, they can be easily moved from the kitchen to the dining room to the patio—anywhere there's an electrical outlet.

This can be mighty important to the housewife—especially during hot summer months when standing over a stove is not the best way to cool off.

Both appliances are automatic thus eliminating cooking guesswork for the housewife. And they retain precious minerals and vitamins that make the food healthier for the family.

The infra-red rotisserie broiler is fast growing in popularity.

This appliance has a glass-enclosed main section equipped with a revolving spit and, above that, a flat grill surface. All in all, it can broil, barbecue, roast grill, fry and toast.

Most models are large enough to hold a 10-pound roast or fowl. When used with special attachments, a rotisserie can prepare anything from lamb chops to broiled bananas—and, it does the cooking rapidly. A four pound chicken, for instance, can be cooked well-done in an hour.

Adding to the rotisserie's work-saving value is a built-in timer that turns off the current automatically.

The deep-fat fryer is equally versatile. Shaped somewhat like a toaster, it makes French-fried potatoes, doughnuts and other deep-friend delicacies as simple to prepare as boiling an egg. And it will also cook such varied foods as stews, soups, pot roasts, vegetable and puddings.

Wehn using it to deep-fry, the housewife first puts in some shortening, then sets the automatic heat control. A signal light indicates when the desired temperature has been reached and, after that, all the user has to do is dunk the fry basket into the shortening for a specified length of time.

Food is fried thoroughly without too much fat absorption. And the shortening can be used many times over.

Not to be overlooked from a labor-saving angle is the fact that both appliances do away with much pot and pan souring. They're cleaned in the proverbial jiffy.

MARY MOORE SAYS:

Overflow Readers' Column Conducted By Mary Moore

QUESTION: I noticed some person asked if you knew anything to take that yeasty taste from bread made with that fast-rising yeast. I always made my own bread but that yeast is the only kind I can buy. It leaves a taste to my bread which to me is terrible. In the Saturday paper I think you had found something and I hope so. It will be so much appreciated. I am 83 years old and always baked my own bread but now with that yeast I cannot.—Mrs. S. McC. (See below).

QUESTION: Here is another woman who does not like the taste of yeast. I missed the answer you sent in to improve it.—Mrs. G. A. M.

ANSWER: To both Mrs. S. McC. and Mrs. G. A. M.

What I said to the reader who found my advice brought success was that it is not the type of yeast you use that causes yeasty taste. Yeasty taste results from dough being too warm during rising. Make bread by overnight method, using only 1 package of the new granular yeast, and let it rise in cool place —NOT at room temperature. If both of you ladies do not eliminate yeasty taste from your bread by following these instructions write to me again and give me your bread recipes, and I will try to decide where your trouble is.

QUESTION: Can you give me any help in buying for a dinner to serve 300 people mostly adults. The menu is tomato juice, roast beef, mashed potatoes, gravy, peas and carrots (frozen), pickles, bread and butter, celery, radishes, cabbage salad, cake and ice cream, tea and coffee. The cake is to be slab cake bought from a bakery and ice cream rolls. The meat and vegetables are to be put on the table family style.—K. G.

ANSWER: Tomato juice: allow 6 ounces per serving and buy this in 105-ounce (restaurant-size) tins from grocery wholesale. Beef: If boneless allow 3 ounces per serving and buy 90 pounds raw weight. If bone in allow 4 ounces per serving and buy 120 pounds. Mashed potatoes: allow 1 medium-large each which amounts to 110 to 120 pounds. Gravy: allow 2 gallons which permits a generous 1-ounce serving each. Peas and Carrots: allow 4 ounces each serving mixed carrots and peas (you can buy this mixture canned in 105-ounce (restaurant size tins). Bread and Butter: serve 1 roll and 1 pat butter to each guest (1 pound butter cuts into 60 or 70 "pats"). Pickles: I'm stumped on this but do have the individual count on 128 oz. (wine gallon) bottle olives; 350 medium size, 248 jumbo size. Celery: 1 bunch will serve eight people. Radishes: allow two radishes per person. Cabage Salad: allow ½ cup per serving and thus you will need 10 Imperial gallons. Sheet cake: 6 sheets measuring 12 x 20 inches cut into 2½ x 2-inch squares. Tea: use 3 oz. fine quality tea to 6 quarts boiling water to serve 50 people 1 serving (don't make the tea in 1 big batch; make six 6-quart batches). Cofefe: Six pounds pulverized grind to 12 imperial gallons boiling water will serve one 6-ounce per person. Ice Cream: One individual roll each. Okay? These figures are hard to come by so I wish interested readers would clip this now.

QUESTION: Perhaps you can help us with a problem. I have developed an allergy to mustard recently, hence I cannot eat ordinary mayonnaise. I take a sandwich for lunch to work and mother uses mayonnaise as a sandwich dressing. Do you know a recipe for salad dressing or mayonnaise which does not call for mustard.—Ruth M.

ANSWER:

WALTHAM SALAD DRESSING

One cup sour cream, 1 egg, ¼ cup vinegar, 2 teaspoons salt, 2 teaspoons sugar, ⅛ teaspoon each pepper and paprika and if desired, ¼ teaspoon curry powder. To sour cream add beaten egg, vinegar and remaining ingredients well mixed. Cook, stirring, in top of double boiler over boiling water until thickened. Chill. Store covered.

I sincerely hope this is satisfactory.

Will Tan You In Winter

That beautiful flattering sun tan you have picked up last summer at the beach seems too good to lose, doesn't it?

Yet each year it's always the same. Along comes October and November and soon the tan has faded.

Just because it's always been that way in the past, however, is no reason it has to be this year. For, as many are finding out—those who aren't lucky enough to live in a warm climate and who can't afford a winter vacation — a sun tan all year 'round is easy to obtain with a sun lamp.

If a person can be tanned by the sun, he also can be tanned by the sun lamp. And the "artificial sun" is always ready for use, regardless of clouds, rain or snow.

In addition to its "beautifying" effects, the sun lamp also has health value.

It's rays are a source of Vitamin D, which helps build strong teeth and bones. And studies by several firms have shown that many children and adults don't get enough of the "sunshine vitamin" in their diets during winter time.

Sun lamps are available in many styles, and most of them are easily portable. At a relatively low cost, you can enjoy the benefits of a sunshiny southern vacation right at home, in almost any room of the house.

Tales of persons falling asleep under the sun lamp and receiving severe burns from the penetrating rays have led some people to think that a sun lamp is a dangerous instrument.

Actually, a sun lamp, like any other electrical device, is dangerous only when mis-used. Apply common sense to its use, follow the manufacturers' instructions which are included with each lamp, and bear the following rules in mind:

One: Don't expose yourself for too long a time.

Two: Don't place the lamp too close to the skin.

Three: Keep eyes closed or use goggles during exposure.

Foiled again!

YOU PROBABLY use aluminum foil in your own kitchen as a handy material for wrapping food of all kinds. Now from California comes word that aluminum foil is being used to wrap ready-cooked enchiladas. Lovers of this highly seasoned Mexican dish can now simply pop them in the oven to heat, then serve them in their aluminum containers.

Food and aluminum go naturally together. From the hygienic milkers used in modern dairies to the utensils in hospitals and your own home, aluminum is prized for the way it protects the purity, color and flavor of food. Aluminum Company of Canada, Ltd. (Alcan).

6—In Memoriam

GUNN—In loving memory of my dear father, Daniel Gunn who passed away eight years ago, May 18th.
We often sit and think of him when we are alone
For memory is the only friends that grief can call its own
Like ivy on the withered oak: when all other things decay
Our love for him will still keep green and never fade away.
—Ever remembered by his daughter, Edith and son-in-law John and grandchildren.

GUNN—In loving memory of my dear husband Daniel Gunn, who passed away eight years ago to-day.
Those whom we love go out of sight
But never out of mind;
They are cherished in the hearts
Of those they leave behind.
Loving and kind in all his ways
Upright and just to the end of his days;
Sincere and true in heart and mind
Beautiful memories he left behind.
—Always remembered by his wife Rose.

HALL—In loving memory of John Hall who passed away May 18, 1953.
You're not forgotten brother dear,
Nor ever shall you be,
As long as life and memory last
I shall remember thee.
—Ever remembered by sister Elva and brother-in-law Laurie.

VOLLANS—In loving memory of a dear husband and father Joseph Vollans who passed away May 18, 1950.
Gone into that light that shines so fair
Gone from the earth of sorrow and care
Resting those hands that did their best
Gone dear husband gone to rest.
—Ever remembered by wife, children and grandchildren.

Tape-Recorded Breathing Aids Doctors

By FRANK CAREY

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Tape-recorded playbacks of the labored breathing of patients suffering from various chest diseases offer a new aid to doctors in diagnosing other cases, the United States public health service said today.

The health service demonstrated the new technique in an exhibit at at the 50th anniversary here of the National Tuberculosis Association.

As visiting doctors tuned in with stethoscopes, health service demonstrators ran off recordings of breathing sounds decribed as characteristic of pneumonia, tuberculosis, bronchial asthma and other chest conditions in varying stages of severity. Simultaneously, as each breathing sound was described by a recorded commentary, x-ray visualizations of the patient's chest appeared on a screen.

One potential value of the procedure, the service said, lies in providing an opportunity for doctors to have such a permament recording in their offices, for periodic "refresher" courses in recognizing sounds peculiar to certain conditions.

Aslo, the technique is described as being of value in teaching medical students.

To Try Leaders

VIENNA (AP)—Two of Romania's most prominent Communist leaders, kicked out of the party and disgraced two years ago, soon will be brought to trial, the Yugoslav news agency Yugopress reported Monday night. They are Ana Pauker, former Romanian foreign minister and former finance minister and party secretary Vasile Luca.

NOSE TO NOSE — While civilian get their first look at Nike, the Army's newest guided missile, Cpl. Lewis Gore gives the anti-aircraft weapon the tip of the nose test. The weapon was on display at the Mt. Rainier, Wash., Ordnance Depot.

Future Of McCarthy Hearings In Doubt

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—A cloud of uncertainty hung today over the future of the McCarthy-army hearings, and it appears doubtful if President Eisenhower will dispel it.

Acting chairman Karl Mundt (Rep. S.D.) of the Senate investigations sub-committee arranged an afternoon conference with Attorney-General Herbert Brownell to discuss the issues.

He was under instructions to seek some modification in a presidential order forbidding disclosure to the sub-committee of discussions strictly within the administration of the row between Senator McCarthy and high army officials.

The order was prompted by the refusal of army counsel John C. Adams to give details of a Jan. 21 conference Adams said was attended by White House aides and other high officials. The Wisconsin Republican senator said it appeared that the charges against him were "conceived and instigated" then.

Several sub-committee members expressed doubt today that the hearings, now in recess until Monday, will be resumed unless the Eisenhower order is altered.

McCarthy termed the order an "iron curtain" and "this cover-up." Asked by reporters whether he will refuse to testify in the hearings if the directive stands, he replied:

NO SPECULATION

"I would not speculate on what happens in that event."

Mundt said the decision to recess the hearings, voted by the four sub-committee Republicans over the objections of the three Democrats, contains nothing which "even remotely implies a discontinuation of these hearings for good."

The sub-committee is seeking for the truth in an exchange of charges between McCarthy and Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens and their aides. The army side has accused McCarthy and two staff employees, Roy M. Cohn and Francis P. Carr, of using improper pressures to try to win favored treatment for Pte. G. David Schine.

Schine was an unpaid consultant to the investigations sub-committee until he was drafted last November. McCarthy, who normally heads the group, stepped off it for this inquiry.

McCarthy and his two aides have countered that Stevens and Adams used Schine as a "hostage" in seeking to get McCarthy to call off a hunt for subversives in the army.

Manufacturing Industries Make 5.2 Cents Profit On Dollar

TORONTO (CP)—Canada's manufacturing industries in 1953 made an average profit of 5.2 cents on each dollar's worth of goods they sold.

The figure is from a survey made by the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, announced by W. E. Weaver, chairman of the association's education committee.

The figure is 0.2 cents better than 1952; 0.6 cents less than 1951; 1.9 cents less than 1950; 0.6 cents less than 1949; and 1.0 less than 1948, the first year the survey was made.

A further breakdown showed that of the 5.2 cents profit, 2.3 cents was paid to shareholders in dividends and 2.9 cents was retained in the business. Income taxes were 4.6 cents of each sales dollar.

CMA members answering the questionnaire totalled 1,003, and had net sales of more than $7,250,000,000, equal to nearly one-third of Canada's gross national product.

Average 1953 number of shareholders of the reporting companies was 470,258, while employees totalled 457,537. Total investment of the companies was more than $5,500,000,000.

GET THE FACTS

The surveys were started, Mr. Weaver said, to find out the facts regarding profits.

"The public, according to opinion surveys, have always thought manufacturing profits were far higher than they actually are. Our findings have proved conclusively that profits were barely half of what the public thought a fair profit should be."

Outlining how the figrues were obtained, Mr. Weaver said members were asked what money they had received during their last fiscal year, both from sales and other sources; how they spent the money; how much for materials, wages, taxes and other expenses; and what they did with what was left.

Won't Make Public All Army Inquiry

OTTAWA (CP)—The government indicated Monday it does not intend to make public the entire report of an investigation into the reserve army.

A white paper on defence, tabled in the Commons, said merely, concerning the report: "It is anticipated that a number of conclusions will be announced in the near future."

It is understood the report recommends abolition of some of the 622 reserve force units in Canada or their merger with other units.

2 Doctors To Pay $100,000 Damages

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Two doctors Monday agreed to pay $100,000 damages to a three-year-old boy and his parents.

The boy, according to testimony, lost his male organs following a circumcision.

The out-of-court settlement was approved by circuit judge John Wilson. It provides that Dr. Howard Ellzey and Dr. Louis E. Tolbert Jr., pay $85,250 to the boy, Gary Sykes, and $14,750 to his parents Mr. and Mrs. Billy Sykes.

New Housing Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal housing administration Monday sent Congress a bundle of proposed laws and regulations to outlaw "fleecing" of home owners and "windfall profits" for builders under FHA housing programs.

Quads Die

CHICAGO (AP) — Quadruplets were born Monday to a 32-year-old British war bride, but all died within eight hours after birth. The two boys and two girls were 3½ months premature.

Bank Of Canada Buys New Property

OTTAWA (CP)—The Bank of Canada Monday announced it has purchased business property in Toronto and will erect a new building on it soon.

The property is in the downtown business section on University avenue between Queen and Richmond streets. Purchase price was not disclosed. Officials said they have no idea as yet how big a building they will erect.

Too Much Sugar Eaten By Children

TORONTO (CP)—A Toronto doctor says too much sugar is being consumed by Canadians, especially children.

Dr. A. L. Chute, speaking at the Ontario Dental Association's annual convention, told delegates Monday that a person can be maintained in perfect health with no sugar, provided there are a sufficient number of carbohydrates in the person's diet for body nourishment.

Dr. Chute said soft drinks are the biggest culprits against good oral health and physical well-being in general. More average adults' budget should be spent on protein foods and vegetables rather than on sweet drinks and foods.

Two leading dentists and two physicians also said sugar is a big offender against good health.

Miss S. McWilliams

MARMORA (ENS) — The funeral of Miss Susan McWilliams took place Monday afternoon.

Service was held in the Well's funeral home with Canon J. M. Brownlie officiating. Burial followed in the family plot in Marmora Protestant cemetery.

Pallbearers were J. Jones, G. Kerr, E. D. O'Connor and W. J. Cottrell.

Miss McWilliams died in the Eastern General Hospital on Friday following an illness of four weeks. She was the oldest daughter of the late Charles and Martha McWilliams, well known residents of Marmora for many years. She was born in Springbrook and although spending her earlier years in Marmora as her parents moved to the village, lived for the greater part of her life in Toronto.

She was a member of the Anglican church and is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Arthur Eggleton, Marmora and Mrs. Roy Snell, St. Thomas.

$100,000,000,000 Housing Plan For North York Twp.

TORONTO (CP)—A $100,000,000 housing development aimed at groups with an earning wage of $5,000 to $10,000 a year is planned for North York township on the northern perimeter of Toronto.

Emphasis will be on homes in the $16,000 to $25,000 class, but some will cost up to $40,000.

Town planning consultant Dr. E. G. Faludi has drafted a master plan to be carried out by more than 25 landowners and developers, seven of whom will be responsible for the major developments to be undertaken.

The project, to include a $4,000,000 shopping centre, apartment buildings, two public schools, one separate school and parkland, is to be developed in several stages.

The first phase will be the construction of homes and apartment suites valued at $50,000,000 on 650 acres of land to be known as Bayview Village. The community will eventually house 15,000 to 20,000 persons.

Largest developer in the project is Farlinger Developments, Ltd., which plans initial construction of 800 homes and 800 apartment suites as the first half of a $50,000,000 development of 297 acres of ravine-broken land.

Construction pace for the project will be determined by the time required for the metropolitan area to supply the district with water. Major building is expected to take place next spring or summer.

Cotton Exchange Reopens In Liverpool

LIVERPOOL, England (Reuters) An old market bell today clanged the signal for the reopening of Liverpool's famous 72-year-old cotton exchange which was shut down 13 years ago by the wartime government.

Re-establishment of this raw-cotton futures market marks the final stage in a campaign for the reopening of the big futures trading markets which gave Britain a key role in world trading before the Second World War.

The Earl of Derby, former president of the British Cotton Growers Associaiton, tolled the exchange bell to set dealings in motion at a ceremony attended by 1,500 guests.

NARROW MAJORITY

A bill winding up the raw cotton commission and opening the way to a free cotton market for British buyers was passed by a narrow majority in the House of Commons in February.

Importers, merchants, spinners and buying and selling brokers will deal in cotton ahead of delivery, using the market as an insurance against big price fluctuations. The exchange will deal only in American cotton, which offers the most stable futures. Other growths will be introduced as soon as feasible.

Edict On Race Segregation Posing Vast Problems

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—A momentous United States Supreme Court edict, that segregation of Negro and white children in public schools is unconstitutional, confronts the southern states with vast social and economic problems.

But an actual end to segregation still is months and perhaps years away.

There are those who say it will never come—that by one device or another the south will get around the Supreme Court decision. But others predict a peaceful, if gradual, compliance.

The highest U. S. tribunal declared unanimously Monday that segregation "solely on the basis of race" violates the U. S. constitution, regardless of whether schools for Negroes appear to be as good as those for whites. The court said segregation of itself deprives Negro children of equal opportunities.

The justices tempered the impact of their ruling by holding off a formal decree to put the decision into effect. More arguments have been ordered for next fall on how and when the decision should be carried out.

PROBLEMS PRESSING

So, pressing down the 17 southern and neighboring states where segregation is compulsory are weighty problems of remodelling school systems, reorganizing school districts, readjusting and reassigning teachers, changing school bus routes and building more schools.

If some states or communities should balk at complying with the Supreme Court's ruling, more legal tangles are in prospect. Associate Justice Robert H. Jackson has predicted "a generation of litigation."

Some southern senators say it may be years before school segregation ends in the south.

The states most directly affected are Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virgian and West Virginia, plus the District of Columbia. Something like two-thirds of the country's Negroes live in these states.

Bishop's University Will Honor Five

LENNOXVILLE, Que. (CP)—A British newspaper publisher and four prominent Canadians will receive honorary degrees from Bishop's University at its annual convocation June 6, Chancellor John Bassett announced Monday night.

To receive an honorary doctor of civil laws degree in recognition of outstanding public service to Canada is Viscount Rothermere, 56, publisher of a number of British newspapers, including the mass circulation Daily Mail. He is also a director of Reuters news agency and a director of Anglo-Canadian Pulp and Paper Company.

Buddhists Meet

RANGOON (Reuters)—A thunderous din from huge drums, gongs and wailing conch shells Monday signalled the opening here of the sixth great Buddhist council meeting to be held since the Lord Buddha, founder of the Oriental religion named after him, died 2,498 years ago. The meeting will last two years.

Difficult To See How Car Got Into Ditch

Late on the afternoon of April 9 a Douro farmer, Bartholomew Leahey, was driving his truck along the gravel highway just outside Burleigh Falls, when the vehicle struck a soft shoulder and slid down a 20 foot bank, ending up on its side.

The OPP charged him with driving without due care and attention. In court Monday, defended by lawyer W. B. Gordon, Leahey successfully fought the charge which was dismissed by Magistrate W. R. Philp, QC.

Leahey said that he had not driven over that stretch of road for about 25 years. Both the travel portion and the shoulders had been well covered with gravel. He had pulled over to the right-hand side. The shoulder of the road had been too soft and he had been unable to prevent his truck from rolling down into the ditch.

OPP constable Ken Barber told the court that tire marks showed the Leahey truck had travelled some distance in a straight line along the shoulder of the road. There had been no indication of erractic driving or excessive speed.

Mr. Gordon considered that there had not been any great degree of negligence on the part of Leahey. He had not travelled at an excessive speed and had pulled well over to the right in the face of oncoming traffic. Being a stranger to the road he had not known of the ditch. There were no signs to indicate any need for extra caution.

"I'll give Leahey the benefit of the doubt this time", said the magistrate. "However, it is hard to realize how a person would get into such a position in broad daylight."

Must Keep Defence Spending Unchanged Claxton Tells Commons; Hopes To Be Able To Cut Korean Forces

OTTAWA (CP) — The government said today defence expenditures must continue at their present level—about $2,000,000,000 a year—if the armed forces are to be maintained at their present strength.

Defence Minister Claxton tabled a white paper reviewing accomplishments of his department since the defence build-up started more than three years ago.

About the only hopeful outlook on the world situation came in a reference to Canada's forces in Korea: "It is hoped that the situation in Korea may improve to permit the reduction of Canadian forces there in the not-too-distant future."

MUST KEEP UP STRENGTH

Elsewhere, the white paper said:

"Although there have been indications in recent months of some relaxtion in international tension, the need for Canada, in common with other nations of the free world, to maitain adequate defence forces remains a matter of vital importance. . . ."

Cash outlay for defence in the three years beginning April 1, 1951, amounted to $5,005,479,000, remarkably close to the initial forecast of about $5,000,000,000, the white paper said.

Of this amount, the navy received $732,667,000; the army $1,412,565,000; RCAF $2,486,837,009; and defence research board $122,146,000. Current strength of the armed forces is 112,500—16,900 in the navy, 50,000 in the army and 45,600 in the air force.

Estimated defence expenditures for the current fiscal year are $1,908,000,000, a decrease of about $93,000,000 from 1953-54 estimates but an increase of about $68,000,000 over actual expenditures from the 1953-54 appropriations.

MODERNIZING WEAPONS

"Good progress has been made in the three-year period in the acquisition of modern equipment, particular in the fields of aircraft, ships and electronics.

"The need for re-equipment programs, such as the procurement of new type carrier aircraft and maritime reconnaissance aircraft, indicates that it is unlikely that any significant reduction in expenditures for equipment will take place in the foreseeable future."

Under NATO's mutual aid agreement, Canada has delivered military equipment to nine of the 13 other NATO nations and shipments will be made to 11 member countries during the current fiscal year.

CF-100 IMPROVED

Dealing with the CF-100 all-weather jet interceptor, the white paper said the aircraft will have a new type of autopilot coupled to the fire control system.

"This permits more accurate attack procedures than is possible with a manually controlled aircraft. Tests are being conducted and, if they are successful, this aircraft may be fitted with a new-type, heavier calibre gun for use in conjunction with air-to-air rockets."

RUNWAYS COMPLETED

The white paper reviewed defence construction. It said runways had been completed at North Bay and Ottawa, among many other places..

"These completions accounted for the greater part of the high priority construction requirements of the RCAF."

At the end of last month, 15,052 married quarters had been provided for service personnel in Canada and 3,216 units for troops in Europe. An additional 4,524 quarters are under construction in Canada and some 2,272 temporary and emergency married quarters are still being used in Canada.

SERVICE REVIEWED

The white paper reviewed the state of the services.

NAVY

1. Thirty-six ships are ready for coastal defence or convoy protection.

2. Since 1951, contracts have been placed or are in course of negotiation for 88 new ships and auxiliary craft.

3. Five escort destroyers were lauched last year and nine more will be launched in 1954-55.

ARMY

1. The mobile striking force has been strengthened by battle-experienced battalions returned from Korean service.

2. Canada, Belgium, France, Britain and the U. S. have agreed to adopt the .30-calibre round as standard small arms ammunition.

3. Production of the Belgian Fabrique Nationale rifle can be started in Canada without delay if it is accepted, after user trials, as the standard infantry weapon in the Canadian Army.

4. The 1st Canadian Infantry Division has been formed.

RCAF

1. The system of radar stations, communications and fighter squadrons planned for Canada's defence against air attack is largely completed and should be fully operational by the end of this year.

2. The McGill Fence, a Radar, will be used in the defence system as a supplement to present defences.

3. The air force's contribution to Europe—the 1st Air Division—was completed three months ahead of schedule.

4. A total of 1,004 pilots and 1,757 navigators from NATO countries have been trained in Canada. Another 929 now are being trained and Canada has agreed to train up to 1,200 aircrew for NATO during each of the next three years.

President Somoza said a large cache of Russian-made arms had been found on the country's Pacific coast and he believes they were landed by a mysterious submarine which had made several visits to the isolated beach where the arms were found.

Eisenhowers Adopt Pet Parakeet

WASHINGTON — President and Mrs. Eisenhower have a new pet, a blue parakeet named Gabby. Despite its name, Gabby doesn't talk (not yet at least), the White House told National Geographic Society writers in disclosing the new occupant.

The Eisenhowers' taste for pets runs to birds rather than dogs, the traditional White House favorites. It was thus natural that the latest fashion in caged birds — parakeets — would reach the White House.

For more than a year High Glory, a bright orange canary has basked in lone splendor in its cage in the Executive Mansion's penthouse solarium. Now High Glory shares the solarium's sunshine with Gabby, a gift from a friend of the Eisenhowers. Gabby wears a blue-green coat with a touch of black on wings and tail.

The parakeets known in the United States today stem from the budgerigars of the Australian bush. European breeders developed color varieties, mainly yellows and blues.

Friendly and given to mirth-provoking antics, parakeets quickly became the darlings of thousands of American homes. They jump on their master's shoulder or head. They preen before mirrors, climb ladders, push miniature carts, dump table silverware on the floor. And often they talk. Many have learned to say their names, addresses and telephone numbers, and such small talk as "Kiss me again," and "Scram," or "I'm not bad; I'm just misguided."

The White House has sheltered feathered pets before. William D. Hassett, President Truman's secretary, was once given a Javanese mynah bird named Flash. Flash developed a wolf call that startled many an unsuspecting White House stenographer.

The Eisenhowers have no Washington pets besides the two birds. But when their son, Majojr John Eisenhower, and his family visit, a black Scottie, Skunky, comes too as a companion for the grandchildren.

PRESIDENTS DOG LOVERS

Presidents have long liked dogs. George Washington and the early Virginia executives favored foxhounds. Andrew Jackson had a number of well-trained gun dogs. William Henry Harrison, John Tyler, James K. Polk and Zachary Taylor went in for coonhounds, foxhounds, retrievers and spaniels. Grover Cleveland loved beagles, setters, pointers and spaniels.

Theodore Roosevelt had perhaps the widest taste for animals. His household included ponies, cats, lizards, guinea pigs, even kangaroos, and lots of dogs—Scamp, a "rat terrier," Mike, a bull terrier and others.

Woodrow Wilson and Warren G. Harding were partial to airedales.

Woodrow Wilson and Warren G. Harding were partial to airedales. The Democratic airedale was Davie, his Republican successor Laddie Boy. The first Coolidge dog was Peter Pan, a wire-haired terrier, but better known was Rob Roy, a sheep dog. Rob Roy lapped coffee from a saucer beside the president's table. The Coolidges' beautiful white collie, Prudence Prim, was probably the most photogenic White House dog.

Herbert Hoover had a Norwegian elkhound, Ouiji, and German shepherds, King Tut and Pat. The best known of the more recent White House canine inhabitants was Franklin D. Roosevelt's black Scottie, Fala, often at the President's side and once mentioned in a presidential speech.

Part Of Montreal Chateau Not As Old As Believed

MONTREAL (CP)—The historic Chateau de Ramezay, traditional home of old French and English governors of Montreal, is not all that it appears to be on the surface.

Construction workers renovating the 250-year-old structure on east end Notre Dame street are finding traces of a clever "repair" job that indicates the place is not exactly the same as when it was built by Governor Comte de Ramezay in 1705.

Pneumatic drills chipping away the stucco which sheathes the entire building have uncovered a large, and so far unexplained, patch of comparatively new brick in the centre of the ancient fieldstone.

Even the Norman-style tower that rises from one corner of the building is suspected of being younger than it has always been regarded. Contractor James Thom says the brick under the stucco of the tower, although pressed and baked a long time ago, "isn't part of the original structure."

REAL OLD ROOF

The roof of the building, however, is original. Workers have begun plating it with new copper, while removing the stucco from the older parts of the house. In the next two months they will wash and point up the fieldstone back to its original appearance.

The $60,000 facelifting job is being financed by provincial and municipal grants as well as public subscription. The Antiquarian and Numismatic Society of Montreal, "caretakers" of the building since 1895, decided on the renovation in order to protect the chateau's valuable collection of antiques and artistic pieces from weather damage.

Mr. Thom says the work is progressing according to plan but the "new additions" are something of a problem.

"We haven't yet decided what to do about this," he said, pointing to the section of new brick. An iron plaque bolted on the 10-foot wide section showed the repairer was a stickler for perfection. It contains the legend: "Claude de Ramezay. 1705."

The new section rises within a yard of the eaves. It is topped by a great wooden beam. Above the beam are several layers of old stone and then another layer of brick bordering the roof.

"It's all very puzzling," said Thom. "We don't know whether the whole section of the building to the right of the brick is an addition or whether it was put there just to cover a doorway or an old carriage entrance."

The problem of the tower is not so serious. "We can cover the tower with stucco again," said the contractor. "But no matter what we do with the other brick it's going to show."

Regardless of the brick patching, the builders are convinced the ancient chateau is a model for modern construction men. The four-foot solid stone basement wall is one example of the superb workmanship that went into it.

"This house will stand longer than anything going up today," said an admiring workman.

He chipped a piece of rock from the wall. "And the cement. Never see anything as hard as that today.

"Just look at those nails. Made by hand 250 years ago and we have to use a crowbar to get some of them out."

Four Tulip Blooms Grow On One Stem

It seems that Mother Nature is working overtime to make up for a rather fickle spring. Last week she produced four tulip blooms on one stem and from one bulb.

This rather remarkable production took place in a bed of single stem maroon tulips grown by Mrs. Fred White of 539 Douglas Ave. When the plant first popped its head through the earth, she thought it had been blighted. However, after the recent rains it sprouted in healthful style to a height of 17 inches and burst out into four separate blooms.

Although not large, the four flowers are well formed and are all deep maroon in color. The stem is one unit until about five inches from the top, when it separates into four parts, with a flower on each.

So far this is the only bulb to have acted this way in Mrs. White's garden, but maybe the oddity could be cultivated. Tulip 'quads would be a big asset in the flower business.

"Think it would save me money too?"

"I see you telephone people always use wood preservative on your poles. Think I should do the same thing when I build my fence?"

"Yes, it's a good idea. We've found at Bell that it saves us plenty on repair and replacement costs. That's why we treat telephone poles against rot; why we keep our trucks clean and in good repair; why we put up exchanges and offices to last.

"It's only common sense, if we are to keep costs down and the price of your telephone service low."

If you would like to get useful information on the preservative treatment of wood we suggest you write Forest Products Laboratories of Canada, Department of Northern Affairs and National Resources, Ottawa.

Liberal Opposition Agrees Give Crown All Road Data

TORONTO (CP)—Attorney General Porter said today Liberal Opposition members of the Ontario legislature's select committee investigating irregularities in the highways department had agreed to turn over to the crown all information they have obtained on their own.

Mr. Porter said agreement was reached this morning prior to the opening of the committee session, the last of a three-day meeting at Queen's Park.

The attorney-general also said Liberal leader Farquhar Oliver, Albert Wren, Lib-Lab—Kenora and W. J. Grummett, CCF House leader, committee member, had agreed it would be the "wisest course' not to call any witnesses before the committee until the court proceedings had been disposed of.

"It was agreed it would be a great mistake if the committee heard witnesses speak on matters coming up in the trials . . . which might jeopardize the case of the crown and also of the accused," said Mr. Porter.

GIVES NAMES TO CROWN

"Mr. Wren has informed me he has the names of the witnesses he intended calling before the committee; he agreed to give all that information to the crown, thus Mr. C. L. Dubin, special crown prosecutor, will have the advatage of that evidence. I think Mr. Wren has followed the right course . . . our first consideration is that justice should be done . . . "

Mr. Oliver said he and Mr. Wren agreed to Mr. Porter's requests "as long as it is distinctly understood that this is not an abandonment but a deferment of the committee work . . . "

The first four trials arising out of the investigation begin June 7 in Fort William. Preliminary hearings of conspiracy trials against three firms and 11 persons are to start in Toronto, Whitby and Fort William during the latter part of June and early July. The trials for them might start in September, Mr. Porter indicated.

The committee agreed to postpone a scheduled trip to Fort William until the latter part of June when the preliminary hearings there would be ended. It decided to visit Albany, N.Y., June 2 and 3 to meet state officials. It would travel to Sault Ste. Marie and Sudbury June 9-11 and to Bismarck, N.D., Fort Frances and the Lakehead district June 16-26, returning to Toronto for further meetings in the last week of June.

Speed Movement Of Wounded

HANOI (AP)—The French high command today threw all available helicopters and light planes in northern Indo-China into the job of airlifting 450 French wounded out of the fallen fortress of Dien Bien Phu.

Helicopters, Beavers and Morane aircraft took off from the royal Laotian capital of Luangprabang starting a big shuttle service into and out of Dien Bien Phu, 175 miles west of here.

The French acted to speed up evacuation after the Communist rebels had refused to do anything about repairing the fortress' main airstrip sufficiently to permit the landing of Dakota transports which could carry big cargoes of wounded.

With helicopters and small planes the French are hopeful of evacuating as many as 80 wounded daily from Dien Bien Phu.

Enthusiastic Welcome Pleases Elizabeth

LONDON (Reuters)—The Queen, in a message to the House of Commons today, said she had been "greatly moved by the warmth with which my husband and I and our children" were welcomed on their return home last Saturday from the round-the-world Commonwealth tour made by the royal couple.

The message, read by Maj. H. G. Studholme, vice-chamberlain of the household, was received with cheers. It was in reply to one of welcome from the House.

It said:

"I thank you sincerely for your address and for your loyal and affectionate greetings on my return from my tour, in the course of which I and my husband have visited many parts of the Commonwealth, including several of my colonies and countries under my protection.

"It has been a great joy to me during the past six months to be able to meet so many of my peoples and I and my husband will always remember the lively and inspiring welcome which we have everywhere received."

Port Hope Engineer Freed On $10,000 Bail

TORONTO (CP) — Three men charged with conspiracy to defraud the Ontario government were remanded Tuesday to June 2 and released on bail ranging from $3,000 to $10,000.

They were Cecil H. Nelson, former chief engineer, Ontario highways department; R. F. Petursson, federal government engineering inspector, and Elmer Birdsall, vice-president, Standard Paving Company of Toronto.

Nelson was granted bail of $10,000, Petursson $3,000 and Birdsall $5,000.

Five Soldiers Escape Fort

HANOI (Reuters)—Five French Union soldiers escaped from Dien Bien Phu and crept through the rebel-infested jungles to a French military post in northern Laos, according to reports reaching here today.

The two non-commissioned officers and three privates set out through the hostile, mountainous territory upon the fall of the northwest Indo-China fortress May 7, the reports said. This was the first news that any of the 12,000 fortress defenders had escaped capture.

According to the reports, the trek took at least 10 days.

The five men belonged to the bastion "Isabelle," an isolated pocket three miles south of the main defences, which fought on for several hours after the fall of the fortress.

How they escaped the massed Communist troops surrounding them is not immediately known.

A French military column has been sent to northern Laos to set up a post about 30 miles from Dien Bien Phu, ready to receive any French soldiers who managed to get away.

Richards Injured

SALISBURY, England (Reuters) Jockey Sir Gordon Richards was rushed to hospital with suspected concussion after being thrown during the Devizes Handicap race today.

Gordon's mount, Misty Night, and another horse, Sea Spring, fell suddenly. Sea Spring's rider, apprentice Roy Manders, was also taken to the hospital with concussion and a suspected fractured leg.

Sea Spring had to be destroyed.

Richards is due to ride the Queen's colt Landau in the Epsom Derby in two weeks.

Lifted 10 Feet Out Of Water Smashes Boat, Abutment

TORONTO (CP) — Two tugs today freed the 2,700-ton Norwegian freighter Veslefjell about seven hours after she ran aground on Hanlan's point while outbound at midnight near the western end of Toronto harbor.

The Fjell line freighter was freed about 7:45 a. m. by the tugs Dixon and Stuart, owned by the Toronto Dry Dock Company.

No one was injured. The vessel sailed for Montreal after being freed.

The Veslefjell, travelling about six knots, smashed a gasoline pump, a speedboat and a concrete and gravel abutment when she grounded. The bow of the ship was lifted from the water after being carried 15 feet over the abutment.

One member of the crew said the ship's helmsman had mistaken lights on the Island airport for harbor lights on the western channel. Harbor men said the impact of the smash indicated there had been no effort to stop the ship until after she had struck the concrete.

The waterline showed the freighter had been lifted out of the water eight to 10 feet at the bow. The stern was forced down by the crash.

Despite the captain's efforts to free the ship by running her full astern for half an hour the bow wouldn't budge from the concrete filling station.

Rill Water Taxi, owners of the gasoline pumps, said the speedboat was owned by one of their drivers and was valued at $700.

May Form Asia Pact Without U.K.

Eisenhower Says It Depends On Asiatic Nations

WASHINGTON — (CP) — President Eisenhower said today it might be possible to form a united front against communism in Southeast Asia without the participation of Britain.

Eisenhower made the statement at a press conference. Asked whether the United States would act without Britain, he replied that it depended on the attitude of the proper Asiatic nations and Australia and New Zealand.

Britain and the U.S. have been divided on their approach to State Secretary Dulles proposal for establishment of NATO-style alliance in Southeast Asia to halt the expansion of Communist influence there.

Prime Minister Churchill told the Commons earlier this week that the British government has no intention of taking any concrete action on setting up such an alliance until the results of the current Geneva conference attempting to end the Indo-China war are known.

FAVORS GOING AHEAD

The U.S. has indicated it favors going ahead immediately with conversations aimed at setting up the alliance. It has been holding talks with France on the question of whether the U.S. will intervene in the war in Indo-China between the Commuist-led Vietminh and the French Union forces.

This was the first time a top U.S. official had publicly conceded a serious possibility of moving forward on the proposed anti-Communist alliance, through which the U.S. could intervene in the Indo-China war, without the active cooperation and full support of the British government.

Eisenhower emphasized, however, that some kind of collective action must be the basis of anti-Communist measures in southeast Asia. The implication was plain that he would not even consider single-handed American intervention.

Britons Line Streets To Cheer Queen

LONDON (CP)—The Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh drove through cheering crowds today to a traditional "welcome home" dinner given by the City of London.

Londoners lined four deep in the streets leading from Buckingham Palace to the Mansion House to pay tribute to the royal couple. Cheers could be heard blocks away as the Queen and the duke drove past St. Paul's Cathedral in a state landau.

Some 400 guests waited in the pillared Egyptian Hall at the Mansion House, one of whose stained-glass windows depicts the procession of the first Elizabeth—Good Queen Bess—to Mansion House from Westminster.

Shoots Three In Vendetta

LONDON (Reuters) — Scotland Yard today probed the twisted past of a six-foot-three crazed ex-soldier to determine why he shot three men in a roving "day of revenge" before taking his own life Tuesday night.

Nathan Goldberg, 27, killed himself in a taxi in central London as police closed in on him after London's biggest manhunt since the war.

William Gibbons, one of three men shot by Goldberg's .22 calibre pistol, died early today. John Walsh, 54, shot in the back on the steps of the east end flats where he and Goldberg lived, is in hospital "very seriously ill."

Another victim, Emmanuel Nathan, shot in his fish-and-chip shop in another part of London, was not seriously hurt and was allowed to leave the hospital after several hours.

The dramatic end of Goldberg's brief reign of terror—believed by police to have been a vendetta against personal acquaintances—ended in the Strand, just off Trafalgar Square, around midnight.

Police, some of them breaking tradition by being armed, spotted the towering ex-Irish Guardsman leaving a west end movie and tracked him through the jostling crowds.

Costello Leading

DUBLIN — (AP) — John Costello's coalition pulled slightly ahead of Prime Minister Eamon de Valera's Finanna Fail party tonight in early returns from Tuesday's general election in the Republic of Ireland. Not enough ballots had been tabulated to establish a definite trend although first results indicated some loss of Fianna Fail strength in Dublin.

One Of Top 7 Fugitives Dies In Mexico

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada has one less "most-wanted" fugitive.

The RCMP learned Tuesday that John Mallock, sought since 1951 when he failed to appear for trial in Vancouver on narcotics charges, died last month in Mexico. His name had been listed with six others on the Mounties' roster of most-wanted fugitives.

The 38-year-old Winnipeg salesman died in a Queretaro hospital April 22 from injuries suffered in an automobile accident a few days before.

Mallock and his brother George were arrested in Vancouver late in 1950 on a charge of conspiring to sell, possess and distribute narcotics. They failed to turn up for trial in February, 1951, while out on bail of $20,000 each.

ACTED ON TIP

George Mallock was captured by RCMP and United States treasury agents in New York last December and returned to Vancouver for trial. Police, acting on a tip during his stay at Oakalla prison farm there, found currency and jewelers' saws in the heel of one of his shoes.

He was found guilty on all charges last February and sentenced to 21 years in prison. He also was assessed fines totalling $10,000, their alternative being an extra seven years' imprisonment.

Mallock's death reduces to six the number left on the most-wanted fugitives list, which still is headed by Donald Winslow Henderson, 37, of Calgary. A university graduate and former bush-cutting contractor Henderson is sought by Calgary police in connection with the slaying of Yvonne Levesque Aug. 11, 1949.

Legion Accuses Pension Board

OTTAWA (CP) — The Canadian Legion today accused the Canadian pension commission of maladministration and incompetence.

It was the roughest attack by the legion on the government or any branch of government in years and possibly in the legion's history.

The criticism was contained in a brief submitted to the Commons veterans' affairs committee by Dr. C. B. Lumsden of Wolfville, N. S., legion president.

The legion cited seven cases—it said it has many more on its files—purporting to show that the pension commission fails to search records and to assess properly evidence on file and is guilty of administrative errors and unjust presumptions being drawn against applications for war pensions.

The file on one case showed that one veteran had to wait 10 years before receiving a pension for rheumatic carditis. The legion charged the delay was caused by administrative error.

Ask Review Of Power Order

WASHINGTON (AP)—A group of Lake Ontario property owners today asked the U. S. Supreme Court to review a lower court order upholding New York State's right to join with the Province of Ontario in construction of a $600,000,000 St. Lawrence River power project.

A petition for the review was filed by Clayton Burwell, counsel for the Lake Ontario Land Development and Beach Protective Association.

If the court agrees to the review, the effect would be to delay, possibly for months, start of construction on the big international power project.

Presumably, it would result in holding up the start of construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway. The U. S. last week completed legislation clearing the way for joining with Canada in building the seaway.

Begin Work On A-Power Plant Plans

Canada Will Have First Such Project, Build It In Ontario

OTTAWA (CP) — Scientists at the Chalk River atomic energy project says Canada may be the first country in the world to build an economical atomic power plant.

Research at Chalk River already has demonstrated that Canada can build an atomic reactor which will produce vast quantities of heat for steam to drive electric generators. However, the unknown factor is what kind of an atomic power plant will produce electricity to compete economically with electric power generated by hydro or coal.

The Chalk River project is 125 miles northwest of the capital.

An official of Atomic Energy of Canada Ltd., the crown company which operates the project, says that once this problem is solved a Canadian power plant "has as good a chance as any to produce the first economic nuclear power."

BE IN ONTARIO

Scientists also predict that Canada's first atomic power plant will be built in Ontario. It would help the province overcome an electric power shortage expected in 1960 even with the development of availabl hydro sources including the St. Lawrence river.

The design of an economic power-producing reactor has been tackled by project scientists working in co-operation with the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario, other power companies and utilities and industrial representatives.

The immediate objective of this study is to produce specifications for a power reactor and an evaluation of the cost per kilowatt hour from the operation of such a pile. It's expected that this problem will be evaluated in about a year.

Clyde Kennedy, public relations officer at Chalk River, says project scientists are confident they eventually will solve the problems connected with the design of an economic power plant. These problems include the type of fuel to be used, the method to take heat out of the reactor to raise steam

Violent Tremors Shake Geneva

GENEVA (AP) — The most violent earth tremors in eight years shook Switzerland today. No damage or casualties were reported.

The quake rocked downtown buildings in Geneva, site of the international conference on Asian problems.

The observatory at Neuchatel placed the centre of the tremor in the Bernese alps south of Interlaken. The observatory said the needle of its seismograph was shaken from its bearings.

Minor tremors, caused by underground earth shifts in the alpine chain, are relatively frequent in Switzerland, but rarely cause damage.

Delegates to the conference said the shocks shook the building housing conference headquarters. They also were felt at the press headquarters, in the centre of the city.

Corporal Finds Rubens Painting Behind Lumber Pile

TORONTO (CP)—Police today recovered a painting stolen Tuesday night from the Art Gallery of Toronto. They launched a search for two men reported seen in central Toronto with the maserpiece, Peter Paul Rubens' "Elevation of the Cross."

Cpl. Arthur Steen of the Ontario provincial police found the painting hidden behind lumber near elevator shafts under construction at the provincial parliament buildings.

He said later he was told a citizen had seen two men carrying the painting in that area. The officer, who had read newspaper reports of the theft, said he searched for more than an hour before finding the painting.

PARTIALLY PROTECTED

He said it was partially protected but not wrapped.

The 27-by-42 inch work, by Flemish master Peter Paul Rubens, was insured for $30,000. Police believe the theft was carried out by men working for a private collector or by a religious fanatic because there were more-valuable paintings in the gallery.

The oil painting, which depicts Christ being raised on the Cross, vanished from a section of the gallery devoted to European works from the 15th to 18th century.

The theft was discovered about 10:30 p.m. after the thieves tripped a burglar alarm on their way out a fire-escape door at the rear of the two-storey building. It is believed they hid in the gallery, in downtown Toronto, during the day until the 6 p.m. closing time.

POLICE ALERTED

In a matter of hours police in Canada and at United States border points were put on the alert. A description of the painting went to the FBI.

The gilt frame was taken from the wall in the gallery and a red silk covering at the back was ripped off. Wooden clamps held the painting in place and these were turned so that the painting and wooden stretcher holding it could be lifted.

The Rubens was bought in 1928 for 5,200 guineas. It was described as being of extreme dramatic quality, reinforced by color — mainly dull browns and steely-blue grays accented by touches of rose, clear blue and red on the garments of the figures.

Rubens, who died in 1640, is recognized as typifying Flemish art at its 17th century height. He painted both secular and religious works and great examples of the latter are found in all famous galleries.

Russians Prefer To Play In Canada

TORONTO (CP) — Connie Smythe, managing-director of the Toronto Maple Leafs, said today the Russians are "more interested" in having their hockey team play in Canada than they are in having the Leafs visit Russia.

Back from a month-long visit in Great Britain, Mr. Smythe said he didn't get to Moscow but had gone "through proper channels" to enquire about a possible Leafs-Russia game.

"Apparently they learn the tricks of the trade from other countries and when they're good enough, they invite you back."

Rebels Freeing French Nurse In Indo-China

PARIS (Reuters) — Lieut. Genevieve de Galard, heroine of Dien Bien Phu, has turned down an offer of immediate repatriation and will remain in the northern fortress tending the wounded, it was reported here tonight.

Nurse Genevieve, 29, only woman in Dien Bien Phu for the last five weeks of the siege, told Vietminh officers she preferred to return to Hanoi with the last helicopter carrying wounded. They were said to have promised that she could leave Dien Bien Phu at any time she wished.

OFFERED FREEDOM

GENEVA (CP) — Genevieve de Galard Terraube, heroic French Air Force nurse who was captured by the rebel Vietminh when the French Indo-China fortress of Dien Bien Phu fell, will be freed today, a Vietminh delegation source here said.

The source, who declined to be quoted by name, said his delegation had received a telegram from the Vietminh high command in Indo-China advising of the pending action.

No information was given how her release would be effected but it was presumed she would be flown out of Dien Bien Phu by helicopter, along with wounded French prisoners.

Miss de Galard, a pretty blue-eyed 29-year-old from Paris, was the only woman with the Dien Bien Phu garrison during 42 of the 57 days of siege before it fell to the Vietminh legions.

HELICOPTER DESTROYED

She had flown in by helicopter on March 27, planning to fly out with a load of wounded. But rebel artillery destroyed her craft and kept others from landing after that, stranding her in the steadily-shrinking fortress.

The first French Union wounded released by the Vietminh told how, throughout the days of constant bombing and attack, she comforted the wounded and bolstered the fighters' courage.

Refuse Leave To Appeal

OTTAWA (CP) — Mr. Justice J. H. G. Fauteux today refused leave to appeal before the Supreme Court of Canada the murder conviction of Lieut. Peter E. R. Balcombe.

Balcombe has been sentenced to be hanged May 25 for the murder of Marie Anne Carrier of Bienville, Que.

No reasons for the refusal were given.

Mr. Justice Fauteux heard the motion last Thursday, when J. M. P. Kelly, Balcombe's lawyer, sought leave to appeal on the ground that the court which tried Balcombe in Cornwall had no jusidiction to hear the case.

Angry At Senator's Remarks

Guatemala Diplomat Walks Out On Dinner

WASHINGTON (AP) — Guatemala's chief diplomat in the United States stalked out of an inter-American "harmony" meeting Tuesday night as Senator Alexander Wiley (Rep. Wis.) spoke of the "ominous arrival" in that Central American republic of "a tremendous shipment of arms" from Communist Poland.

Wiley, chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee, was chief speaker at a dinner in honor of Latin American diplomats, and he used the occasion to discuss a state department announcement that a Swedish ship was unloading at a Guatemalan port arms which it was reported to have taken on at Stettin, Poland.

Wiley did not name Guatemala, but it was clear he was talking about the country, which he has described before as "a Communist beach-head in the Americas."

Everybody, said Wiley, is "keenly aware of the grim implications" of the news about the arms shipment, which he said may be "a part of the master plan of world communism."

HAD TO LEAVE

At that point in Wiley's speech, up rose Dr. Alfredo Chocano, acting head of the Guatemalan embassy. He walked to where W. Cameron Burton, president of the host district of Columbia Bar Association, was seated near the speaker's rostrum. He thanked Burton for the invitation and said he had to leave.

Then Chocano strode through a backdrop and out of the banquet room. Outside, the Guatemalan told reporters: "I don't know anything about that arms shipment."

He said he interpreted Wiley's remarks as an "allusion to Guatemala" and that he walked out "because I am not in agreement with what he said."

ASK CONSULATION

In his speech, Wiley called for "hemispheric consultation" on what he termed the "alarming" development in turbulent Central America.

Such consultation could be a preliminary to joint action by the 21 American republics under the Rio de Janeiro mutual defence treaty. A majority of those republics would have to approve before military, economic or diplomatic sanctions could be invoked to quell a threat to the peace.

So far, the U.S. government has gone no further than to announce the unloading of the arms in Guatemala and to warn Latin American embassies officially of what it terms a "grave" situation.

Push Plans For Pact In S. Asia

U.S., France Work To Increase Action As Deadlock Tightens

GENEVA (AP)—France and the United States today were reported pushing plans for a South-east Asia defence pact as the Far East conference deadlock on Indo-China tightened another notch.

A source close to Foreign Minister Bidault said secret French-American talks which have been going on in Washington, Paris and Geneva during the last few days will continue regardless of how the Geneva parley progresses.

The Indo-China peace talks here today were reported stalemated over Western demands that Communist forces withdraw immediately from the French associated states of Laos and Cambodia. One Western informant said no progress has been made on this or any other points since the closed-door sessions began two days ago.

Another private session on Indo-China was held today, and informed sources said a fourth may be held Thursday, but that the problem then probably will be laid aside until next week.

PLAN DEFENCE PACT

In view of this stalemate, a French source said, France and the U.S. have agreed to go ahead with plans for an Asian defence pact without awaiting British approval. Britain contends such negotiations should await the outcome of the conference.

The French oppose the delay, fearing the Communists may try to keep the conference enmeshed in endless debate while the Vietminh rebels build up their strength to mount a massive attack on the strategic Red river delta. When that happens, France wants to have her allies ready to fight without delay.

Britain is reported to have agreed, however, to open military staff conferences soon on South-east Asia with the U.S., France and other allied powers interested in Southeast Asia. They include Australia, New Zealand, Thailand and The Philippines.

Await Decision Of Planning Bd.

The Peterborough recreation commission is steering clear of the dispute between Mrs. John Nornabell's Otonabee valley conservation committee and the city planning board.

Although asked by the committee to take a stand on the issue of whether or not industries should be allowed to establish along the Otonabee river the commission feels the issues are not yet clearly enough demarcated for any decision to be made.

"When the planning board comes to a decision about the Otonabee committee's plea, we will express an opinion," said recreation director Ken Robinson today, "but not until then."

One member of the planning board has expressed the view that the Otonabee valley conservation committee is being premature in agitating for public and organizational support for its anti-industry stand. The question, he pointed out, has not yet been discussed by the planning board.

The planning board met May 7 to consider many complaints on the proposed zoning arrangements for the city, but did not get more than halfway through the stack. The Otonabee question was one of several deferred for later consideration.

The planning board meets again Thursday night at 7:30 at city hall.

Soon Use Cars, TV Sets As Bank Loan Security

OTTAWA (CP)—Canadians soon may be able to obtain bank loans by putting up automobiles, television sets, furniture and other household goods as security.

The Commons banking committee Tuesday approved an amendment to the Bank Act allowing chartered banks to lend money on chattel mortgages for the first time in history.

Adoption came as the committee completed a three-month study of the decennial revision of banking legislation which requires approval of both Houses of Parliament before it becomes law.

However, Finance Minister Abbott said he had discussed the chattel mortgage idea with the cabinet and said his colleagues had no objections to it, indicating government support in Parliament.

OTHER STEPS

The committee took these other steps:

1. It rejected a bid by R. E. Anderson (L—Norfolk) to give fruit and vegetable growers priority over banks in getting payment from bankrupt canners. Mr. Abbott said to give the growers what they want would destroy the effectiveness of Section 88 of the Bank Act, dealing with bank loan security.

2. Agreed to enforce retirement of bank directors at the age of 75 years, effective July 1, 1959.

3. Rejected a final attempt by J. M. Macdonnell (PC—Toronto Greenwood) to have Parliament control the amount of money the government can print.

Italy's Blind Cancel Sit-Down Strike

ROME (AP) — Italy's blind "misery marchers," assured officially that something will be done to boost their $6-a-month pensions, Tuesday night called off their plans for a sit-down hunger strike on parliament's doorstep.

The bedraggled column of 600 sightless men and women marched into Rome Tuesday carrying signs: "We, too, have a right to live." Sixty began the march from Florence May 8, and their ranks were swelled by blind demonstrators from cities all over Italy.

Had Liquor On Reserve

A charge of having liquor on an Indian reserve was brought against Grant Neal Taylor, Curve Lake reserve, by the RCMP in court Tuesday.

Magistrate W. R. Philp, QC, entered a fine of $10, costs $4.50, and ordered the liquor to be confiscated.

Charles Hughes, 28, of 45 Sophia St., was fined $10, costs $2.50.

Defends Action Withdrawing From Committee

Joseph Wirtz, co-ordinator of Canadian IUE, Tuesday night defended the action his union took with the steelworkers, when at a previous meeting it was decided to secede from the joint TCL-CCL-UE committee which had been set up to deal with unemployment.

A meeting held on May 10 to discuss unemployment, had ended with the CCL withdrawing its delegates from the committee.

At a special meeting of the Peterborough and district labor council Tuesday night, Mr. Wirtz said he considered his union had been right in their stand at the earlier meeting.

Edward Humphrey (434 UPWA) alleged that the IUE had "been very late in getting into this thing. It looks funny to me when you come into a meeting with a complaint in one hand and your dues in the other. It does not look any good to me".

(Mr. Humphrey was referring to the May 10 meeting where the IUE had objected to the CCL being on the joint unemployment committee with the UE. The IUE had presented its cheque for unpaid dues, making delegates eligible to vote at the meeting.)

Mr. Wirtz: "We did not have any ulterior motive in presenting our cheque at that last meeting. I find nothing whatsoever in this matter that is not in order. I think that the TCL and the CCL labor organizations should go along together in this matter".

Mr. Humphrey replied that he distinctly remembered that the IUE had said that the labor council would not be dominated by any big union, but he considered that is just what had happened.

Mr. Wirtz said there was no case of any union being dominated by a larger one. He also informed the meeting that he had heard some discussion intimating that there might be a split in the ranks of the CCL labor council and that the leadership might resign.

This, he refuted, adding: "I would like to appeal to everyone in this room to follow through with this business of fighting unemployment. We don't want any resignations now. We have too many worries as it is and too many fronts to fight on."

Bill Triggs (293 UPWA) said that he had said he intended resigning. However, since the last meeting he had changed his mind and now would stay in the organization.

Suggest Festival Of Arts, Crafts

Peterborough may become the cultural centre for eastern Ontario, recreation director Ken Robinson predicted today. He was commenting on suggestions that an area-wide arts and crafts festival be held here each year.

This plan might expand to include most or all of eastern Ontario, said Mr. Robinson. He pointed out that similar arrangement exists in western Ontario, with an annual arts festival in London each year.

Such a festival would likely last three days and would feature art, pottery, leathercraft, metalwork and weaving displays. It is not expected that it would be a hobby-craft show.

The suggestion to make Peterborough a cultural centre came from librarian William Graff, and the president of the Men's Sketch club, retired teacher J. E. R. Munro at a meeting of the recreation commission Tuesday. These two will join with Mr. Robinson, arts and crafts director Mrs. C. C. Pilon and Charles Weir, district representative of the department of education's community programs branch to draft a tentative working arrangement.

If the idea for a regional festival is developed, said Mr. Robinson, the effect will be two-fold. There will be closer cultural ties between various areas, and receipts from such a festival might help to bolster finances of smaller recreation commissions.

Industrials Stronger In Light Trading

TORONTO (CP) — Industrials strengthened today on light early afternoon trade on the stock market, but other groups were weak.

Western oils continued in the losing trend. Base metal categories were off, as were golds in light trading. Other metals—uraniums, Bathurst and Manitouwadge issues—were also down. Volume was a light 1,099,000 shares.

Industrial strength was general except for liquors and amusements, both off slightly. Papers, agriculture and motors were up. Economic Investments climbed 75 cents to a yearly high of $29.12½.

In western oils, biggest change was a 35-cent gain for General Petroleum A.

Senior golds were steady. Geco's 20-cent drop was the greatest Manitouwadge loss.

Record Year

EDINBURGH, Scotland (CP)—Official reports show more than 250,000 overseas visitors came to Scotland last year. The actual figure of 260,200 compares with 231,500 in 1952 and officials estimated the tourist trade was worth about $25,000,000.

TV Signals Arriving From Everywhere

Freak conditions in the earth's atmosphere have given Peterborough TV owners something new to talk about.

When they switch on their sets this week, they're not sure where they're going to hear from. For instance, John Reichert who lives on the hill south of Lansdowne St. west, near the junction of Highways 7 and 28 has been picking up stations from the southern United States.

On channel 2, he received a program from KUVR of Houston, Texas, and on channel 6, WSDU of New Orleans. The most remote point, about 1,500 miles away, Amarillo, Texas, station KGNC, came in on channel 4 with a test pattern.

Test patterns have also been received from St. Joseph, Missouri FEFQ on channel 2, Omaha, Nebraska on channel 3 and Rock City, Arkansas on channel 4.

Closer to home, but still an oddity in TV reception, were test patterns from Montreal, Hamilton, and programs from Johnstown, Pa. and Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. Reichert is sure that others have been getting equally good results. He has been comparing notes with Jack Welburn of Mark St., who has the same four stack type aerial he has. They are directional and when the viewers notice some station interference on Channel 4 for instance, which is normally Buffalo, they turn their aerials until they pick up the intruder.

The nearest approach to explanations are theories about the new whipping boy, atomic dust layers; that bounce the signal back to earth or a special condition in the earth's ionosphere which has had the same effect. TV waves and any exceptionally short electromagnetic waves, normally slice right through the ionosphere to be lost in space. Longer waves, of lower frequency, such as ordinary radio broadcast waves are reflected by the ionosphere so that a radio station can be heard from a greater distance than a TV station can be received—under normal conditions.

and the development of suitable metals for the construction of the power pile.

USE HEAVY WATER

Since Canada entered the atomic energy field her experience has partly controlled or moderated with heavy water produced at both Trail, B.C., smelter plant. Both the "Zeep" and NRX reactors use heavy water as a moderator and the new $30,000,000 NRU pile expected to go into operation next year will use heavy water both as a moderator and a coolant.

It is unlikely that the first power reactor built in Canada will be entirely competitive with coal-fired plants unless some value is placed on the plutonium produced as a by-product of the operation of the reactor. Plutonium (produced at Chalk River now is sent to the United States where it is used in the manufacture of atomic bombs.

However, power reactors are expected to become competitive after the development of better methods to utilize fully all uranium fuel and re-use fission products products produced by the action of the reactor as fuel.

New Contract Lowers Rate On Shipments

WINNIPEG (CP) — The Free Press says today that a new contract lowering rates on all grain shipments has been completed by the Canadian wheat board and Great Lakes shipping operators.

Under the agreement, the newspaper says, shipping cost of all grains between the Lakehead and Montreal is reduced by 1½ cents a bushel. The shipping charge on all grains from the Lakehead to Georgian bay ports is cut one cent a bushel.

The newspage story says the initial result of the new agreement would be a flow of grain from congested terminal elevators at Port Arthur and Fort William to Montreal where there is a shortage of some grades of wheat. There are also idle ships waiting for overseas shipments.

The new rates on grains from the Lakehead to Montreal are: Wheat and rye, 14½ per bushel; barley, 13¾; oats, 12½.

The new rates on grains from the Lakehead to Georgian bay ports are: Wheat and rye, 4½; barley, 4¼; oats, 4.

The agreement, completed in Winnipeg Tuesday, climaxed more than a month of negotiations.

George McIvor, chief commissioner of the CWB, told the paper that grain traffic now is "proceeding normally."

Ralph S. Misener, president and general manager of Consolidated Shipping Ltd., said shipments were booked Tuesday at the new rates.

Dutch Family Reunited At Montreal

MONTREAL (CP) — A pretty 19-year-old girl stepped off the liner Groote Beer today to a welcome by government and embassy officials as the 100,000th Dutch immigrant to Canada since the Second World War.

Blue-eyed Jacoba Gerardina "Koosje" Bol, fell into the arms of her sister, Gijsbergha, who preceded the rest of the family to Canada. Also on board the Dutch government vessel were her parents, a younger sister and two younger brothers.

Immigration Minister Harris and A. H. J. Lovink, Netherlands ambassador to Canada, watched the family reunion. Mr. Harris extended an official welcome, and Mr. Lovink made Jacoba guest of honor at a reception attended by prominent federal and municipal officials.

The two younger girls, both high school graduates, plan to get work as domestics for a time.

The two boys, Gerrit Adriaan, 13, and Mattys Albert, 7, will go to school here in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Bol plan to reside temporarily with their daughter Gijsbergha in Essex, Ont., where she is a nurse. Mr. Bol was formerly a dairy farmer in Utrecht province but gave up the farm to establish a dairy marketing business.

Kitchener Opens Bavarian Hofbrau

KITCHENER (CP)—An old-style Bavarian hofbrau, where beer is served in steins and German meals are sold, was opened Tuesday in a hotel here.

Five out of six waiters have German names. Such delicacies as sauerkraut and sausage, and schintzel and rye bread are specialties.

During Centennial Week, which starts June 27, the waiters will wear traditional Bavarian costumes.

U.S. Dollar At Discount

MONTREAL (CP) — The U. S. dollar was at a discount of 1½ per cent. in terms of Canadian funds at noon today. Tuesday's noon rate was 98½ cents. Pound sterling $2.77 11-16 against $2.77 9-16.

Charges Frost Government "Not Innocent Victim"

TORONTO (CP) — Evidence before the Legislative Committee during the past two days has shattered beyond repair the argument that the Frost government has been the innocent victim of a few misguided individuals in the highways department, CCF leader Donald MacDonald, said today.

He said in a statement that J. D. Millar, former Deputy Highways Minister now Deputy Public Works Minister, testified that as far back as 1952 "he had reason to suspect dishonesty in his department, and that he had abolished the classification system of contracting because of what he now calls 'dishonest engineers.'

RAPS DELAYS

"Presumably these suspicions were communicated to his superiors, yet apparently no real effort was made to investigate the situation.

"After the provincial auditor began his investigations last fall, more than six months were allowed to pass before the books of contracting firms were seized. Such a delay gave contracting firms every opportunity to alter or destroy any incriminating evidence that might have existed.

"Now it is revealed by the provincial auditor, not in his formal report to the committee, but as the casual result of questioning, that highways department officials have destroyed records. As yet, however, no charges have been laid against anyone.

"Ever since the highway reserve account was set up in the fall of 1952, neither the public nor legislators have ever been given any details accounts of how its more than $50,000,000 have been spent. Premier Frost has described it simply as 'for special highway improvements'," Mr. MacDonald said.

CASUAL RATES HIGHER

"Now J. D. Woods and Gordon in their report to the committee reveal, among other things, that all casual labor hired by the department is being paid from this reserve account. Moreover, that casual labor has been hired at rates above those paid to permanent department personnel; and the practise has grown up of crediting casual labor with working more hours than they actually did so as to increase the payments.

"In other words, at the very time when the deposed deputy minister suspected dishonesty among his engineering staff, the government itself adopted the extraordinary procedure of setting up a special highway reserve account.

"For a government, or its apologists, to plead innocence in face of that combination of laxity and malpractice on its own part, is an insult to the intelligence of the people of Ontario."

Mrs. T. Doughty Elected Head Women Liberals

Without a strong force of women to help get out the female vote, and promote political interest between campaigns, the cause of Liberalism will be materially weakened.

These words of tribute were addressed to more than 70 women at the annual meeting of the Peterborough Women's Liberal Association, by Gus Faux, president of the local Liberal organization. Mrs. T. F. Doughty was re-elected president of the women's group.

Function of the Ontario Women's Liberal Association, of which the Peterborough grou pis an affiliate, is to promote interest in public affairs and "keep alive the political interest of our women through special events and group study." By working between campaigns, said Mr. Faux, the women create a favorable background for voting.

During election campaigns the women are even more active. Mr. Faux paid tribute to their work manning polling booths, ringing doorbells for candidates, driving cars and doing platform speaking. This local work is vital because "it is in the individual ridings that the final work must be done and victory accomplished."

Work with women's Liberal organizations is often a springboard to politics, said Mr. Faux. He cited the case of a Quebec senator, a woman, who was vice-president of the National Federation of Liberal Women.

Liberalism, the speaker claimed, is the logical choice of voters because Conservatives "lack imagination." He thought talk of agricultural surpluses was irrelevant since "much of the increased agricultural production Canada will need in the next 25 years will come from eastern provinces."

Referring to the scandal in the provincial highways department, Mr. Faux claimed that former deputy minister Donald Millar either "didn't do his job by not watching for dishonesty, or if he did know what was going on apparently did not tell the minister." He hoped that the present Ontario government would be replaced by "reformers who know the safe road."

Others named to the women's executive Tuesday were: vice-presidents, Mrs. P. Scollard, Mrs. F. Steinkraus, Mrs. J. A. Dewart; secretary, Mrs. O. Deyell ;treasurer, Mrs. Roy Brown.

Country representatives are: Lakefield, Mrs E Orr, Mrs Fred Lawrence; Galway - Cavendish, Mrs. Peter Pearson; Harvey, Mrs. Charles Johnson; Smith, Mrs. Wallace Shearer, Mrs. Clarence Hancock; Ennismore, Mrs. Leo Scollard; Douro, Mrs. J. V. O'Connor, Mrs. John Lonergan; North Monaghan, Mrs. Clarence Laing; Otonabee, Mrs. W. Drummond, Mrs. Sam Comrie; Apsley, Mrs Ralph Ftizgerald, Mrs. Henry Edwards.

Admits Theft Jailed One Year

Admitting two charges of breaking, entry and theft which occurred at Keith Innes' Shell service station and Landry's snack bar, Otonabee, in June, 1953, 22-year-old Gerald Stinton, 270 William St., appeared before Magistrate W. R. Philp, QC, today.

He was sentenced to one year definite, two months indefinte imprisonment in an Ontario reformatory, Brampton to be recommended.

Sergeant of detectives, John Stevenson, told the court that Stinton had been involved in the two break-ins in company with a William Mullins. Mullins had been arrested in London shortly after and sentenced. Stinton, however, had been arrested only recently.

Stinton said that he had met Mullins while both youths were serving time in the Guelph reformatory. Their asosciation, with its criminal results, had begun there.

At one of the break-ins the two men made off with $690.60. A little of this money was later recovered by police.

Says Committee By-Passes Road Minister

TORONTO (CP) — Ontario's newly-created committee on construction and planning Tuesday drew the fire of opposition members of the legislature's select committee investigating irregularities in the highways department.

W. J. Grummett, CCF House leader, charged the committee "by-passes" the highways minister. However, Duncan Gordon, of J. D. Woods and Gordon, Toronto management consultants who were approached on the committee's formation, said there was "no suggestion of by-passing the minister."

The argument arose during Mr. Gordon's testimony in which he reviewed recommendations for departmental re-organization contained in a 21,000 word report presented to the committee on Monday.

The report recommended that in future, the amounts of any adjustments with contractors which the highways department may find it necessary to recommend should be reviewed by the committee before submission to the provincial treasurer for payment.

Mr. Grummett said such a move would take away the minister's authority.

WOULD REVIEW IT

Mr. Gordon said in any normal contract the committee would not come into the picture, but in isolated cases where they were departing from the terms of the contract, the committee would then review it.

Albert Wren (Lib.-Lab.—Kenora) asked who would have the final authority.

W. H. Collings (PC — Toronto Beaches) said anything pertaining to the department was the responsibility of the minister.

Anyway, the committee is government policy now," said Mr. Collings.

Mr. Gordon said the highways department, now employing 250 engineers, needs 100 more top-flight personnel. The present staff has been "heavily over-worked" in the last few years and he suggested the department would be able to save money and work by greater efficiency through a larger staff.

Outside the committee room, a departmental official said the cost of 100 engineers would be approximately $500,000 a year.

SAYS LACKED INTEGRITY

J. D. Millar, now deputy minister of public works and former deputy minister of highways, testified earlier that lack of integrity of some departmental engineers resulted in overruns on contracts let in 1950.

He said he never condoned any irregularities when they were brought to his attention but said it was possible he unknowingly signed documents which led to irregularities.

Listening to the testimony was Highways Minister Doucett who, when asked by a reporter if he considered he had lived up to his responsibilities, answered "yes."

Asked if he had any intention of resigning his post Mr. Doucett replied: "That's an unfair question. The answer is no."

Call Special Session To Rescind Resolution

OWEN SOUND (CP)—A special session of Grey county council has been called for Thursday night to consider rescinding a resolution requesting a judicial hearing into the affairs and management of the Grey county home at Markdale.

The resolution was passed at a special council session May 7 but during the last week some members of county council have circulated a petition and sufficient signatures were obtained to warrant the special meeting. At least 20 of the 40 council members signed the petition, sponsors said.

Warden George Mannerow said today he does not know whether the special council session will be open to public and press.

Board Of Works Men Form Bargaining Unit

LINDSAY (ENS)—The employees of the board of works have been certified as a bargaining unit by the Ontario labor relations board, town engineer Les Wilson was notified yesterday.

The board recently heard the application of the employees who were organized by The National Union of Public Service Employees (CCL) the same group which organized the hydro workers. According to the report 18 employees were certified in the bargaining unit. This number excluded the superintendent but included the sub-foreman. It also did not include the employees at the sewage disposal plant, who are under the jurisdiction of another committee of council.

Time Children Wards Of Society Reduced By Act

The Child Welfare Act, effective January 1, 1955, will greatly increase the responsibilities of the Children's Aid Societies, said Miss Richael Young, superintendent of the Society in the city and county of Peterborough.

Speaking to the society's board of directors, Tuesday, Miss Young pointed out how the new act, which limits temporary wardship to two years, will affect the work of the society. Tht act was passed by the Ontario Legislature during the spring session.

Previously the law provided that a child, neglected by his parents, could be brought into court and made a temporary ward of the society. While the child remained in the care of the society, the parents were given a chance to establish a home for it. Sometimes temporary wardship extended for five to six years and if the parents at the end of this time did not want the child, it was difficult for an older child to be adopted.

TWO YEARS

Under the Child Welfare Act, the child can only remain a temporary ward of the society for two years. After that unless the parents can provide a suitable home, the child becomes a permanent ward of the society and thus becomes eligible for adoption.

Suppose, Miss Young explained that a six-months-old child becomes a temporary ward of the society. After two years he could become a permanent ward. The child would be two-and-half years old of which is a good age for adoption. The younger child can easily adjust to a new home and has a chance for a more secure environment, than a child who is a temporary ward and must wait year after year, wondering what will happen to him.

On the other hand, Miss Young pointed out that two years might be too short a time for parents to establish a home. In cases where the mother is in a sanitorium or mental health hospital, it might take a longer time for ner to get back on her feet.

Another board member, Walter Howell, said that the Act might infringe too much on the rights of individuals. The Society would have a tremendous power as well as responsibility, Mr. Howell said.

Miss Young brought out another section of the Act which is an attempt to block the baby black market in Ontario. The Act provides that anyone placing a child for adoption — either by his mother, a social worker, a lawyer or a doctor — must register the child within 30 days.

FIRST HIGH COMMISSIONER for the United Kingdom in Canada to visit Peterborough, Sir Archibald Nye, said he was impressed by the city's diversification of industry and the room there is for expansion. He toured the Canadian Nashua Paper Co. today before completing his visit. The high commissioner is shown here with Acting Mayor John A. Dewart (left) and Ald. Gordon Powell (right) at a luncheon given for him at the Kawartha Golf and Country Club Tuesday. (Examiner Staff Photo)

High Commissioner Impressed By City

In some things, Sir Archibald Nye resembles a certain military colleague. Like Viscount Montgomery, he was born in Ireland. Like the field marshal he neither drinks nor smokes. But the comparison ends there.

Slightly taller than average height, with wavy, greying hair that is beginning to thin out on top, Sir Archibald is an unassuming, friendly man, immensely polite and often too candid to be taken for a senior member of the British diplomatic service.

A professional soldier from the age of 18, who rose from the rank of private to that of lieutenant-general, he interrupted his career at one point to become a barrister, only to return to the army again. A thoughtful, mild-spoken man, he evokes memories of the late Lord Wavell in more ways than one.

The first High Commissioner from the United Kingdom ever to visit Peterborough, His Excellency completed a two-day inspection of local industries today with a tour of the plant of the Canadian Nashua Paper Co. On Tuesday, he visited the plants of the Canadian General Electric Company and the Outboard Marine and Manufacturing Co.

A number of representatives of local organizations and industries had the opportunity to meet Sir Archibald at a civic reception in the city hall Tuesday afternoon. The Wavell touch was obvious when he was asked how his visit had impressed him so far.

"I felt that a happy relationship existed between management and workers," he said. "It seemed to me to be evidence of good leadership; and after all, that's what's required in civilian just as in military life, isn't it?"

Of Peterborough in general, Sir Archibald said he was impressed by the diversification of industry here with "immeasurable room for expansion."

At noon on Tuesday he was guest of honor at a civic luncheon at the Kawartha club, attended by city council members and heads of city departments. It was on this occasion that Sir Archibald revealed the purpose of his visit to Peterborough.

Explaining his various functions as High Commissioner, Sir Archibald said one of his tasks was to explain his country and its government to the government and people of Canada. Conversely, he was expected to keep his own government informed of what Canadians say and feel and think, so they could take these into consideration when dealing with our government.

"I have tried to avoid the error of thinking Canada consists of Ottawa, Montreal and Toronto," he said. "I have travelled a great deal and, in so doing, have visited a number of places much smaller than Peterborough.

"Unless I did this, I don't know how I could find out what the people are thinking. You can't find that out simply by listening to the people in Ottawa."

Since their arrival in Canada a year ago last August, Sir Archibald and Lady Nye have travelled extensively in nine provinces and expect to visit the tenth, Newfoundland, in July.

He explained that the status of a high commissioner was equivalent to that of an ambassador. Since the latter was accredited by the head of one state to that of another, however, and since the Queen was the head of state of both the United Kingdom and Canada, a high commissioner was accredited by one government to another.

The distinction was a lawyer's solution to a problem of protocol, Sir Archibald said.

An ambassador's duties could be listed under four headings, he said: political, strategic, economics and trade. He had little to do with the first two, because the two countries thought a great deal alike in matters of political diplomacy and strategy. When there were differences, they were differences of emphasis and detail.

Sir Archibald said he spent most of his time dealing with trade and economic questions.

"My country can't possibly grow enough food for a population of 50 million in a country a fifth the size of Quebec. We can't live unless we export enough to earn the money to buy food.

"Even when we were the richest country in the world, we didn't live on what we exported. We had to rely on invisible exports, our investments in foreign countries. We invested our money the world over . . . The prosperity of the United States was built on British investments.

"Then, in order to pay for the Second World War, we had to sell out all of our overseas investments, sometimes at a great loss. The result was that we had to tell our people they would have to forego the products of their own industry, which we needed for export.

"That may seem harsh to you; but I think it was right. It was the only way we could pull ourselves out.

"You people have a situation the reverse of ours; you produce primary products in excess of your needs. So far, we have been your best customer; the only way we can buy your food is to sell you our goods. But so far, we have been buying more from you than you have from us."

As a consequence of Britain's adverse balance of trade with Canada, Sir Archibald said, one of his tasks was to urge Canadians to buy British goods.

"But I consistently say, 'Don't buy British because it's British; don't buy it unless it's good.' We think that in most lines we can produce better than has been done and beat the competition."

Sir Archibald was introduced at the luncheon by Acting Mayor John Dewart and thanked by Ald. Alene Holt. Ald. Gordon Powell, chairman of legal and reception committee, who acted as master of ceremonies, proposed the toast to the Queen.

On Tuesday evening, Sir Archibald addressed the United Services Institute.

Police Release Truck Convoy

WINDSOR (CP)—A convoy of 15 new Canadian trucks hit the road out of Detroit this morning after a delay of a day and a half caused by lack of licence plates.

The trucks had been seized by Detroit police and placed in pound when they crossed the Ambassador Bridge Monday evening. They were en route from General Motors at Oshawa to Vancouver.

Harold DeYoung, investigator for the Michigan secretary of state's office, said the truck drivers would either have to purchase Michigan licence plates or return their vehicles to Canada.

Earl Cartlidge of General Motors, Windsor, said today 10 half-year Michigan plates have been bought by the firm moving the trucks. Five of the trucks are being carried and need no plates.

The mixup, said Cartlidge, was due to confusion over the field covered by Ontario in - transit plates on the trucks. These are honored across Canada.

'Largeness of Mind' And The Highways Scandal

The Provincial Auditor, Mr. Harvey Cotman, testifying before the Legislature's Select Committee which is investigating the scandal in the Highways Department, says that junior employees in that Department destroyed relevant documents, and falsified others, after the scandal became known. He is also quoted as saying that 'largness of mind' is needed in dealing with this matter, and that he does not think it desirable to persecute these employees, particularly if they were acting under instructions from their superiors. We do not agree with Mr. Cotman. We think that every effort must be made to find out who gave orders for records to be destroyed, and if this involves putting junior employees on oath, and demanding that information, it must be done. We cannot see that this constitutes persecution, and if the guilt of these junior employees is small, their punishment will also be small.

* * *

Let us beware of encouraging the idea that a man who does what he knows to be wrong, under instructions from a superior, is without guilt. Civil servants are not soldiers, compelled to do what their superiors tell them with blind obedience. They are citizens, in the employ of the people of Ontario; if they are told to do something which is obviously against the public welfare—and destroying incriminating evidence is such an act—it is their duty to resist. If they do not resist they are compounding a felony, and they must take the consequences.

* * *

If there is to be a show of large mindness, we think that it demands that all who have had any part in what is clearly a huge imposture upon the people of Ontario should suffer in proportion to their guilt. To protect them, because they are civil servants, is to suggest that civil servants have less honour than other men, and require the special protection which the law extends to children and lunatics. If these people are to escape scot-free, simply because they do what they are told, without regard for right or wrong, how can we ever trust our provincial civil service again?

* * *

It is plain that this scandal is of far greater magnitude than was at first supposed, and that it involves men far higher in the Ontario Government than we at first believed. As anybody knows who has built a school, for instance, under the eye of the Ontario Government expense is watched very closely, overestimates are sharply checked, and looseness of accounting is not tolerated. Presumably such checks on inefficiency can operate in other governmental expenditures, but in the case of the Highways Department it has not been done. There is a Provincial Treasury Board, which must surely know when expenses jump 300 per cent. above estimates. Mr. Frost, as Provincial Treasurer, must be aware of the fact when $16,000,000 for which there has been no estimate, is required, and spent. Why has Mr. Frost, as Provincial Treasurer, done nothing about it? Mr. George Doucett has been Minister of Highways for ten years; are we expected to believe that Mr. Doucett knew nothing of this fantastic increase in spending over estimates in his Department? Mr. Cotnam counsels us to be large minded. Very well. But let us distinguish between what is large-minded and what is simply feeble-minded. Large mindedness of the true sort does not flourish under corrupt governments or governments which knowingly tolerate corruption. The Ontario taxpayer is not permitted to be large minded about his own taxes; why should he be large minded about bad management, destruction of evidence and irresponsible squandering in a Government concern? It is astonishing how often our elected representatives have to be reminded that the government is ours, and that the civil servants are employed to serve us and not the Cabinet and the Deputy Ministers.

* * *

Large mindedness is not crooked mindedness. Protecting the junior officials who destroyed evidence to save the hides of their bosses and their bosses' friends suggests that a different standard of honesty is expected in government from that which prevails in private business. If all who are implicated in this scandal are not brought to justice, and given justice, we shall be justified in future in pointing at any Ontario Civil Servant and saying: 'That man is potentially, if not actually, a crook, for it is a condition of his work that he may not distinguish between right and wrong.

What Capital Punishment Means

"Off with his head;" has a jolly Alice-in-Wonderland ring, but when it is actually executed, in the meaning of "capital punishment", (the capital being the head) there is nothing amusing about it at all, as the House of Commons and Senate Committee on capital and corporal punishment are finding out. The Committee is investigating both the advisability and the methods of capital punishment, which, in Canada, means hanging.

The electric chair is not employed in this country and, from evidence it has heard, the Committee is not likely to recommend it as an alternative to hanging. It is also a horrible death, probably more hideous than the scaffold. The details of legal electrocution as given by a prison medical examiner for the past thirteen years, who spoke as an eye-witness of one American case, are too revolting to repeat here.

Another "expert" witness to be called before the Joint Committee was the official hangman, to try to establish the degree of cruelty in hanging as compared with other forms of execution. The hangman is actually the only person to see a condemned man die. He ducks under the scaffold as soon as the trap is sprung and is with the victim for twenty minutes before the attending medical examiner goes below to pronounce life extinct. When the hangman presents his views to the Committee it will be behind closed doors.

The whole subject is unpleasant, but it is not well to turn away from it. On Canadian citizens' behalf the special Parliamentary Committee is investigating it. At the same time—to give the Committee relief from sordid details if not to secure greater publicity, it has asked Erle Stanley Gardner, the creator of "Perry Mason" detective thrillers, to present his views. Mr. Gardner has refused, but did send the Committee a letter, in which he complimented Canada by saying that the British system of courts and law left far less room for serious miscarriages of justice than the American system.

In the twenty years from 1930 to 1950 a total of 389 men and 18 women were condemned to death in Canada, but only 216 men and 4 women were executed. The rest were saved from the gallows by appeals to higher courts or the clemency of the "Queen's mercy", that is, pardon or lowering of the sentence by the Cabinet upon the recommendation of the Minister of Justice.

A total of 220 hangings in twenty years is not a bad record, although it does not minimize the seriousness of each individual execution.

French Calamity, American Perplexity

Dien Bien Phu was not momentous strategically; it was important symbolically. The French have fought so long and hard in the Indo-China outpost of their empire, and at such great cost, that the fall of Dien Bien Phu was a national calamity, second only in this century to the fall of the homeland before Hitler. Nothing has done more to arouse French public opinion, and even to rally the people to their historic senses, than Dien Bien Phu.

From the depths of national depression M. Bidault has been able to speak at Geneva with the force and clarity of a man fighting destiny, for he speaks for France bowed but no longer wobbling. Thus France has become, so paradoxical is defeat, the Western leader at the great conference, and the United States has been relegated from a commanding position into that of a perplexed bystander. Dien Bien Phu has had a deleterious effect on the United States in foreign councils because it has put into question many of the basic assumptions on which the U.S. Administration has rested its foreign and strategic policies, without giving the clarity of purpose which France felt at her heart's core.

The "agonizing reappraisal" of which President Eisenhower talked some months ago has become a dilemma of indecision. The collective security system which the American Government wants to create in Asia lacks reality, partly because the Americans tend to withdraw from reality whenever they touch it in Asia, at Dien Bien Phu for instance. France has made economic and personal sacrifices for Indo-China and still Vietminh troops pour into the Red River delta. The U.S. is willing to guard with its money and equipment what the American people might be called on to guard with their lives and do not want sacrifice. Thus at Geneva Mr. Dulles cannot and does not speak with the authority of M. Bidault.

A device is in process of perfection which will produce the sound of a 100-piece symphony orchestra with a keyboard half the size of that on a piano. We can hardly wait till the neighbours get one.

U.S. AND CHINA

Love Lavished And Spurned

By WILLIAM CLARK

ARE America and China natural enemies? Recent American statements from Senators, and snubbing operations at Geneva by Mr. Dulles, make it seem so. Yet it needs only a very short memory to recall the time when it was an article of faith in Washington that the United States and China were natural allies, and that the American and Chinese peoples were devoted friends.

When I first visited America, in 1938, I was met at the New York dock gates by small children rattling boxes labelled "Chinese Relief." They were a regular part of the American scene; for a century American missionaries had made China their special field of endeavour, and most Americans over twenty-one years of age remember solemnly dropping a nickel into the "China box" at Sunday school.

* * *

STARTING AT about the beginning of this century, China had become something special to America. It was the place where Americans could perform the good works that imperialists claimed to do (irrigation, agricultural improvements, schools and hospitals) without demanding the political rights which (to take the horrible example usually given) Britain demanded in India.

In 1931, when Japan invaded Manchuria, it was the American Secretary of State, Mr. Stimson, who tried to rally other countries to take action, and it is a part of American popular thinking that it was the British Foreign Secretary, Sir John Simon, who torpedoed the scheme. For the record, it is worth stating that in 1931 (as in 1945) there was no indication that Congress would have backed up [illegible] Secretary of State if he had attempted to involve America in united action; it was part of the special American attitude to China, and to Asia generally, that it did not include an imperial tradition of sending and maintaining armies overseas.

* * *

THROUGHOUT the thirties American sympathy for [illegible] in their struggle with Japan grew, while Chiang Kai-shek and his American-educated wife, both of them Christian converts, became national heroes. In 1941 Pearl Harbour brought America into the war on China's side (rather than on Britain's), and for the next four years the war against China's enemy, Japan, was more bitter and more generally acceptable to Americans than the war against Hitler.

Finally, as the war ended, it was President Roosevelt who against the British Prime Minister's advice, insisted on making China one of the Big Five on the Security Council. His successor, President Truman sent the most distinguished American of the day—General George Marshall—to organise economic aid and political peace for Chiang Kai-shek.

* * *

FOR NEARLY twenty years Chiang had been America's protege, and then, in 1948, it suddenly became clear that China had rejected Chiang. Within a few months, while the United States looked on helplessly, America's chosen ally became a refugee in Formosa.

It was just at this time that America was first becoming fully aware of her stature as the world's most powerful nation. She had just won a war in Asia in alliance with the great mainland power of China. Now, by a single revolutionary turn, America found herself deprived of a dependable ally in Asia and facing a hostile continent. This was so shocking an experience that many Americans still refuse to believe it happened.

* * *

INSTEAD of admitting these serious facts, they have invented two myths. The first is that this was not an event in foreign affairs, but part of an internal political betrayal: Leftwingers and traitors in the State Department (who unfortunately existed) were thought to have handed over China to the Reds. McCarthyism has its roots in this. The second myth is that the Chinese people cannot have ceased to be friendly to America, even under the present Communist usurpation.

This second myth is the foundation upon which the theory of liberation has been built. Many Americans believe that China can be freed from its Communist incubus by the efforts of Chinese nationalists with only a relatively small amount of American aid. At the end of 1952, a prominent American, now an Ambassador, told me that he was convinced that if a brigade of Kuomintang troops from Formosa were landed on the mainland there would soon be an uprising which would overthrow the Communist tyranny; no American troops need be involved.

* * *

IT IS THIS belief that the Chinese people, on whom so much love has been lavished, cannot be Communists that in part lies behind the refusal to recognize the great and dangerous fact that China is as Communist as Russia. The Korean war, which cost America 150,000 casualties, set the seal on American determination not to recognize a Government which had become the enemy.

But this war also gave rise to a military-diplomatic theory held by Senator Knowland and others.

* * *

IT IS BASED on the opinion that today China is the West's most deadly enemy—more likely to attack than is Russia because it has not yet learnt the limits of its power, as the Soviet Government did, for instance, at the time of the Truman doctrine in Greece, and of the Berlin blockade. China, it is said, may start a Third World War accidentally by dragging in a reluctant Russia, as Austo-Hungary started the First World War by Balkan adventures which its ally Germany disliked but ultimately had to support.

In the light of this appraisal, America's aim must be to try to unseat the present Government of China, if possible by means of diplomacy and subversion, and, if that is impossible to cut off China from the means of industrialisation. This involves prolonged and effective blockade, and a refusal to accept China diplomatically.

These are very dangerous paths. They do not represent the policies of the American Government, and certainly not of the American people. But it is a tragic fact that at present China is the one subject on which the basic common sense of the American people will not necessarily prevail, because the issue is too far clouded by conflicting emotions of love and hate vigorously fanned by convinced political pressure groups.

Letters To The Editor

ENCOURAGES SOCCER TEAMS

SIR: I feel the Peterborough Merchants' Soccer football team should be complimented for their continued participation in this international sport. No other team could show such cheerful consistency in the face of repeated defeats.

They have, at times, been criticized by some of our less understanding immigrants for their robust play. It should be remembered, however, that similar criticism has been levelled at Canadian hockey and U.K. soccer teams playing in Europe.

To the Merchants, therefore, I can only say "Score High, Pass Low, and Keep on Kicking."

"O'GOP."

CHILDREN PLAYING IN STREETS

SIR: We read plenty these days regarding delinquent children; what about delinquent parents? People who have children and who live in apartments will say: "O, if I only had a yard, where the children could play and be safe!" On Sherbrooke St. from Park St. to Monaghan Road there isn't a home that hasn't got a good yard, yet all the children play on the street. This section of the street is very narrow owing to the wider curb. Why there are no children killed is a mystery. But it's coming, sure.

"A RESIDENT."

MORE THOUGHT, LESS IMAGINATION

SIR: I reply to Mr. "John Average Citizen," regarding the addition of an auditorium to the new Memorial Centre, I would like to say the following. The opinion expressed seems to reflect a general antipathy of society towards any who attempt to excel in the arts, letters or sciences. This feeling is found in our public schools, where the child who dares to educate his mind is scorned as a "brain"—an object of pity rather than admiration, while his fellows who excel in sports are worshipped as demi-gods.

It seems to me that it is high time we Canadians did a little hard thinking, and not quite so much imitating of our neighbours to the south. It is also time we realized that great politicians, statesmen, lawyers and scientists, are what makes a country honoured in history and respected by other nations. These leaders must be individualists, not followers of a stereotyped society. Unless we realize this, and unless we are willing to give our people and our children an opportunity to better themselves culturally as well as materially, we will find ourselves lacking these leaders, and Canada will remain a second-rate power in world politics.

Finally, I would like to point out that we have never been able to hear a full symphony orchestra in Peterborough, because we have no auditorium with a stage large enough to accommodate one hundred musicians.

LOIS C. HOLMAN.

DRACONIAN SPEED CONTROL

SIR: Much has been said of the safety to be maintained by car drivers on highways and within the limits of towns and cities. I wish, Mr. Editor, you would give me a chance to say what I think of the whole thing. For instance, in Quebec, the speed limit has been raised to as high as 60 m.p.h. with a fine of only $50 on the breaking of the law and in Peterborough, a fine of only $12.50 has been imposed this year on those forgetting to renew their license plates.

For my part, I figure that all this is a fault on the part of the authorities who contribute insufficently to maintain safety and therefore have the lives of our good citizens endangered.

I suggest that a speed limit of 38 m.p.h. be enforced through Canada on highways, and that a fine of $100 be imposed on a 1st offence, $500 on a 2nd offence, $1,000 on a 3rd, and so on until the 12th offence when imprisonment for life should be bestowed.

In regard to late license plate renewals, $25.00 should be imposed on a 1st offence, the plate should be refused on a 2nd, the car confiscated for a full year on a 3rd, and so on using different arrangements in confiscation of car, plate refusal and fines until on the 12th offence, one year imprisonment should be bestowed.

Speed limits can easily be enforced. On highways, a large number of disguised members of the police force could patrol all highways in ordinary cars, to see that the limit is observed. Within towns and cities, the problem might seem difficult but it is not. At many various places in a city, short distances of say 100 feet could be marked down in the pavement with special spots as indicators which could only be seen through a certain type of glasses. With these glasses on, constables armed with a chronometer could hide inside a store, a house or even in a field lying down well camouflaged (it would be well to hire former commandos as policemen for this last post). Using a chronometer, a policeman could determine the time taken by a driver to go from one spot to the other (distant by say 100 feet). This would reveal the speed at which the car is being driven.

I suggest that a maximum of 24 m.p.h. should be enforced in towns and cities. A minimum should also be enforced since too low a speed may endanger circulation as well. This minimum, for instance, could be 12 m.p.h.

To see that this limit be observed, policemen disguised as civilians could patrol all over town using bicycles This way, it would be easy to catch up with a driver at these low speeds.

Bible Message

(From The Authorized Version)

Art thou not from everlasting, O Lord my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die... Thou are of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity. (Hab. 1:12, 13.)

* * *

Cause me to hear thy lovingkindness in the morning: for in thee do I trust: cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for I lift up my soul unto thee: . . . teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God: thy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness. (Ps. 143:8, 10.)

* * *

Now this I say, brethern, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I shew you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For the corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. (I Cor. 15: 50-53).

* * *

And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that are therein, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer. (Rev. 10:5, 6.)

Both Ways

(Letter in The Edmonton Journal)

This idea of returning a chauffeur's or driver's license because a man's work depends on it reminds me of a joke I read: Joe protested loud and long when the judge fined him and suspended his license.

"You can't do this to me, Judge," he blustered. "Why my living depends on my driving!"

"Yes," the judge said coldly. "So does the living of everyone else in the community."

Cost Problem

(Winnipeg Free Press)

Our cost problem, like that of Australia and New Zealand, has long been camouflaged by abnormal conditions of world demand but is now inexorably emerging to test the economic viability of Canadian industries.

By lowering the barriers against imports, New Zealand is of course moving to slash costs. In Australia it would appear that opinion — including Tariff Board opinion — is moving in the same direction.

In Canada too this perennial problem will have to be faced and must be resolved, not in the interests of the few, but in the all-important interest of our export industries.

Board Decides To Increase Teachers' Pay

BLENHEIM, Ont. (CP) — Blenheim district high school board Tuesday night passed a motion to increase maximum salaries for non-specialist teachers from $4,600 to $4,800 a year.

Maximum for specialists will go from $4,800 to $5,000.

The teachers' request presented to the board May 3, called for top salaries of $5,000 and $5,200 respectively.

Irked by what they termed "delaying tactics" on the part of the board, the 14 members of the teaching staff tendered their resignations effective at the end of the present school year.

E. M. Warwick, member of the board who proposed the salaries boost, said the teachers' request "was in reality a demand, we were left no room to negotiate."

Announcement of the resignations resulted in "pink" listing of the school by the Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation. This means all federation members have been advised not to accept employment at the school until the dispute is settled.

No Law Requires Police Pay For Car

WOODSTOCK (CP)—Who pays the damages when a car commandeered by police is wrecked?

Attorney-General Dana Porter said here Tuesday there is no law requiring police to pay. He said he didn't know of any reason, however, why the car's owner can't ask payment from the city or city police.

Jerry McCarthy, 19, said he would demand a new car after his late model vehicle, commandeered by police was wrecked Monday after a chase at speeds up to 90 miles an hour.

McCarthy, apparently blinded by dust raised by the fugitive car, lost control, and rolled into a ditch. Damage to the car was estimated at $1,300.

Graham Has Best Crusade

LONDON (Reuters) — Evangelist Billy Graham started winding up the biggest and most successful religious crusade of his career Tuesday with a grinning admission that "I'm not a good preacher."

Graham, whose London revival meetings had drawn 1,336,500 persons as of Monday night, paid tribute to his "extremely pro-American audiences" for helping his crusade over an opening blast of bad publicity.

"I'm just an ordinary minister," he told reporters at a press conference. "It's the spirit and the power of God that has drawn the people to our meetings."

He said that "in all probability" he will return for another revival campaign next year, spending perhaps a month in London and going on to Norway.

Graham winds up his three-month London crusade this week. Next month he will hold meetings in Helsinki, Stockholm, Copenhagen, Amsterdam, Dusseldorf, Berlin and Paris before flying back to the United States.

Governor-General Decorates Comox Boy 14, For Rescue

VANCOUVER (CP)—A 14-year-old boy stood out among a roomful of uniforms Tuesday, the only civilian as 31 persons were decorated by Governor-General Massey.

And the deed which won Robert Thomas Waters the George Medal stood out among all those listed on the 31 citations for gallantry. Of the rest, 24 awards went to the army, five to the RCAF and one to the RCN.

The incidents which led up to the moment when the young schoolboy stood up before the Queen's representative in Canada began Nov. 24, 1952, at the RCAF base at Comox, B.C., on Vancouver island, a short distance from his farm home.

A Lancaster bomber coming in for a landing undershot the runway and piled in a flaming heap into a swamp.

OUTRAGEOUS ACTION

The citation tells it from there: "Robert Waters fought his way through heavy bush and swamp to reach the aircraft. Despite the intense heat and danger of explosion, Waters displayed complete disregard for his own safety by entering the flaming wreckage and dragging the dazed and injured pilot to safety. His courageous action under the most harassing circumstances was undoubtedly responsible for a large degree in saving the pilot's life."

He was 13 years old at the time.

Among others decorated:

Members of the Order of the British Empire:

Major A. Robinson, MC, Kingston, Ont.

Military Cross: Capt. G. H. Howitt, Guelph, Ont.

Military Medal: Cpl. P. C. Thompson, Niagara Falls, Ont.

Charges Ottawa Robs Charities

OTTAWA (CP)—Donald Fleming (PC—Toronto Eglinton) accused the government Tuesday of dipping a big hand into the coffers of charitable organizations.

He said in the Commons this is done by not exempting recognized charitable and welfare organizations from payment of federal excise and sales taxes on purchases of goods. The Canadian Welfare Council, which co-ordinates the work of private charitable groups, had estimated that an amount estimated at more than $500,000 was paid annually in excise and federal sales taxes by these groups.

The situation is shocking and a cruel injustice, Mr. Fleming said during Commons study of tax resolutions contained in the 1954-55 budget.

Convicted of Slaying

MONTREAL (CP) — Eugene Beaulieu, 21, charged with the bludgeon murder of taxi-driver Robert Taylor, was convicted of manslaughter by a Queen's Court jury Tuesday. He will be sentenced June 15. Two other youths, Jean-Noel Champagne, 20, and Jacques Barabe, 20, have also been charged with murder in the bludgeoning.

Endicott Reports

MONTREAL (CP) — Dr. James Endicott, chairman of the Communist-dominated Canadian Peace Council, reported on his trip to the world pacifist conference in Japan Tuesday night in an address at a rally of the Montreal Peace council, a Communist-front organization. Police said the meeting of about 450 persons was peaceful.

GRANT'S SPORT CORNER

By DON GRANT

This fat fellow gained a few pounds last week even though he's on a so-so diet.

The senior Trailermen with their victory over St. Catharines Athletics Friday made us swallow a few large words when this corner painted a black picture of the Peterborough lacrosse team.

Talking with Coach Bobbie Thorpe we assumed it came as a surprise to the team that they'd make us eat those words.

But in such cases we're more than glad to.

One thing that column on junior baseball and lacrosse did was stir up action on the junior Petes lacrosse club. We hear things began humming Tuesday, a day after the column appeared.

Bond Sent For Juniors

Dr. Jack Epping, whose interest in lacrosse is more so than many others, reports that Peterborough forwarded their bond to the OLA, assuring that body the Liftlock city will have a junior team this year.

Friend Jack also added that the coach, as yet not appointed, will likely be a senior player. Our guess is that Jerry Fitzgerald, Harry Wipper and possibly Russ Slater are among the possible candidates.

With the junior club under the senior direction this season (it was separate in previous years), the Trailermen will have access to the juniors from time to time.

The lacrosse club has realized the advantages of a junior club, especially this year when they've had trouble securing players to fill vacancies. A junior club is certainly a must if senior lacrosse is to thrive on and on.

For those who didn't know and it's apparent that some don't know, the juniors' sponsor last year, Frank Patterson kicked in only $250 to the Pats. This money was raised by Pat using pin money, not from business.

According to Pat, the Trailermen helped out financially to the tune of only $100 and "we had to fight to get that." The seniors also provided the bowl and the lights.

Adding both those together, the seniors probably helped out with about $200. What did they get in return? Why two of the most promising juniors in Canada, the Bobs, Curtis and Allan.

If the seniors went scouring about for players of equal calibre of Curtis and Allan, they'd probably have to pay as high as $300 each for those imports.

Who said junior clubs don't pay off?

Millbrook Wants Intermediates

Millbrook's still interested in an intermediate team for that village this summer. They have the facilities, Peterborough has made the entry and there's lots of players, too old for junior and not quite good enough for senior, still around.

The villagers along that trout stream are quite enthusiastic about a team and are anxious to see something along that line. So are we.

But back to the St. Kitts front again. With three weeks' practice on the floor as compared with only one for the Trailermen, it looked like a massacre. But it wasn't.

But why? From a lacrosse standpoint it's apparent the Athletics are weak again this season defensively. They have the scoring punch, and then some, but lack two or three stiff checkers between those scoring forwards and the always-difficult Doug Favell.

There might be another reason. This time it's a money problem. The rumor goes that some of the Athletics' negotiation list don't like the greenbacks already offered. It's said the club now offers a straight $10 a game. They're turning that down?

We'd like to see the faces of the CAHA officials when they get the receipts from the Memorial Cup games, played in their entirety at the Maple Leaf Gardens. Our guess the expressions will be like those of the CLA after the M in Cup series two years ago: very, very sour.

Crowds Dropped Off

As in the Mann Cup series then, the crowds for this year's hockey series gradually dwindled until they dropped below the 3,000 mark.

We wonder when these "brains" will begin working and have the Canadian championships in the team's home town, either in the east or west.

The CLA should have learned a lesson two years ago in the Peterborough-Vancouver series when they dropped $5,000 into the red on the games. When the series was played in the home town last year (in Victoria), they made money hand over fist.

But you'll see the final series this fall in the Gardens, to be sure.

Penticton's Comeback Kids story last week reminds us of the 1953 Mann Cup series.

Sudbury, leading the hockey series three-to-one, had a plane ready for the return trip with the trophy after the fifth game, but alas, they returned not until the seventh, then empty-handed.

Last year, the Trailermen, after taking the first three games, were also all ready to return home after the fourth game. But they had to wait until after the fifth, Victoria winning that fourth 9-8.

We're not superstitious, but .....

Petes Take Second Straight OLA Tilt Defeating Mimico

Don't write the Mimico Mounties off this season. They'll make their presence felt and then some.

After a dismal season last year, the Mounties regrouped this year, mixing experienced veterans such as Chuck Simpson, Al Garbutt, Hal Downer and Ken Dixon with youth such as Pete Bradkin, Bert Barager, Don Meeke, Jim McIntyre. Oops, there's also Don (Scotty) McPhail; he's enough for any team to handle.

But all this experience and youth didn't help the Mounties Tuesday night when they opened the 1954 season against the Trailermen. Bobby Thorpe's Mann Cup champions chalked up their second straight win with comparative ease (only after a scoreless first quarter) by an 8-4 score.

The game was rather listless as both clubs felt each other out, never giving up many opportunities for fast-breaking lacrosse. This accounted for the scoreless first and the final game score.

DENNY SHINES

Denny Peterson, a former Mimico junior and senior star, rubbed his former home-town fans the wrong way throughout the game. He started the Trailermen scoring and was a general thorn in the Mounties' side.

The lanky blond's goal broke the defensive lacrosse for the Trailermen who wrecked the Mounties' defensive formation throughout the second quarter. But the best the Trailermen could do was only a 4-2 score at the half.

But that edge was all the Trailermen needed. They switched back to strict defensive lacrosse and, whenever the Mounties threatened their two-goal lead, they added another to just keep ahead.

Defensively Lloyd (Moon) Wootton starred for the Trailermen which isn't surprising. He came up with his usual sensational stops, particularly on breakaways as the Trailermen's defence had mental lapses.

EARNED BUT ONE

Actually the Moon should have come close to a shutout, only one Mimico goal really being earned. Pop Chard, re-instated this season after a suspension for hitting a referee last year at Miller Bowl, scored the first two on field-length breaks while Dixon added the third on a two-man break with Les Digby.

Jack Kapasky's goal, the last for Mimico, was actually the only clean-cut goal and then again it wasn't. Left unguarded on the crease, he poked in a rebound after Diby's shot had been turned aside by Wootton.

Mimico goalie, Joe Tomtischyn, saved the Mounties numerous times from a more disastrous defeat but couldn't be compared with the Moon. Tomtischyn may be the weak spot in the Mimico lineup this season.

Rusty Slater and Peterson didn't have too much trouble beating the former starry junior goalie. They topped the Trailermen with two goals each while singles went to Bob Curtis, Jerry Fitzgerald, Jack Mason and Harry Wipper.

Once again Don Ashbee failed to complete the game, but he made sure Don McPhail didn't finish it, either.

Last Friday in the first game Ashbee and Doug Smith of St. Catharines earned match penalties for brawling. He left the game early there with Smith.

MIXED IT UP

With only five seconds to go in the first quarter Tuesday night, Ashbee received a clout on the head by McPhail's stick. This immediately started a fight in which McPhail was inclined to use his stick further before punched solidly by Ashbee.

Separated once by Referees Joe Murphy and Piper Bain, the players renewed the fight with a second charge. That ended the game for both, receiving match penalties.

Late in the third quarter Doug Powell, a former husky junior, and Les Digby didn't see eye to eye. They landed several hard blows after glaring at each other and were promptly banished for five minutes.

LOOSE BALLS—Chuck Rowan Rowan (OLA) and Gene Dopp (CLA) were both present . . . Mimico fans (numbering not more than 200) shivered in low-forty temperature . . . Powell lost his voice early in the game but it came back gradually . . . he also was clipped on the forehead late in the game . . . Ashbee was voicing his opinion of 1954 refereeing after the game, using fairly expressive adjectives . . . Leo Teatero is a playing coach this season with Toronto Maitlands . . . George Johnston, now with Victoria, reports by letter some 5,200 saw the Shamrocks' opening game in the west . . . From his accounts Nip's doing very well, still scoring . . . Victoria's junior team in the west favorite this season . . . Arn Dugan didn't set the world afire against the Shamrocks, earning seven minutes, five of which he received when scoring a one-punch knockout over Whitey Severson of Victoria.

Think Windina Has Chance To Win Plate

TORONTO (CP)—Only four fillies have been listed among winners of the last 30 renewals of the Queen's Plate but a trim Miss named Windina is being ogled by turf pundits these mornings. Windina, winner of four of eight starts in 1953, is conceded an excellent chance of beating her male rivals in the gallop for the guineas June 12.

Horsemen remember vividly the manner in which a filly named Canadiana ran away and hid from the colts in the 1953 renewal of the plate. It was appropriate, of course, that Canadiana should have won because the 1953 plate was contested on Coronation Day. However, never in the history of the race have fillies won in successive years. In comparatively recent seasons: Young Kitty won in 1928; Sally Fuller in 1935; the long-priced Paolita in 1943 and Canadiana.

Windina represents the first racing venture of B. R. Steen, a Toronto business man. Steen wandered into the yearling sales at Woodbine in 1952, raised his hand to scratch his ear and, the next thing he knew, the auctioneer told him he had bought a filly for $3,400. The filly had been consigned by Frank Conklin, Brantford, Ont. breeder, and she was turned over for training to Jim Bentley.

In her first start at Woodbine in 1953, Windina beat a field of eager fillies. She bustled out of the gate and led all the way.

WON YEARLING STAKES

After that, she raced greenly in two starts. She was fourth in the My Dear Stakes after starting slowly. She finished third to Beau Bunty and Trochanter (both colts) in the Clarendon stakes and again closed well from a slow beginning. She was shipped to Fort Erie and won the yearling sales stakes when she pulled away from the field in the last furlong.

In the eye-opener stakes at Long Branch, she was beaten by less than three lengths by Free Trade, King Maple and Omyboy but tired slightly at the close. She won the Princess Elizabeth at Woodbine in easy fashion.

Then, she gave another manifestation of feminine unpredictability in the Coronation Stakes at one mile and 70 yards. She raced easily for five furlongs, took the lead when she was ready and appeared to run out of wind and finished a puffing and blowing sixth.

Reluctantly, Bentley decided to give her one last chance to prove she could go over a distance. He entered her in a special race at one mile and 70 yards at Woodbine. Windina opened up a handy lead and hung on to beat Collisteo by a whisker.

Windina earned $8,415 to top all Canadian-bred two-year-olds in the money-won department.

Professional price-makers rate Windina at 20-to-1 which is considered to be a short price for a filly at this stage of the game.

Havana Clubs Ottawa 11-7

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Old-timers are playing a big part in the bid of the Havana Cuban Sugar Kings for the International League pennant.

Havana won its eighth straight game Tuesday night by defeating Ottawa Athletics 11-7 in 12 innings. Clarence Iott, former major league pitcher, and veteran shortstop John Lipon played major roles.

Iott chalked up his third straight victory without a defeat, while Lipon drove out four hits in six attempts and drove in three runs.

Havana broke the game wide open in the top of the 12th, scoring four runs off reliefer Ed Monahan.

Richmond Virginians scored a 4-2 victory over Syracuse Chiefs, who now have lost nine straight.

Dixie Howell's fourth single of the game scored Sandy Amoros from second in the bottom of the ninth to give Montreal Royals a 5-4 decision over Buffalo Bisons.

$75,000 House Begins To Pay Off For Tigers

DETROIT (AP)—After five uncertain years catcher Frank House a $75,000 bonus bust up until now, is starting to pay overdue dividends to Detroit Tigers.

In a 13-game hitting streak, the 24-year-old backstop has pushed his average a remarkable 180 points—from .191 to .371—making him the third leading hitter in the American League.

And now there is speculation whether he is ready to become Detroit's first outstanding catcher since the golden days of Mickey Cochrane in the mid-30s. It's been that long since the Tigers have had a truly top-grade receiver.

The Tigers signed House in the fall of 1948 for a then-fabulous $75,000 and two automobiles. There followed five years of frustration—for both House and the Tigers—and this spring the club was ready to write him off as a costly loss and ship him to the minors.

"He looked bad — real bad," said Tiger skkipper Fred Hutchison. "He was awful at the plate aond worse behind it."

The Tigers were set to farm House to Little Rock when a high-ranking member of the Detroit front office was dispatched to the spring training base to give the situation one more look. After all, $75,000 and two automobiles is no light investment.

House was given another chance.

Coach Johnny Hopp worked on his hitting. "I made him crouch at the plate," Hopp said. "It kept him from uppercutting the ball."

Another coach worked on House's defensive weaknesses, and Hutchinson himself instilled confidence in the six-foot-two catcher, playing him almost every day.

The progress was slow, but on May 5 the transformation began. House started his 13-game hitting streak, and his play behind the plate became steadier and surer.

SMYTHE LEAVES

LONDON (CP) — Conn Smythe, managing director of Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League, left for home by air Tuesday with the question of his challenge to Russia still up in the air.

He's been informed that there aren't any artificial ice rinks in Moscow, a Canadian government spokesman said, "so it looks as though the challenge is either off or the conditions will have to be altered." Smythe himself told friends before leaving that the team is still willing to play Russia but that he doesn't think there is much hope.

New York Giants Slump Suddenly Bow To Cards 9-3

By BEN PHLEGAR, Associated Press Sports Writer

Before long they may have to install traffic signals to untangle the jam that's developing in the race for the first place in the National League.

Seven of the eight baseball clubs—everybody but Pittsburgh—have joined in the fun. And even the Pirates have been winning often enough to keep the others wary.

Only a two-game spread separates Chicago Cubs, in seventh place, from Philadelphia Phillies and Brooklyn Dodgers who are deadlocked at the top.

With the race so tight, a single victory or loss can send a team bouncing up or down. Tuesday night, for example, New York Giants went into their game with St. Louis Cardinals in third place with a chance to take over first. Instead, they lost 9-3 and tumbled to fourth.

TAKE OVER THIRD

The Cardinals took over third, where they trail the leaders by a bare four percentage points.

Brooklyn and Philadelphia both lost. The slumping Dodgers again were held to a single run and bowed 7-1 to Warren Hacker and the Cubs. Milwaukee beat the Phillies 6-2. Cincinnati defeated Pittsburgh 6-5 in the other National League contest.

The first-place race in the American League also is close. Fourth-place Detroit is only two games out but Baltimore, in fifth, is 6½ behind.

Cleveland hung on to the lead by whipping Boston 6-3 for its sixth straight victory. New York Yankees moved into second with a 4-3 come-from-behind verdict over Chicago White Sox. Detroit trimmed Philadelphia Athletics 8-3 and Washington defeated Baltimore 3-1.

The Cardinals converted six hits into six runs in the first two innings with the help of two Giant errors. Gerry Staley stayed the distance for the second time this spring and picked up his third victory. Stan Musial singled twice, walked twice and struck out.

Hacker tamed Brooklyn on four hits. The only Brooklyn run came in the seventh on Duke Snider's blast over the scoreboard.

Al Rosen was the big man in Cleveland's triumph over Boston. He blasted two home runs and drove in another with a double.

Ted Williams played at night for the first time and collected one single in four appearances. He failed twice with the bases loaded and two out.

The White Sox pulled away to a 3-0 lead only to get caught by the Yankees in the eighth when with two out and one on Gene Woodling hit a homer. In the ninth, with two out and two on, Yogi Berra drilled a single off Don Johnson for the winning run.

Steve Gromek became the winningest pitcher in either league as he picked up No. 7 for the Tigers at the expense of the Athletics.

Favorites Capture Buffalo Events

HAMBURG, N.Y. (CP)—Favorites in the first two pacing events accounted for the $17.70 daily double Tuesday night at Buffalo Raceway.

Both Betty's Guy in the first and Hollyrood Guy R. in the second paced the mile in 2:10 4-5. A beaten favorite his last trip, the Ontario five-year-old gelding, Hollyrood Guy R., retaliated for driver Bud Gilmour and owner Cecil Reid of West Lorne.

Elma Dillon, a 12 to 1 shot, paid off $26.20 in the fourth race, marred by an accident when Kay Dillon went down and spilled owner Howard Landers. The Otterville, Ont., mare, driven by owner Ed Arthur, defeated the favorite, E.D. Hawk by 1½ lengths.

It may not have been in the press releases but two of our members were entered in the Early Bird's Tourney at New Uplands Saturday. Don and Jim finished out of the prize list but they will bear following. Keep trying, boys, — another Belleville is coming up.

Les Reid, playing a game of pars with Frank Vyse, accompanied by R. Watson and F. Whatman, threw eight straight ones at the fellows on the front nine to finish with a 35. Any coincidence to this and the player who shot a 46 on the back nine is purely accidental.

Business Girls' opening on Sunday, plus a few rounds which didn't come up to standard, drove one or two to the pickerel fishing grounds. Frank had more luck landing fish from the shore of the lake than he has had trying to knock them off at the course. That 27-incher was really a beauty.

FINE ADDITION

A new very welcome, addition to the course is the water cooler on the seventh tee. Thanks to the Toronto - Peterborough - Transport Co., Ltd., we will no longer have to play those last three with parched throats.

Arn Brady remarked, after nine fives on the back Saturday, that his only thought was to make the tally easy for scorekeeper Robert Abbott. Bob returned to the scene of many former triumphs for his first 18 of the year. Playing with Ace Pearson, Ted Cragg and Dude, he would not divulge his score but we'll wager that many would like to be able to match cards with Mr. Abbott.

Entrance lists to club competitions have been posted at the club house. All members are asked to enter early. Your Match and Handicap Committee is doing a good job for you — give them your support.

Expensive Inspiration

BELIZE, British Honduras (CP) Artist Eric Griffith was sentenced today to 15 years imprisonment for starting a $1,000,000 blaze because he said he needed inspiration to paint a "magnificent fire." The fire last October killed one man and destroyed a shoe store and a private house.

DEFEAT EXEMPTION

LONDON (AP) — Conservatives in Parliament defeated Labor proposals Tuesday to exempt all sports from an entertainment tax and to cut boxing and football taxes.

BACK, AND HOW! Ted Williams, sidelined since breaking his collarbone in spring training, made a terrific return to the Boston Red Sox lineup over the weekend. He is seen lashing out a foul in his first start Saturday. Sunday he slammed out eight hits in nine times at bat against Detroit.

See Gil Hodges Breaking Record

NEW YORK (AP) — If Gil Hodges maintains his grand slam pace of the past five years, he appears a cinch to break the National League record for most home runs with the bases filled and may even threaten the major league mark.

The powerfully - built Brooklyn first baseman smashed his 10th grand slam home run Sunday to move within two of the league record of 12 established by Rogers Hornsby 20 years ago and equalled by Ralph Kiner last season. Lou Gehrig holds the major league mark of 23.

It took Hornsby 20 years to accumulate his dozen grand slam home runs. Kiner, the only active National Leaguer with more four-run blows than Hodges, needed only eight years to collect his dozen.

Bilts Announce $10,000 Deficit

GUELPH (CP) — The Biltmore junior hockey club Tuesday announced a deficit of $10,000 for 1953-54. Earlier unofficial reports had tabbed the loss at between $8,000 and $9,000.

"I expect we'll have hockey here next season," said one club official "but at present our tie-up with the New York Rangers has lapsed as has our contract with the arena and we have no coach."

Frank Boucher, general manager of the Rangers, will be here next week and a new arrangement with the Bilts is expected.

A change in the executive of the club is also expected. At present it numbers nine but up to four resignations are expected at a reorganization meeting called for next week.

Remember When—

Sunday baseball was inaugurated in Washington 36 years ago today when 15,000 fans saw Washington edge Cleveland 1-0 in an American League game that went 12 innings. Boston Red Sox won the pennant that year and defeated Chicago in the world series by four games to two.

GOLF TEAM LEAVES

MONTREAL (CP) — Canada's seven-man amateur golf team left Tuesday by air to compete in the Commonwealth team matches and the British amateur championship in Scotland.

The Commonwealth matches, with teams from South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, Canada and Britain competing, will get under way next week at Muirfield and the British amateur the following week at St. Andrews.

Stresses Value Of Weinmeister

SEATTLE (AP) — Lawrence T. (Buck) Shaw, coach of San Francisco's professional football team, testified Tuesday that Arnie Weinmeister, professional football player, required the attention of two men on the San Francisco team whenever he played against

"Weinmeister," said Shaw, "is the outstanding tackle of the National Football League," and unless two men were assigned to play against him "he'd mess up the plays every time."

Shaw was testifying in behalf of the New York Football Giants Inc., professional club which is attempting to force Weinmeister to play for it rather than the British Columbia Lions of the Western Interprovincial Football Union with whom he signed this year.

The Giants are contending they have Weinmeister under contract until May 1 of next year and have asked the Superior Court to restrain him from playing for anyone else.

They contend Weinmeister virtually is irreplaceable, so outstanding are his talents. Weinmeister modestly contends it isn't so, he can be replaced by some of the other good football tackles.

Publisher Buys Talbot Home On Lake Erie

ST. THOMAS (CP) — The old home and holdings of Col. Thomas Talbot, pioneer colonizer credited with bringing 50,000 immigrants to western Ontario about 150 years ago, is changing hands again.

F. I. Ker, retired publisher of the Hamilton Spectator, has entered into a contract to buy 650 acres of wooded, hilly land which has 7,000 feet of frontage on Lake Erie. With the property 12 miles southwest of St. Thomas goes Talbot's 16-room, white frame house and its furnishings.

Mr. Ker takes over the property from Milton Berry of Detroit, a native of Port Stanley, Ont., who acquired it in 1949 for a reported $25,000.

The amount involved in the latest transaction was not made public. However, the Toronto Star said Tuesday it is approximately $50,000.

The new owner is expected to lease the 151-year-old estate, known as "Malahide," to his son, John Ker, a bachelor in his late 20s.

ASKED TO STAY ON

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Metler have been running the estate during Mr. Berry's tenure. They said Tuesday they have been asked by Mr. Ker to stay on.

"My husband agreed because Mr. Ker indicated his son would be seriously interested in farming," said Mrs. Metler. "Apparently he is planning on raising cattle and putting in more crops.

"He also plans to make use of the beaches and, from what we understand, he may redevelop commercial fishing which has been allowed to lapse since 1952."

Kick Costing Man $36.80

THESSALON, Ont. (CP)—A kick at a distributor of Jehovah's Witnesses literature cost James Junor of Desbarats, $36.80 Tuesday in police court.

Allan Siemens told magistrate H. D. Peterson he called on Junor at the latter's garage, opened a book and read a passage to Junor. He testified that Junor asked if he was a Jehovah's Witness, then ordered him off the property. Siemens said he was six or eight feet from the garage when Junor came up behind him and kicked him.

Junor claimed he had ordered Siemans and a companion off his property three times. He said he kicked at Siemens when the latter followed him to the front of his garage and tried to talk to him again.

Magistrate Peterson said that while he had some provocation, the law did not allow him to kick anyone, whether on his property or not.

Senator Opposes Shooting Law

OTTAWA (CP)—Senator A. W. Roebuck (L — Ontario) Tuesday night protested against a government proposal which he said would give policemen the right to shoot anyone trying to evade arrest.

The proposal was submitted as a government amendment to the new Criminal Code now before Parliament. The bill has passed the Commons and now is being studied in detail by the Senate banking committee.

The amendment would permit a man using "as much force as is necessary to prevent the escape by flight unless the escape can be prevented by reasonable means in a less violent manner."

Senator Roebuck said this means in effect that if a policeman cannot run as fast as the escaping person he is justified in shooting him down. He said he could not agree with the proposed change.

The amendment and several sections of the bill, including those concerning sabotage, crime comics, breach of contract and committing a mischief, were delayed for further consideration.

Many Ministers Leave Their Pastoral Work

TORONTO (CP)—Large numbers of ministers have left pastoral work for secular pursuits, a United Church administrator said Tuesday.

At a meeting of the Toronto-Central presbytery of the United Church of Canada. The presbytery voted to interview such ministers "with the object of persuading them to return to active pastoral duties."

Planting Season Weeks Behind Schedule

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Farmers, forced to fret while the weather fumed for more than a month, are working night and day to catch up on spring seeding.

From Newfoundland westward, it's the same story: planting is weeks behind schedule.

However, despite low spirits from high rainfall, there's a note of optimism about crop acreage and market value prospects.

In most areas persons aware of the situation say acreage will vary only slightly upward or downward from last year's figures, and market values will follow the same trend.

REPORT CUT-BACKS

The prairie provinces report cutbacks on wheat planting, two to three per cent in Saskatchewan and "a slight decrease" in Manitoba. There's no estimate yet on crop prospects for Alberta.

Last year wheat planted in Saskatchewan covered 16,100,000 acres in Manitoba 2,208,000 and in Alberta 6,340,000. Acreage for oats, barley and flaxseed will be up a little in the first two provinces.

In all three seeding is from two to three weeks behind normal.

Seeding in Quebec is said to be "very late" because of heavy rains during the past month. But there's a bright note. Field crops are expected to cover a greater area this year than last.

Prospects for Ontario crops appear good. There'll be a slight reduction in oats acreage but an increase in corn, soybean and white bean crops.

There may be a cut on acreage given to potatoes which during the winter sold for less than cost of production. About 30 per cent of seeding has been completed.

Officials in Newfoundland expect an average year with an increase of five per cent in acreage forecast. A few acres of oats and cabbage have been sown to date.

In the Maritimes, agricultural officials won't estimate acreage. Prince Edward Island farmers have planted a few potatoes—the island's main crop.

Across Northumberland strait Nova Scotians have made a start on potato and grain planting.

British Columbia farmers are not expecting any bumper crops this year because of spring frost and floods.

Thinks Capital Punishment Should Halt

OTTAWA (CP)—Capital and corporal punishment makes the job of reforming prisoners a lot tougher, a British Columbia prison warden said Tuesday.

Hugh Christie of Oakalla prison farm, South Burnaby, B.C., said he looks forward to the eventual abolition of the death penalty and whipping.

Mr. Christie said he expressed his own personal views when he told the Commons-Senate committee on capital and corporal punishment that he believes hanging should be replaced by life imprisonment and whipping by other corrective methods.

He considered most delinquents and criminals as psychopaths who fight society because they cannot adapt themselves to its rules. Corporal punishment served only to embitter them.

He suggested also that executions be removed from provincial institutions. Young offenders generally were not deterred by an execution, but identified themselves with the condemned man to confirm and strengthen their bitterness towards society. Hard work was a greater deterrent to young delinquents than corporal punishment.

Marie Dionne To Receive Religious Name

By BERTRAND THIBAULT
Canadian Press Staff Writer

QUEBEC (CP) — The growing separation among the world-famed Dionne quintuplets will be emphasized once more Monday when one of them will put aside her given name and replace it with a religious one.

On that day, Marie Dionne will don the habit of a novice in the Roman Catholic order of the Servants of the Blessed Sacrament and thus take another step toward separation from her sisters.

At a morning service in the outdoor chapel of the yellow - brick convent here, the other four sisters, Yvonne, Annette, Cecile and Emilie, will watch through a forged-iron grillwork as their sister and two other postulants put on the white wool tunic, the scapular and the white cotton veil of a novice.

After a two-year novitiate, Marie will take vows of poverty, chastity and obedience if she decides to remain in the order.

Meanwhile the four other sisters go about their own lives. Yvonne is studying fine arts at a Montreal convent of the Notre Dame Congregation while Cecile, Annette and Emilie are learning domestic science at a Nicolet, Que., convent run by the Sisters of the Assumption.

The order of the Servants of the Blessed Sacrament, which the 19-year-old girl from Callander, Ont., entered Nov. 3 last, is consecrated to adoration of the blessed sacrament and to working in silence.

For sister Marie, as she now is called behind the cloister walls, Monday will mark the end of a six-months postulate. But it will not change the kind of work she does or the rules and regulations she must follow.

The black robe and cape she now wears will be put aside to be worn at a future date by some other newcomer to the order.

Marie herself does not yet know which of the five names she will submit to the convent's superior general, she will receive. Like the rest of the Dionne family, she will find that out only during the religious ceremonies.

Give Industry Chance In Atom Field

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States Atomic Energy Commission today announced it is making facilities at its Idaho materials testing station available to non - governmental users, apparently a new step toward bringing private industry into the nuclear power field.

The Materials Testing Reactor near Arco, Ida., which started operation in 1952, is designed for testing effects of intense neutron radiation on materials and fuel elements which are or may be used in the future on reactors.

This means that private companies, wanting to investigate methods of nuclear fuel regeneration, e recharging of materials used in atomic furnaces, or the behavior of structural metals used in a reactor, now can have the work done at Arco.

The AEC said its charges for the service "are considered to be sufficiently low to bring the service within means of qualified research organizations."

SERVICE LIMITED

The commission specified that the service will be on a "limited basis," saying requirements of its own atomic energy program must take precedence over non-government experiments. The AEC also said that because of the security maintained at the Arco station, experiments for the public will be conducted by the contractor operating the plant for the AEC, Phillips Petroleum Co.

The MTR installation is a high-intensity neutron source. It can irradiate material in far shorter time than any other of the government's laboratory or test plants, using enriched uranium as fuel.

Heavy precautions had to be used against escaping radiation which might endanger test personnel. A nine-foot-thick concrete shield surrounds the MTR. The test chamber of the reactor can be used for moderate-sized samples. If test material is too bulky, the MTR contains "beam holes" through which a thin stream of radiation can be projected against an object on the outside.

Bishop's Flight Delayed

NEW YORK (AP)—The Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, auxiliary bishop of New York, took off for Europe Tuesday night after inadvertently delaying his plane and 21 fellow passengers for half an hour. The bishop's passport expired eight days ago, but he didn't realize it until he arrived at Idlewild airport. A state department official sped to the field and put the prelate's papers back in order.

Ask Brownell Modify President's Order

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican senators sought today to persuade Attorney-General Herbert Brownell to explain the Jan. 21 administration meeting about which President Eisenhower has barred further testimony in the McCarthy-army hearings.

Acting with informal backing from members of the Senate Republican policy committee, acting chairman Karl Mundt (Rep. S.D.) of the Senate investigations subcommittee is expected to urge Brownell to issue a statement giving limited information on the conference.

The sub-committee has been told that among those attending the conference were Brownell, a White House assistant, Sherman Adams, and ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge. When members sought further details, they ran into the president's order forbidding disclosure of any talks strictly within the administration about the row between the Wisconsin Republican senator and Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens and their aides.

SAYS INFORMATION VITAL

McCarthy contends that further information about the Jan. 21 meeting is vital to his case. The hearings were recessed Monday for a week to give the sub-committee time to study the issues.

Eisenhower had opportunity to expand at his press conference today on his reasons for issuing the order, which he has said was designed to preserve the historic separation of powers between the executive and legislative branches of the United States government.

Mundt and the sub-committee's special counsel, Ray H. Jenkins, planned to meet with Brownell during the day to seek modification of the president's order, which McCarthy said lowered an "iron curtain" against efforts to prove motives for what he terms "smear" charges against him.

Stevens has accused McCarthy and two aides, Roy M. Cohn and Francis P. Carr, of exerting improper pressure in efforts to get favored army treatment for a fomer sub-committee consultant, Pte. G. David Schine.

Arms Makers Sue Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Henry and Murray Garsson, munitions-makers who went to prison for bribery in a Second World War contract scandal, are now asking the government for more than $18,500,000.

They say, in a petition filed with the U.S. Court of Claims, they should be paid "the reasonable value" of what they contend was the government's use of methods and processes they developed for war materials.

The Garsson brothers, of New York, along with Representative Andrew Jackson May (Dem. Ky.), were sentenced in 1949 to eight to 24 months in prison. The brothers were convicted of giving May $53,634 in bribes to use his influence as chairman of the House military affairs committee to help them get war contracts. May was released in 1951 and the Garssons in 1951.

Singer Found No Privileges Given In Army

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Lately the papers have been full of reports about famous American army privates with special privileges. Here's one who claims he got none—singer Vic Damone.

Congressional probers have been looking into charges of out-of-the-ordinary treatment for sports stars, hotel heirs, etc., who have been drafted. There have been rumors some show-business figures also have been favored in the army.

"Not me," says Damone. "I received no special privileges. I went through four months of basic training, just like anyone else. I spent a year in Germany. Then I came back and stayed eight months at San Antonio. I was doing recruiting work part of that time.

"During my first five months in Germany, I did no singing at all. . . . The USO shows which were being given cost the taxpayers money. They could have had me for a bargain—$80 a month."

The singer said he sometimes had a rough time in the army because he was a celebrity. Once he had to resort to fisticuffs to preserve his reputation. In a crowded post exchange another soldier made a slurring remark about men in show business. All eyes were on Damone, who had to call the other's bluff. The singer challenged him to a boxing match in the gym.

Fortunately, Damone had trained six months for a fight picture that never was made. He kept up his lessons for two years and learned one sure-fire punch from an ex-fighter.

"I knew I had to beat the guy or the word would be all over the army in Europe," he said. "So I waited for an opening for my left jab. Finally it came and I gave it to him. He sank to the floor wth a dazed look and said 'Okay.'"

Will Investigate Deposits At Haliburton

OTTAWA (CP)—Geological survey parties this year will probe promising fields of radio-active minerals and investigate a geological curiosity in northwestern Quebec.

The mines department announced Tuesday that 86 parties will be in the field compared with 79 last year. Biggest single project will be a reconnaissance survey of 60,000 square miles of the District of Keewatin in the Northwest Territories.

Radio-active minerals, essential to atomic development, will be investigated in the uranium - rich areas north of Lake Athabaska which straddles the Saskatchewan-Alberta boundary. Radio-active deposits in the areas of Peterborough, Blind River and Haliburton in Ontario and Maniwaki in Quebec also will be studied.

WILBERFORCE STUDY

Studies of radio-active deposits will be started in the Wilberforce area, and a study will be made of uranium-bearing deposits near Blind River on the north shore of Lake Huron.

An inventory and study of uranium deposits will be made in the area of Haliburton, 150 miles west of Ottawa, and Maniwaki, about 80 miles north.

Mines department officials describe all these as well-known radio-active deposits but ones which in some cases have not been given a proper inventory.

Charge Montreal Man With Razor Slaying

MONTREAL (CP)—Leo Poitras, 51, was arraigned in criminal court Tuesday charged with the razor slaying of Mrs. Emile Rousseau, a 62-year-old widow.

He was remanded to preliminary hearing May 25 without being asked to plead.

Earlier Tuesday, Poitras, described by police as a habitual drunkard, was held criminally responsible for Mrs. Rousseau's death by a coroner's jury.

Dies Of Pneumonia Not From Beating

TORONTO (CP)—Chief Coroner Smirle Lawson announced Tuesday that an autopsy showed a 40-year-old woman found dead in a bedroom on Jarvis street in central Toronto died of pneumonia.

Police investigated after other tenants in the rooming house told them they believed the woman, Mrs. Dorothy Huston, also known as Birch, was involved in an altercation. However, officers said marks on her face were caused by a previous assault.

Freighter Owners Deny Carrying Arms

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Owners of the Swedish freighter Alfhem Tuesday denied reports it carried munitions to Guatemala but did not deny that it picked up cargo behind the Iron Curtain.

Alfred Christensen, a director of the A. B. Navigation shipping firm of Stockholm said the Alfhem carried only "mixed freight." He added that the Swedish foreign office was welcome to look at all documents in his possession.

The freighter was reported by the United States to have taken arms from Communist Poland to the leftist government of Guatemala.

Blood Stream Used to Combat Rheumatic, Arthritic Pain; No Pills

Penetrant Dilates Capillaries, Flows Fresh Oxygen-Rich Blood Through Afflicted Areas

Toronto, Ont. (Special) — Discovery of an entirely new method of relieving pain has been announced here. This new method applies, for the first time, a well-known medical principle of pain relief to a product now readily available to Canadians for home use. The discovery literally calls upon the blood stream to bathe away pains of rheumatism, arthritis, sore muscles and joints of most kinds.

Sold under the brand name "InfraRUB", this new cream is odorless and greaseless. InfraRUB has the unusual ability to penetrate the skin and dilate tiny blood vessels deep down in sore muscles and joints. This permits fresh, oxygen-rich blood to flow freely through the afflicted area. The fresh blood, combined with InfraRUB's soothing medication, attacks pain at the source. Users claim almost immediate relief from rheumatic and arthritic pains, sore muscles and joints.

Another feature of this new product that appeals to many people is its ease of application. No long and painful rubbing is necessary as InfraRUB penetrates in a few seconds and vanishes with a moment's light massage.

InfraRUB leaves no oily film or pungent objectionable odour on the skin. Users find they are able to put on clothing in complete safety immediately after application.

InfraRUB is now sold at all drug counters. No prescription is necessary.

Atlantic Provinces Have Under Way Big Transportation Program

By KINGSLEY BROWN Jr.
Canadian Press Staff Writer

HALIFAX (CP) — The biggest transportation program in the Atlantic provinces' history has blossomed suddenly like a welcome but thorny rose.

It's welcome because the four provinces, two of them islands, desperately need a better transportation system. Newfoundland, without roads spanning its girth, is still virtually frontier country.

It's thorny because it's providing relatively little employment. Heavy machinery has minimized the necessity of laborers on road, railway, bridge and causeway construction. Two ferries and possibly a third will be built at St. Lawrence river ports.

LOSES INDUSTRY

It will also mean loss of an industry for the town of Mulgrave, the ferry terminal three miles from the $23,000,000 Strait of Canso causeway which will connect industrial Cape Breton island with mainland Nova Scotia.

The 7,000-foot causeway, matched only by two others in the world, is the most costly transportation project.

Here are the others:

1. An $11,000,000 suspension bridge connecting Halifax with the Town of Dartmouth. It will eliminate a 15-minute ferry service and 17-mile drive around the harbor.

2. A $5,000,000, 100-vehicle ferry with accommodation for about 700 passengers to ply a fast daily service between Yarmouth, on Nova Scotia's southwestern tip, and Bar Harbor, Me. It replaces the old BOSTON-YARMOUTH FERRY

3. A $3,500,000 ferry for the run between North Sydney, N.S., and Port Aux Basques, Nfld. It will provide daily instead of the present tri-weekly service.

4. A multi-million-dollar rail and highway project connecting Bathurst, N.B., with the big mineral-development site in the hills 12 miles away.

5. An ambitious highways construction and repair program, with an expenditure of more than $12,000,000 on the trans-Canada highway in the four provinces this year alone. Newfoundland will spend about $5,000,000 to build some 40 miles of highway and a dozen bridges.

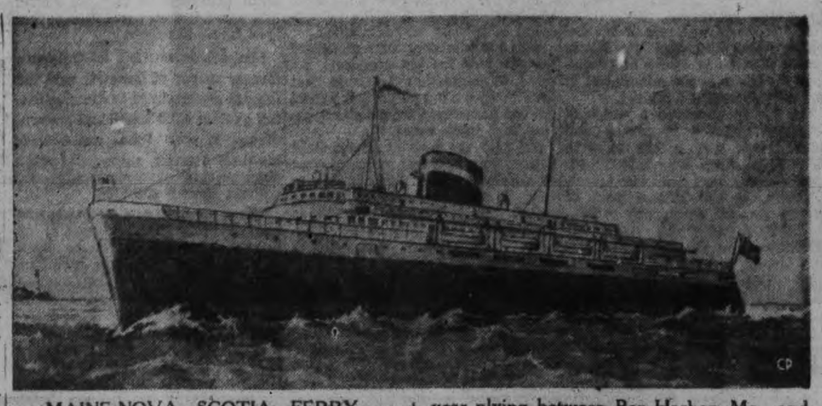
6. A $1,500,000 ferry to be constructed by the federal government to operate from Wood Islands, P.E.I., to Caribou, N.S. The CNR probably will operate the craft on the run now covered by Northumberland Ferries Ltd.

BIG FEDERAL SHARE

With the exception of the project at the New Brunswick base metals site, the federal government is footing about 75 per cent of the total bill.

These changes will reap big dividends.

...D BEAUTY — Hawaii's 63,000 Filipinos, who like their Filipinos young and lovely, chose 16-year-old Mildred Sera, of Honolulu, as their Cover Girl of 1954.



MAINE-NOVA SCOTIA FERRY — Transportation has long been one of the problems of the Maritime provinces. Long road or rail hauls to markets elsewhere in Canada or the United States are costly. The $5,000,000 ferry pictured in this artist's drawing is designed to help solve one of those problems. The ship, now being built at Lauzon, Que., will start some time next year plying between Bar Harbor, Me., and Yarmouth, N.S. Not only will it provide fast transportation to markets for Nova Scotia's perishable farm produce and fish, but with its capacity for 100 vehicles and 700 passengers it will boost the tourist traffic between Nova Scotia and the New England states. It will be operated by the Canadian department of transport and Canadian National Railways.—(CP Photo).

The Yarmouth-Bar Harbor ferry will provide fast transportation for Nova Scotia's perishable farm produce and ultimately open new markets.

The big Louisburg, N.S., fish plants will ship their products by refrigerated trucks to the ferry. At Bar Harbor, it's only a relatively short haul to both United States and Canadian markets.

The ferries and highways program will also encourage tourists, a top industry in the Maritimes. Newfoundland doesn't plan a full-scale tourist drive until it has roads across the province.

The ferries are expected to be in service next year.

The Canso causeway, when completed late this year, will cut about an hour from the time it now takes ferries to move railway cars and automobiles across the strait.

The causeway is actually the "last mile" of the old Intercolonial Railway, and will cost more than the entire railway when it was built from Riviere du Loup, Que., to Truro, N.S., in the late 1800s. The last link from Point Tupper to Sydney was completed in 1891.

ECONOMIC CHANGES

Relocation of the rail line across the causeway will bring some economic changes in the area. Mulgrave, with a population of 1,212, is supported almost entirely by the Canadian National Railways.

The townsfolk aren't optimistic about the future. Mayor B. W. Hutchinson says he'll have to close up his grocery shop and move away. Transport Minister Chevrier said last March that "part, but not all" of the 400 CNR workers there can be employed at other jobs.

He said that some of the men could be employed on the navigation lock section of the causeway.

Some residents, like 80-year-old Frank Keating, figure the causeway may make the district a tourists' haven. It will create a nine-mile-long landlocked harbor, where there could be sailing and fine beaches.

The 3,000-foot Halifax-Dartmouth bridge will mean a lot to both centres. Halifax, on a peninsula, can't expand. Dartmouth has lots of room to grow, and is doing so at a startling rate.

City manager August DeBard says the bridge will mean a new era for Halifax and ultimately bring about the amalgamation of the centres.

$23,000,000 CAUSEWAY—This scene, from the hills near Mulgrave on Nova Scotia's eastern mainland, shows the new Canso causeway stretching towards Cape Breton Island. The $23,000,000 causeway, when completed this year, will improve transportation between the mainland and Cape Breton's coal and steel area. Cars and trains, which now take an hour to cross the Strait of Canso by ferry, will be able to move across the 7,000-foot causeway in a few minutes. More than 9,000,000 tons of rock, blasted from Porcupine Mountain near Mulgrave, will have gone into the causeway by the time it is finished. A navigation lock on the Cape Breton side will allow passage for ships.—(CP Photo).

LINDSAY (ENS). — Reliable reports still unconfirmed officially persist in Lindsay that one of the town's main industries, Chatco Steel Products Ltd., is closing down indefinitely.

Mrs. Fairclough Asks Home Owners Be Allowed To Deduct Taxes

OTTAWA (CP)—Mrs. Ellen Fairclough, Progressive Conservative member for Hamilton West, wants home owners to be given a break in income taxes.

Mrs. Fairclough, a public accountant, said in the Commons Tuesday that persons who live in their own homes should be enabled to deduct municipal taxes from their income for federal tax purposes.

Owners of businesses and farmers are allowed to do it, she said. So were those who received an income from rented property. If the same provisions were extended to the taxpayer who owned his own home, it would encourage home ownership and relieve part of their heavy tax burden.

William Benidickson, parliamentary assistant to Finance Minister Abbott, replied that he knows of no investment as free from income tax as a person's own home. There was no income tax assessment of the value to a person of his private residence.

The proposal was one of several topics which occupied the House during an all-day study of resolutions on tax changes announced in Mr. Abbott's April 6 budget.

The House approved a series of proposed changes in excise and sales taxes, and a bill to give them legal form was introduced. They already have gone into effect, however, as the largest part of budget tax cuts amounting to $40,000,000 in a full year.

They remove the 15-per-cent excise tax on a long list of goods, including household electrical appliances, reduce the tax to 10 per cent on other articles, and drop the 10-per-cent sales tax on a shorter list of goods, including certain heavy equipment for road-building and firefighting equipment bought by municipalities.

Mr. Benidickson, who answered questions on the tax proposals, replied to opposition demands that municipal councils and school boards be exempt from federal excise and sales taxes.

He said the federal government cannot be expected to grant that exemption when five provinces with a sales tax refuse similar relief. The provinces were Newfoundland, New Brunswick, Quebec, Saskatchewan and British Columbia.

He also stressed the administrative problem of determining exemptions for more than 4,000 municipalities, and said the problem is so complex that federal government departments pay the excise and sales tax on purchases rather than seek a rebate.

Michael Starr (PC — Ontario), former mayor of Oshawa, said the federal government is discriminating against 4,000 municipal governments. It was "the well-heeled, big-time spender among Canadian governments" and the only one without money troubles.

The government made one change in its tax proposals, in line with recent objections from a number of members including some Liberals. It exempted mutual fire insurance companies doing half their business among farmers and fishermen from the decision to tax mutual insurance companies other than life insurance companies.

It was three years ago today that three city firemen and a volunteer lost their lives while fighting the Zacks building fire on George St. west side, south of Hunter.

LOW FLYING

Complaints from residents that low-flying aircraft created an unwarranted amount of noise have led city council to ask the authorities of the RCAF station at Trenton to enforce standing orders prohibiting the low flying of planes over Peterborough.

EIGHT IN HOME

Eight children are now residents of the Children's Home, which is operated by the Children's Aid Society. At the beginning of April there were seven children staying there, but during the month five children were admitted and four taken out.

ASK FOR $10,000

Board members of the Children's Aid Society passed a resolution at their meeting, Tuesday evening in city hall, to ask for $10,000 from the Community Chest fund. This is an increase of $1,500 over $8,500 they had previously requested.

$1,000 OVER TARGET

The Peterborough unit of the Canadian Cancer Society fund drive has reached a total of $9,151.97. This also includes Lakefield and vicinity who reported that they had collected $885.85 with their campaign ended. There are still city canvassers to be heard from. The original objective was $8,000.

FIRE BURNS HAND

Frank Smith of 602 Charlotte St., veteran city letter carrier, on Tuesday afternoon burned his right hand when naptha gas ignited while he was filling a blowtorch. Smith was burning the paint off a neighbour's verandah when the accident occurred. He was treated first by city firemen, who put out the fire, and later by Dr. Roger S. Chenoweth.

C. Scott of Toronto is acting for the CGE. The chairman has still to be agreed on. The parties are deadlocked on negotiations for their 1954-55 contract.

CHECK COUNTY ASSESSMENT

The committee, under the chairmanship of Peter Pearson of Galway-Cavendish, will bring in their report on equalization and assessment during the June session.

RECREATION APPOINTMENTS

After culling 82 applications for summer jobs with the recreation commission, director Ken Robinson has selected 23 to work at local playgrounds and swimming centres. Three boys and two girls will have waterfront jobs, while six boys and 12 girls will work in playgrounds. All 23 will meet Friday night for a briefing session.

See Religious Ritual In Symbols

Rock Carvings Have Connection With Medicine Societies

TORONTO (CP)—Prof. T. F. McIlwraith of the Royal Ontario Museum said Tuesday he thinks Indian picture-rock carvings found in Peterborough Crown game preserve in Burleigh township, are linked with ancient "medicine societies." He said they may have some religious meaning.

"At a guess, I'd say the symbolism probably reflects some connection with the so-called medicine societies which flourished among the Ojibways in Minnesota and the Lakehead area," he said.

"The symbols and the style of art are very similar to the work on well-known birchbark rolls that we know to be Ojibway. The symbols may be indicative of a religious ritual."

The more than 50 symbols include a sun, serpents, a life-sized heron, human figures, animal tracks and an arrowhead. They are on a flat shelf of limestone.

Out On Bail, Man Charged Again Will Be Returned

Hearing that his son-in-law—already out on bail in Peterborough—was facing criminal charges in Toronto, Howard Little of 298 Wolfe St. today cancelled his bail surety of $3,000.

Judge John de N. Kennedy then directed that the son-in-law, James Hutchison, 26, formerly of Peterborough and now living in Scarboro, should be jailed. Inspector of detectives W. A. (Bud) Clarke is arranging with Toronto police to have Hutchison brought back to Peterborough.

Little went bail for Hutchison after the latter was committed for trial Jan. 26 on charges of stealing government cheques from the mails.

An alleged accomplice of Hutchison's, Carl Northey, was sentenced to two and a half years in Kingston penitentiary for his part in a series of mail thefts. The crown charged that the two men followed a rural mail carrier around when he was delivering federal government cheques and stole the cheques from the mail boxes.

At the preliminary hearing Hutchison was committed for trial and then was remanded for trial to the general sessions of the peace. Bail was set at $3,000, but when Little, the bondsman, heard that Hutchison was in trouble again he decided the risk of his son-in-law absconding was too great. So he cancelled the bail.

Joyous Voyage

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Members of the Newfoundland Club of Montreal hope to make an excursion trip on the maiden voyage from Montreal to St. John's of the new ferry William Carson. The ferry is slated for the crossing from Sydney, N.S., to Port aux Basques.

SCHOOL STAYS OPEN

Enrolment at the Dixon House nursery school has been so encouraging that the school will stay open till the end of June, recreation director Ken Robinson said today. Usually the school closes the first of June. There are 19 enrolled in morning classes, 11 in the afternoon.

6-Room School Addition Recommended

The accommodation committee of the board of education decided on Tuesday night to recommend to the board the erection of a six-room addition to the Confederation public school. The cost is estimated at $120,000.

The proposed addition would be placed on the front of the present school and would be two storeys. The department of education in Toronto has given preliminary approval to the plan.

The committee, providing approval is secured from the board and the city council, hopes to be able to go to tender early in September and plans call for completion for September, 1955.

ASKS FOR SURVEY

The committee asked the superintendent of schools, K. S. Wightman, to make a survey as to the board's requirements in new buildings in the next four years. Continued expansion is expected as the board still faces the problem of having 400 more pupils enter the schools every year than are leaving by the entrance class.

A nine-room addition is being opened in September at the Queen Elizabeth school and this school is expected to near capacity before the year is out. Central school, which for a number of years had a decline in attendance, is now so overcrowded children in the northern part of the district will in September be sent to Queen Alexandra school. A number of children in Queen Alexandra area will move to the new Queen Elizabeth school.

In the west end of the city, Prince of Wales school, with an attendance of 1,100, almost half as many children as were in all the city's public schools 20 years ago, is badly overcrowded. Plans are being studied for a school on the Stenson property, between highway 28 and 7A.

The committee also approved of fencing the Grove school property and part of the Armour Heights property.

Liable To Taxes Court Rules

OTTAWA (CP) — Federal civil servants who reside in government-owned houses while carrying out their work are liable to pay municipal taxes on that property, the Supreme Court of Canada ruled today.

It rejected the appeal of two Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., ship canal officials against a municipal tax assessment on the government houses on St. Mary's island. The officials lived in these houses in order to make their work on the Sault ship canal more effective.

The house in which G. Neil Phillips, superintending canal engineer, lived was assessed in 1950 at $3,000 and a tax of $187.50 levied in 1951. James Taylor, mechanical superintendent, was taxed $100 on the house assessed in 1950 as $1,600.

The two officials, in a long legal dispute, argued that the taxes were on land and property belonging to Canada and therefore not taxable under the constitution.

The Supreme Court agreed with Mr. Justice Gale of the Ontario Supreme Court that the tax was a personal one and validly imposed.

THREE HUNDRED AND ONE pints of blood were donated by Peterborough people on Tuesday afternoon and evening clinics at the Canadian Legion hall. Sponsored by the Peterborough branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society and supervised by a national unit from Toronto, the clinic was kept busy with citizens, (upper photo). Nursing assistant Bernita Blachall of Toronto unit, (lower photo) prepares bottles of blood for shipment to laboratories where gamma globulin will be extracted to combat polio. Across Canada 150,000 bottles of blood are being collected.

Easiest Part Of Donating Is Giving The Blood

By DICK CAMPBELL

Have you ever thought what a fine, public-spirited thing it would be to donate your blood, but quailed, blanched and generally turned sick with dread at the prospect of being drained.

Fear not! Take it from one who has valiantly beat down his innate chicken-hearted tendencies in order to contribute to the Canadian Red Cross Society's gamma globulin blitz Tuesday. Toughest part of it all is propelling yourself to the clinic: after that it's a breeze.

You read these words with approval because you figure the clinic is over, and you can afford to be expansive. But blood is always needed, and you can perform a public service by putting yourself on the society's regular donor list, now.

Those who visited the Legion Hall clinic Tuesday fell into two mutually antagonistic groupings. First were the blase regulars, who proudly bared their manly (or womanly) biceps, strode to the cots with confidence, and grandly scorned the post-operative cuppa coffee.

FIRST TIME

Then there were those making their first donation, those who spent the whole day trying, and failing, to find some honorable way to avoid what loomed as an ordeal of horrendous proportions. These folk, easily recognizable from their greenish pallor and sickly smiles, looked with sad envy on the regulars.

The worriers, however, had nothing to worry about. Donating blood is about as complicated as climbing upstairs, and no harder on the constitution. Of the 177 who attended the afternoon clinic, only two felt even momentarily woozy afterwards.

While pillow-pondering, this reporter found the key to a problem vexing him for years, namely why most nurses are women. Since woman is the superior sex, and since women are less likely to collapse in emergencies, it is they who must encourage the petrified male. What redblooded Canadian boy wants to have his hand held by a male?

Nurses, technicians, coffee-servers, morale - boosters, ushers, clerks and even checkroom attendants were, to a man, all women. As the males entered, their knees knocking, they were instantly taken in tow by this bevy of lovely ladies, and their worries vanished.

Picture yourself at Tuesday's clinic and you will have a jollier time when you summon the requisite nerve to donate blood. These pearls of wisdom are particularly directed to those who thought of donating to the gamma globulin drive but chickened out. Let's take the case of Horace

Protest Zoning Of River Banks

Letters protesting the zoning of the Otonabee river banks for heavy industry were read by secretary A. L. Smoke at the Otonabee valley conservation committee's regular meeting Tuesday evening. These were in support of the committee's protests already made to the planing board and the city council. The committee determined that "continued vigilance on our part is necessary if we hope to discourage the zoning of the banks for heavy industry".

Plans were formed to tour the Jackson park creek course through the city on Tuesday June 4, weather permitting. The committee is interested in the preservation and improvement of Jackson park creek as well as in the Otonabee banks.

Mrs. J. A. Nornabell is chairman of the Otonabee valley conservation committee.

Grid Film Lined Up For Orfuns' Meeting

A football film will be shown at the annual meeting of the Peterborough Orfuns' grid club this Thursday evening in the YMCA. The session is set for 7.30 and is open to the public, everyone interested in keeping the grid game here going this year being asked to attend. The grid film, of Grey Cup highlights, will be an added attraction for those in attendance.

At this meeting, reports will be read to the gathering, plans outlined, suggestions made, and the election of officers for the 1954 season held. The meeting will be chaired by Dr. Don Aitken, now president of the Orfuns, who have in the past two years taken two O R F U intermediate "A" titles, and one Eastern Canada crown.

THREE CARS COLLIDE

Three vehicles were involved in the only motor accident reported to city police Tuesday. Drivers of vehicles which collided at Douro and Rogers streets were Orville Gordon, Peterborough, Robert Lacey, Toronto, and Frank Leahy, Douro. Total damage to vehicles was estimated at $120.

Fire Detector To Be Installed In City Hall

City council have authorized the installation of automatic fire detecting equipment in the caretaker's workshop and the transformer room in the city hall basement.

The fire alarm system was recommended by fire chief Bill Sorrie following his investigation of a fire which broke out at city hall during an electrical storm on the night of April 7.

The chief reported that when a transformer burned out, the city hall auxiliary lighting system failed to operate, due to a corroded connection, leaving the building without lights.

As a result of the power shutoff, the fire alarm system failed to function. This system is dependent on the normal 110-volt system and has no secondary source of current.

The chief said the caretaker's workshop and the transformer room were the most likely places where a fire would occur, due to the nature of their contents. In addition to installation of the fire detecting equipment in these rooms, he recommended that the auxiliary lighting system should be inspected weekly for signs of corrosion or other defects which might affect its efficient operation.

The recommended fire detecting system consists of two fire thermostats in the transformer room and three in the caretaker's workshop. This system will receive its current from the fire department's fire alarm system and will work through the master fire alarm box at the library. It will still operate in the event of a power shutoff.

The installation will not be expensive, the chief said. The fire department electrician will undertake the work during his regular tour of duty. The only cost will be for material and equipment.

The chief felt the city could not afford to be without this protection.

Five Men Of District Returning From Korea

One Peterborough man and four district men will be returning from the Far East shortly. They are part of a group of nearly 600 Canadian army officers and men who are due to land at the west coast next Monday.

Gnr. John Francis McMurray of 532 Rogers St., will be returning to Peterborough. He is the son of Mrs. H. McMurray and has two brothers and four sisters. A brother Patrick, was killed in action during the Second World War.

The district men are Gnr. A. M. Hager of Hastings, Gnr. G. H. Rollings, 587 Bond St., Cobourg; Bdr. G. W. Rollings, 131 Albert St., Cobourg; and Sgt. H. C. Smith, RR 2, Norwood.

Chevrier Praises Expropriation Law

OTTAWA (CP)—Transport Minister Chevrier said today 1952 Ontario legislation for expropriating land needed for development of the St. Lawrence seaway is an improvement on previous legislation.

"The rights of property owners are better protected and more clearly defined," he said before the Senate banking committee.

The committee approved a change in Parliament's seaway-power legislation to make it conform to the Ontario legislation. Under the federal measure, power is given to Ontario to deal with the hydro aspects of the seaway. One point includes authority to expropriate.

Construction Co. Plans $2,000,000 Project In Building Of New Homes

Company To Build 150 Homes For Sale In Westmount Gardens Subdivision Thus Completing The Entire Project

One of the largest private home-building projects in the history of Peterborough is scheduled to begin next week when construction of the first-third of a total 150 homes is started in the new Westmount Gardens sub-division.

Ridout Real Estate Ltd., have announced the sale of 150 lots, the remainder of the original 234 lots in the subdivision, to the Terrance J. Colbourne Construction Co. Ltd. The area was sold for $250,000 and the project, when completed, will be worth an estimated $2,000,000. The modern homes will retail at $10,500 to $14,000.

Designs for the homes are of 10 basic plans, with slight variations, and include 6-room bungalows, one-and-one-half, and two-storey buildings. Some of the bungalows are of split level design affording slightly elevated bedrooms built over a huge playroom. The lots range in size from a 60 to 75-foot frontage and a depth of from 105 to 130 feet.

LANDSCAPED

An attractive feature of the project is the elimination of the debris from the finished building. Each unit will be connected with all municipal facilities, sidewalks and driveways will be completed, and the entire frontage landscaped with lawns and shrubbery, before the new owner moves in.

This is the first mass construction of these particularly designed homes in Peterborough. A wide overhanging roof gives a ranch-style appearance. Many of them are designed with entirely windowed walls. They first became popular in the southwest United States, then advanced to the New England states, and were first introduced in Ontario about two years ago.

The homes will be sold under the new NHA terms at down payments ranging from $1,500 to $2,500. The average home will cost about $12,000 and the blanket price will include everything but a car port which is $400 extra.

A number of the home have already been purchased by local and out-of-town buyers. Some of the expected 70-odd CGE office employees to be transferred from Toronto to Peterborough this fall have made down payments. Since the sub-division was placed on the market last fall, 60 lots were sold locally; some to small local contractors and others to private builders.

MANY PROJECTS

Merchant builder, T. J. Colbourne, a 55-year-old contractor with headquarters in Toronto, expects to begin construction next week He has been in the construction business for the past 25 years and has completed projects in Oakville, Thistledown, Guelph, Alderwood and Toronto. The project will be a boom to local employment as it is a policy of the company to hire local labor and contract material from local supply outlets.

Coupled with his experience in the construction of housing projects, Mr. Colbourne has just completed the children's aid society building in Toronto, and the Kingsway and All Saints' churches. Another church, the Knox Pentecostal in Goderich, recently completed, is unique in its use of concrete arches. Its designer, Philip Carter Johnson, received the governor general award for this effort.

Designs for the Westmount Gardens' homes were made by the Toronto architectural firm of Armstrong, Kingdon and Hanson. Building operations have been divided into three steps: the first 50 houses to begin immediately, the second 50 in July, and the final group in October. Total completion is expected before 1955.

Labor Council Picks Committee To Gather Facts

More direct action in the fight against unemployment is being considered by the Peterborough and district labor council. At a special meeting Tuesday night, the council elected a seven-man fact-finding committee which will gather information on the local unemployment question and also on the overall situation in the country.

The findings of the committee will be made available to the executive.

Those elected to the committee were: Ken Souter (599 IUE), Cy O'Donnell (524 IUE), Eric May (599 IUE), Gerry Dolan (570 IUE), Joe Wirtz (Canadian director IUE), Fred Burrett (president 5009 USA) and George Linsdell (president 19 NUPSE). Council chairman Alf Barber will act exofficio.

Bill Triggs (239 UPWA) and Edward Humphries (434 UPWA) were also nominated to the committee, but both declined.

The idea of the fact finding committee was proposed by Mr. Dolan. It received immediate support from the meeting although Thomas Cupoli thought that the council should give more facts to the National council of labor, "because they have always worked for us in this matter."

Mr. Wirtz considered that the task of the committee would be to find not only how many unemployed there were, but also to try and seek out the causes of unemployment and perhaps offer remedial measures.

SEASONAL TACTICS

Mr. Wirtz said that it appeared to him that much of the unemployment was due to the seasonal tactics adopted by manufacturers.

"In summer time many manufacturers are so busy that employees are told they cannot take their holidays then," he said. "Then comes the winter, the manufacturers have filled their quotas and the men are laid off. We should find out if it is not possible to find a level of production that would provide steady work all year round."

Chairman Barber agreed that there was the prospect of vast numbers of workers being out of work again next fall.

"We should get something moving now so that we can help these people when that time comes," he added.

The meeting also agreed to a motion providing that locals may submit another name to the committee if there present delegate becomes involved in local affairs and was not able to attend committee business.

Eric May reminded the chairman that the committee did not include any representatives from the drivers or salesmen. The chairman replied that he would have liked to have seen delegates from these bodies on the committee. However, there were none present at the meeting.

South American Republic Seriously Restricting Press Freedom

LONDON (AP) — The British Commonwealth Press Union reported Tuesday that only the Soviet Union and her satellites place greater restrictions on press freedom than do the South American republics.

The union is a private organization of Commonwealth newspaper proprietors.

The report, to be presented to the union's annual meeting June 1, also told of complaints about interference with the press in four Commonwealth countries — Pakistan, India, Australia and Trinidad.

Referring to "suspension of newspapers, arrests and threats of arrest of journalists, expulsion of foreign correspondents, forfeiture of 'security deposits', reprisals for criticisms of governments and so forth," the report said:

FREEDOM EXTINGUISHED

"These in the main have occurred outside the Commonwealth, in those countries where press freedom has already for many years been either totally extinguished or is under permanent threat of extinction."

The union protested against the inclusion of journalists in a schedule of persons banned from emigrating to Trinidad. The union said this hampers press development, encourages ill-considered, excessive nationalism, and perpetuates the acceptance of "shaky" standards in political life.

The report also complained that public relations officers are becoming "an insurmountable barrier" between the newspaper reporter and the facts he seeks to report.

The press officer was said to be "prodigal of facts—but they are facts selected by himself, with a liability to emphasize the virtues rather than the shortcomings of his department."

18 British Seamen Jailed 15 Days

MONTREAL — (CP) — Eighteen seamen of the British coal freighter Cibou were sentenced Tuesday to 15 days in jail and fined six days pay after being found guilty of refusing to obey the lawful command of their captain and being absent from ship without leave.

Earlier 18 seamen from the freighter Shelldrake were sentenced to 21 days in jail on similar charges, which arose from a strike of both crews in protest against low wages.

Truck Drivers Ordered Purchase Licences

DETROIT (AP)—Drivers of a convoy of 15 new Canadian trucks enroute from the General Motors plant at Oshawa to Vancouver, B.C., will have to purchase Michigan licence plates or return to Canada, Harold Deyoung, investigator for the Michigan secretary of state office ruled Tuesday.

The trucks, in units of three, crossed the Ambassador bridge into Detroit without any licences Monday night.

Detroit police promptly impounded the trucks pending a ruling from the secretary of state.

Judge Considers School Writ

AMOS, Que. (CP)—Mr. Justice Henri Drouin of the Quebec Superior Court Tuesday took under advisement a petition for a writ that would forbid a Roman Catholic school board from expelling two children of a Jehovah's Witness minister for failing to join in prayers.

The writ was requested by Cajetan, Chabot, 45, of Lamorandiere in northern Quebec. Glen How of Toronto, his attorney, said the children—Jean-Pierre, 7, and Marcel, 9—were content to sit quietly through the prayers or go outside while they were in progress.

How said there was no non-Catholic school within 60 miles of the community, thus making the Lamorandiere school a common one. He quoted the Quebec Freedom of Worship Act as a guarantee of the free exercise of religion.

C. N. Barbes, representing the school board, said regulations demanded that the students participate in the religious exercises. Otherwise, they were guilty of insubordination and could be expelled.

Re-powers Your Engine

TCP*, a Shell-discovered additive blended into Shell Premium Gasoline, sets free the captive power formerly locked in by lead and carbon deposits. It's the greatest gasoline development in 31 years.

Acts so fast it re-powers your engine before you've finished your second tankful.

Did you know that up to 15% of your engine's power is actually trapped . . . that you are paying for power you aren't getting?

The reason is this: Every gasoline sold today contains deposit-forming compounds. And, as gasoline is burned, lead and carbon deposits form on the walls of the combustion chamber and on the tips of the spark plugs. In the combustion chamber these deposits become "red hot," especially when you are accelerating, and "set off" the gasoline-air mixture before the piston reaches its proper firing position. Power works against you, not for you. This condition is called pre-ignition and it not only wastes power and fuel—it is also responsible for a most severe kind of knock—engineers call it "wild ping."

These deposits also cause power loss by short-circuiting spark plugs, causing them to misfire when you need power most.

Now, however, there is a way to release the imprisoned power in your engine—and quickly!

It's Shell Premium Gasoline with TCP, the greatest gasoline development since tetraethyl lead. TCP additive actually re-powers your engine by changing the character of the lead and carbon deposits. In the combustion chamber it "fireproofs" them so they cannot glow and cause pre-ignition. And, because it makes the deposits non-conductors of electricity, spark plugs no longer short-circuit—they fire on time. Power works for you—not against you.

By the time you have finished your second tankful, you'll be getting up to 15% more power. But remember—because these deposits are constantly building up, continued use of Shell Premium Gasoline with TCP is essential to retain its full benefits.

Shell Premium Gasoline with TCP is available only at Shell dealers.

Says Smoking, Cancer Have Relationship

LONDON (AP) — A leading cancer specialist said Tuesday completely separate studies in Britain and the United States show "a very definite statistical relationship between excessive smoking and cancer of the lung."

Dr. Everts A. Graham, professor emeritus of surgery at Washington University, St. Louis, told the American College of Surgeons, meeting for the first time in Europe:

"One of the curious things about cancer of the lung is that it occurs five to six times as frequently in men as in women. . . .

"There are many die-hards who say cigarets cannot have anything to do with this condition because women smoke as many cigarets as men. This statement is not quite true.

"In women of cancer age, cigaret smoking is not nearly so common as it is in young women and girls. It requires 20 to 30 years of smoking to produce the cancer and women have not been smoking that long in general."

Investigations also had been carried out to try to discover the effect of petroleum products in producing lung cancer.

"We found garage mechanics and oil field workers did not have a higher incidence of cancer of the lung than people in other occupations," he said.

'Clutch (that's not his name, at least we hope not) one of a large delegation from the Kinsmen club which donated en masse.

There also were delegations of regular donors from Lakefield and Apsley, and from the Millbrook Lions Club.

RECEPTION

Horace mounted the Legion steps sadly, but was instantly given a toothsome smile by no less than four ladies in the lobby checking coats, not so much because there is any desperate need for coat-checking (hangers could be provided) but because this is the first step in the morale-boosting process.

Coatless Horace was then greeted by Mrs. J. P. Watts of water-safety fame. Mrs. Watts provided Horace with a slip bearing the number 203. Since it was yet only seven in the evening, this meant that the clinic was almost certain to reach its objective of 300 donors.

Next Horace left his name, address and previous blood history (in his case none) and was directed to the "typing section." Innocently he headed towards some typewriters, until he was patiently told that blood is not typed on a typewriter.

The best-looking lasses alternate at the typing section, because this is the one and only spot where Horace might conceivably wish to head in the opposite direction. One fast pinprick told Horace he was of the "O" blood group. He was vaguely unhappy to learn this, because this is the commonest grouping and hapless Horace hoped to be able to lay some claim to individuality.

At this typing centre, Horace learned that the Red Cross society is very selective in choosing its donors. If his haemoglobin count had been less than 85, he would have had to trudge back to his ever-loving wife and tell her that his blood was not up to par.

DIVIDING LINE

This figure "85", translated into layman's language means 85 grams of haemoglobin to 100 centimeters of whole blood. A low count indicates anaemia, while donors have come to clinics with 114 or more. If you're below 85, you are not necessarily sick, since many perfectly healthy folk are walking the streets of Peterborough with 75 or less. But if your haemoglobin count is really low, you'd best see a doctor.

Horace, however, passed, only to be asked by another uniformed lady whether he had ever had jaundice or malaria. These diseases are not mentioned just to fill up space, but because both continue to affect the blood long after the patient is recovered.

By now Horace is beginning to feel somewhat more like living though he had to fight down the urge to hide under the bed when the nurse approached with her needle. The jab is even less painful than the one at the typing station, and after that there's nothing to do but wait.

As Horace contemplated the ceiling, wondering when things were going to start, the nurse's aide announced his bottle was full. Our hero then popped from his bed, now a blase regular himself, and had to be persuaded that a rest should be taken.

After coffee and raisin bread (but no cigarettes for an hour) Horace stops to chat with Mrs. Charles J. Ray, supervisor of the clinic. She tells him the clinic is a great success, because many like him are making their first donation.

Out in the open air, Horace expands his chest feeling proud of his prowess. Since he's feeling like a king, it's only fitting that he should drive home with one of the eight Red Cross chauffeurs on constant duty.

The driver has a few sobering thoughts for Horace. He tells him his blood will help to reduce the polio toll among children this summer, gamma globulin is not a polio cure-all, but it will provide certain immunity for a limited time. The gamma globulin in your body is the mysterious substance which is largely responsible for your resistance to everything from measles to mononucleosis.

Back home, Horace tells his wife he plans to donate again as soon as possible. Will you be with him?

Dublin Officials Begin Counting Votes

DUBLIN (AP) — Officials today began counting the votes from Tuesday's parliamentary election in the Irish Republic. Final results are expected late Thursday night or some time Friday.

About 1,200,000 voted Tuesday to determine whether veteran Prime Minister Eamon de Valera will continue to lead the country.

Despite a bright spring sun, it was estimated that about half a million registered voters did not cast their ballots.

Feed Young Squirrel From Doll's Bottle

MILLBROOK (ENS) — Judy Hobbs, 13, of the village, found a very young squirrel on her lawn on Tuesday. It was about four inches long, its eyes just opened. But the litle animal was awake enough to demand food, every three hours. Sweetened milk from a doll's feeding bottle was acceptable, but prepared baby food was not. The squirrel makes no bones about letting the Hobbs family know when it is hungry; its demands can be heard three rooms away. His home is a box with a weighted-down snowshoe for a cover. Its guardians report that their adoptee sleeps right through the night as all good babies should.

PETES' MEETING

2 From U.S. Stand Trial For Murder

SIMCOE, Ont. (CP)—Two United States residents have been committed for trial on murder charges in the bludgeon death of a 78-year-old service station operator.

Jerry Simmons, 47, of Syracuse, and Joe Glen Lotharp, 23, of Detroit, charged jointly with the murder of filling station owner, Bruce Beatty, will be tried in September.

Beatty was found fatally beaten at his service station at nearby Renton last Feb. 3. Police arrested the men three days later.

Mrs. Beatty, 63, still in critical condition, has been unable to talk to police since the attack in the living quarters of the service station.

Dr. Noble Sharpe, medical director of the attorney-general's department, testified that a sports shirt and a pair of overshoes contained traces of blood matching that of Beatty's. Officers said the clothes were taken from Simmons.

Dr. Sharpe said traces of blood found on an ax at Renton also were the same type as that of Beatty.

Counsel for Lotharp, L. T. Pennell of Brantford, said that blood splashings on the ax did not mean it was the murder weapon.

"This has been termed an ax-slaying and there is some doubt the ax was the lethal weapon," Mr. Pennell said.

Elwood Jones Joins Hamilton TV Station

Former commercial manager of the Kingston Radio Station CKWS, Elwood L. Jones will leave shortly to join the CHCH television station in Hamilton.

While there he will produce and direct television shows. He will also be featured on his own daily TV program.

Mr. Jones has been in Kingston since September, 1950. Before that he was with Radio Station CHEX in Peterborough.

In Kingston, he has been a director of the Ad and Sales club, a member of the Cataraqui Golf and Country Club, and a member of Princess Street United church. He is a Mason. For the past two years he has managed the Barons Juvenile Hockey Club in the Kingston Junior Hockey Association.

AprilSpendingExceeds Revenue For Society

The Children's Aid Society of the city and county of Peterborough was $718.01 in the red for the month of April. This was revealed in a financial report read by Blake Bell to the board directors of the society at their bimonthly meeting, Tuesday evening in city hall.

However, Mr. Bell said that April was a month of peak expenditures because of the extra money spent on clothes. He explained that the budget is balanced in other months.

The revenue in April totalled $3,742.05 while the expenditures reached a sum of $4,460.06.

FIRE PATROLS

Aircraft are used extensively in fighting forest fires in the Yukon and Northwest territories.

GEORGE H. NELSON former chief engineer of the Ontario department of highways, who is one of those accused in the highway scandal, made a brief appearance in Toronto city court on Tuesday, when his bail was renewed in the sum of $10,000. Mr. Nelson wearing dark glasses is shown with his son after the hearing. (Federal Newsphoto)

Unemployment Easing Off

OTTAWA (CP) — Unemployment eased off during the month ended April 17, but "at a somewhat slower pace than is usual" for that time of year, a government survey showed today.

At mid-April, an estimated 303,000 persons still were without jobs and looking for work—a decrease of 15,000 from the previous month.

This figure, based on a sampling survey by the bureau of statistics, was released in a joint report by the bureau and the federal labor department.

The report also showed that the total number of applications for jobs at national employment service offices at mid-April was 549,028, a drop of 20,870 from the 569,898 registered at NES offices a month before. The labor department says the latter figures do not present a true picture of unemployment because an unknown portion of applicants already have other work.

Find School Used To House Still

EDEN GROVE, Ont. (CP)—The public school here has something other than bats in its belfry.

RCMP Cpl. Alex Hawrys is investigating discovery of a still for turning out home brew at the school. A four-gallon batch of home brew was found in the bell tower being heated by a lamp.

The discovery was made by pupils who reported their find to their teacher.

Eden Grove is about 30 miles southwest of Owen Sound.

Dog Too Eager

LONDON, Ont. (CP)—A 75-year-old woman was partially strangled and severely bruised Tuesday when a dog she was feeding at her home leaped on her and got its chain wound around her neck. Mrs. Ellen Evans was treated at hospital.

May Have To Vote On Sunday Sport

WINDSOR (CP)—Mayor Arthur Reaume says Windsor may have to vote again on the Sunday sport question.

In 1949, a plebiscite authorized Sunday sport and council, in 1950, set the hours as 1:30 to 6 p. m. The mayor said Tuesday the city broke the law last year by operating swimming pools, at which admission is charged, outside those hours.

He said another plebiscite may be necessary to see if Windsor residents want the hours extended. If they do, the whole thing will have to go to the Ontario legislature for decision, he said.

Sales, Ad Club Ends Season

The final meeting of the Sales and Ad club for 1954 was carried out in grand style at the club Aragon Tuesday evening. Although the guest speaker, Orlo M. Brees, a former member of the New York legislature, was consistent with the tone of the get-together, in that his address was essentially humorous, he did stress the importance of a youthful outlook.

"Some split their lives into chronological periods, but life really doesn't depend on time—it depends on you and your attitude."

A champion of free enterprise, Mr. Brees believes there are four necessary requirements for success: imagination, courage, a sense of humor, and generosity. Imagination is the ability to conceive someting new, courage and confidence are required to realize the idea, and a sense of humor enables one to carry on after temporary failure.

Urges Smokers Give Up "Inhaling"

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Dr. Richard Overholt, a Boston chest surgeon, suggested Tuesday night that the cigaret-smoking public "give up inhaling the smoke until the issue is definitely settled as to whether or not such inhalation can cause cancer of the lung."

Overholt said "there is no question in my own mind but that there is an association between lung cancer and heavy smoking accompanied by inhalmg." He suggested that doctors "take the lead in giving up inhaling, so as to set a good example for the people."

The surgeon made the suggestions through reporters shortly after he had presided at a panel on lung cancer held during the meeting of the National Tuberculosis Association.

The majority opinion among the panel of six doctors was that there might be an "association" between heavy cigaret smoking and some cases of lung cancer.

But, despite this, smokers among some 200 doctors in the audience indicated they had no present intention of giving up smoking.

Money Given Not Invested $2,350 Must Be Returned

A lumberman from Lake St. Peter will collect $2,350 and costs from his cousin, ex-proprietor of a defunct Lakefield dry cleaning plant, as a result of a judgement handed down by Mr. Justice King in Supreme Court Tuesday.

Donovan Perry Card, partner in the D. K. Card lumbering firm at Lake St. Peter won this sum from Russell D. Card, formerly of the Lakefield Cleaners. This firm collapsed in June of 1952.

The suit grew out of three cheques given on Russell's behalf by Donovan on January 8, January 30 and March 3, 1952 for $2,000, $100 and $250. The $100 cheque was personal while the other two were drawn on the lumbering firm.

The plaintiff, Donovan Card, was the first witness called by his counsel, W. F. Huycke. He testified that his cousin had come to him January 5, 1952 with a letter from the solicitors of the Standard Chemical Co. advising that an immediate and substantial payment was due on $9,000 worth of equipment Russell had bought for his plant. Donovan said Russell told him he had to have the money by the 9th or lose his business.

MADE OUT CHEQUE

When his cousin returned three days later, Donovan testified he instructed his sister, a bookkeeper and a signing officer, but not a partner, in the lumbering firm to draw a cheque payable to Russell He said he subsequently borrowed on his life insurance to repay the lumbering firm the $2,000.

The second cheque was given said Donovan, because Russell told him he needed to make a payment on his truck. The truck was subsequently repossessed.

After "casual meetings" in February, during which he had intimated a desire for security for his "loans" Donovan testified that he had given a cheque March 3 to help Russell meet insurance obligations. The third cheque was signed by Donovan and his sister, the first by his sister and his brother since Donovan was not then a signing officer.

After futile attempts to get his cousin to make some arrangements, Donovan testified he wrote a letter August 19 saying "either drop in and see me or make some arrangements before August 28." There was no reply. He came to Peterborough in September with Russell's parents but received no payment no note, no security and no mortgage.

Core of the defence case, as advanced by counsel J. B. Lillico was that a partnership existed between Donovan and Russell from January 8 to sometime in February or March. It was alleged that the $2,000 advance constituted not a loan but an investment in the firm, although terms of partnership had not been agreed. (If there had been a partnership, both Donovan and Russell would have been equally responsible for debts.)

DISCUSSED

Questioned by Mr. Lillico, Donovan Card said that his timber limits were being depleted, although there was no immediate danger. He said there was "some discussion" of a possible partnership on January 8 and subsequently "but nothing ever came of it."

Donovan said he had assented to having papers of declaration of partnership drawn up, and was "not surprised" when Russell showed up at Lake St. Peter with them in February or March. He testified, however, that there had been a mutual agreement "not to go through with it. He said he'd sooner keep his business and I said I'd sooner have my money."

He said he had been down to Lakefield "to look over the business" but that no partnership terms were agreed to. He said he had no reason to believe that the monies advanced Russell had been used for anying but the laundry business. The $250 cheque he added was still charged against him by the lumbering firm.

Re-examination by Mr. Huycke showed that Donovan had had no experience in the drycleaning business, knew nothing of any business but lumbering and was aware of the obligations of partnership. At this point Mr. Justice King asked if it were not a fact that Donovan had been a partner in the lumber business for four years, and he said he had.

J. B. Lillico then asked Donovan Card if he wanted "the court to believe that Russell came all the way to Lake St. Peter to have a partnership declaration signed, and then backed out." (Donovan had suggested that Russell took the initiative in cancelling further talk of partnership.)

Frank Payne, an insurance salesman of Lakefield, testified that he had drawn up the declaration of partnership on the request of Russell Card, but had no instructions from Donovan.

Cross - examination by Mr. Huycke was chiefly concerned with Mr. Payne's authority to draw legal documents. The witness said he knew of no authority needed, that he had drawn "two or three" partnership declarations, as well as deeds and other documents, that he was unaware of the existence of W. C. Grant, Lakefield solicitor and reeve of the village, and that His Lordship wanted to know what all this had to do with the Card action.

A short appearance on the stand was made by Mrs. Leo McGregor, Donovan's sister, whose signature appeared on two of the cheques. She knew of no partnership discussions, believed Donovan was advancing loans to his cousin.

During a lengthy session on the stand, Russell Card testified tha he had shown his cousin the letter from the Standard Chemical concern. He said his brother's reaction was to observe: "They don't fool around do they." He quoted his cousin as saying that he (Donovan) had been looking for "some sort of business to get into" and that he "would consider" the matter.

Russell Card said he did not ask for any money "because I was in no position to pay anything back." The letter, he said, "spoke for itself."

On January 8, according to Russell, Donovan told him that he had "heard both good and bad" about his cousin's laundry business but that he "figured he would go ahead with it." Nothing was said about repayment, Russell testified, and Donovan was not to come to Lakefield until "the business was on its feet."

BOTH DRINKING

He said that Donovan had come to Lakefield for the express purpose of signing the partnership papers, after the visit to Lake St. Peter at which Donovan claimed all thought of partnership ended. He said that both were drinking, that Donovan wanted to sign because he "might not feel like it in the morning" but he (Russell) demurred, wanting a clear head.

Mr. Huycke thought this was a peculiar sort of partnership, inasmuch as Russell had not related all his debts to his cousin, gave him no share in the partnership, and had agreed to no specific terms. Counsel also wondered if there had been a partnership, why Russell did not inform Donovan as soon as it collapsed at the end of June.

(Russell had testified that he went to Lake St. Peter for four days after the collapse, but that "the way I was feeling then I didn't want to talk to anybody.")

As Russell Card resumed the stand in the afternoon, he testified that he had received no ultimatum from his cousin, nor a subseqent letter from Donovan's lawyer, Mr. Huycke. He was then in Peterborough working for a local firm and living at 714 McKellar street.

Whereas the declaration of partnership formed a major share of Mr. Lillico's case Mr. Huycke based much of his argument to the judge on the third cheque, the one for $250. There is a notation on the back over Russell's endorsement "$140 payable by March 31 and balance by April 30." He felt this was potent argument there was no partnership, that this cheque represented a loan and that it could then be assumed that the other did also.

Mr. Justice King's view was that it was "understood that it (the $2,000 cheque was not a gift, but the manner by which the plaintiff was to recover was left undecided." Notwithstanding Russell's visit to Mr. Payne to get the declaration drawn, he could see "no indication there was any discussion of terms" of partnership. The plaintiff was duly awarded the total of the three cheques, plus costs.

Canada's Trade Fair Becomes One Of Biggest Get-Togethers

By FORBES RHUDE

TORONTO (CP)—The big cases are being unpacked out at the exhibition grounds, bulky evidence that the Canadian International Trade Fair is again almost at hand.

The dates are May 31-June 11, and during that period Canada and 26 other countries, who are the exhibitors, will lay out their goods for the appraising eyes of buyers from some 60 countries.

It is one of the world's biggest annual international get-togethers, with traders from far and near, speaking in many tongues, sizing up what they see in terms of its buyer-appeal back home.

Only those with an interest in buying and selling are admitted, except for three days when the public is allowed a look.

Statistically, the exhibits will cover some 235,000 square feet and will comprise thousands of items from kitchen gadgets to heavy machinery and aircraft—through such a varied list as textiles, jewelery, leather goods, food, scientific instruments, farm implements, household furnishings, office equipment and so on.

Total space is less than last year's 264,800 square feet, but higher than other years, and fair officials say there is wider variety than ever before, with less relative emphasis on the machinery section.

HOPEFUL ATMOSPHERE

The fair was started in 1948 under the auspices of the department of trade and commerce. It has weathered the heavy years of trade restrictions, and meets this year in the more hopeful atmosphere created by lowering of barriers by a number of countries.

U. S. interest has steadily increased. Last year about 2,000 Americans registered, double the number of the year before, and inquiries indicate the figure may be doubled again this year.

About 1,000 visitors will be here from Europe and probably 25,000 Canadians will see the show, aside from the special audience of public days. Incidentally, Toronto hotels, guest homes and motels will be jammed.

Canadian firms have taken more than half the space, and other leading exhibitors, in order of space area, are: United Kingdom, Germany, United States, Italy, Sweden, Belgium, Austria, India, France, The Netherlands, Japan.

Completing the exhibitors' list, in alphabetical order, are: Colombia, Cuba, Denmark, Finland, French Morocco, Indonesia, Ireland, Jamaica, Korea, Liechtenstein, Norway, Portugal, South Africa, Spain and Switzerland.

In hospital, young Malouin's condition was reported as fair.

Canada's Aid Pleases People Of Asia

OTTAWA (CP) — Nik Cavell, Canadian Colombo Plan director, said Tuesday economic aid to South and Southeast Asia is encouraging the democratic forces in that part of the world.

He told Stanley Knowles (CCF—Winnipeg North Centre) in the Commons external affairs committee that Colombo Plan aid—Canada has contributed $25,400,000 a year for four years—will not rehabilitate Asia. Only the Asians could do that themselves.

But there was no doubt that every gesture of friendliness, interest and help was all to the good in trying to keep the Asian democracies in the family of free nations.

"In that case, this is the best spent money we are spending today," Mr. Knowles said.

for the careful big-car buye.

CHECK THE CAR FOR SIZE...

You can't judge a big car by the name alone. Many lines of cars include one or more "little brothers" — models with bodies no larger than those you get in the low-price field!

In contrast to this, the economical Powermaster model is a full-size De Soto. In fact, it is nearly 18 feet long with a 125-inch wheelbase — one of the biggest, roomiest, luxury cars on the Canadian road.

CHECK THE TRANSMISSION...

An important item, because on most cars you'll be charged extra for an automatic transmission — as much as $200 extra. But on all De Soto models, you get PowerFlite automatic transmission at no extra cost. What's more, PowerFlite is the newest and finest of all automatic transmissions.

CHECK THE ENGINE...

The De Soto Powermaster engine is famous for thrilling performance coupled with real economy. It's a smooth-running, quiet engine with many quality features. For example, it is equipped with a waterproof ignition system, for dependable starting in any weather. It also has an oil-bath air cleaner, an oil filter, resistor spark plugs, etc.

You might assume that all so-called "big" cars would have such long-life features. But if you check carefully, you'll find these items are not available — or that they cost you extra — on many other cars.

CHECK THE SAFETY...

For greater safety, all De Soto cars have Safety Rim wheels. Their electric windshield wipers never slow down under acceleration. Cyclebond rivetless brake linings provide more usable gripping surface and longer wear. DeSoto front wheel brakes each have two hydraulic cylinders, instead of the usual single cylinder. These extra safety features are priceless to the safety-conscious driver.

CHECK THE STYLING...

From the broad, distinctive grille to the "bull's-eye" taillights, the new De Soto Powermaster is a long, low beauty with sleek, flowing lines. It is finished in baked enamel to retain its beauty. Inside you'll find rich fabrics, durable vinyl trim and deep-pile carpets. Here is truly smart styling, not marred by gaudiness.

CHECK THE RIDE...

There is no substitute for a long wheelbase, a big box-section frame and extra-long springs if you want a really luxurious ride. The De Soto Powermaster has all these . . . plus a new No-Sway ride control and Oriflow shock absorbers that adjust automatically to smooth out all types of bumps.

Only by riding in a new De Soto can you appreciate what a great difference these features make. It's an experience you ought to try . . . soon.

This is only a partial list of many quality features you should consider. Ask your dealer to show you some of the many other advantages you'll find in the distinctive new De Soto Powermaster.

Steel Contract Talks Continue; NoCommitments

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The 1954 contract talks for the U.S. basic steel industry get down to fine points today as United States Steel Corp. meets the CIO United Steelworkers' union for a second day of negotiations.

The union presented its demands Tuesday in a 1½-hour meeting with the biggest producing firm, then adjourned to give the corporation time to study the issues.

David J. McDonald, union president, said he hopes "for a speedy and equitable disposition of the issues."

Vice-president John A. Stephens, who is heading the corporation's 60-man negotiating team, said he will ask the union for more specific details and the reasoning for them.

Neither side would comment on the estimated cost of the demands, but the union said it wants a wage raise, a guaranteed annual wage, improvements in pensions and hospitalization and other changes over the cotract which expires June 30.

"DUE CONSIDERATION"

Stephens only comment on the demands was:

"We will give due consideration to the suggestions which are made."

The union is seeking contracts for about 600,000 of its 1,200,000 members. The others are employed in fabricating plants and are covered by contracts expiring ater this year.

Bargaining sessions are scheduled with several other major basic steel producers later this week. The U.S. Steel sessions, however, usually highlight the bargaining.

Says Ottawa Sidetracks Talks

OTTAWA (CP) — George Drew said Tuesday night the federal government, by masterly inaction, has been sidetracking provincial requests for federal-provincial tax discussions.

The Progressive Conservative leader spoke in an address prepared for delivery in the CBC's political free time series. He dealt largely with the income tax controversy between the federal government and Quebec.

He repeated a previous proposal that the federal government allow full deduction from federal personal income tax of a new Quebec income tax for this year and that, in the meantime, a conference be held on the division of taxes between federal, provincial and municipal governments.

He said the Quebec issue is part of a general problem of readjusting the taxes collected by the federal, provincial and municipal authorities.

"The question arising in the province of Quebec is merely a symptom of a general problem which must be solved if we are to retain our federal system," he said.

Under Water With Spear To Do Battle With Sharks

VANCOUVER (CP)—Bill Thomson, Vancouver sportsman, has substituted a spear for the conventional fishing rod as a sure method of catching more fish.

Member of the recently-organized Blue Sharks Spear Fishing Club, Thomson claims the new approach gives him at least one fish every time out.

Wearing an outfit similar to that used by frogmen, the 22-year-old fisherman often goes 75 feet under water in search of his quarry. Recently he was scouting 45 feet down in Horseshoe bay when he spotted a ling cod.

Bill fired his cross-bow spear gun and came up with a 35-pound prize, a record for the Pacific coast. The fish beat by one pound the mark held by Jim Blanchard of Seattle's Puget Sound Mud Sharks.

Bill says the under-water sport is the "most thrilling" he has ever tried. But it also costs more than sitting behind a rod and waiting for a bite. A spear fisherman must spend about $350 for a rubber suit, diving mask, air tanks, cross-bow and spear, weight belt—and two suits of woollen underwear.

Thomson admits there is an element of danger in the sport.

"The biggest danger to a spear fisherman is panic under water," he said. "The novice tends to get panicky and uses up his air too fast." Under normal conditions, however, the diving equipment enables the fisherman to remain under water for periods up to 45 minutes.

Chief Justice Investigates News Reports For Contempt

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Chief Justice Sir Albert Walsh of Newfoundland said Tuesday certain newspaper and radio reports of the Valdmanis case will be examined for possible contempt of court.

The chief justice in a statement warned "counsel newspapers, radio stations, public men, indeed everyone" against prejudicing the trial of Dr. Alfred Valdmanis, charged with defrauding the Newfoundland government and a German machine company of $420,000.

Valdmanis, 47, is accused of engineering the alleged fraud while serving as chief of Newfoundland's economic development program following Confederation.

MENTIONS STORY

Chief Justice Walsh's statement mentioned an article in the St. John's Daily News which Tuesday published a statement of claim in the civil case and also published abstracts of affidavits filed in the case.

He said:

"It appears to the judges that there may be contempt of court in this, not only insofar as conduct of the civil case is concerned but also in the conduct of the criminal proceedings. . . ."

He also referred to a story in the St. John's Evening Telegram Monday of the re-arrest of Valdmanis on the civil charge, quoting defence lawyer Gordon Higgins as saying ". . . trial under these conditions would still be a farce. . . ."

He also mentioned radio stations which carried statements suggesting ". . . the execution of certain processes issued from this court in an action taken in this court may amount to persecution rather than prosecution."

Chief Justice Walsh added:

"The judges understand further that over a radio station, copies of affidavits filed in this court and containing matters which may be used as evidence in a criminal trial, have been read.

"The judges call attention to these matters and ask the attorney-general to assign to the court independent counsel to assist the court in having these matters examined and presented to the court for the issue of warrants for contempt if it should appear the contempt of court has been committed."

FRASERVILLE (ENS) — The Fraserville YPU members were entertained for their mid-weekly meeting at the home of Irene McIlroy with 14 members present.

The meeting was opened with a sing-song from the song sheets. The President Earl Lackey was in the chair and opened with a prayer, followed by the scripture by Joan Cook. The meeting was in charge of Lavergne Moore.

Stories were read by Bob Cardwell and by Doris More. During the business period there was a discussion as to forming a ball team for the summer, but nothing definite was decided.

Games were played under the direction of Janet Larmer and the meeting was closed.

Ask Immediate Raise In Commuter Fares

MONTREAL (CP)—The Canadian Passenger Association has asked the board of transport commissioners for permission for an immediate and subsequent increase in commuter train fares, an association spokesman said Monday night.

He did not say how much of an increase was asked but indicated it was "considerable" and varied with the type of service offered.

Montreal, Toronto, Halifax and all other cities having commuter train service would be affected. The association said rising costs made the application necessary.

Evatt's Program Surprise

By LOUIS L. LECK

SYDNEY, Australia (CP)—A bitter, four-week campaign will end May 29 when Australians elect a new House of Representatives.

A total of 298 candidates were nominated May 6 for 121 seats with full voting rights and for two Territories seats whose members can vote only on matters affecting their constituencies. At dissolution the Liberal-Country party coalition held 68 seats and the Labor Opposition 53.

In his opening policy speech Prime Minister Robert Gordon Menzies made no reference to the Vladimir Petrov affair. The prime minister has made it clear that he will not use the disclosures concerning Russian espionage in Australia, made by the third secretary of the Russian embassy at Canberra, for electioneering purposes.

POINTED QUESTION

But Mr. Menzies' supporters have no such inhibitions. In their campaign speeches they are asking electors whether they would prefer Mr. Menzies or Dr. Herbert Vere Evatt, the Opposition leader, to implement the recommendations which will be made by the royal commission investigating the Petrov disclosures.

Mr. Menzies did promise a number of minor improvements in the Australian social services system, and said he was confident the next budget would include some tax concessions.

The prime minister's policy speech caused some disappointment among government supporters. They knew Dr. Evatt proposed to offer substantial increases in social services benefits.

Dr. Evatt, however, exceeded expectations. He offered something to almost every section of the community.

LABOR PROMISES

The more important of his promises included:

1. Abolition within three years of the means test which restricts the payment of old age and invalid pensions by the application of property and income qualifications. The estimated cost of abolition is £120,000,000 a year.

(The effect of the means test is that an old age pensioner's income must not exceed £5 10s ($12.40) a week from pension and private income combined. The pension rate is £3 10s a week, and if private income exceeds $2 a week the pension is reduced by the amount by which private income exceeds £2. In addition a pension is not payable if the pensioner owns property worth more than £1,250 excluding the house in which he lives.)

2. An increase in pensions costing about £50,000,000 a year.

3. Tax concessions to industry costing about £23,000,000 a year.

4. Unrestricted government loans for home building and home purchase.

5. Abolition of sales tax on household items.

6. Extension of medical and hospital benefits.

COSTLY PROGRAM

Mr. Menzies has estimated that the total cost of Dr. Evatt's promises is about £370,000,000 a year.

Expenditure during the term of the Menzies-Fadden government ran at about £1,000,000,000 a year, so that on Mr. Menzies' estimate Labor proposes an increase of more than one-third.

At this stage it seems that the election will after all be fought on economic issues and not on the issue of communism despite the drama of the Petrov affair.

Get $250,000,000 From 2 Papers

CHICAGO (AP) — The Tribune Company, publisher of the Chicago Tribune and the New York News, Monday reported a combined gross income of almost $250,000,000 from the two newspapers and 13 subsidiaries in 1953.

Col. Robert R. McCormick president, told the annual stockholders meeting that advertising income from the papers in 1953 totalled more than $100,000,000, setting a record for each paper.

Subsidiaries on which Col. McCormick reported included the Ontario Paper Company, Quebec North Shore Paper Company and 11 others in the United States and Canada.

Col. McCormick said the Ontario and Quebec paper companies produced 365,000 tons of paper, which supplied the firm's New York and Chicago newspapers with 80 per cent of their requirements.

NO THUMB EXPENSES

Magistrate W. R. Philp, QC, was assessing witnesses' travel costs in court Tuesday. Three men claimed their dollars for car expenses and then the magistrate considered Robert Hill who hails from Buckhorn.

"How did you get in to Peterborough?" asked the magistrate.

"I hitch-hiked," said Hill.

"I can't allow you any travelling expenses for that I'm afraid," said Mr. Philp.

Crown attorney John A. Bradshaw reminded the magistrate that Hill still had to get home and should get half his costs.

So the hitch-hiker didn't have to hitch after all . . . the magistrate allowed him $1.98 to ride home in comfort.—J. O.

NEW LISSOM LOOK—Styling from the waist up is the focal point of early summer fashions now showing in London. Important selling point for summer coats, suits and dresses is shoulder, bust and neckline interest. Popular in the high-price ranges is this cosy tweed suit styled by Michael in yellow and white tweed. Displaying the new "lissom" look, it has a narrower, square shoulder than last season, with sleeves set at normal level. The neckline is a rounded, softer version of last year's wide V, emphasized by curving revers. —(CP Photo)

Bust, Neckline Interests Where Season Styles Focus

By MURIEL NARRAWAY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON (CP) — The fashion focus is from the waist up in early summer styles now showing in London.

Fashion is "tops" in more ways than one. Important selling point for summer coats, suits and dresses is shoulder, bust and neckline interest.

Skirt styles appear less important. They range from wide frou-frous of fullness over stiffened petticoats to clinging stem skirts of guipure lace and light silks rippling with accordion pleating. It's the styling from the waist up that apparently will decide which dresses sell overnight and which linger on the shelf, say retailers.

GOOD VARIETY

A wide range of dresses with low necklines similar to those displayed at the London and Paris fashion shows now are available at prices suited to any purse.

It's easy, for instance, to find dresses with wide rever necklines, sitting away from the throat, similar in style to a black dress and jacket in mohair mixture, styled by Paris' Christian Dior. With slim skirt, darted hipline and box jacket, this outfit has the top-heavy look that is one of the latest style features.

Suits similar to a desert-beige wool showing the "Pacific palm" silhouette introduced by couturier John Cavanagh are already on sale and proving popular. The Cavanagh suit has a wide, low shoulder, styled to imitate the drooping fronds of a palm tree. The straight skirt, moulded waist and modified sweetheart neckline give Paris chic and an impression of coolness.

"LISSOM" LOOK

A cosy tweed suit style by Michael in yellow and white tweed should be popular in higher-price ranges. Displaying the designer's "lissom" look, it has a narrower, squarer shoulder than last season, with sleeves set at normal level. The neckline is a rounded, softer version of last year's wide V, emphasized by curving revers.

A sure sale, claim retailers, will be moderately-priced copies of a dress that made a big hit when the Queen wore it in Bermuda. In yellow organdie, with wide skirt and cap sleeves, the royal gown had tucked white shirt-style gillet set in a deep round neckline circled with white lace motif. The white motif also ran from waist to hem and encircled the hemline.

For women who dislike decollete necklines, the shallow, round neckline worn by the Queen in many places will be a good choice. This style and a wide bateau line are favored in the new woven grass frocks and blouses expected to be big hits this summer.

Accompanying the children in addition to their teachers were Mrs. Fry, Mrs. Casey, Rev. A. W. Smith, Mrs. N. McQuade and Miss Myrna Lee.

Montgomery reported on the annual WA convention at Toronto last week, saying "It was most inspiring to hear of the magnitude of the work of the Women's Auxiliary and that the extra-cent-a-day collection for the diocese had amounted to $5,100." She said also that a missionary from Japan at the convention had stressed "dire necessity of help in money and man power if Christianity is to survive in that country." Mrs. B. Ottewell, dorcas secretary, reported the sending of a bale of good used clothing to the White Settlers in the West, a bale to Scott Mission in Toronto, the Indian School bale, and six complete layettes sent to WA House in Toronto for distribution. The June regular meeting will be held on the 14th and a picnic will be held on the church grounds on June 21st. Delightful refreshments were served by Misses Vida and Alma Foote at close of business.

Parents Miss Signals, So Babies Learn To Cry

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

NEW YORK (AP)—Babies cry because they're taught to cry by parents who fail to see or understand normal baby talk signals, according to a theory proposed by Saul Rosenzweig of the community to child guidance clinic, Washington University, St. Louis.

It has been a common belief for centuries that babies naturally cry to express their wants, he says. Parents therefore have come to expect babies to cry and feel nothing can be done about it.

Crying is, of course, a natural reaction to pain or sickness, Rosenzweig writes in the publication, Mental Hygiene.

But he says babies have other ways of "talking" to tell parents that they are hungry, cold or wet. They give up and cry if parents don't listen to these cues.

In effect, the baby's parents are teaching him that he must expect to cry to be understood, Rosenzweig says. The baby later may even cry when he has only mild needs or wants.

LICKING IS MILK SIGNAL

Rosenzweig proposes the idea from watching his own and other babies.

One five-month-old baby apparently signals for milk by little licking motions of her tongue, and for soft solid foods by audibly smacking her lips, he writes. The baby sometimes stops sucking on her bottle, pushes it away, smacks her lips, and eagerly takes soft foods if offered.

The parent who assumes babies can be understood and tries to understand their talk has made an important start in training the baby to understand the world of adults, Rosenzweig says. And the baby may learn to understand earlier what the parent is saying to him.

Lions Ladies Elect Mrs. Jack Smyth

A new executive of the Lions' Ladies' Club of Peterborough was installed at the closing dinner meeting of this season held on Tuesday evening at the Empress Hotel. Past president Mrs. Vert Reynolds installed the following:

Mrs. Smythe made a brief speech in acceptance of the honor. Plans were made to attend the Cobourg Lionettes meeting this Thursday evening.

Winners of the draw prizes were Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Weidner, Mrs. Bill McFadden, Mrs. Bert Sisson and Mrs. John Cairns.

Delegates passed resolutions asking the standard of advertising be raised to a level acceptable for presentation to all classes and groups; that as much of the country's grain as possible be supplied to those countries in need of it and that the Canadian Broadcasting Company scrutinize more carefully all television and radio programs before presenting them on network.

Mrs. M. J. Fitzpatrick of Windsor was elected diocesan president; Mrs. W. J. Farrel of London treasurer, and Miss Pauline McManus of St. Thomas, secretary.

Mrs. J. R. Marshall had the high score in bridge and Mrs. Harry Dulmage the low and Mrs. D. Norman won the guest prize.

DOROTHY DIX

Man Trumps-Up Excuses, Is Seeing Another Woman

DEAR MISS DIX: Lennie and I have been married five years and have two children. Up to a few months ago he was a good husband, never complained about the house. Suddenly he announced that because of my poor housekeeping he did not love me any longer. I'm ready to admit I'm not a world beater on housekeeping, but I certainly do an average, or slightly better than average job. The children are properly cared for and well behaved. I am a very good cook, as Lennie himself readily admits, and the house is kept clean and reasonably tidy.

My weaknesses are that I don't sew, can't run up slipcovers or draperies, and am not handy with a paint brush. With the excuse that I don't keep the home as he wishes, he has been going out with another woman, whom I shall call Sally. When I object, he adds jealousy to his other accusations and tells me I'm childish. Now, how far are his complaints justified, and should I accept his dates with Sally cheerfully and submissively?

MONA

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Lennie is a weak character. Not only does he lack the decency to resist temptation, but he hasn't even the moral stamina to accept responsibility for his responsible conduct. Trumping up reasons why you are to blame for his actions, he transfers blithely the guilt from his shoulders to yours. He works on the theory that if he bellows hard enough, no one will notice his own shortcomings.

HE LIVES LIKE A BACHELOR

As a married man, he has absolutely no right to be dating another woman, and if Sally had a conscience she wouldn't go out with him. Perhaps you aren't a perfect housekeeper—very few women are—but that definitely doesn't give him the privilege of acting like a bachelor. Calling attention to your minor failings as a housewife certainly doesn't justify his major indiscretion. Since Lennie has a great desire to appear in the right at all times, it would be a good idea to let him find out how other people regard his extramartial entertainment. It certainly won't win the approval of anyone in either family, or of any friend or neighbor with a proper sense of right and wrong. Public opinion may sway his attention back to home, where nagging or tears would be futile.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: What should a man think of a woman who, 24 hours after receiving an engagement ring, asks for a small sum of money to take care of some of her obligations. The episode has been repeated several times since the engagement six months ago.

B. P.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: It's up to you to discover just why she needs your help in clearing up debts. If there is a valid reason, such as illness, an unusual financial situation, or a run of bad luck, the circumstance would be pardonable. Otherwise, the lady seems to be an opportunist who is playing on your soft heart.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: For the past few months I've been dating the son of very close family friends. I have a car, and since he hasn't one, I visit him quite a bit more than he visits me. In fact, he is getting more and more reluctant to call on me, even when I invite him.

T. T.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: It isn't wise to make things too easy for men; after all, they should do the calling, the visiting, the asking. You've preempted all these privileges, yet cavil because suddenly it dawns on you that you've been taken too much for granted. Car or no car, stop pursuing the man, and make him do the courting for a change. If he won't, there's nothing you can do but find another beau.

MARY MOORE SAYS:

Offer Baked Beef Hash On Special-Purpose Menu

Last week D. F. F.'s letter, requesting oven meals, appeared here.

Since then I have baked an oven meal which I think she would enjoy and which would put her automatically-controlled oven to good use.

The only flaw is that this meal will serve five people, so D. F. F. will have to reduce the quantities, if it appeals to her.

Baked Beef Hash With Eggs
Catsup
Creamed New Carrots
Tossed Green Salad
Rhubarb Crisp Pouring Cream
Coffee

BAKED BEEF HASH with EGGS

Three cups minced cooked beef (or use canned corned beef), 3 cups cooked diced potatoes, ½ cup cooked diced new beets, ½ cup Spanish onion (put through grinder with the beef), ½ cup leftover beef gravy or stock, ¾ cup rich milk or thin cream, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1½ teaspoons salt (or a little more). Press into generously buttered large casserole, making 5 very deep depressions at even intervals, using large spoon. Bake at 400 deg. Fahr. for one-half hour, then drop an egg into each depression and bake 12 minutes longer — with top oven turned on—or until egg whites are set. Sprinkel eggs with paprika and garnish sides of casserole with parsley.

EMEM'S RHUBARB CRISP

Cut 1 lb. young pink rhubarb into 1-inch pieces and spread in bottom of deep pie plate. Add 1 cut up large naval orange and the grated rind from it. (For those of you who have a sweet tooth I would advise sprinkling over the fruit 2 tablespoons granulated sugar at this stage.) Mix together 1 cup unsifted flour, ¾ cup sugar, and cut into them ½ cup butter or margarine with pastry blender until it resembles coarse meal. Press this topping over the fruit and sprinkle generously with cinnamon. Bake while baked beef hash is baking OR better still, bake at 350 deg. Fahr. until juice bubbles around edges and crusty topping is golden. Serves 5, and everyone of them will say it's fine — if they are like my crowd.

QUESTION: Could you assist me in locating a recipe for preserving mushrooms by the canning method? With such lovely weather we are bound to have a good yield soon. Mrs. Del. H.

ANSWER: I would not recommend canning mushroms unless you have pressure cooker.

CANNED MUSHROOMS

Small mushrooms are preferable, but if medium to medium-large ones are available cut them in halves after washing. To wash remove slice from bottom of stem and scrub under running water. To prevent discoloration drop mushrooms in solution of 4 cups water and 1 tablespoon vinegar, but do not leave them there longer than 10 minutes or they will become soaked. Blanch by parboiling in boiling water for 3 minutes, immediately skim out and immediately immerse in clean cold water. They should not be exposed to air while hot. When they have cooled, fill into sterile jars or plain tin cans, and fill to within ½ inch of top of jars or 3-16 inch of top of tin cans, with brine made from water in which mushrooms were blanched and to which you have added salt in proportion of 1 tablespoon to each 4 cups liquid. Seal. Process in pressure cooker, pint jars or cans 20 minutes at 240 deg. Fahr. Cool as soon and as quickly as possible. If tin cans are used they should be immediately immersed in cold water bath to chill.

6—In Memoriam

BROOKS—In loving memory of Mrs. Vera Brooks, who passed away May 19, 1953.
Oh, what would I give to clasp your hand;
Your dear, kind face to see;
Your loving smile, your welcome voice,
That meant so much to me.
No one knows the silent heartache,
Only those who have such can tell
Of the grief that is borne in silence
For the one I loved so well.
—Ever remembered by her husband, Harry.

BROOK — In memory of Mrs. Vera Brook, who passed away May 19th, 1953.
Only a memory of bygone days,
And a sigh for a face unseen;
But a constant feeling that God alone
Knows just what should have been.
—Sadly missed by Mother, Dad, Sister and Brothers.

Gone from us, but leaving memories
Death can never take away.

—Fondly remembered by Dad, Mom, and brother Doran.

FAULKNER — In loving memory of our dear grandson, Danny M. Faulkner.
We do not need a special day
To bring you to our minds;
For the days we do not think of you

We'd give it, yes, and more
To see the face of Danny dear
Come smiling through the door.

Eisenhower Refuses To Relax Order

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today he has no intention whatsoever of relaxing or rescinding his secrecy order that led to suspension of the McCarthy-army hearings.

Eisenhower told a press conference he hopes the hearings will resume and continue until the key principals have had a chance to bring out all the facts, and let the chips fall where they may.

The president strongly indicated the army was acting on its own —rather than on White House orders—in the events which led up to the head-on clash between high army officials and Senator Joseph McCarthy.

He said Army Secretary Robert Stevens undoubtedly will make a statement about what Eisenhower called the dissociation between the army and higher levels of the administration.

PRESIDENT SURPRISED

The president said he was astonished to find his secrecy order of Monday had been used as a reason or an excuse to suspend the hearings.

He said one of his main purposes in issuing his order was to keep the televised hearings on the rails, to keep them from wandering off into a side issue.

Eisenhower's order forbade army counsellor John G. Adams, who was on the witness stand at that time, from giving details of a Jan. 21 meeting at which the army's problems with McCarthy's Senate Investigations Sub-Committee were discussed.

John Adams had said previously that Sherman Adams, top assistant to the president, advised him at that meeting to draft a written record of the army's difficulties with McCarthy over alleged requests for special treatment for Pte. G. David Schine.

The televised hearings were suspended shortly after the Eisenhower secrecy order was issued to try to get the president to withdraw, modify or at least clarify it.

McCarthy contends he will be unable to present his case unless he can show what role White House officials may have played in the army's bringing of "pressure" charges against him and aides Roy M. Cohn and Francis P. Carr.

Obituary

PERCIVAL SIMPSON

A resident of Peterborough for 43 years, Percival Simpson of 315 Mark St., died in hospital Tuesday, after a short illness.

Born in Reading, England, Mr. Simpson came to Canada in 1911 and had lived in Peterborough ever since. He is the son of the late Andrew Simpson and Mary Ham.

Mr. Simpson was a self-employed brick-layer. He was a member of the Pentacostal church. During the First World War, he served with the Artilley, 2nd Field battery in France.

He is survived by his wife, the former Hazel Crow; two daughters, Mrs. E. McDonald, (Irene), Mrs. W. Parnell, (Eva); one son, David L; two sisters, Mrs. H. Ellison, Mrs. J. J. Cunningham; two brothers, Louis and Jack; and seven grandchildren, all of Peterborough.

Funeral services will be held at Kaye funeral home, Friday, at 2:30 p.m. The Rev. F. H. Parlee and the Revv. Dr. N. D. Patterson will officiate. Burial will be in Little Lake cemetery.

National Head Visits City Jaycees

"Jaycees are 'characters with character'," said Harry F. Smith, National President of The Junior Chamber of Commerce, addressing the Peterborough membership Monday night at Dyncourt Manor, Lakefield.

Through leadership training and community betterment programs, said Mr. Smith, "the young men of Canada, the Jaycees, are preparing for the future when they will take leading roles in the life of their community. This month Jaycee President Smith will complete his coast-to-coast visitation program, a tour which at one point saw him in 15 Junior Chamber districts across ten provinces in a period of five weeks. At the present time there are 270 Junior Chamber organizations in Canada with a membership of 25,000 young men.

Attending the May dinner meeting were ten prospective members of the Peterborough unit and President Smith took advantage of the opportunity and gave a brief outline of the structure of the Junior Chamber in Canada. At the present time of the 15 regions or districts in the organization six are comprised of French-speaking members.

TWO DIVISIONS

Basically, said Mr. Smith, the Junior Chamber program consisted of two divisions: Leadership Training (effective speaking, business administration and sales courses) and Community Betterment programs (traffic safety, beautification projects, civic study groups). Participation in Junior Chamber programs is a virtual "college of knowledge" for young men, he said.

Among outstanding persons who "admit they got a start in the Junior Chamber," said President Smith, were United States Vice-President Richard Nixon, Governor Harold Stassen, A. D. P. Heeney, and Don McKay, mayor of Calgary.

President Smith explained to the prospective members the Jaycee Creed: that faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life, that the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations; that economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise, that government should be of laws rather than of men, that earth's great treasure lies in human personality, and that service to humanity is the best work of life.

Region VI President Les. Groombridge introduced the National President and a vote of thanks was extended by Peterborough Vice-President Tony Burns.

Elected by acclamation to the executive were President, Steve Evans; Vice-President, Al. Tingley; Treasurer, T. Miller, and Executive Secretary, Doug. Vaisey.

Prospective members at the meeting were Don Armstrong, Al. Crowley, Stewart Brown, Deb. Davis, Don Lech, Bill Deyell and guest Don Eady.

New Type Fluoride Found Very Effective

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A Bloomington, Ind., dentist reported Tuesday a new type of fluoride treatment has reduced tooth cavities 60 to 70 per cent among children six to 15 years old.

Dr. Joseph C. Muhler, who conducted a 10-year research in Bloomington and Marion, Ind., reported its results for the first time Tuesday to the Indiana Dental Association.

Muhler said the 60 to 70 per cent cavity reduction was found in the teeth of 2,500 children using tin fluoride. The earlier sodium fluoride treatment, he said, brought cavity reductions averaging only 30 to 40 per cent.

He told the dentists the newer method has been found to be 9 per cent effective in stopping development of tooth cavities for two years among children. The cost of treatments is fairly inexpensive, he said.

Widow Seeks Damages, Costs From Fatality

The widow of a man killed in a freak motor accident near Janetville December 14, 1951, was in Supreme Court Tuesday asking $50,000 damages, funeral expenses and costs from two involved in the fatal smash.

Lloyd Bert Strong, who lived with his wife and two children at his brother's farm near Bethany was instantly killed when the car in which he was a passenger struck the rear of a truck stalled in a driving blizzard. A piece of iron was detached from the truck by the impact, hurtled through the windshield towards the right front seat where he was sitting.

Strong was a passenger in a car driven by Wilson Staples of Janetville. The truck was operated by Arthur Ellis of Nestleton while a third car, parked on the opposite side of the road, was driven by Thomas Staples (no kin to Wilson) of Bethany.

T. J. Carley is acting for Strong's widow, while Alex Elliott and E. H. Silk are representing Thomas Staples and Arthur Ellis respectively.

The day of the accident was the first and only time Strong had been a passenger in his car Wilson Staples testified. He said that Strong was a substitute for a man who usually commuted to the General Motors plant in a car-pool with him each day, while Strong was usually a member of another pool.

Passage to and from the plant, roughly a 60-mile round trip, passed without incident, Staples testified. But when Staples was to get off at his corner, he decided to drive 12 miles into Lindsay with Staples and three others. It was on the way back from the Lindsay trip that the accident took place.

Other passengers in the car, all of whom suffered injuries, were Neal McNeil, Jack Hannah and Ray Stinson, all co-workers of Strong and Staples at GM.

ZERO VISIBILITY

It was snowing heavily, an east wind was blowing strongly, and visibility was practically nil at the time of the accident, Staples testified. He said he rounded the crest of a knoll and noticed what he thought were headlights proceeding from the south on east side of the road.

Blinded by these lights, and unaware at the time that the car was stopped, Staples said he failed to notice a "dark object" directly in front of his car until he was 20 feet away. This was the truck driven by Arthur Ellis which, Staples testified, had no lights.

Staples then said he pulled to the left but his front right fender struck the left rear side of the truck, dislodging the piece of iron and killing Strong. The truck was driven ahead by the impact. Staples swivelled around and struck the car driven by the other Staples, Thomas, and ended up in the east ditch.

Earlier, Mrs. Strong, the former Marian Sanderson of Wilberforce, answered questions from all three solicitors about the Strong family relationships, and the circumstances surrounding the car pool. She said that she, her husband and her two daughters were, at the time of the accident, living at her brother-in-law's farm.

Her husband's normal mode of travel, said Mrs. Strong, was to take his 1945 truck into Pontypool, then commute to Oshawa from there. She said he paid $10 weekly for his rides to Oshawa.

She told Mr. Carley that she was married in Peterborough in 1947, had had two children, and was at her father-in-law's home at the time of the accident. She was expecting a third child, born only a week after the accident.

Mr. Elliott asked several questions concerning family financial arrangements when the couple was living first with Mr. Strong's parents, then with his uncle and finally with his brother. At the home of brother Roy Strong, they had an upstairs suite rent-free.

Gordon H. T. Farquharson, counsel assisting Mr. Silk, established that Mr. Strong was in the habit of riding into Oshawa, but that this was the only time he had travelled with Wilson Staples. (Staples testified that he knew Strong only slightly).

First witness was the paymaster of General Motors who testified that Strong had been employed regularly since July 3, 1950, that he was above average in attendance and that his hourly wage was $1.47.

Staggering Man Too Drunk To Drive—Cadi

"In my opinion a man who staggers is too intoxicated to drive, especially in the traffic we have to-day," commented Magistrate W. R. Philp, QC, in court Tuesday when he sentenced Thomas O'Connor, 189 Reid St., to seven days in the county jail for drunk driving. O'Connor's car was impounded for three months.

Lakefield's chief of police, Price Morris, told the court that he had arrested O'Connor at the scene of a minor collision in Lakefield on the evening of May 3. He said that O'Connor had smelt strongly of alcohol and was unsteady on his feet. A companion with O'Connor had been well intoxicated.

An unopened bottle of wine had been found in the O'Connor car.

ARGUMENT

Lawyer Donald Bark, representing O'Connor, asked the chief if there had not been an accident in progress when he arrived on the scene. The chief replied that there had been a fairly heated argument going on between O'Connor and the driver (a woman) of the other vehicle involved. Mr. Bark thought that perhaps O'Connor, who admitted to having had four nips of whiskey, was excited at the time and had given the impression of being intoxicated. However, chief Price failed to agree.

"You didn't have to assist O'Connor when he walked?" asked Mr. Bark.

Chief Price: "He could walk, but he didn't want to go the same way as I was going."

O'Connor testified to having consumed four nips of whisky during the afternoon. However, he considered that he was quite capable of driving his car. He said that the accident had been a very minor one, involving only a few dollars damage.

Crown Attorney John A. Bradshaw considered that the degree of intoxication should not be judged by the amount of damage in any accident.

Magistrate Philp: "As I see it, the test of an intoxicated man is whether he is able to drive a care safely."

No Recollection Collision, Found Guilty Of Charge

Although he denied any knowledge of a minor side-swipe collision on Highway 28 on the night of April 15, Robert Knox, Dean St. Lakefield, was considered guilty of driving without reasonable consideration for other road users and fined $10, costs $26.55.

Keith Tetford told the court that he had been driving north along Highway 28 and had been slowing down to let a friend out of his car at a laneway. Knox's car had come towards him on the wrong side of the road.

"When it seemed that he was going to get back on his own side of the road, I veered out to the left and he scraped past on my right, scratching the right fender and part of the door", testified Tetford. The witness then told of turning quickly around and chasing the Knox car into Lakefield, where he was able to obtain the licence number which was given to police. This evidence was supported by a passenger in the Tetford car, Ronald Mason.

Lakefield police chief Price Morris said that he had visited Knox at his house later the same evening. He had formed the opinion that Knox had been drinking, but he was not intoxicated.

Knox told the court that he had been returning from Young's Point. The night had been foggy and he had been following the centre line of the road. He said that the lights from Tetford's car had blinded him and that he swung to the left to avoid a collision. He had not realised that his car had scraped the Tetford vehicle.

FIRST INDICATION

"The first indication I had that there had been an accident was when Price Morris came to my house", he added.

Crown attorney John A. Bradshaw QC asked Knox what time he had spent at the South Beach hotel. Knox replied that it may have been about an hour and a half.

Mr. Bradshaw: "So you had some beer and you were following the centre line . . . and it seemed kind of foggy to you?"

Knox: "Well, yes."

The magistrate considered it possible that Knox might have been temporarily blinded by the lights and had pulled over to the side of the road. However, the natural thing for a motorist to do, would have been to pull over to his correct side.

Says Canadians Being Exploited

TORONTO (CP)—C. H. Millard, Canadian director of the United Steel Workers' Union (CIO-CCL), said today that a trade union contract signed in Washington to cover Canadian workers on the $300,000,000 trans-Canada pipeline was an "exploitation of Canadian labor."

He said contracting Canadian workers to $1-an-hour wage before work was begun was "taking advantage of the unemployment situation."

An addendum to an agreement signed by U.S. leaders of the International Hod Carriers and Laborers' Union (AFL) and chief of the main U.S. pipeline contractors ties Canadian workers to a lower wage, Mr. Millard said.

Citizens May Be Asked To Vote On $100,000 For Renovation Of Public Library

Peterborough ratepayers will probably be asked to vote next December on whether or not the city should issue debentures for $100,000 to cover the cost of extensive renovations to the public library.

Actually, $100,000 is the maximum the library board estimates it would cost to carry out the work they have in mind. It could cost less; but the feeling at Monday night's city council meeting was that approval of the ratepayers should be obtained before the expense of drawing up detailed architect's plans and specifications was undertaken.

The $100,000 maximum estimate is based on sketch plans which last year's council authorized the board to have prepared. These were discussed at a joint meeting of council and the board last Wednesday, when board members agreed the proposed plan was the best solution to the overcrowding and lack of facilities in the building as it stands.

Library board chairman Herb Bradburn and librarian Bill Graff attended Monday night's council meeting and afterwards were called in to a committee meeting of the whole council.

Mr. Bradburn told council the board was anxious to know whether or not council approved the project before they went any further with their plans or before they decided to ask the ratepayers to vote on it.

He asked council to have the matter put to a vote of the people and, at the same time, support the board's contention that the renovations are necessary if the library is to give adequate, up-to-date service to the city.

Council adopted a suggestion by city clerk E. A. Outram to ask the library board for a formal resolution to this effect in writing. Ald. Harold Rehill said the resolution should be ready for consideration at the board of works meeting next Tuesday so that council could prepare a formal resolution of its own for the regular meeting the following week.

Mr. Bradburn said he expected a special board meeting could be called this week.

The board's proposal is for the city to issue 20-year debentures to cover the cost. The renovations should meet the needs of the library for at least that period.

Mr. Graff said the provincial director of library services had assured him the province would grant 20 per cent of the annual cost of retiring the debentures, including carrying charges.

However, there was some doubt as to whether the board would be able to apply some $15,000 it has available to the cost of renovations. It was thought at Wednesday's meeting that this amount could be used.

Subsequent perusal of records, however, had indicated that this amount constituted the Charlotte Nicholls endowment fund which was earmarked for maintenance of the property. Using it for renovations might entail a violation of the terms of Mrs. Nicholls' will.

In any case, Mr. Graff pointed out, use of the amount for capital expenditures would deprive the board of the interest from the endowment and the difference would have to be made up in the city's annual appropriation to the library for operating expenses.

In regard to whether or not the question should be voted on by the ratepayers, Mr. Graff said it would not have to be put to a vote if city council voted the expenditure and the municipal board approved it.

Mr. Outram, however, said the municipal board could dispense with a vote of the ratepayers on such a money bylaw, but they seldom did. Mr. Bradburn said the library board didn't anticipate municipal board approval without a vote of the ratepayers.

Rising Rivers Threaten B.C. Interior

Anxious Residents Sandbagging Against Floods

VANCOUVER (CP)—Public works crews working round the clock in British Columbia interior held a tenuous grip on swollen rivers and streams Wednesday as the threat of a major flood mounted.

As anxious residents sandbagged rushing creeks in the Kootenays near Nelson, trucks carrying men and equipment were dispatched from Princeton to check a breakthrough on the Similkameen river.

There was no immediate danger reported in Princeton, but a number of fruit orchards and side roads to the south were inundated. Some small bridges were also reported to have been swept away by the debris-clogged creeks.

Near Nelson, the main southern trans-provincial highway was reopened Wednesday night after a brief closure caused when creek spilled over the roadway.

In the east Kootenays, Mark creek overflowed its banks at one point within the city of Kimberley, sending muddy water swirling into some side streets but was quickly brought under control.

CREEK CONTROLLED

Cottonwood creek, which ran out of control at a point two miles south of Nelson, was still being held Wednesday night after flowing through one house and washing out a side road serving residents across the creek.

Residents sandbagged weak points along the creek banks and public works crews poured in tons of fill in an effort to deflect it back to its course.

One road in the area remained closed between Curzon junction and Kingsgate on the international boundary.

Officials throughout the B.C. interior reported a "serious" deterioration of conditions as gravel banks and dikes were undercut and eroded by the waters.

TEMPERATURES HOLD KEY

Day-time temperatures, which have been in the mid 80's for most of the week, hold the key to developments within the next few days.

The gravest threat in the Pacific northwest exists at Bonners Ferry, Idaho, where the turbulent Kootenai river climbed to the 33.1 foot level Wednesday night—almost flood stage. Some 40,000 acres of farm land in the area are threatened.

A state of emergency has been declared, and civilian volunteers and army engineers have been working steadily building up dikes.

The rate of the river's rise slackened somewhat Wednesday as the water spread out over a wider area. It is expected to reach its runoff crest Saturday.

BRIGHT LANDS OF THE KAWARTHAS may show some backwardness in growth this year but farmers are quite satisfied with current cool weather conditions. Seeding, for the most part, is finished and work is completed on all but the very lowest lands. The above scene is from the southwest corner of Smith township looking southwest towards the rolling wooded Cavan country in Victoria county.

Indications France Joining Pact

U.K. Participation Not Essential For Asian Security

PARIS, France (Reuters)—Clear indications that France is ready to join the United States in a southeast Asia alliance without Britain were reported by diplomatic sources here today.

The reports followed President Eisenhower's statement Wednesday that British participation is not essential for the Asian security pact proposed by the United States.

Talks between United States and French officials on the proposed aliance have not been attended by Britain, though Britain has been informed of developments.

Britain so far has refused to commit herself on the alliance question while East-West negotiations at Geneva are still in progress.

ANTI-RED PAPERS CRITICAL

French right-wing newspapers today were silent on Eisenhower's Wednesday declaration. But the left-wing press was strongly critical, led by the anti-Communist Franc Tireur.

Franc Tireur said bluntly that exclusion of Britain might mean "the Asian alliance will consist of American and a little piece of France" — the three associated states of Indo-China. It said critically that this was the first time a U. S. president had raised the question of leaving Britain out of an international alliance.

It accused "the men responsible for American policy" of "aggravating the division and confusion in the Western camp and playing the game of the Chinese-Soviet bloc."

INTERVENTION

The left-wing anti-Communist newspaper Combat said the price of eventual American intervention

Asks Gov't Control Chain Store Loss Leader Sales

OTTAWA (CP)—The baking industry's national council charged today that sharp chopping of bread prices by chain stores operating under "price-war" conditions has killed off a number of bakeries in Canada.

It urged the government to set up a body to control loss leader sales, warning that "the rate of mortality in the baking business will increase" if excessive price-cutting of bread is not stemmed.

The council, in a brief to the restrictive trade practices commission, said chain stores in Ontario and Quebec are selling 24-ounce bread at 15 cents a loaf, compared to 19 cents by independent grocers and bakers.

One leading Montreal chain store last January offered sliced bread at 10 cents a loaf, with competing chains following suit. This had cut prices 47.2 per cent lower than those offered by independent grocers and door-to-door bakery salesmen.

GAVE BREAD FREE

The council said that some chain stores have given bread away free to attract customers. Two competing Brantford, Ont., chains had given away 6,000 loaves each during a six-week price-war. Brantford had 13 bakers in 1938; now there are three.

While the chain store price-wars are going on, the independent baker was losing customers. With his sales and profits reduced, he cannot afford reasonable wages to his staff and unemployment develops, the council said.

Undoubtedly, it added, there are chains which can cut bread prices and still make a profit. But Ontario and Quebec chains which could afford to sell most of their goods at 4.1 per cent below the independent stores, are selling bread at 21.1 per cent less.

CONSTANT LOSS LEADER

This, said the council, is because bread is being used as a constant loss leader.

The restrictive trade practices commission has started a country-wide study to find out whether loss leader selling, sales at reduced prices to attract trade, is causing harm to the economy and should be restricted by legislation.

Chairman C. Rhodes Smith said in opening hearings here Wednesday that Canada must avoid restrictions which impede changes in the public interest if the country is to maintain a dynamic economy.

House Approves Assistance For Veterans

OTTAWA (CP)—The Commons Wednesday approved the principle of a bill to provide financial and technical assistance to veterans who want to put their own labor into the construction of homes.

The bill, greeted by opposition members with the hope that it will be beneficial to veterans, was given second reading and referred to the Commons special committee on veterans affairs.

Veterans Minister Lapointe, explaining a motion preparatory to introduction of the bill, said the amendment to the Veterans Land Act will provide:

1. Training to give veterans a general knowledge of house building.
2. Supervision and guidance during actual construction.
3. Financing on an interest-free basis during actual construction.
4. Standard plans and drawings and free legal service.

PART-TIME FARMERS

He said the bill is particularly designed to help veterans who cannot establish themselves as part-time farmers on two-or three-acre lots. Assistance to this class of veterans now is provided in the Veterans Land Act.

Another amendment will provide a revolving fund of $8,000,000 to give additional financial assistance to part-time and full-time veteran farmers and fishermen. The loans, up to a maximum of $3,000 for full-time farmers already settled or to be settled, and $1,400 for part-time farmers and commercial fishermen, will bear interest of 5 per cent.

They will be payable in full during the remaining time of veterans existing contracts under present provisions of the act.

RCMP Uncover Drug Racket 9 Persons So Far Arrested

TORONTO (CP)—In simultaneous moves in Toronto and Montreal Wednesday the RCMP closed a drug-peddling trap they said may smash a narcotics ring with Canada-wide and international connections.

Nine persons, including two women, were arested in raids in the two cities. Officers said other arrests are expected shortly.

Months of work by an RCMP undercover agent, who fraternized with those in the drug racket to gain their confidence, brought about the arrests. The agent spent thousands of dollars buying heroin from peddlers to get evidence.

RCMP inspector J. E. Cruickshank said here the arrests will be a big blow to drug peddling rings across Canada. In Montreal, officers said the development was a "solid blow to drug peddling rings across Canada with their international connections."

HELD HERE

Arrested here were Max Beaver, Toronto used car lot operator, his brother, Louis (Red) Beaver, Donald Fox and Helen Jeffries. All are charged with selling drugs.

Arrested in Montreal were Walter Ward, 48, of Montreal, described by police as a key figure in the ring Maurice Dubuc, Montreal, and Jack Duchin, Sidney Short and Laurette Rochon, all of no given address. Ward and Laurette Rochon are charged with conspiracy, possessing and selling narcotics. The others are charged with selling.

Those arrested in Montreal pleaded not guilty Wednesday and preliminary hearing was set for May 26. All were released on bail; Duchin on $5,000, Ward on $2,000 and Dubuc, Short and Miss Rochon on $1,000 each.

Inspector Cruickshank said Henry Stefaniuk, now serving a three-year term in Kingston penitentiary, has also been charged in connection with the case and will be brought to Toronto.

Meanwhile, it was learned that United States immigration agents in New York arrested a Toronto man and were holding him on Ellis island for deportation proceedings in connection with the narcotics ring. The suspect's name was not available.

Diplomatic Ties Broken Off

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP) — Nicaragua announced today that it had broken off diplomatic relations with Guatemala.

Guatemala made its embassy in Mangua a distributing centre for Communist propaganda, Foreign Minister Oscar Sevilla Sacasa said in a note handed Col. Gabino Santizo Roman, the Guatemalan ambassador. The Nicaraguan note also charged the Guatemalan government had tried to aid Communist infiltration in other ways.

Nicaragua had hoped that the administration of President Jaco Arbenz would not follow "the Communist line" of its predecessor, the note said, but the "Communist attitude of the present Guatemalan government has been confirmed."

2 Boys Charged $16,000 Robbery

NORTH SYDNEY, N. S. (CP)—RCMP officers today arrested two teen-age boys in connection with the beating and $16,000 robbery of a 70-year-old candy store operator here Wednesday.

The boys, arrested on warrants charging assault and robbery, were identified as Gerry Fiander, 16, a son of the robbery victim, and 17-year-old William Banfield.

The RCMP said they were arrested in a taxi at St. Peters, about 50 miles from here, and that $3,000 was found. The taxi driver, who was not identified, had $700.

Police said the two will appear before a magistrate later today.

Clarence Fiander was blackjacked in his store in downtown North Sydney. He is in an oxygen tent in hospital, and is severely mutilated about the head.

Trade To Russia Increasing

OTTAWA (CP) — Canada's exports to Russia may rise to a seven-year high this year mainly because of one controversial item —rayon woodpulp—which, experts say, can be used either for textile production or gunpowder.

Disclosure that Russia is buying woodpulp from Canada was made in a parliamentary return Monday, stating that the government has authorized the export of 9,850 tons to the Soviet since last January.

At Victoria, Prof. Lewis Clark of the Victoria College chemistry department, pointed out that this item can be used in munitions production, particularly in small arms ammunition.

But federal officials said today that this export does not mean Canada's ban on the movement of strategic goods to Communist countries is broken.

They maintained that the item is not strategic; that there are better materials for small arms ammunition; and that Russia is exporting cotton linters which also can be used for the same purpose.

Canada last year shipped $478 worth of goods to the Soviet, just slightly higher than the $421 in 1952.

Increased Air Action Off Formosa Island

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — A sharp increase in aerial action off China's Chekiang province during the last few days has stirred speculation that the Communists may be preparing an attack on island bases held by Nationalist forces off the coast.

A Nationalist official today said there is no indication that an invasion is near, but acknowledged that stepped-up aerial attacks are aimed at disrupting any plans the Communists may have.

The official also acknowledged that a Red invasion could come with little advance warning.

The most important of the bases is Quemoy, just off the China coast across the Formosa channel.

Drowned In Creek

KINGSTON (CP) — Charles McConnell, 62, was drowned Wednesday night when he fell from a small boat in a creek near his home in Odessa, eight miles west of here. His body was recovered.

Eludes Searchers Submarine Reported Lost

LONDON (Reuters)—A British submarine taking part in naval manoeuvres dodged its pursuers so successfully today that the admiralty reported it missing and ordered a mammoth rescue operation.

Planes, ships and deep-sea divers were preparing to go into action when the submarine Scorcher resumed radio contact, reporting it had surfaced and that all was well.

The admiralty explained the alarm went out after two frigates tracing the Scorcher lost sight of two small buoys the submerged submarine was towing as a safety identification measure.

Earlier reports that the Scorcher, carrying 50 men; had sent out a distress signal before vanishing were denied.

The frigate commanders, fearing an underwater disaster, quickly dropped signal charges asking the elusive submarine to surface.

SCORCHER STAYED HIDDEN

But the Scorcher, far away and out of contact, stayed in hiding for 90 minutes while anxious naval officials ordered full-scale rescue operations.

Evening newspapers had already come out with huge headlines "British Submarine Lost" when the Scorcher finally picked up frantic messages and reported itself in normal working order.

Seven Forest Fires Burning In Ontario

TORONTO (CP) — The Ontario department of Lands and Forests said today seven forest fires are burning in the province but all are under control.

Eight others have been put out during the past 24 hours and hazard is from "medium to high across the province."

Fires now being fought are located in the Swastika, Pembroke, Sault Ste. Marie, Parry Sound and Sudbury districts.

Tucker Criticizes News Reports

OTTAWA (CP)—Walter Tucker, (L—Rosthern) chairman of the Commons veterans affairs committee, today reproached two Ottawa newspaper for "misinterpreting" the evidence given before the committee Wednesday by the Canadian Legion.

He referred to the headline in one of them which stated that the legion brief "flayed" the pension commission for delay in granting certain pensions.

"I feel that the legion brief made it clear that it was not attacking the commission but was pointing out the odd case of delay," he said.

H. W. Herridge (CCF—Kootenay West) said he agreed the headline "did not reflect the opinion of the legion brief."

Howard Green (PC—Vancouver-Wuadra) protested the chairman's remarks. He said, "We still have a free press in this country; they can come into this committee and make any report they see fit. The pensions commission shouldn't be so thin-skinned."

He added that he felt Mr. Tucker had "gone a long way out of his sphere as chairman to try to set the press right."

First Fatality In Three Weeks

TORONTO (CP) — A road smash near Sand Pit hill, between Niagara Falls and St. Catharines, in which Richard Pirie, 25, of Niagara Falls, was killed early today broke a three-week no-fatality record on the Queen Elizabeth way.

Ontario provincial police are patrolling the highway near Aldershot 24 hours a day in a campaign to stop speeding in a two-mile 30-mile-an-hour zone.

Police also are using a plain black car to spot speeders on the 50-miles-per-hour highway between Toronto and Burlington, a 28.6-mile stretch which claimed 259 accident victims in the first four months of this year.

After the safety drive started three weeks ago, there was neither a death nor a serious accident on the super-highway until today.

Staff inspector W. H. Clark said today the reduction in accidents was due to the check on speeding.

Did Not Promise To Cede Gibraltar

LONDON (Reuters)—Prime Minister Churchill today denied that any promise had been made during the Second World War to cede Gibraltar to Spain.

He was replying to a question by Ernest Davies, Labor, about an article published last week by Gen. Franco, under a pen name, which said that when Britain's war position was grave, Churchill promised the Spanish ambassador "the return of the fortress of Gibraltar if Spain remained neutral."

Churchill said: "No promises to cede Gibraltar to Spain were made during the late war."

Continue Search For Bushworker

COCHRANE (CP)—Ontario provincial police and 120 bushworkers today are continuing their search for a 19-year-old bushworker missing since Monday night in a heavily-forested area 30 miles northwest of this northern Ontario town.

Police said they will ask the Ontario hydro commission for the use of a helicopter in the search for Florent Roy of Rimouski, Que. An Ontario lands and forests department Beaver aircraft made a preliminary search of the area in Marven township without results.

Police said Roy apparently missed his way while returning to camp Monday night. Roy is experienced in bush life, police said.

Construction Lower In 1954

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP) — Raymond Brunet of Hull, Que., president of the Canadian Construction Association, said today that the number of construction contracts awarded so far this year is 16 per cent below that for the same period of 1953.

Federal government predictions that there will be a heavy volume of construction in 1954 "have not as yet materialized," he said.

"The level of activity is quite uneven in the various regions. Unemployment in the industry, although decreasing, is still appreciable and new undertakings are slow in getting started."

He said results of current wage negotiations in the construction trades will have an important bearing on whether prospects for the 1954 building program are realized. Owners needed assurance that construction costs would remain stable and in line.

Bus Crash Deaths Ruled Accidental

TROIS-RIVIERES, Que. (CP)—A coroner's jury Wednesday night ruled accidental the death of 15 persons killed in a fatal bus-truck collision at nearby Yamachiche Jan. 31.

The jury took only a few minutes to reach its verdict.

The accident happened at night when a Quebec-bound Provincial Transport bus and an empty car-transporter headed west collided. The bus burst into flames, but 10 persons, including the two drivers, escaped.

Coalition Forces Defeat Premier de Valera's Gov't

By TOM OCHILTREE

DUBLIN (AP)—John Costello's coalition today tumbled Prime Minister Eamon de Valera from power in the Irish Republic by winning control of the Dail (parliament).

Nearly complete tabulations of Tuesday's general election results showed De Valera's Fianna Fail (men of destiny) party had lost any mathematical chance of gaining a majority in the 147-seat Dail.

Fianna Fail polled about 10 per cent fewer votes than it did in the last general election three years ago. Observers attributed this decline to a housewives revolt against rising prices.

With eight seats outstanding—three of which will be balloted for later — the election gave the parties this strength in the dail:

Fianna Fail 61; coalition 74 — made up of 49 Fine Gael, 17 Labor, five Clann Na Talhan (farmers), and three Clann Na Poblachta (republicans); independents 4.

The indepenents are divided between De Valera and Costello.

The tabulation showed a gradual decline of Fianna Fail strength both in Dublin and rural areas. Running against the field, de Valera's men in the early returns dropped five seats, three to Costello's Fine Gail (united Ireland) party and two to Labor.

Both de Valera and Costello were re-elected personally, but the vote for the gaunt premier was only 12,679—1,171 under his 1951 total.

The prime minister's son, Maj. Vivian de Valera, held his seat in the Dublin north central constituency, but his popular vote was 3,357 less than three years ago.

The campaign was waged solely on domestic issues. Costello charged de Valera had not pursued a sufficiently vigorous domestic policy to improve the republic's economic lot.

ENGLEHART, Ont. (CP) — A sawmill was razed today by a $16,000 fire that also burnt 18,000 feet of lumber at the Beth Carr sawmill here, 20 miles south of Kirkland Lake.

The fire was first seen from a passing train. Cause of the blaze has not been established.

High Diplomats Hold Private Talks May Determine Fate Indo-China Parley

By EDDY GILMORE

GENEVA (AP)—High diplomats at the Geneva conference held a series of private talks today which may determine the fate of the deadlocked Indo-China parley. The United States is reported ready to write off the negotiations as a failure unless the Communists drastically change their line.

Formal negotiations were suspended for the day. The latest snarl was due to continued Red demands that the Communist "resistance governments" of the Indo-China kingdoms of Laos and Cambodia be invited to Geneva. The Western powers regard these as phantom regimes with no following and no right to representation.

One high Western source acknowledged that western diplomats have given some thought to the question of breaking off the talks. The source called it impossible at this stage to see any sign of the Communists agreeing to anything.

EDEN KEEPS TRYING

Britain's Foreign Secretary Eden meanwhile held private talks with Communist and other delegates in his continued attempt to get the conference moving.

Negotiations dragged to a standstill Wednesday night after three long closed-door sessions among the nine participating delegations. A proposal by Eden for a one-day "cooling off" period was accepted, and talks were suspended until Friday.

During the break in the formal talks, Eden, representing the Western Big Three, hoped to find a solution in conferences with Russia's foreign minister Molotov and the Communist Chinese premier-foreign minister, Chou En-lai.

When the Cambodia-Laos issue first threatened to stall the conference 10 days ago, Molotov agreed in a private talk with Eden to get on with the negotiations without acting on the Red demands to invite the resistance groups.

The Vietminh Communist leaders raised the question again this week. Western delegates, anxious to get the discussions back to ways of ending the fighting in Indo-China, flatly refused the renewed proposal.

Conference sources said Molotov also expressed hope Wednesday that the delegates might soon get down to a study of the actual drafts of armistice proposals, particularly their military aspects. This led some Western sources to believe that the Communists might again drop the issue of inviting the rebel groups in Laos and Cambodia.

The Western powers tried to limit discussion to key points at the opening of the private sessions. France's foreign minister Bidault, however, touched off the controversy over Laos and Cambodia by demanding that Communist forces be withdrawn at once from the two Indo-Chinese kingdoms.

A major provision of the French plan for ending hostilities in Indo-China was that the problem of Laos and Cambodia be separated from the proposed armistice in Viet Nam. The Communist plan called for an armistice for all three states to take place following political agreement.

Says French Officers Elected Defence

LONDON (AP) — Brig.-Gen. Christian de Castries was quoted in a Peiping broadcast Wednesday as saying his officers had elected to defend Dien Bien Phu to the end rather than heed French high command instructions to try to cut their way out and flee to Laos.

"The way of retreat had long been sealed," the captive French commander was quoted. "Death would await them if they tried to flee."

Chiang Kai-shek Begins Second Term

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — Chiang Kai-shek today began his second term as president of Nationalist China with a call for more military and moral support and a strong alliance of anti-Communist Asian countries.

Inauguration day was a festive occasion on this Nationalist island despite the threat of Communist air attack from the nearby Red-held mainland.

Thousands of exploding firecrackers provided a noisy background as Chiang and Vice-President Chen Cheng took the oath of office.

In a brief inauguration address, Chiang said his Nationalist armies can recover the mainland of China if given a "reasonable amount of moral and material support from the Free World and an adequate supply of the implements of war."

He also called on all Asian countries facing a threat of Red invasion to "establish on the Communist periphery a strong collective organization capable of collective action."

Chiefs of all diplomatic missions here were in the audience. Also attending was the United States defence secretary, Charles E. Wilson, and U.S. military and diplomatic representatives in Taipeh.

Court Hearing Evidence In Damage Suit

Evidence for the plaintiff was in by 12 o'clock noon today in a county action brought by Sidney J. Black of 406 Water St., a merchant and former alderman, against 18-year-old Carl Simmons of 704 Orpington Rd.

As a minor, Simmons had his father, Edward L. Simmons, as co-defendant.

The action arose as a result of a two-car collision shortly before 9 a.m. on December 1, 1952, at Aylmer and Edinburgh Sts.

Black testified that he was going north on Aylmer St. to keep a business appointment. A house, a parked car and a steep bank on the southwest corner prevented him from seeing Simmon's eastbound car.

"I drove into the intersection (estimated speed between 25 and 30 miles and hour) and looked to the right and saw nothing . . . then a flash out of the corner of my eye . . . I put on a spurt and pulled to the right (but it was too late) . . . The impact was back of the front door."

Black's car was spun around almost 180 degrees, ending up facing south on the west side of Aylmer St. It was knocked about two car lengths in distance, he said.

He stated that his own 1952-model car received $385.80 in damages, which is not contested by the defendants.

Commenting on Simmons' 1935-model car that had no front bumper and no grill or trunk lid, Black said: "As far as I'm concerned, I'd be afraid to drive it."

Defence counsel Alexander Fleming suggested that Black's attitude toward the old car might be due to the fact he was driving a Buick.

PC W. A. Scott, the investigating policeman, said Simmons' car was in "fair" condition.

The case is continuing.

The major reduction is intended for spring wheat on the Prairies. Prairie farmers reported they intend to cut spring wheat acreage to 23,791,000 from 24,648,000 last year.

Wide Divergence Of Opinion Between US-UK

LONDON (CP)—British reaction to President Eisenhower's latest statement about a southeast Asia security pact clearly shows the divergence of views between Britain and the United States on Far East policy.

At a press conference in Washington Wednesday, the president said the proposed security pact for southeast Asia might be formed even if Britain refused to participate.

Diplomatic sources in London feel the main difference in approach is one of timing. The U. S. wants to go ahead quickly with plans for an anti-communist alliance; Britain wants to go slow.

PRESS POINTS IT OUT

British press comment today emphasized the importance of timing.

"The president's words suggest that there is now a potentially serious divergence of view between Britain and the United States," says the Daily Telegraph, a Conservative newspaper. "Unless this can be corrected there is a danger that the Geneva conference might prove positively damaging to the Western cause, in addition to being merely non-productive."

The Times, independent, also says that the discrepancy in views seems to be in timing.

The Times adds that British policy, though it may seem dangerously unhurried, is "paying the two important dividends of winning the confidence of opinion in southeast Asia (and retaining some chance, however remote, of a settlement at Geneva."

But, Combat added, American infantry will not be sent to relieve the French "and France will continue to support the weight of the struggle without having any further reason to justify it."

STOPPED SHORT

Prime Minister Churchill said today talks between the United States and France on conditions for American military intervention in Indo-China stopped short of any further commitment by either country.

Churchill told the House of Commons: "It appears that the exchanges between the French and United States governments were of an informal nature and no further commitments have been entered into by either party."

LABORITE CRITIZES

The prime minister's statement came in reply to a question by Labor member Denis Healey asking when Britain was consulted about the talks in Paris and Washington.

Churchill said Britain "was not informed of these discussions in advance." But he added that Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden discussed the matter with U. S. Undersecretary of State Walter Bedell Smith during the week-end at Geneva and the British embassy in Washington now has been given a full account.

Healey criticized the exclusion of Britain from the talks between the U. S. and France. He said "it could only widen the unfortunate breach" between Britain and the other two Western allies "regarding a settlement in Indo-China."

French Planes Hammer Reds

HANOI (AP)—French fighters and bombers today maintained a steady hammering of Communist-led Vietminh troops moving from Dien Bien Phu eastwards towards the vital Red river delta.

French army spokesmen said their planes blasted fresh gaps in the key road east of Tuan Giao, 27 miles northeast of the fallen French Union fortress.

Fighters concentrated upon hitting big Molotov truck convoys carrying troops, war equipment and ammunition eastward.

Meanwhile, more helicopters and Beaver planes flew into Dien Bien Phu to evacuate French wounded. The French hope to complete in less than two weeks the removal of the 753 wounded the Vietminh said they would release.

Two of the heavier western oils losers were Pacific Petroleum and Peace River Gas.

Base metal trading was narrow in range. Uraniums, Bathurst and Manitouwadge issues were lower.

McCarthy Asks U.S. Aid Be Cut To Red Traders

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Styles Bridges (Rep. N.H.) said today that his appropriations committee will make a "searching inquiry" into the extent to which Free-World allies have agreed to relax bans on trade with Red China.

Bridges' plan for an investigation of this issue came after Senator McCarthy told the Senate Wednesday that it would be "criminal folly" not to cut off United States financial aid to countries which ship "the sinews of military and economic strength" to the Communists.

ATTACKS BRITAIN

McCarthy singled out Britain in his attack, declaring that she planned to ship war weapons to the Chinese Reds. He quoted Peter Thornycroft, president of the British Board of Trade, as recently calling for a substantial relaxation of controls on goods except those "which would add directly and significantly to the Soviet bloc's military capabilities, especially of course in unconventional weapons." The senator interpreted this as an indication that Britain plans to ship "conventional" weapons.

McCarthy had barely finished his floor address before the foreign aid administrator, Harold E. Stassen, shot back with a statement that what the Wisconsin Republican senator said was "fantastic, unbelievable and untrue."

Stassen, who has tangled with McCarthy before, said "we are steadily building for peace under President Eisenhower's leadership." And in an obvious reference to McCarthy's now-recessed televised tangle with army officials, he declared McCarthy "is frantically reaching for diversionary headlines after the sorry spectacle of his record in recent hearings."

"PAINFUL" DISCUSSION

McCarthy, in what he said was a "painful and unpleasant" discussion of his own party's "shortcomings," called for the listing by Stassen of "every type of material which we have agreed that our allies can ship to our enemies."

Bridges said in an interview that the appropriations group, which passes on foreign aid funds, "already has taken cognizance of Stassen's statements indicating a weakening of the ban on trade with the Reds."

"We will want to go into this matter very thoroughly and see that the aid we are giving, or its equivalent, is not directly or indirectly filtering into Communist hands."

ACCOUNTING GIVEN

Stassen's statement said a full accounting of the administration's "successful administration of trade controls" was given in a recent report which portrayed Free-World trade with the Communist bloc as a whole as declining in 1953. While commerce with China crept up at least temporarily, he said, "the glittering prospect of a vast and lucrative trade" which traders envisioned with the Chinese mainland "was not materializing."

McCarthy said Congress should withhold foreign aid funds until the administration enforces what he said would be a practical "blockade" on the coast of China by telling U.S. allies "they will not get one cent of American money so long as they either ship goods to Red China or allow their ships to be used to carry cargoes to Red China." The U.S. has barred its traders from shipping to the Chinese Communists.

Neighbours Do Seeding

GUELPH (CP) — Although farmer Jack Glass of Orton, 16 miles northeast of here, is convalescing in a Toronto hospital after part of his left arm was amputated, he hasn't a thing to worry about as far as crops are concerned. His neighbors gathered Wednesday and with tractors cultivated and planted 42 acres of his land.

UN Water Rationed

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States delegates' dining room is not serving water with meals unless a thirsty diplomat asks for it. Because of a threatened water shortage New York city officials recently asked the restaurants in the city to omit water unless it is requested. UN dining room officials said they are among the first to obey this request.

Queen Mary Was A Gross Feeder

We are sorry to see that a new War of the Roses has begun, this time between Britain and the U.S.A. The National Rose Society of Great Britain has announced that in its forthcoming exhibition no rose of the variety named 'Lilibet' may be shown. Lilibet is an American rose—a very fine dawn pink floribunda—and it bears the name by which Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth was known in her childhood. The National Rose Society of Great Britain thinks that it is disrespectful for Americans to call a rose by the Queen's pet name.

* * *

We disagree. We do not think that it is disrespectful to call a beautiful rose by the name of a beautiful lady. And we must add that the name 'Lilibet' was popularised by the people of Britain themselves, in one of their frequent excesses of sentiment. Lilibet, we understand, was the late King's name for his elder daughter; if that name is not to be used by other people, the British should have set an example of restraint.

* * *

Anyway, it is too late in the day to fuss about the names of roses. For years, during our childhood, rose catalogues offered a variety called 'Queen Mary' after the consort of George V. This flower was flatly described in the particulars as 'a gross feeder'. We cannot recall that anyone ever objected, or even that the rose-growers noticed this apparently ungallant reflection upon the royal manners.

* * *

A while ago an order was given that in future no pubs might be named after members of the royal family, without permission. We cannot help feeling that this was a mistake, for loyalty may be very strong, without exhibiting itself in a dainty form. Suppression of any truly loyal outburst may be a mistake. And when the very friendly people of the U.S.A. show no desire to name roses, or anything else, after Britain's Queen, we think that the British people will have real cause for worry.

Depression Dammed

The economic condition of Canada today is vastly different from what it was during the bad Depression times of the early 'thirties. Then Canada had two legs—an American one and a British leg. She was only beginning to grow one of her own. She lived by trade, not by domestic consumption. As a consequence, she had few active resources of her own to fall back on when bad times came in the U.S. and Britain. Some people with morbid "recession" fears think that Canada is now even more dependent on foreign trade, and especially on American trade. They surmise, therefore, that if a depression comes in the States, it will be very quickly and very deeply felt in Canada.

We do not seek to minimize the intimate relationship of the American and Canadian economies, but wish to point out that Canada now has three legs. True, the American leg has grown bigger and the British one smaller, but the balance is more than redressed by the third leg, Canada's own. This country has more people to buy and consume its own goods (as well as to produce them), its resources are being richly and variously exploited, and the people of Canada have a greater backlog of prosperity than ever before. To change our metaphor, Canada can now go along better and farther and longer on its own steam that has been possible in any other decade of its history. Therefore, what happens in the States or Britain is not as overwhelmingly important to the Canadian economy as it was in the early thirties.

Here are examples. Canadians have bigger bank accounts than ever. There are very large pools of money (unemployment funds, social welfare funds and so on) to cushion the economy. And Canadian spending, even the spending of the Department of National Defence, is alone sufficient to provide work and money to fuel the wheels of industry and commerce. That department is spending two billion dollars a year—half the national budget—and, according to Mr. Claxton's statement this week, it will continue spending at this rate for several years to come. In addition to this sort of left-handed stimulus to the economy there are big capital works afoot: Ontario Hydro, the Seaway, new enterprises in the hinterlands. These will not stop with the first whiff of "recession" in the States.

The plain fact is that the Canadian economy is sound and its future bright. That is why American investment money has been pouring into this country at an astonishing rate, and why British investors are turning millions into Canada. They have faith in Canada and the Canadian people. Why should Canadians themselves not have confidence? Canada is so well bolstered now against a depression—and the economic plans and thinking of the Government are such that it cannot stand idly by and see economic hardship develop—that Canadians should have nothing to fear but their own faint-heartedness. We've got the goods, we've got the men, we've got the means; and we should have the determination to make our own future as bright as everybody else believes it will be. Be damned to depression, for depression is dammed by our own capacities.

Cheaper Rainmaking

For centuries, man has devoted much thought, time, and effort in an attempt to produce rain in arid regions. By dropping fine dry ice particles from an aeroplane, scientists have been successful in producing rain or inducing it to fall, when conditions were favourable. However, the usual methods are very expensive, and require certain cloud formations and conditions to be even moderately successful.

In Pakistan, there is an experiment being made at producing rain by a cheap method. The process is to "seed" surfaces on the ground with a rain-producing salt solution. The theory involved is that winds will carry the salt particles thousands of feet into the air, where they remain, in sufficient density, for enough time to cause drops to form in moisture-bearing clouds.

Rainmakers have been precisionists, (up to now) waiting for the right wind to bring the right cloud to the right place, then dropping the right substance into the cloud. The Pakistan experiment differs in that the effort is being made to modify the atmosphere sufuficiently to product rain when the right combination of conditions occur.

The man in charge of this experiment, Dr. Fournier d'Albe, while a cautious scientist, believes firmly that the salt process will produce rain. The Pakistan experiment will be watched by the world with more than passing interest, but not by this district in this wet spring. The experiment is being conducted under the auspices of U.N.E.S.C.O.

Camp Life

With the approach of summer and the end of the school year, many parents consider sending their son or daughter to a summer camp.

In every well-organized camp, there are wise counsellors, who are familiar with the problems of youth. These camps are of great value in eliminating any anti-social tendencies, and team play is emphasized. The spirit of "camaraderie" which is built up by this team work, is of the utmost importance to a growing child. From being in a group of his own age, in the performance of camp duties and activities, the children learn what they owe to their homes, parents, the community at large, and to the nation.

While the child is not conscious of it, there is a process of education present in camp activities. They learn nature and folk lore, become experts at swimming, canoeing, playing ball, and making things with their hands. They receive instructions in first-aid, life saving and resuscitation techniques, and are made more self-reliant, courteous, and considerate of others. Fortunately, few campers are aware of the "educational" aspect of camping, but it is present nevertheless. The President of a great U.S. university is credited with saying: "The summer camp is the North American Continent's most significant contribution to the field of Education."

A few weeks at a summer camp have become essential for the children of many families. Even comparatively young children will benefit greatly from the disciplined freedom that they find there.

THE ROYAL AND ANCIENT

Second Centenary At St. Andrew's

By
A Special Correspondent

TWO of the four Commonwealth golf teams taking part in the bi-centenary celebration tournament of the Royal and Ancient Club at St. Andrews next month are being seen in action this week. New Zealand played a representative Scottish side at Troon on Tuesday, while the Australians meet the Lothians golfers at Gullane today. These matches provide the visitors with serious match practice before they enter upon the Amateur Championship at Muirfield and also enable the knowledgeable Scottish critics to assess the strength of the tourists.

New Zealand had the formidable task at Troon of taking on six Scots, five of whom were in the team which retained the Home Unions amateur international title at Killarney last June. The odd man out, R R Jack, who was an international in1950 and '51, replaces S. B. Williamson who called off. The others are W. C. D. Hare, F. W. G. Deighton, R. C. MacGregor, J. R. McKay, J. C. Wilson. MacGregor and Wilson both played in the Walker Cup match against the United States last September, while Deighton is also a former Walker Cup selection. The non-playing captain is D. Cameron, one of the Walker Cup team selectors last year.

MAJOR D. A. BLAIR, the Scottish amateur champion, was not available for Troon, but will lead his country against South Africa at Old Prestwick on June 8, when the side will also include F. G. Dewar, Scottish champion two years ago, W. McArthur, another Carnoustie international and J. R. Cater, in addition to Wilson and Deighton. This will also be a foursome and singles match, but the game with Australia today is to be decided by singles only. The Lothians team include the internationals W. C. D. Hare and G. W. Mackie, as well as A. M. M. Bucher, who was nominated for the Killarney internationals but was not called upon to play.

✧ ✧ ✧

NEW ZEALAND'S champion D. L. Woon, led his country at Troon. One of many distinguished golfers who began as caddie boys, he has been the outstanding New Zealand amateur for several years, having also won the national title in 1950 and 1951. Last year, in a match between New Zealand and Australia at Sydney, Woon beat H. Berwick, who was Australian amateur champion in 1950 and New Zealand titleholder two years ago. Berwick is leading his country's team of six on the present tour.

Other members of the New Zealand side are B. M. Silk, T. J. Jeffrey, S. G. Jones, A. Gibbs and A. B. Timms. Silk has been in the front rank for 20 years, and won the first of his three national titles in 1934. A year later, he finished all square with J. McLean, the present Gleneagles Hotel courses professional, at that time rated among the best amateurs in the world, when they met in a match between New Zealand and Great Britain. Silk reached the last four of his country's championship last year, and so has retained his form remarkably well.

✧ ✧ ✧

GIBBS, the team captain, was national champion in 1948 and was defeated by Woon in last year's semi-final. Gibbs and Timms come from Otago and won an open foursome tournament last season. Jones was a member of the side that toured Australia two years ago while Jeffrey, a big hitter, has a sound reputation.

Australia also have a good and experienced side which should be able to give a good account of themselves in the numerous engagements they have taken on. They are making the longest stay of any of the Commonwealth teams, and will be in Britain until July 29, taking in the Amateur, the Open and a match with Wales, as well as visiting a number of famous clubs.

✧ ✧ ✧

THE PLAYERS are Berwick, P. Heard, J. Coogan, R. Stevens, D. Bachli, and W. Shepherd. Mr. S. Morpeth is the team manager and captain. Heard, son of a professional golfer, is the present Australian champion, and also held the title in 1951. He has a first-rate foursomes understanding with Berwick. Coogan, one of a family of Queensland golfing brothers, was runner-up in last year's State championship. Stevens, 1952 national title-holder, is the present South Australian champion. Bachli was national champion in 1948, and Shepherd is a former South Australian winner.

✧ ✧ ✧

CANADA'S six will only have time to play at Muirfield and in the R. and A. celebration event, for they are making a very brief visit, arriving today and leaving on June 6. The Canadians appear to possess the strongest side among the visitors, and it is being led by D. Doe, the runner-up to D. Cherry, the American Walker Cup player, in last year's Canadian amateur championship. Doe lost only on the home green after a tremendous struggle.

With him is W. McElroy, national champion in 1952; P. Farley, twice runner-up for the title; N. Weslock, who beat American Walker Cup star C. Coe in the match between Canada and the United States two years ago; D. Silverberg, who was defeated by Scot R. C. MacGregor at the 23rd hole in the quarter-finals of the Canadian amateur last year; and R. Fleming. The non-playing captain is Mr. G. B. Taylor.

Each of the four commonwealth golf unions has had to find funds in the region of $15,000 to defray the expenses of their teams, and it is a measure of the enthusiasm for the game that these costs are being met by the rank-and-file players in the four countries concerned.

A tremendous welcome is being given Commonwealth golfers, not only at the bi-centenary celebrations, where their presence helps to make a great event greater still, but everywhere they go. All golfers recognise the importance of this goodwill tour, and it is hoped that it will be possible to send teams from Great Britain to repay the visit.

CHIN REST

A countryman saw an article in a music shop, but could not understand the purpose for which it was used. "What's that thing for?" he asked an assistant.

"That, sir, is a chin rest," he was told. "It is used quite a lot by violinists."

The countryman gave a cry of joy. "Give me one," he said. Then after a slight pause, he added: "No, I'll take two. We've got the wife's mother staying with us as well."

An American Opinion:

Letters To The Editor

WORKING MARRIED WOMEN

SIR: I was amused to read a "Housewife's" opinion regarding a solution to overcome the unemployment problem. Fortunately, each person in this democratic country of Canada has the privilege to voice his views freely, but I beg to differ in this instance.

I myself, am a working housewife and would venture to say Mrs. Housewife that I could match your apple pie or meat stew or what-have-you anyday, and also have the satisfaction of knowing that I help to earn our daily bread as well as my husband.

Few men are pantywaist enough to sit behind an office desk typing letters and performing the duties common to a stenographer. I would feel badly if some child is hungry because his father needed my job. Firstly, few employers hire male stenographers (except maybe for court duties or similar types of work), and secondly, I know of no man who could support a family on the average stenographer's pay.

In my opinion your views belong to the Victorian age. Probably when you took the marriage vows you either entered a newly-built home given to you as a gift by a wealthy in-law, or settled in the homestead of your great-great-grandparents merely to keep the property in the family name and also avoid the expense of building a dream home of your own. On the other hand, perhaps your husband was one of Rockefeller's first cousins with a fat bank roll with which to begin your married life.

I feel very sorry for you, whatever your reasons may be, as you presumably have not, or never will, have the thrill of saving together for a future home and family.

We live very comfortably in a three-roomed apartment in no way resembling a dormitory. We have the best of furniture, none of which has a lien; we have no TV and no immediate desire for a set. We share a mutual interest in our apartment and I take pride in the home cooked meals which I prepare, and the cans leaving in our garbage principally bear the labels "tomato juice" or "orange juice," and of course, what woman, yourself included, "Housewife," doesn't have the odd occasion to have a hurried canned meal in order to attend an early engagement? No, Mrs. Housewife, I don't feel one bit at fault for the unemployment situation, and will willingly give up my job to some man if he wishes to take over and providing my employer would hire a man for the position.

A number of my friends, married women like myself, are sharing the same pleasure because each of us is contributing to the earnings for our future together. None by the way, myself included, have families yet. In the matter of working mothers, I entirely agree with "Housewife." I have always said "I will care for my own children if I am physically fit," but I know there are a goodly number of children who receive better attention by nursemaids than would be given them by their own mothers. Every person blessed with a child is not a born mother, but as I state, I wish to see the first tooth appear and witness my child taking his first step. This, however, is a free country, and as written in the foregoing, each person's views are of a different nature.

I leave you with another housewife's opinion, and I know that no one will ever take from me the pride and enjoyment I receive in contributing to our future life.

Sincerely,
"A WORKING HOUSEWIFE WHO IS PROUD TO SAY IT."

FRENCH-CANADIAN SENTIMENTS

SIR: In answer to "Cassandra's" letter of a week or two ago, I wish to bring forward some comments and let the readers draw their own conclusions. I do not intend to check each quotation he has put up, but I shall here expose the little I know of the situation.

The French-Canadian MP, Rene Chaloult, was elected as an independent member and, therefore, does not represent the majority in Quebec. Quebec's representation in Ottawa comprises two main parties: the Liberal and the Prógressive-Conservative. In this respect it is like most of the other provinces. Its provincial representation comprises also two main parties: l'Union Nationale and the Liberal. At both federal and provincial, the number of members non-adhering to any of the parties mentioned is so small as to be considered negligible.

The name of Paul Bouchard which has also been cited previously in this column by another writer using the pen name of "Elvira C. Smith" (if I have a good memory), is a name which seems fictitious to me or at least unimportant in Quebec. As a matter of fact, I had the opportunity a few days ago to meet three Quebecers (all French-speaking) and none of them knew anything about him.

The supposedly Action Nationale Liberale Party, supposedly led by Paul-Gouin, was a non-important one and of an eminently short duration; it is non-existing today.

I wish "Cassandra" writes back and proves that Cardinal Villeneuve gave birth to an idea of Quebec taking over Canada and then building up a "Republic of Canada." This does not seem like "Quebec clergy" at all. A look back in history would reveal the clergy's attitude in this matter. How about its attitude in the 1812-14 American campaigns and in the 1837-38 rebellion and ever since?

Really, generalizing as a lot of people are inclined to, I could suppose that Quebec shows facist tendencies as well as communist, nationalistic, isolationist, nazist, separatist, etc. I could even suppose that Quebec has a tendency to be more British than Great Britain, since Sir Wilfred Laurier was saying of himself that he was "British to the core" and Queen Victoria said of him that he was more British than any one else within her kingdom.

In regard to Quebec's request for a distinctively Canadian flag, it is a general desire, there, to see it as such, that is, without any allusion to the Union Jack or Fleur de Lys. But for those who wish to insert the Union Jack, due to a possibly legitimate sentiment toward their mother country, Quebec people are not in general opposed to it but they wish to put in along with it (if I may use the words of one who formerly wrote to the Editor under the pen-name of "Marcel France") a trait of their own racial origin, which to me is not a less legitimate sentiment.

I personally say that on the soil of Canada as well as on foreign soils, to represent Canada with the Union Jack is wholly harmful to the welfare of our nation.

I base this opinion on a remark made by our former governor-general Lord Tweedsmuir on October 10, 1937, while commenting on Canada: "Here is a sovereign nation which cannot receive any order from Great Britain, United States nor from any other source. Before pledging loyalty to the British Commonwealth, the Canadian has to be loyal to Canada and to his King; and those who deny it, are helping poorly the cause of the Commonwealth."

Are those who use the Union Jack contributing to the welfare of our nation? Are they helping the cause of the Commonwealth? They only serve to prove the saying of an English-speaking historian, that there still exist in Canada, a large number of 'citizens of the British Isles living in Canada.' They are contributing largely to create the idea which the Russian people still have of Canada, that is, of a country which is not even a nation of a second order.

Some are trying to avoid any discussion of the flag and national anthem, saying the whole question is unimportant. If it is unimportant, why make use of any flag at all? Why is it that Canada is about the sole nation in this world without any? Why is it that New Zealand and South Africa each have two flags and two national anthems, and are now favoring the choice of one only? Why is it that India has its own flag?

In regard to the national anthem, I suppose 'O Canada' is wholly rejected because its tune was arranged by Calixa Lavallee, a French-Canadian.

"MICHEL LE FRANCOIS."

Bible Message

(From The Authorized Version)

There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: the same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

Nicodemus said unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. (John 3:1-5.)

✧ ✧ ✧

For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God . . . The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God and joint-heirs with Christ (Rom. 8:14, 16, 17.)

✧ ✧ ✧

Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting, thou are God . . . For a thousand years in my sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and a watch in the night . . . O satisfy us early with thy mercy: that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. (Ps. 90:1, 2, 4, 14.)

A BRITISH OPINION

"Never seem to run into such a thing as a BEAUTIFUL spy these days."

Canada's Greatest Fighter Ace Credited With 31 Destroyed

By DAVE McINTOSH
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP) — What you always remembered about George Beurling was his eyes. They were blue and cold and at the centre of the pupils were icy pin-points like the tips of daggers.

Six years ago today George Frederick (Buzz) Beurling, Canada's greatest fighter ace of the Second World War, died in a pasture near Rome's Urbe airfield when his small Norseman plane crashed from 700 feet. Then only 26, he was on his way to Palestine to fight for Israel against the Arabs.

Beurling, always a "loner" and a killer, shortly before his death told an interviewer: "I'm a fighter pilot. I will drop bombs or fire guns from a plane for anyone who will pay me. And I will fly for the one who will pay me the most. Except the Russians. I don't like the Russians."

HERO OF MALTA

If ever the right job fitted the right man at the right time, it was flying for Beurling in Malta in 1942. All of Beurling's young life had led up to those six months on the George Cross island. After them, life was a restless, unhappy seeking for Beurling.

Born in Verdun, Que., Beurling learned to fly at 14, soloed at 16. He went to Portland, Ore., to learn aerobatics from the great German flier, Ernst Udet. When war came in 1939, he tried to join the RCAF and was turned down because he didn't have enough schooling. He then went to Britain on a cattle boat and joined the RAF.

He destroyed his first enemy plane while flying from England, then volunteered for Malta. Only 20, he added 28 planes to his score in six months and won the Distinguished Service Order, Distinguished Flying Cross and Distinguished Flying Medal and Bar. He received the DSO for his last sortie in which he knocked down four planes out of 80 attackers and bailed out minus part of one heel.

Later in England, he shot down two more to bring his final total to 31 destroyed. His record was never threatened by any other Canadian fighter pilot. Sqdn. Ldr. H. W. (Wally) McLeod of Regina had 21 kills; Wing Cmdr. J. F. (Stocky) Edwards of Battleford, Sask., and Sqdn. Ldr. Don Laubman of Edmonton 15 each.

"Combat flying is the only thing I can do well," Beurling used to say. "It's the only thing I ever did I really liked."

TRANSFER TO RCAF

Beurling transferred to the CAF when the RAF kept him instructing instead of letting him return immediately to operations. The RCAF shipped Beurling home for a Victory bond tour. He hated it.

Beurling never took to discipline. He knew he could fly and that he could shoot. Anything that stood in the way of his doing that was an annoyance.

He returned to civilian life in 1944. He was popular, especially with women. He was six feet tall with blonde hair and a lean, handsome face. He neither smoked nor drank.

Popularity and fame couldn't have mattered less to Beurling. He wanted to fight. He tried selling insurance. He barnstormed as a stunt flier.

He even tried marriage. Before he was married, he told his bride-to-be that he couldn't love any woman, that he loved only flying.

"She didn't believe me then but she did later," Beurling said. They were divorced a few months before his death.

Scots And UEW Go To Draw In Soccer Fray

UEW and Canadian Scottish went to a 2-2 tie in a City Soccer League fixture last evening at King Edward Park. The Scots took advantage of a slight breeze at their backs to drive hard and J. Daly scored within seven minutes. Strong and Hoyle were prominent for UE but Hammell went good in Scots' goal. J. Daly made it 2-0, but after a faulty clearance Payne got one for UEW. A penalty followed to UE but the resulting kick went high over the bar to leave the score 2-1 at the half.

There were some close calls in the second half at either end with the rival forwards showing plenty on the attack. Strong got the equalizer for UE. Daly and Attard had close misses and a changed decision by the referee nearly resulted in another UE goal. However both sides fought hard and it ended in the draw. Teams:

Scots — Hammell, Rice, West, Ballantine, Burnett, Caldwell, Attard, Daly, Wilson Gilchrist, Murray, Gremer, Sinmpson.

UEW — Kinaston Croll, Davis, Strong, Buchan, Dunn, Holt, Ryan, Payne, Campbell, Holroyd, Hoyle, Allan, Walk.

Referee, P. Taylor.

LAWN BOWLING

By HERB MARTIN

The 1954 season of the Peterborough Lawn Bowling Club will be officially declared open on Monday May 24—and as in former years it will be in the form of a mixed tournament, draw from the board at 1:30 o'clock. There will be no fee—the members being the guests of the board of directors.

This year we are celebrating the 25th anniversary on the present site and all of the committee have gone a long way to make this year a memorable one. An extensive schedule has been prepared and members can look forward to an active season.

All members be sure and be on hand to meet old friends and to make new ones.

It is expected that the schedule books will be distributed to members over the weekend.

Then men's schedule begins on Tuesday, May 25th.

Western Trotters Open Season

DRESDEN, Ont. (CP)—A field of 31 western Ontario trotters and pacers opened the harness racing season here Wednesday in one of the earliest starts on record.

Vi Hy paced the fastest mile of the meet—2:12 2-5—in the first race of 2:19 pace. But Day Direct took the second race with Vi Hy second.

Carter Chips paced the second fastest mile, running 2:13 1-5 mile in the second 2:22 pace. He finished last in the first.

Argyel Grattan, who finished third in the first of the free-for-all, trotted home a winner at 2:13 4-5 in the second.

Jimmie Champ was the only double winner of the meet. The horse, owned by Norm McIntyre of Charing Cross, took both events in the 2:25 pace.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

By CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

May hasn't yet meandered off the scene, but the footballers are lining up their oganization for the autumn. Annual meeting of the Orfuns is tonight at 7:30 in the YMCA, open to anyone interested, and Prexy Dr. oDn Aitken urges the public to attend. He'll have a grid film there as an entertainment feature of the gathering. Reports, plans, general discussion and election of officers for the year are on the agenda of the meeting. ORFU intermediate clubs hold a Toronto meeting on June 5 to arrange groupings, etc., and the local club will be represented by Gord Beatty, Don Bark and Bill Shadgett. A bit later on, the Orfuns will pick their coach for the 1954 campaign.

Bill Leggitt was named umpire-in-chief of the men's City Softball League this semester, with Cliff Smith and Len Williams also doing a regular stint of umping. Spare arbiters are Al Hempstead and Pat Calladine. No special attraction planned for the opening at seven tonight in the Bowl at the east end of Hunter St. bridge, TPT Petes playing Seabrooke's in the first fray, followed by UEW vs. Marines in the nightcap. Schedule was in last night's paper, showing twin bills each Tuesday and Thursday eve, with the odd game Saturday nights. The ground rules appear on the loop programs. There's an automatic three-game suspension in effect this year for players molesting umpires.

Two Tucked in the Bag

Trailermen feel pretty good after winning their two first OLA senior "A" games on the road, dumping the A's 10-9 in St. Kitts and downing Mounties 8-4 in Mimico. Denny Peterson really enjoyed rubbing it into the Mounties, who kept him sidelined all last lacrosse season. However, the Thorpe team can't do any coasting in their home start this Friday night in Miller Bowl against the Athletics, as the St. Catharines' crew would love to ruin the Peterborough opener in sweet revenge. Also, Ross Powless and Rog Smith would get a big bang out of helping beat their old teammates before a local crowd. Should be a hot gutted-stick scrap to start off the season up this way.

* * * * * *

Bunny Morganson of the Telegram remarks re lacrosse: "Peterborough have come up with another strong club. Russ Slater, the scoring smoothie, showed Mimico fans he can still score as he paced the champions to their 8-4 OLA win over the Mounties. While Mimico lost many scoring chances with poor shooting, they discovered that the Petes' all-star goalie, Moon Wootton, is still tops in his field. The OLA senior series committee meets Saturday at Mimico to settle several player tangles. Larry Rouse played for Hamilton Monday (when St. Kitts won) without the necessary waiver from Mimico, and there are at least four name players who are sitting out due to territorial mixups. Ken Croft and Norm Corcoran have been siged by Doug Cove of the Athletics."

Fireworks on May 24

There'll be a band and parade to the ball park Monday, May 24, to open the senior baseball season, Belleville Batas playing the Petes in a VOBL fixture at 2:30 in Riverside on the holiday aft. First tilt of the schedule for Vern Goyer's Quinte crew, the Petes having had one game already in Toronto last weekend. Joe Lowrey is debating whether to start Tony Kotowski or Junior West on the home slap this tussle, and we have no idea who takes the mound for the boys from Bella Villa, ye olde tyme arch enemies of the diamond. Curly Alberico advises that a "booster night" will be staged here on Monday, May 31, with Oshawa visiting. Gate prizes include a diamond ring from M. E. Knox, a fur coat from Wm. Lech, and bikes for girls and boys, latter to be accompanied by a parent.

* * * * * *

Bill Sisler, who will operate the ball school for minor diamondeers this summer, is seeking some Riverside Park improvements from Armar Butcher, which should be a big improvement. They include a major league type batting cage, batter's box and pitching mound with clay eight inches deep, scoreboard moved to right centre and repainted, a green centre field fence for better hitting vision, green dugouts, press box closer to the plate, foul lines cut in and infield manicured, nail drag, screener and leveller for the grounds, and a general new look to the park. He also suggests that boys in his ball school be admitted free to all senior games if accompanied by a parent — and we think that's a good idea. Ken Robinson is writing to the Ontario Athletic Commission asking for some minor ball equipment as a government donation.

Tiger-Cats Sign U.S. Footballer

HAMILTON (CP)—U.S. college football's lineman-of-the-year has been signed by Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

J. D. Roberts, 205-pound Oklahoma guard, has rejected offers made by Green Bay Packers who obtained him in the 1953 college draft and will play in the Big Four in 1954.

Last year the 20-year-old was named Associated Press, United Press and Fox Movietone "lineman of-the-year" and winner of the Outland Trophy, given annually to the outstanding guard or tackle in college football by vote of the Football Writers' Association of America.

Nails In Bat Ruled Illegal

CLEVELAND (AP) — Umpire Charley Berry ruled Al Rosen's favorite bat was illegal Wednesday after finding that it contained several small nails.

The bat became an issue as Cleveland Indians' first baseman stepped to the plate in the fifth inning of Wednesday's game with Boston Red Sox.

At the urging of Boston catcher Sammy White, umpire Berry took Rosen's bat, found the nails in a checked section at the heavy end, and tossed it to the Tribe dugout.

"I knew someone was going to catch up with this sooner or later, but I was going to keep it as long as possible," grinned Rosen later. "I've used this one practically all season."

Rosen's 38 runs batted in and his nine homers are reasons enough for his affection for the old bat.

"The bat started to check a short while back, and I put the nails in," Rosen explained.

Elgins Win 11-0 Against Terriers

GALT (CP)—St. Thomas Elgins went on an 18-hit spree Wednesday night as they blanked Galt Terriers 11-0 in an exhibition intercounty senior baseball game.

The Elgins shelled two Galt pitchers, tagging lefty Matt Gumeniak for five runs and 11 hits in seven innings. Mel Duncan, who took over in the eighth, was the victim of a six-run uprising.

Jim St. Louis paced the Elgins with three hits, including a two-run homer over the right field fence in the seventh. Jack Caffery, Toronto hockey star, pitched superbly for St. Thomas, allowing only six hits.

SHANTZ TO REST

DETROIT (AP) — Philadelphia Athletics' Bobby Shantz has decided to take a 30-day rest. The pitcher's sore left shoulder has failed to respond to various kinds of treatment. He injured it in the season's opener.

Seabrook's Take Opener Of Civic Softball League

Seabrook Electric and Bill's Lunch opened the Men's Civic Softball League season Wednesday night at the East City Bowl before a good crowd, despite chilly winds; and the Barry Seabrook's TV lads emerged victorious after a thrilling duel, 10-6. The nightcap was postponed due to light failure.

Al Conroy opposed Ellis Peters to start and finally earned the victory margin by dint of some hefty clouting coupled with a few costly Lunch errors, though the Monaghan Road lads battled to the finish. The veteran Tom Walton, former UEW ace, caught for the winners; rapped out a pair of bingles, scored a pair and drove in a brace, to star for the winners; while Elwood Little and Bruce Harris each hit safely twice, as well.

Howie Dalton, former city league star, played for Seabrook's and turned in a neat chore at first. For Bill's, Roger Wilson led the offensive with mighty clouts in the first and eighth that went for the circuit, the last with Evans aboard, and every man tried hard. There will be a twin bill Friday night.

Seabrooke Electric—Galley, 3b; Murray, ss; Hall, 2b; Dalon, 1b; Conroy, p; Harris, 1b; Walton, c; Little lf; Black, rf.

Bill's Lunch—Bloom, lf; Pagett, 1b; Evans, 3b; Wilson, ss; Davis, rf; Bradley, 2b Hewie, cf; Peters, p; Brierly, c.

Umpires—Stew Richardson, Len Williams.

Poor Response Athletic Funds

TORONTO (CP) — Financially speaking things don't look at all good for sending a big squad of central Ontario athletes to the British Empire Games track and field trials at Vancouver July 9-10.

In fact, treasurer George Denniston of the central Ontario (AAU) branch said Wednesday, only $8 of the needed $7,500 has been collected so far to send the proposed 25-man team.

"It's the same old story," Denniston said. "Plenty of people want to criticize but not many want to help."

By making a direct appeal to the public, Denniston said it was hoped to nullify any criticism that the best athletes don't get a chance to attend the trial. The bigger the amount collected the more athletes that can be sent.

Top Golfers To Play For Canada Cup

MONTREAL (CP)—Two of Europe's top golfers will represent Belgium in the second annual Canada Cup international tournament to be held Aug. 19-22 at nearby Laval-sur-la-Lac Golf Club.

Hanry Van Den Bosch, honorary secretary of the European Golf Association, said at a National Golf Day dinner Tuesday Flory Van Donck, last year's winner of the British Vardoh Trophy, and Arthur De Vulder will be Belgium's team.

The cup is awarded to the team getting the lowest combined 72-hole total. Besides Canada, 24 countries have accepted invitations to send teams so far.

SAM SEEKS "SLAM"—Dr. Cary Middlecoff, left, last year's Masters' champ, hears about Sam Snead's ambitions for the golf season from The Slammer himself. Snead will bid for the Masters, the U.S. and British Open crowns, the "Little Slam" of the pastime.

Buffalo Bisons Nearing First Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Buffalo Bisons have their sights on first place in the International Baseball League after rolling up the largest score in a single game this season.

Buffalo, only three games out of first place, trounced Montreal Royals 19-4 Wednesday night while the league-leading Havana Cuban Sugar Kings had an eight-game winning streak snapped by Ottawa Athletics, 5-4 in 11 innings.

In other games, Toronto Maple Leafs pounded out a 11-4 victory over Rochester Red Wings. Richmond Virginians rallied for six runs in the ninth inning for a 7-6 victory over Syracuse Chiefs, whose losing streak now is extended to 10 games.

Buddy Hicks, former Brooklyn Dodger farmhand, slammed out a single, triple and a grand-slam home run in five attempts to drive in six runs for the victorious Bisons. Harvey Zernia hammered out a single and a bases-loaded homer accounting for four runs.

A single by Joe Taylor in the bottom of the 11th gave Ottawa the win over the Sugar Kings. Luke Easter, playing his second game for the A's since being optioned by Cleveland Indians, batted in three runs with a two-run homer and a long fly. Clint Hartung hit two homers for the Kings.

The Maple Leafs pounded out 20 hits off three Rochester pitchers, including home runs by Lew Morton, Sam Jethroe and Elston Howard.

Yankees Return Triumphant After Successful West Tour

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

The world champion New York Yankees came home today from a triumphant tour of the west, where they beat the strongest teams in the American League on their home grounds eight out of 10 times.

With a dozen games immediately ahead against the eastern tailenders, this appears to be the big Yankee push to the top.

The champs are one game behind Cleveland at the moment, but now it's the Indians' turn to take on the western powers. New York is the only team in what the league calls east—Baltimore is grouped with the west—above sixth place.

The western teams have showed power in the National League, too.

GRABS LEAD

St. Louis grabbed the national league lead Wednesday on the combination of a 3-0 victory over New York Giants and defeats for Brooklyn and Philadelphia Phillies. The Chicago Cubs swamped the Dodgers 9-3, with all nine runs coming in the eighth inning. Milwaukee defeated Philadelphia 6-2. Pittsburgh shaded Cincinnati 3-2.

The Yankees made it two straight over Chicago White Sox 3-2. Cleveland won its seventh in a row 5-3 over Boston. Baltimore beat Washington 5-3 and Detroit edged Philadelphia Athletics 4-3.

Vic Raschi, branded as too complacent to stick with the Yankees this season, pitched his first National League shutout and his fifth consecutive victory for the Cardinals. He retired the last 15 Giants in order. Red Schoendienst and Rip Repulski homered off Sal Maglie.

The Dodgers continued their inept hitting and added poor fielding and shaky pitching in losing to the Cubs. Chicago scored its nine runs with only three hits.

Pitcher Warren Spahn led a 11-hit Milwaukee attack on three Philadelphia hurlers with two doubles and a single in winning his fourth game. Eddie Mathews helped out with his seventh home run.

GOT THE SHAKES

Chico Carrasquel, the White Sox shortstop, got the shakes against the Yankees in the last two innings and the Yanks came from behind to win. In the eighth with a man on first, Chico let Hank Bauer's double-play grounder roll through his legs, and Bauer later scored the tying run on Yogi Berra's single.

In the ninth, with one out and runners on first and third, Enos Slaughter hit to Carrasquel, who had the choice of throwing to the plate or starting a double play. But he fumbled the ball and the winning run came home.

Bob Lemon picked up victory No. 6 for Cleveland as he allowed the Red Sox just four hits. Al Rosen hit his sixth home run in the last five games.

Detroit overcame the Athletics in the ninth when Al Kalin singled after the Tigers had loaded the bases without a hit.

Detective Tails Phillies Player

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Second-baseman Granny Hamner of the Philadelphia Phillies today demanded a showdown with owner Bob Carpenter over what he termed the "Gestapo tactics" of having baseball players trailed by a private detective.

Carpenter disclosed Wednesday that he had hired a private detective to check on the after-game habits of some of his players. The owner spoke up after a private investigator was arrested Tuesday night when Hamner reported to police that he was being trailed.

"I resent this and I intend to do something about it," the 27-year-old player said today. "This stuff of treating me and other ball players like two-year-olds is going to wreck our club. We can win the pennant. We have a better team than in '50 when we won.

"But this uncalled for gestapo tactic will ruin our chances if they're not cut out right away."

The ball player suspected he was being tailed after the Phillies-Milwaukee Braves game Tuesday night. He called police who arrested the driver. He identified himself as Charles Leland, 36, a private investigator. He was held in $500 bail for violation of the Fire Arms Act.

Carpenter said in a statement: "This was no case of mistaken identity. It was a case of my employing a detective agency to check on some of my players.

"Most major league clubs follow the same policy. Each year I have checked on my players both at home and on the road, so that I could be assured that our rules of midnight curfew after day games, and 2 a.m. curfew after night games would be observed."

GOLF TEAM TO BRITAIN—Members of Canada's golf team to compete in the British amateur championship at Muirfield, Scotland, starting May 24, and in the Commonwealth competition at St. Andrew's, Scotland, June 1-4, are shown at Montreal before their departure by air for Britain. RANGERS WIN

HAMILTON (CP) — Glasgow Rangers touring soccer team Wednesday night loosed overwhelming attacking power in the second half and defeated Hamilton district All-Stars 6-0.

A crowd of 10,000 saw the floodlight game at Civic Stadium.

The All-Stars defended stoutly in the first half and held Rangers to a lone goal by Wullie McCulloch. In the second half, however, John Hubbard scored and Willie Paton, Willie Simpson, George Young and international all-star Willie Thornton added to the count in steady succession.

Rangers, never defeated in Canada, toyed with the All-Stars in the second half, thrilling the crowd with dexterous displays of foot and head work.

+ + +

SUSPEND PLAYER

OTTAWA (CP)—Les Bell, manager of the Ottawa Athletics, said Wednesday that outfielder Gerr Scala has been suspended "indefinitely and without pay."

The suspension followed an incident Tuesday night when Scala, previously benched by the International Baseball League manager, demanded his reasons.

Bell said: "A difference of opinion between us over Scala's playing brought a protest from him that I would not take, and his suspension followed." Bell intimated that he is through with Scala and there is a possibility that he may be sold or traded.

Fiore floored Black for eight-counts in the third and seventh rounds with surprising but solid left hooks to end Black's unbeaten string at 27 fights.

LONGDEN MARK

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Jockey Johnny Longden reached another milestone in his long horse racing career Wednesday.

The veteran rode his 4,400th winner, scoring a double at Hollywood Park. He hit No. 4,399 aboard Sun State, the favorite, in the third race. No. 4,400 came in the fifth race when he won aboard Real Hope, for a $6.50 payoff.

Longden has been riding for 27 years and admits to being 44.

Army Chief Talks Of Need For Defence

ST. CATHARINES (CP) — Lt.-Gen. G. G. Simonds, Canada's chief of army general staff, Wednesday told 340 Ridley College cadets that "never before in times of peace has defence been more important than it is today." Inspecting the Ridley cadet corps, Gen. Simonds said that cold war or hot, "it is the trained and disciplined man who counts."

Gen. Simonds presented a new trophy, the McHardy Shield, to Cadet Sgt. W. B. Watkins of Port Credit as the outstanding non-commissioned officer. The shield was donated by John McHardy, Niagara-on-the-Lake, a Ridley Old Boy.

Teachers Offered $200 Increase

BLENHEIM (CP) — Blenheim district high school board Wednesday offered $200 increase in maximum salaries to its teachers. Twelve teachers resigned last week after the board rejected demands for higher salaries.

The pay boost offered would increase a non-specialist teacher's maximum pay to $4,800 from $4,600 and that of a specialist to $5,000 from $4,800.

The teachers had asked for maximum salaries of $5,000 for non-specialists and $5,200 for specialists, and for 20 days' annual sick leave cumulative to a 200-day total.

Board members also voted to withhold action on the 12 resignations until their offer has been accepted or rejected by the teachers.

Blenheim is near Chatham.

Eight Years Added

TORONTO (CP) — Eight years were added to the five-year penitentiary term of Leonard Reid, 24, when he was convicted Wednesday on a charge of wounding with intent to maim truck driver Alex Sims. Sims was shot in the left temple Feb. 20 when, he said, he resisted the accused's attempt to take his money. The injury left Sims' jaw partially paralyzed.

PROUD BROTHERS—Weeks of hard play have paid off for the Warwick brothers and other members of the Penticton V's hockey team. The team beat Sudbury Wolves to win the Allan Cup and Canadian hockey championship. The trio, largely responsible for the victory, are, from left, Bill, Grant and Dick, shown holding the cup.

Troops Prepare Proving Ground

CAMP GAGETOWN, N.B. (CP) The army worked swiftly today to complete the conversion of 427 square miles of south-central New Brunswick farmland into a gigantic proving ground for troops and weapons.

Four hundred engineers and service corps personnel stockpiled stores and cleared cabbage patches to be used as tent sites for 4,000 men of the 3rd Infantry Brigade who move into this incompleted training centre June 15 for a month of stiff manoeuvres.

Camp Gagetown will cost Canadian taxpayers $15,000,000 a year but the army says the expenditure will give troops vitally-needed experience in major formations which it can't get elsewhere.

Dr. F. Robertson Heads Delegates In Conference

CAMPBELLFORD (ENS).—Dr. Fred G. Robertson, Liberal MP for Northumberland, who left Ottawa on April 29 to head the Canadian delegation to the Seventh World Health Assembly, has arrived at Geneva.

The party from Canada is comprised of Dr. Robertson as chairman, one other doctor from the Department of Health in Ottawa and the Deputy Minister of Health of the province of Nova Scotia, along with several technical advisers.

The group sailed on the liner "United States" and arrived at Le Havre early this month. The party stopped off in Paris, on instructions from the Minister of Health, the Hon. Paul Martin, and attended the NATO conference on civil defence, which is part of the department of which Dr. Robertson is parliamentary assistant.

At this conference a great many things were discussed and Dr. Robertson said that a great deal of attention now is focussed on the operations of civil defence by the various governments. At the international conference on civil defence, representatives from Germany sat in for the first time. Germany is not yet officially a member of NATO, but it is felt that in the near future Germany will be allowed membership. The Germans were asked to review, when they had returned home, the discussions that had taken place at the conference, and were asked to begin certain work in the civil defence line. They will report on this at the next meeting of NATO, which will be held in October this year.

The delegation also visited the offices of the Canadian medical quarantine in Paris, and received a review of the work of that office.

Following the NATO conference, the party went directly to Geneva where the WHO meetings are being held at the Palais des Nations, which is described by Dr. Robertson as "an enormous building, and built originally to house the League of Nations. A very beautiful monument to the memory of the late President Woodrow Wilson, the founder of the League of Nations, is one of the outstanding features of the structure."

The World Health meetings go on each year, and technical assistance is sent out to countries to help them to improve their public health services. Dr. Robertson says: "We in Canada are very fortunate, because we are one of the countries that does not require these services, but a great number of Asiatic countries need a great deal of help for many years to come, and this is one of the problems which we as a member nation are trying to help out in our duty to other countries of the world."

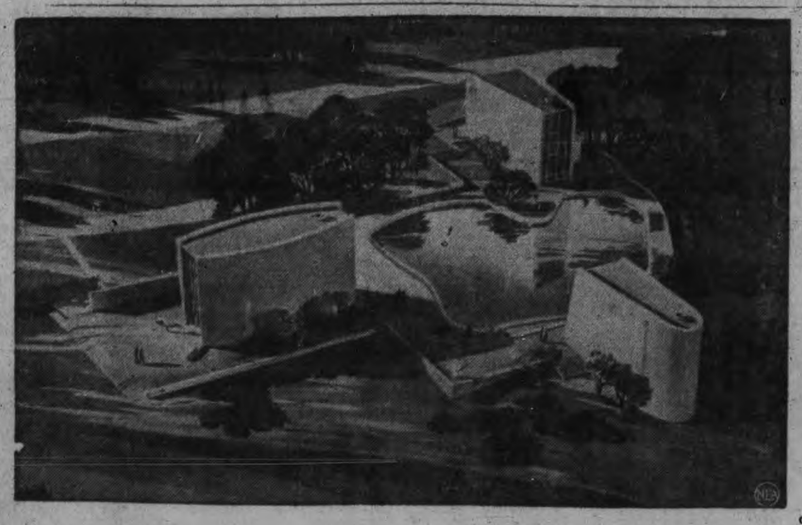
A day in the life of the delegates is a long one during the conferences, with meetings starting early in the morning and continuing through most of the day, with a short break for lunch. In the evenings there is a great deal of study to be done, reports to be prepared and briefs to be sent back to the Canadian government to keep them informed. Information from the Canadian government is received by the delegates, and they are kept informed with regard to the government's attitude on a number of problems which are being discussed daily.

Surrenders On Charge

SAGINAW, Mich. (CP)—Thomas A. Welsh of Saginaw, union financial officer, Wednesday surrendered to police. He was wanted on a $3,000 embezzlement charge. Police said Welsh dodged through south, north and west Michigan after president Loren Hanneman of Local 467, United Automobile Workers' Union (CIO) accused him of using the funds over a 30-month period for personal purposes.

Gallery On Wheels

MONTREAL (CP)—Eighteen of Canada's leading artists have combined to produce this country's first art gallery on wheels. Canadian Pacific Railway announced Wednesday the murals, depicting park scenes from Nova Scotia to British Columbia, will decorate 18 new scenic - dome coaches now being produced for its transcontinental service.



TRIPLE-CHAPEL CAMPUS—Brandeis University, America's only Jewish-founded non-sectarian school, will give students of each of America's faiths their own chapels. The architect's sketch above shows how the modernistic buildings will be grouped on the campus at Waltham, Mass., with Catholic, Protestant and Jewish chapels. The move is a radical departure from the traditional restriction of campus chapels to the faith under which the school is sponsored.

Has Two Skulls

NAPLES, Italy (AP) — A baby girl with two joined skulls and two brains was born Wednesday to Mrs. Maria Faicchio, 23. Doctors said the two skulls were joined so that the baby had "a rather large head, but only a single, normal face."

NATO Commander To Visit Ottawa

OTTAWA (CP)—Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, supreme commander of the North Atlantic Treaty forces in Europe, will pay a two-day official visit to Ottawa June 10 and 11, it was learned Wednesday.

The NATO boss will stay at the United States embassy residence and confer with the Canadian chiefs of staff and the defence committee of the cabinet.

Windsor Going All Out To Mark Centennial Year

By ART BRYDON

WINDSOR (CP)—Windsor is out to make her centennial year one to be remembered.

The city is marking her second century with 10 months of activity designed to make 1954 the most memorable of the 100 years since the community was incorporated as a village.

More than 300 persons organized into busy committees bustled into action late in 1953. The official celebration opened Jan. 1 with a civic reception and parade. June 20 will mark the opening of an intensive period of summer celebration. The official observance ends Thanksgiving Day, Oct. 11.

MANY VISITORS

Innumerable conventions, each with a dash of centennial flavoring, have already started. Doris Crawford, a pert Windsor brunette, was chosen Miss Centennial Jan. 27 and reigns as queen at all official events. Topping the list for Miss Crawford will be the Miss Canada pageant July 19 to 24 in which she will be a contestant.

Mass religious services and fireworks touched off by Detroit residents June 20 will open the summer celebration. The day will feature roaring centennial outboard motorboat races.

In the week starting June 21 an historical pageant with a cast of 200 treading a 118-foot stage will picture Windsor history and provide a glimpse of the future. The Century of Progress parade July 1, studded with 40 bands and about 50 floats, will give an animated peek at the past.

The big centennial carnival with rides for adults and youngsters, side shows and free variety entertainment will set up its midway June 28. "Singing Stars of Tomorrow," a radio show featuring the best of Canada's young singers, will broadcast from the city on July 8.

EMANCIPATION FESTIVAL

An outstanding observation for colored people, held in Windsor each year, is expected to attract thousands from the United States and Canada July 31 to Aug. 12. The Freedom Show celebrates emancipation and includes a parade, an international Miss Sepia beauty contest and a combined inspirational and cultural program.

A Mardi Gras-type celebration will mark Old Home week Aug. 9 to 14 as sons and daughters of Windsor flock back to recapture some memories. Graduates of Patterson Collegiate will have a preview of this activity May 21 when they stage their own reunion. The school celebrates its 100th anniversary with the city.

The transportation show Aug. 13 to 15 will see the end of a competitive run for antique cars and display of new cars, buses, trains and ships. An historic train display is expected.

The best of the traditional county fall fairs will be collected in Windsor Oct. 1 to 10 for the Centennial Harvest Festival. Each Essex county fair is expected to make its contribution to the new type of show for the city. The next day, the celebration ends.

HUGE INDUSTRY

Windsor's growth is the story of automotive expansion. Fifty years ago, the Walkerville Wagon Works was undergoing a transformation; a front page item in the Windsor Record in 1904 announced the Ford Motor Company of Canada had applied for incorporation.

Ford of Canada last year paid $58,900,000 in wages and salaries to 14,500 employees who rolled more than 150,000 trucks and cars off its assembly lines.

On the other side of town, remote from the riverfront location of the old wagon works, the Maxwel-Chalmers Motor Company of Canada was incorporated in 192 as the Chrysler Corporation of Canada with 181 employees. Chrysler now employs more than 6,000 with an annual payroll of about $21,000,000.

The two firms, aided by huge counterparts in the Detroit area across the international border, dominate the industrial scene in Windsor. As Ford's model A began to nudge the workhorse model T off Canadian roads, payrolls jumped and unions became more powerful.

BIG EXPANSION

Chrysler plans to spend about $41,000,000 to double present production facilities for passenger cars and engines. A big chunk of the program is for building and tooling an engine plant addition estimated at $21,000,000.

Ford is spending $32,500,000 in Windsor for a new engine plant, increased foundry capacity and other projects. Centre of company operations will remain here but the company already has its new assembly plant at Oakville, Ont., swinging into operation.

The new plant means a temporary reduction of Ford operations in Windsor as passenger cars and truck lines are transferred. Company officials say employment at Windsor will be higher than ever when the program is complete.

The Ford Windsor operation is the centre of production for the British Commonwealth. Cars and trucks from the Canadian plant or wholly-owned subsidiaries are operating in Madagascar, the Fiji islands, South Africa, Australia, Malaya and New Zealand. The company recently suspended production operations in India.

CELEBRATE WINDSOR CENTENNIAL—Windsor is marking its centennial year with 10 months of activity designed to make 1954 the most memorable of the 100 years since the community was incorporated. Part of the wide range of activities will be a transportation show displaying antique models like this 1904 Ford Model C, the 21st automobile to be built by Ford of Canada. In the car are Bill Woodley of the, Ford Company, in vintage costume are Helen Campeau, in the front seat, and Doris Crawford, Miss Centennial. In the background is the Detroit river and Detroit skyline.—(CP Photo).

Billy Graham Invited Visit Scotland

EDINBURGH, Scotland (CP)—The Church of Scotland General Assembly Wednesday decided to invite American evangelist Billy Graham to conduct a mission in Scotland next spring.

The Assembly passed a motion to invite Graham over the opposition of Dr. George Macleod, a member of the Assembly, who contended that a mission by an American evangelist would conflict with the plans for another mission in Scotland.

This mission called "Tell Scotland" will be under the direction of an evangelistic campaign committee of the Church of Scotland.

Referring to Graham, Macleod said: "I would be quite happy if he came to Scotland with a campaign. I do not think he should give the impression that his methods or for that matter the methods of the Salvation Army are the spearhead of the 'Tell Scotland campaign.'"

The Assembly said its decision to invite Graham was based on the success of his month-long London "crusade" which ends Saturday.

District Deputy Visits Marmora

MARMORA (ENS)—Rt. Wor. Bro. Howard W. Labine, D.D.G.M. of Prince Edward district, paid his official visit to his mother lodge, Marmora AF and AM222 on Monday evening.

Representatives of the various lodges in the district attended the banquet and reception in St. Andrew's United church hall. Wor. Bro. R. E. Neal, Master of the Marmora lodge, was toastmaster and welcomed the brethren. The toast to "Grand Lodge" was proposed by Right Wor. Bro. C. H. Buskard P.D.D.G.M. of Prince Edward district. In response the D.D.G.M. gave an address on "The Spirit of Masonry" in which he alluded to three great characteristics of King David—his great belief in the Supreme Being as evidenced in his psalms,—his desire to build a dwelling for the Most High and his ability to make friends as seen in his friendship for Hiram, king of Tyre. Such characteristics belong to the spirit of masonry as has been exemplified through the years. Bro. B. G. McKenzie, senior warden of Marmora lodge proposed the toast to the "visiting brethren" and the responses were made in the lodge session.

Wor. Bro. Canon J. M. Brownlie proposed the toast to "the ladies" and Mrs. Charles Airhart, president of St. Andrew's WA, replied. With the "junior wardens" toast, adjournment was made to the Masonic hall where another fine address was given by the D.D.G.M. and a candidate passed to the higher degree. Included in the visitors were two past masters of the lodge—Wor. Bro. Rev. W. P. Woodger, Cobourg, and Wor. Bro. D. E. Bell, Peterborough.

Manufacturers Request Removal Of Ban

OTTAWA (CP)—The Canadian Manufacturers' Association proposed Wednesday that Parliament remove the ban against retail price-setting by suppliers of branded goods to eliminate the "evil" of loss leader selling.

The association, in a submission to the restrictive trade practices commission, maintained that though loss leader selling is a "definite evil," it would be difficult to define it satisfactorily for legislative control.

The best way to fight this price-cutting would be to "restore the right of the manufacturer of branded goods to exercise some measure of control over the price at which his goods are to be re-sold."

This would mean restoration of resale price maintenance banned by Parliament on the recommendation of the 1951 MacQuarrie committee. The committee described price maintenance as restrictive and monopolistic.

The manufacturers' proposal was submitted as the restrictive trade practices commission opened a country-wide study of loss leader selling, sometimes described as offering quality goods below cost to attract customers from competitive shops.

Students Make Home-brew Beer

EDEN GROVE, Ont. (CP)—Police said Wednesday they have admissions from two 18-year-old high school students that they "cooked" home-brew mash in the belfry of a little red school house in this community 30 miles southwest of Owen Sound.

The students told police they made the brew "for their own use."

The four-gallon batch of beer mash, "burping" from heat supplied by a lamp, was discovered Tuesday by three boys sent to the belfry of Eden public school during the school's annual spring cleaning.

Samples of the mash will be analyzed to determine whether it can be classed as an "experiment" or contains enough alcohol to warrant laying charges.

Citizens' Band Wins Shield For Second Year

CAMPBELLFORD (ENS) — The Campbellford Citizens' Band will retain the shield they won for proficiency at the Northumberland Music Festival last year. They walked off with top honors again this year, with 86 marks, in a competition held on Monday.

The shield is awarded to the band attaining the highest standing each year. Two years ago, Campbellford did not compete and the shield was won by the Warkworth band, but the local lads have taken it for the past two years in a row. Bandmaster Donald D. Bennett, who donates his services voluntarily, leads the band.

The band has recently purchased new uniforms, and wore them for the first time at the festival held in Colborne. They plan to hold a parade in town on Sunday, May 30, so that the citizens of the district will be able to see the new natty dress uniforms.

While at the festival, five of the boys of the 30 piece band won top honors for solos. About 50 per cent of the membership of the band is teen-agers.

Must Learn Accept Alternative Schooling

LONDON, Ont. (CP) — Not all children can go through high school successfully and the public must learn to accept alternative kinds of schooling for these students, Steve Robinson, secretary of the Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation, said here Wednesday.

Addressing delegates to the annual convention of the Associated High School Boards of Ontario, he said public opinion sets the standard of education far more than does the department of education, the university or the teachers.

Five-Day Week Criticized By Senator

OTTAWA (CP)—Senator R. B. Horner says shorter hours and the five-day week aren't of any real benefit to Canada.

The Saskatchewan Progressive Conservative said Wednesday in the Senate that he knows he will be criticized for stating that as his opinion. But he still believes that young people don't need long week-ends.

Senator Horner, a farmer from Blaine Lake, Sask., spoke during debate on a motion to ratify the Japanese-Canadian Trade Treaty signed earlier this year. He said he deplores the use of arguments about grain surpluses in the West in support of the treaty.

He said he doesn't believe there is a bushel of grain in the West lying outdoors for want of storage space. In his own town, he said, the elevators could hold 500,000 bushels. No business in Canada received as much unfavorable publicity about the size of surpluses as did the farming industry.

Duke Flies Own Plane To Join Family

LONDON (Reuters)—The Duke of Edinburgh today left London, piloting his own plane, to join Queen Elizabeth, Prince Charles and Princess Anne at the royal castle at Balmoral, Scotland.

The Queen and the children travelled north by train Wednesday night for a 12-day holiday at Balmoral following a "welcome home" celebration tendered by the City of London.

Britain's Recovery Counteracts Slowdown In U.S. Economy

By FORBES RHUDE

Britain's recovery of the last year or so has shone a light into the shadows of the North American readjustment.

If Britain had been in one of her post-war crises while business was dropping from its higher levels in the United States there would, indeed, have been cause for alarm; for the U.S. tremor might have shaken [illegible] and all of us, beyond all p[illegible] to its size.

However, Britain chose that particular time to perk up, and for that she rates a bow.

Sir William Rootes, British industrialist now on a North American tour as chairman of the Dollar Exports Council of the United Kingdom, summed up some of the British accomplishments at a press conference in Toronto. Here are some of his data, their currency figures expressed in dollars:

National product up $3,000,000,000 in 1953 over 1952.

Steel production now at rate of 19,000,000 tons a year, compared with 12,000,000 tons before the war.

Production of pig iron, and of electricity, which assists mechanization and modernization of factories, also up.

LARGEST CAR EXPORTER

Production of automobiles, of which Britain is the world's largest exporter, ran in March at the rate of 1,000,000 units a year, compared with 835,000 units last year and 690,000 units in 1952.

Of a working population of 24,000,000, only 340,000 are unemployed, "including the sick, the work-shy and workers in transit."

Exports up by 10 per cent in 1953 and further increasing this year. Surplus of trade with the world in 1953 was $630,000,000 and, in the latter part of the year, at the rate of $840,000,000 a year.

Gold and dollar reserves at about $2,820,000,000, are 60 per cent over the low point of 1952.

Robert Chapman Licensed By Presbytery

Before a large congregation in Mark Street United church Mr. Clifford Robert Chapman was licensed to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ. This service was held under the auspicese of the Peterborough presbytery. Mr. Chapman will be ordained to the ministry of the United Church of Canada at Belleville on Wednesday, June 9.

The impressive service was conducted by the Rev. A. A. Mathews, chairman of the Peterborough presbytery for the past year. He was assisted by Rev. Dr. N. D. Patterson, minister of Mark Street church. The choir under the direction of Mrs. C. Searles, sang appropriate music. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Harold K. Wright of Norwood, the chairman-elect of the Peteborough presbytery. Taking his text from Ephesians 3:7—"For this Gospel I was made a minister," Mr. Wright brought a challenging message on the High Calling of the Ministry.

"In this calling," the speaker said, "the important thing is faithfulness." The Christian minister is called to make Jesus Christ real. He is to work in the service of Jesus Christ through the fellowship of the Church. While there is a ministry for all to perform, the ordained, professional ministry of the Church includes the task of preaching and of being a shepherd among the people. "Preaching," declared Mr. Wright ,"must be Christ-centred—the Gosepl woven into the fabric of the people's experience. People should see in the minister an ambassador of Jesus Christ." Qualifications for this work are many, and include the grace of God besides strong moral character.

COMPLETED COLLEGE WORK

Following the ceremony of licensing Mr. Chapman to preach, the members of the Presbytery and of the Mark Street board extended the right hand of fellowship. Mr. Chapman has just completed his college work and recently was graduated from Emmanuel College, Toronto. He will serve in the Bay of Quinte Conference.

Dr. N. D. Patterson gave wise and experienced counsel to Mr. Chapman during the service. Speaking with reference to the services of the church, to preach-

'54 PCVS Echoes In Color Pioneers For Year Books

The 40th edition of The Echoes was "brought out" at PCVS Wednesday afternoon as a climax to the Echoes Tea, attended by the editorial staff, teacher advisers and guests.

This year's Echoes is a pioneer in the field of printing in color. Editor Paul Ward, giving the gathering a summary of the year's work, said "The resourcefulness of our staff has allowed us to be the first high school in Canada to print a magazine in multicolor."

Sample copies of the magazine, specially printed for this occasion, were eagerly inspected by everyone from Principal Mr. C. S. Browne to editors of the two other secondary schools in the city. To go with the color printing a new type face, called Spartan, was used by the students.

It was the editor who last fall conceived the idea of printing in color and placed it before the executive. They were in favor of the plan, but dubious about the added expense and problems of such an experiment. Editor Ward attributed the ultimate success to the hard work of the advertising and format committees. The price per page of advertising was raised but still there were 147 ads brought in before the deadline.

Managing editor Margaret Hooton and her committee were complimented on having done a marvelous job in setting up the magazine and overcoming the pitfalls that accompanied the advance into a new medium. More extensive use of the form representatives was thought to be the greatest improvement in the organization of the staff.

Miss Helen McGregor, secretary of the teacher advisory committee, agreed that it had been "quite difficult to work in colour." She told the editors and staff, "This is a book you can be proud of,—and never mind the criticism."

Announcement that Reid Marsh will be editor of the 1955 Echoes; Margaret Purdon, managing editor, and John Hunter, advertising manager, was made by Miss McGregor.

Reid Marsh came forward to offer his congratulations to this year's staff on the book which he said "has been more successful than any of the others."

MAIN COLOR GREEN

As the main color in the new printing is green on white pages, it was fitting that the tea table in the teacher's library should be done with a green and white color scheme. White tea napkins bordered in green were printed "The Echoes, 40th Edition."

Implements of the printing trade— scissors, pins, clips, file punch, glue and engraving plates —were the table centre decorations, and the flowers, white tulips, were in large paste jars, and white candles were stuck in show card color jars.

The tea was given by junior members of the staff in honor of the graduating students and advisitors. Margaret Purdon headed the tea committee with Reid Marsh, John Hunter, Carol and Mary Bertram assisting.

Guests included Mr. Charles Huffman, chairman of the Board of Education, and Mrs. Huffman, who poured tea; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Browne, Mrs. A. H. Heideman and Mrs. W. R. Thompson, who were the Phoenix prize judges, Dennis Ryan and Brian Philcox, editors of St. Peter's school magazine, Raymond Johnston and Marjory Lowes, editors of Kenner Collegiate year book, the teacher advisers and their wives and teacher guests.

PINS AWARDED

It is a custom of PCVS to award Echoes Pins to students who have given two years' service to the magazines, from grade 11 up, or they may be awarded to a student in his graduating year after one year's service, under special circumstances. Service while in grades 9 and 10 can count as a half-year toward the pin, provided the students' standing in grade 11 school work is satisfactory.

Members of the 1954 staff who hold the pin are Paul Ward, Margaret Hooton, Margaret Munro, Eric Jackson, Carolyn Hendren, Bert Ross, Jane Meyers, Anne Hamilton, Bill Swanger, Beverley Johnston, R. Wilson, Beth Powell, Barbara Walker, A. Gilders, Don Weese, R. Faryon, Margaret Dobson and Derek Holme.

NEW AWARDS

New awards were announced at the tea by this year's editors, but unfortunately the pins had not arrived for presentation at this time. Those who will receive them shortly are:

Format department: Reid Marsh, Margaret Purdon, Eleanor Everett and Elizabeth Collins; literary department, Donelda Powers, Elaine Osborne, B. Hinton; school news department, Margaret Stevenson, Rosalind Stevenson and M. Thompson; art and photography, Carol Wood, Marilyn Harwicke and David Simpson; typing department, Kathleen Gabbutt and Pat Kay; advertising, John Hunter, Elaine Leggitt, Ann Law, Gayle Simpson, Sheila Glen, Eileen Armstrong, Joyce Copp, Douglas Clark, Marelen Ellis, Barb. Tiffin, Marion Anderson, Mary Bertram; circulation department, Helen Zakos; form representative, Audrey Sinclair and June Skitch.

The year books will be printed within a few days and will be available to students and others shortly at 75 cents per copy.

EDITORS OF THE PCVS YEAR BOOK. The Echoes, past and future, got together Wednesday as the '54 staff retired and the '55 staff came into being. In front row at centre is the new editor, Reid Marsh, with retiring editor Paul Ward at right. John Hunter, at left, will be in charge of advertising for the 1955 book. In back row, centre, is Margaret Purdon, the new managing-editor, while at left is retiring managing editor Margaret Hooton. Carolyn Hendren, at right, was in charge of advertising the past season.—(Examiner Staff Photo).

Vatican Officials Canonize Pope Pius X

VATICAN CITY (Reuters) — A Solemn Consistory of 20 cardinals and 100 archbishops and bishops today approved the canonization of Pope Pius X, the "Peasant Pope," who died in 1914.

Pope Pius XII, in white silk robes with train and red shoulder cape, presided over the ceremony seated on a raised throne under a red canopy.

The "Peasant Pope," who died of a broken heart at the failure of his attempts to avert the First World War, will be proclaimed a saint at an open-air rite in St. Peter's square May 29. The last pontiff to be so honored was Pius V (1566-1572). He was canonized in 1712.

The consistory also gave assent to the canonization of five other saints—a French missionary, three Italian priests and an Italian nun. They will be canonized together at ceremonies June 12 and 13.

Wins Divorce By Blood Test, Canada's First

WINDSOR (CP) — In a case thought to be the first of its kind in Canada, a St. Thomas man Wednesday won a divorce on grounds of adultery proven by means of a blood test.

William Arnold Sands won the decree on the basis of medical testimony that he could not be the father of his wife's child.

A Windsor doctor said both Sands and his wife have RH negative type blood and since Mrs. Sands was the mother, Sands could not have been the father.

The same evidence was accepted in family court in February this year when Mrs. Sands sought maintenance for the child from her husband. It was denied.

Predicts End Death Penalty

OTTAWA (CP) — Expanding knowledge in the rehabilitation of prisoners indicates that capital and corporal punishment eventually must be abolished, a top officer of the John Howard Society said Wednesday.

A. M. Kirkpatrick, executive director of the Ontario branch, said there is a growing feeling among the public and prisoner officials that the death penalty and whipping are unnecessary.

He said the deterrence of capital and corporal punishment is non-existent. It could not be measured and there was no evidence in countries where such punishment has been abolished to indicate that it has a deterrent effect on murderers and other offenders.

Mr. Kirkpatrick spoke before the Commons - Senate committee, studying whether the Canadian Criminal Code's section on hanging and whipping should be amended.

He said his 16-page brief contained his personal views and not those of the society.

However, Lt.-Cmdr. E. G. Hamilton, president of the society's Ottawa branch, and F. J. Neville, executive director, said they support Mr. Kirkpatrick's views. The society is devoted to the rehabilitation of prisoners.

To Color Televise Surgical Work

TORONTO (CP)—Canadian doctors will watch actual operating theatre techniques at a Vancouver hospital on color television during the annual convention of the Canadian Medical Association there June 14 to 19.

Announcing this Wednesday, CMA headquarters here said the two-day showings of operations and clinic discussions, for doctors only, will make first use in Canada of a TV screen measuring more than four by six feet, allowing a viewing audience of more than 500.

The CMA said it is expected to prove that color TV is the best method yet devised for medical demonstrations and clinical instruction.

University Courses Now Much Heavier

MONTREAL (CP)—Douglas S. Ellis, dean of the faculty of applied science at Queen's University, Kingston, said Wednesday night university courses now are heavier than they were in the past.

But, he said, "the modern student is just as reasonable and co-operative" as the older generation.

He told the Montreal branch of Queen's alumni "stories of the old grad are a definite menace" to present-day undergraduates "who no longer have time for extra-curricular activities."

Omission Spells Fortune For Two Farmers

EDMONTON (CP) — The omission of two words from a land title deed 46 years ago has spelled out a fortune for Anton Turta and his son, Nick, who farm in the heart of Alberta's Leduc oil field about 20 miles south of here.

The two hold title to 160 acres of land on which mineral rights have been valued at more than $1,000,000.

The Turtas won a two-year legal fight Wednesday when the Supreme Court of Canada threw out claims by the Canadian Pacific Railway and Imperial Oil Ltd. for the oil rights on the land.

Also benefitting were the Montreal Trust Co., which holds a lease on Anton Turta's portion of the land, and William Sereda, who holds a lease on the other half.

Mr. Turta acquired part of the land in 1911 and the remainder in 1918 from Mike Podgorny, who purchased the land in 1908 from the CPR. A clerk in the land titles office here erred in drawing up Mr. Podgorny's title.

He omitted two words: "and petroleum." As it read, the title reserved to the CPR "all coal."

Why our recipe calls for "Whole eggs, freshly broken!"

There's one important trick to remember if you want to make a better mayonnaise:

You have to put better things in it!

For example, the Hellmann recipe calls for "whole eggs, freshly broken." This gives you a smoother texture and a richer flavor.

There's more, of course: highest grade salad oils, carefully chosen spices, choice vinegars, and added egg yolks. These ingredients are combined to make a mild, delicious dressing that blends perfectly with other salad ingredients. (Hellmann's isn't strong and mustardy like the average salad dressing)

And here's a tip: Do you ever stretch your dressing by mixing in other things like cream or fruit juice? Well remember, Hellmann's isn't filled with starch like ordinary salad dressing . . . so it stretches much farther . . . saves you money!

When you taste what Hellmann's does for a salad, you'll know why so many women are glad to pay a little more . . . and get a whole lot more . . . for the whole-egg mayonnaise!

EXPENDABLES

A Peterborough housewife has a problem. Looking for a house to rent, she finds that she must get rid of her children. It all happened this way.

While looking at a Water St. home offered for rent, she told the landlady, the family owned a dog. That was perfectly all right with the landlady.

But after looking through the house and when she was nearly ready to take it, even though the rent was $95 a month, she told the landlady she had a daughter and a son.

"Oh, I'm sorry, no children," said the home owner, and the deal was off.

"I can get rid of the dog but not the children," said the woman with a wry smile.

ALL IN A ROW—Their own plowing and seeding not finished, neighbors of Albert Snable, RR 1, Omemee, took time out Wednesday and today to help their friend. Snable took sick suddenly on the weekend and was rushed to the hospital for an operation. Arena Insurance To Be Placed With City Agents

If possible, property insurance on Civic Arena will be placed with Peterborough agents.

This was the intention of the arena committee expressed to city council Monday night by Ald. Gordon Farquharson, who is a member of the committee. All members of the committee were re-appointed by council for another year.

Council received a letter from the Peterborough Fire and Casualty Insurance Agents Association, suggesting that the arena committee should be requested to have existing policies amended in accordance with their wishes, in order that this business might be retained by local insurance agents.

The letter pointed out that the agents were businessmen and taxpayers in the City of Peterborough and also that the insurance on Civic Arena was originally divided among those of the local agents who were the most substantial contributors to the arena building fund.

"As you know," it was said in the letter, "all city-controlled insurance has always been placed wtih local agents and written in accordance with a definite policy as to type of coverage and which was adopted by the city several years ago.

"However, should any change be required in the Civic Arena or any other city insurance we would respectfully suggest that instructions be directed to the Peterborough Fire and Casualty Insurance Agents Associations whose members are quite capable of providing sound and efficient insurance business at all times."

CO-INSURANCE

The letter was written as a result of a decision of the committee of the whole council last week to have the property committee consider the advisability of applying the option of co-insurance to all city property to take advantage of the lower premium. Ald. John Dewart proposed that the property committee might call in T. C. Ephgrave as advisor, as well as a representative of the insurance agents, and recommend to council whether or not the city should adopt co-insurance.

The suggestion followed Ald. McBride's report that the arena committee wished to place its own insurance on the arena building. By adopting co-insurance, Ald. McBride said, they could save something more than $1,000 a year in premiums.

The committee of the whole council recommended that the arena committee should be authorized to arrange for the insurance as they saw fit.

When this recommendation was presented at the regular council meeting Monday night, Ald. Rehill wondered if it shouldn't be deleted from the committee report on account of the letter from the insurance agents' association.

"The Civic Arena committee is quite capable of making its own decisions regarding insurance," Ald. McBride said.

"I just thought it shouldn't go outside the city," Ald. Rehill said.

"I believe the plans of the arena committee are that, if at all possible, the insurance won't go outside the city," Ald. Farquharson said.

Council also received a financial statement from the arena committee, enclosing a cheque for $2,500, representing the surplus of receipts over expenditures for the year ending April 1. This reduced the committee's debt to the city to $8,000.

Farmers Come To Rescue Of Newcomer Taken Ill

Today, a Peterborough district farmer lies ill in hospital. His farm, like all farms across Canada right now, is in urgent need of Spring plowing. However, because of an overwhelming display of community spirit and good fellowship, the sick farmer can rest comfortably . . . his farm is being plowed, cultivated and seeded.

Just after Christmas the VLA (Veterans' Land Act) settled Albert Snable on a 100-acre farm in the Omemee district. Naturally, with commitments to be made to the VLA and a wife and young family to keep, this year had to be a successful one for the young man. Last Sunday, the day before he planned to begin the Spring plowing. Albert Snable was rushed to hospital for an emergency operation.

Harry Conroy, VLA representative from Lindsay, heard of the trouble and immediately canvassed Snable's neighbors for assistance. The result was beyond even his highest hopes. Nine farmers immediately offered themselves and their tractors free of charge.

FIVE TRACTORS AT WORK

On Wednesday, when The Examiner paid a visit to the Snable farm, five tractors were making short work of the 30 acres which Mr. Snable intended to cultivate and seed. The plowing was completed by late evening and Thursday the cultivators had the ground ready for sowing.

Harry Conroy said that Mr. Snable would have been in dire trouble is his neighbors had not come to the rescue. Possibly his sudden illness would have meant the end of his farm.

In order to meet his commitments the farmer had to have a crop in the ground this Spring, otherwise it would have meant a year of expenses with no income.

"I have never seen such a practical display of good neighborliness in my experience as VLA representative", said Mr. Conroy. "These chaps turned out in full force, more than willing to do their share of the work."

"They are all doing this work at their own cost and at a time when they need to be on their own properties. However, we should be all cleaned up here in a day or two."

NEVER MET SNABLE

One of the amazing things about the project is the fact that three of the farmers working with their tractors on the farm, have never even met Mr. Snable. He has been in the district for only four months and one man did not evgn know he existed, until the day Harry Conroy asked for his assistance.

The farmers who were busy plowing at the Snaple property on Wednesday were all from the Omemee district. They were Harold Millen, Donald Franks, Sam Killen, Stanley Lowes and Claire Hickey.

The five machines were turning over three furrows at a time and although it was not a plowing match, farmer Snable won't find any room for complaining when he returns from hospital. Later in the day Harold Millen started with the cultivator.

Four other farmers who also volunteered their assistance were Morgan Crough, Alvin and Gibb Franks and Gerald Lowes. They were available Thursday and Friday to clean up the cultivating and seeding.

As each farmer supplied himself, his tractor and gas, free oc charge. Albert Snable can rest in hospital without any worries . . . in fact this show of good fellowship should put him well on the road to a quick recovery. And one day he'll have to go around and introduce himself to some of the men who plowed and seeded his farm, but who to him, are complete strangers.

Milk Improved Praise Public Vet

Dr. F. G. Harden, the public health veterinary in Peterborough, has been commended by the Provincial Department of Health, for improving the quality of raw milk, Dr. J. P. Wells, medical officer of health announced today.

Dr. Harden, who came to Peterborough last September, is responsible for the supervision of milk and meat in the city. He has, in co-operation with the producers and operators of dairy pasteurization, instituted improvements in the standard of milk as it reaches the housewives' doorstep.

He has gone back to the farms and worked with dairy farmers in matters of milk production, handling, and sanitation. But the difficulty lies in the cooling of milk —that is from the time it is collected to the time it reaches the plants. Dr. Harden has found that many farms have no facilities for cooling milk in the summer months.

As the temperatures rise in June, July, and August the quality of milk is lowered.

According to the Peterborough department of health, during 1953, 74.3% of raw milk was satisfactory. Dr. Harden feels that the percentage can be much higher.

Second Company Completes Tunnel Into Hill

The second uranium property to explore underground in the Bancroft district, Croft Uranium Mines, has completed 1,200 feet of tunnelling in hillside adit (horizontal tunnel).

Company president R. A. Bryce reveals that 1,000 feet of this work has exposed rock structure that is estimated grade ore. Slashing is still to be done in the underground drifting (branch tunnels) preparatory to taking out large bulk samples to determine the grade and further mill testing plans.

It is believed that Croft will be in a position to commence shaft sinking at mid-summer. Neighboring property, Centre Lake Uranium, started shaft-sinking in mid-April and it is presumed that work is already well advanced to the station which will be opened 125 below the adit tunnel sill. Croft Uranium is believed to be on the same ore body to the north of Centre Lake.

Ore shoots and radioactive dikes in the Croft underground working have been exposed for considerable widths and of satisfactory values. Two diamond drills are currently probing surface showings at the property.

IODE PRESENTATIONS

The Peterborough IODE chapters have combined for Empire Day presentations in city schools. Each school, during the ceremony Friday afternoon, will be presented wtih a portrait-size colored photo of Queen Elizabeth II by an IODE official. The photo is the familiar one of the Queen in blue holding a fan.

Gave No Defence Damages Set At $290

Richard Davis, 26, of 747 St. Mary's St., today was awarded $290.15 damages in a suit that was brought about by a two-car collision last June in Ashburnham.

As the defendant, Alfred Marshall of 367 Rogers St., entered no statement of defence, the suit reduced itself to an assessment of the plaintiff's damages. And Judge John de N. Kennedy, presiding at a special sitting of the county court found that these were $290.15.

The accident occurred at 11.30 p.m. June 26, 1953, at Hunter and Rogers Sts.

Doris was driving east on Hunter St. when Marshall is alleged to have driven his car south out of Rogers St. They collided in the intersection and the front and right side of Doris' car were damaged.

W. Donald Bark was counsel for Doris. Marshall was present as a spectator but entered the witness box and agreed that he had been properly served with papers before the trial.

VON In Peterborough To Form Corporation

James B. Lillico, a lawyer, who is also a member of the Victorian Order of Nurses board of governors, told the board, Wednesday, that he is working on papers which will incorporate the VON branch of Peterborough.

Mr. Lillico said a petition signed by three board members will be sent to the provincial secretary in Toronto for letters of patent. He said incorporation procedure would take a couple of months.

Without a board corporation, Mr. Lillico explained, each member could be liable for any damages, caused by the VON and could be sued.

To Choose Layoffs, Short Week

Outboard Production Cut Back; Hold Meetings

Will Outboard Marine and Manufacturing company employees accept alternating three-day and five-day weeks or take a chance on further layoffs at the Peterborough plant, within the past months the busiest in the city?

That's the question facing employees today at two meetings, this afternoon for the night shift and tonight for the day shift at the Labor Centre.

For the past month (including up to this Friday night) the company will have laid off some 90 workers due to cut-backs in the production schedule.

This week the company approached the union, Local 5009, United Steelworkers of America, to explain the present situation. At the same time it pointed out that the company was faced with greater layoffs unless the employees accepted a four-day week.

The company officials, although they desired a straight four-day week, agreed to a possible alternating three-day and five-day weeks because employees would then be able to draw unemployment insurance on the short week. Under the four-day week scheme they couldn't.

REDUCE PRODUCTION

Al Metcalfe, personnel manager, explained that the layoffs and the short weeks are due to cut-backs in the production schedule which is based on sales anticipation.

The personnel manager explained that to this Friday night some 90 employees will have been laid off within the past month. About 30 of those were hired for special jobs and were expected to be laid off when those jobs were completed.

Sub-Division Gives Council Foot Of Land

COBOURG (ENS).—Owners of the Sidbrook housing sub-division agreed to deed over the one-foot reserve on Lakeshore Drive to the town of Cobourg, at Monday night's council meeting. The council will guarantee that the one-foot reserve will not be removed to open up the street until it is known that any development to the immediate east is such that it will not detract from the residential value of the Sidbrook area.

Gordon Dunlop told the council, on behalf of the Sidbrook group that the section was a high-class neighborhood and it would be unfair to those who had bought lots, or were building there, to have to face anything to the east which would detract from their property values. Council assured Mr. Dunlop that the development would be protected.

Dr. Clayton Moorehouse, medical superintendent of the Ontario Hospital, wrote to compliment the fire department for its good work at last week's fire at the Ontario Hospital. Dr. Moorehouse pointed out that the building was of a type which would burn very readily and located in a congested area in regard to other buildings. The quick work of the firemen kept it from spreading, he declared.

Mayor Jack Burnet said that Fire Chief Ken Baird didn't waste time waiting to see how bad the fire might grow, but immediately called the ordnance depot and the Port Hope fire department, with the result that the fire never got a chance to get out of control. On motion, council decided to have the clerk write to thank the outside fire departments for their assistance.

Request of the Cobourg ball club for a grant was referred to the finance committee. Council decided, at an estimated cost of about $1,700 to have the clock faces on the town hall replaced. For many years they have been in disagreement as to the correct time. A new clock was installed but the old hands still go haywire and befuddle tourists seeking the correct time.

Second readings were given to two traffic bylaws, setting up additional no parking areas, and desinating some more streets as through streets.

Councillor Louis Caine declared that the move of some of the sellers at the market to change market day from Saturday to Friday was wise, in view of the trend to shop Friday instead of Saturday, but the market bylaw would have to be changed to alter market day from the present day.

CROSSED UP—Is it good luck or bad luck to see a cross-eyed cat? Us, we wouldn't know. But you can see one if you visit the M. J. Carroll family in Dallas, Tex., and take a gander at Bamba, above. The cockeyed kitty wandered into their yard a while ago and, although distant with strangers, by now has graciously accepted the family.

Has Big Order

MOSCOW (Reuters)—A British business man Wednesday night announced the conclusion of a £7,000,000 contract to supply textile machinery to Russia. F. C. Seward, director of the northern England firm of Platts Bros., said "a number of companies" in Yorkshire and Lancashire will share work on the order.

Lakes Shipping Outlook Brighter

PORT COLBORNE (CP) — The outlook for Great Lakes shipping this year appears much brighter now than it did a few days ago.

With the settlement of the deadlock between lake shipping companies and the Canadian wheat board over the rate for moving grain, a flurry of shipping activity now is in evidence and it is expected much of the Great Lakes fleet lying idle in ports from Prescott to Port Arthur will soon be on the move.

Colonial Steamships Ltd. headquarters at Port Colborne is bustling with activity. Wednesday, practically all ships of the colonial fleet which have been lying idle from the outset of the 1954 navigation season are in process of fitting out. Until now, only about 50 per cent of the Colonial fleet has been in operation.

Father Committed For Murder Trial

WINDSOR (CP)—Joseph Adams, 23, of Windsor, Wednesday was committed for trial by higher court on a charge of murdering his infant daughter.

Adams was arrested April 26 after he came to police and said the child was dead.

Medical testimony indicated the child died of shock and haemorrhage from external violence including a severe blow to the middle of the lower back.

Sign Defence Pact

KARACHI (AP)—Pakistan and the United States Wednesday signed a one-year mutual defence pact under which the U.S. will help equip and train the armed forces of this strategic nation of more than 75,000,000 at the eastern gateway to the Middle East. The Soviet Union, India and Egypt have denounced the pact.

Neuro-Surgeon To Retire

MONTREAL (CP) — Dr. Wilder Penfield, director of the Montreal Neurological Institute, Wednesday announced his retirment from two major posts.

He told the annual meeting of the MNI he will retire as neurosurgeon-in-chief and neurologist at the Royal Victoria Hospital and as professor of neurology and neurosurgery at McGill University June 1.

Dr. Penfield will remain director of the institute, chairman of the academic department, and neurosurgeon with the Royal Victoria Hospital.

"I shall be able to turn my mind to many things—such things as the mysteries of the temporal lobe, the organization of speech, the mechanisms of epilepsy, of memory, of consciousness," he said. "These are fascinating problems. They call for another lifetime of study to say the least."

Charge Woman

HAMILTON (CP)—A 36-year-old woman was charged Wednesday with manslaughter in connection with the death of Martha Wojnar, 22. Lucille Smith, charged as a material witness when arrested Monday, was remanded to May 26. Miss Wojnar is believed to have died after an illegal operation John Ross Markham, 35, was charged with manslaughter shortly after the victim was found Sunday.

Brakes Fail Milk Spilled

CAMPBELLFORD (ENS) — Roy G. Glenn, 30, of Trent River received a surprise on Tuesday morning when he attempted to stop at the intersection of a township road and Highway 30 a short distance south of Trent River. He had no brakes.

Glenn, unable to stop, swerved the truck and it went into the ditch, through a fence and came to rest, still upright in a field on the farm of James Brown. The truck received about $50 damage, but the driver was not injured. About 1500 pounds of milk in cans rolled off the truck and was spilled on the roadway. Provincial Constable Doug. Ross investigated. Prior to the accident, the brakes on the truck had apparently been in proper working order.

AFL-TLC Applies Extra Members

TORONTO (CP)—The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (AFL-TLC) has applied to the Ontario labor relations board for the right to represent about 6,200 outside workers with the Ontario hydro-electric power commission.

If the union is successful, its Canadian membership will be boosted by some 20 per cent. The brotherhood now has a membership of about 31,000.

The labor board will hear the application for certification June 2. The brotherhood will ask for a vote among outside Hydro employees to choose between it and an employees' association which now bargains for virtually all Hydro workers.

However, the brotherhood is not asking to bargain for construction workers on major Hydro projects. These workers are represented by a council of 18 international unions.

Entire Country Comes To Aid Of Rural Woman Doctor

By JACK VARICK

WOODRUFF, Wis. (AP) — A modern hospital stands on the shore of a small lake in this northwoods community—a tribute to a woman doctor who came here long ago with no intention of practising medicine.

Lakeland Memorial Hospital was built in civic pride for Dr. Kate Pelham Newcomb by the people she served. But the entire country pitched in to help when it heard the story of her self-sacrificing medical career.

The story of Wisconsin's "angel on snowshoes" was told on a television program last March 17. It was mentioned that a debt of $32,000 still existed on the $172,000 hospital "built for Dr. Kate."

In the next 10 days the small post office here was flooded with 15 tons of mail addressed to Dr. Kate. At last count the total was more than $100,000.

Lakeland Memorial, a 16-bed hospital equipped with the latest equipment, opened last month debt-free with Dr. Kate as chief of staff. The donations left over probably will be put into a trust fund to assure the hospital of operating expenses in future years.

REJECTED COUNTRY DOCTOR

Dr. Kate is a city-bred girl who once turned down a marriage proposal from another doctor because he wanted a country practice. She graduated from the University of Buffalo. She interned in a New York City hospital and later worked in a slum area there. Then she moved to Detroit to practise and married Bill Newcomb, an auto plant worker.

In 1923 the Newcombs came to Wisconsin's northwoods for Bill's health, settling in a back trail cabin along the Rice river near Boulder Junction. Dr. Kate's practice was set aside.

"Then I was a bit sour on medicine," she said. "We had lost our first child and it did not seem that I could pick up the practice of medicine in this new and strange world."

One day in 1931 changed that. Dr. Thomas Torpy of nearby Minocqua, an outspoken country doctor, telephoned Dr. Newcomb and in so many words ordered her to handle an emergency case he could not take.

"What that man said to me for emphasis I can't repeat," Dr. Kate says. But she picked up her bag and made the emergency call. She hasn't set it down since.

DEVOTION EXEMPLIFIED

There are countless examples of Dr. Newcomb's devotion to her profession. One night she trudged 2½ miles through snow and cold to treat a patient.

Her own life sometimes was endangered. One time she was found wandering in bitter cold, dazed from carbon monoxide fumes after her auto had stalled in a snow drift.

Dr. Newcomb, a homey woman in her mid-60s, found her life's work and her husband—now a successful guide—found his health in Wisconsin.

"I love it up here," she says. "The lakes and the people are so genuine. Self-sufficient in many ways, they need help badly at times."

Old Charge Catches Up

TORONTO (CP)—Toronto police don't usually forget warrants—no matter how old they are. So Hector Pollett, 31, found out when he applied for a chauffeur's licence. He was arrested when police found a four-year-old Brantford careless driving warant for him in their records.

Government Stands Firm On Railway Decision

OTTAWA (CP)—The government is standing firm on its decision to give priority to the western section of a rail line to tap the mineral and forest wealth of northern Quebec's Chibougamau area.

The decision means that the smelters of Noranda will get first call on Chibougamau ores.

Opposition members criticized the proposal in the Commons Wednesday and charged that Toronto financial interests will benefit from the move.

Transport Minister Chevrier termed the charge fallacious, and said there is no doubt that Chibougamau eventually will be linked by rail with Noranda on the west and Lake St. John on the east.

BILL APPROVED

Following the debate, the Commons gave second reading, approval in principle, to a bill authorizing government support of a 294-mile Canadian National Railways line to join Chibougamau, some 250 miles northwest of Quebec City, with both points.

In the half-day sitting, the House also dealt with legislation amending the Veterans Land Act, providing for vocational training of disabled civilians and continuing federal control over transportation of bulk commodities.

Howard Green (PC—Vancouver-Quadra) said the decision to go ahead first with the rail line between Chibougamau and Beattyville, near Abitibi on the northern Ontario border, may make Chibougamau a tributary of Toronto financial interests. The Abitibi-Noranda area was linked by rail directly to Toronto.

SIMULTANEOUS START

Quebec members from the Lake St. John area said the eastern section from St. Felicien to Chibougamau should be started at the same time as the western link.

One of them, Paul Gagnon (Ind—Chicoutimi) said that if the western section is built first "you will have a railway started at the wrong end, whose usefulness will benefit the financiers of Toronto first and the people of Quebec later."

Mr. Chevrier replied that the CNR has traffic guarantees for six years on the western section, on which it would make a profit of $17,000 a year. It could get no traffic guarantees on the eastern section, and construction of that line now would mean a loss of almost $1,000,000 a year.

Unemployed Form Association

WINDSOR (CP)—About 250 unemployed persons from Windsor met Wednesday night to form an association designed to bring their plight to government attention.

The meeting, sponsored jointly by Windsor Labor Council (CIO-CCL) and Essex-Kent Trades and Labor Council (AFL-TLC), elected five unemployed men to a committee which was empowered to work with the two labor groups to help relieve unemployment.

Tom Rees, WLC president, said organized labor wanted "zoom or boom industrialists and political leaders to take immediate action."

Charge Of Theft Dismissed Without Defence

Margaret Lewis, proprietor of Marg's Cabins, noticed that some groceries were missing from the store she operates at the camp.

An acquaintance across the road received some groceries from two of her roomers, Leonard and Annie Tobin. With assistance of the acquaintance, one Mrs. Lillian Collins, Mrs. Lewis put two and two together and it added up to a

Before Magistrate W. R. Philp, charge of theft against the Tobins, QC, on Wednesday, Mrs. Lewis testified that on May 8 she had left her grocery store locked up on two or three occasions that she went out. Later she discovered several articles missing from the store. They included a small ham, some tea and canned goods.

Because she had noticed the Tobins on her property on several occasions (she had previously evicted them from the cabins and warned them off the property) she suspected them of taking the groceries. She did not know how they could have gained entry to the locked store.

However, her suspicions had been strengthened when Mrs. Collins told her of the groceries given by the Tobins. The articles were similar to those missing from the store. (In court, however, Mrs. Lewis was not able to definitely identify the groceries given to Mrs. Collins as those out of her store.)

Mrs. Collins told the court that Tobin had given her the froceries, saying that he had obtained them from Marg's place.

"He said that Marg was upstairs at the time; that's what made me think they were stolen," she said.

Mrs. Collins also said that she had been threatening to put the Tobin had given her the groceries, of quarelling, noise and drinking." She thought that the groceries were given to her "to hold stolen stuff over my head so that I would be afraid to put them out."

Crown Attorney John A. Bradshaw, QC, asked Mrs. Collins when she had told the Tobins they might be evicted.

Mrs. Collins: "Well, I didn't exactly tell them, but I told others and they told the Tobins."

Mrs. Collins added that Tobin has acted "kind of strange" when he observed a detective interviewing Mrs. Lewis.

The Tobins, who were apparently prepared to conduct their own defence, were not given that opportunity by Magistrate Philp. Instead he dismissed the charges against them.

Government Calling Seaway Engineers

OTTAWA (CP)—The Canadian government, anticipating an early start on the St. Lawrence seaway, today will call for engineering specialists to apply for jobs on the navigation end of the $900,000,000 project.

The government's civil service commission—which hires federal employees—will be issuing job announcements to electrical, mechanical and civil engineers.

The immediate need is for about 30 specialists. Salaries to be offered range up to $12,000.

Those employed would take part in the federal government's construction of the Canadian part of navigation works, which on present indications are to be undertaken in conjunction with the United States.

Govt. Requested Institute Tariff Policy

TORONTO (CP) — Herbert H. Lank, vice-president of Canadian Industries Limited, has called on the federal government for a national tariff policy to "save the nation's great industrial moment from being stifled."

Speaking to the annual meeting of the Rub[illegible]ciation of Canada, he said Wednesday night: "Lack of a clearly defined tariff policy can only lead to unnecessary misunderstanding, confusion, waste, inertia and stagnation."

He said he favored a tariff philosophy that would:

1. Safeguard against products made beyond our borders at the cost of human sacrifice in working conditions, lower standards of living and lower national security;

2. Safeguard the manufacture in Canada of products whose cultivation and manufacture would be of national value in improving working conditions, raise the standard of living, add to the skills, develop human and natural resources and enhance national welfare and defence.

BERKINSHAW RETURNED

R. C. Berkinshaw, president and general manager of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, was re-elected president of the Association. He said there are 70 rubber plants in Canada employing 22,000 persons plus the jobbers and wholesalers. In all, there were 200,000 persons depending on the industry for their livelihood.

Such ideas as new synthetic tires which will outlast the cars, sidewalks that move in the downtown areas carrying the pedestrian on rubber belts, highways made to withstand all punishment with a new paving material containing rubber, and plastics replacing hundreds of thousands of tons of steel in automobile bodies were all termed "practical dreams" by Mr. Berkinshaw.

BELGRADE (Reuters) — Soviet delegates appeared at an international congress in Yugoslavia Wednesday for the first time since Yugoslavia broke with Moscow six years ago. Three Soviet delegates are attending the 10th international congress of sporting medicine, with delegates from 20 other countries, including Britain.

India Seizes Opium

BOMBAY (Reuters) — Indian customs officials have seized 520 pounds of opium hidden in sealed sacks in the hold of the 6,895-ton British freighter Ozarda, it was disclosed today. The opium, worth about $125,000 was found after a seven-hour search. It was described as the port's biggest haul of contraband opium in 20 years.

Few In City Understand Farm Problems

MILLBROOK (ENS) — Alex McTaggart of Aurora, assistant to the provincial director of agricultural societies, spoke to Millbrook and District Chamber of Commerce.

Introduced by Ed. Summers, agricultural representative for Durham county, he spoke on "Town and Country Relationships "Few people living in town understand the work and cost to the farmer of producing food, he said. One good thing about having city dwellers help with harvests during the war was that they found out something of the effort and cost of producing them.

He told of farmers in the Niagara district who were concerned about the way farm land was being annexed for industrial development. They were organizing to make recommendations to the government about this situation.

Mr. McTaggart thought that farm and city alike should realize they were all working for one goal, one good life, one empire.

The evening was convened by Eric Fallis, chairman of the agricultural section, assisted by Walter Seward. Alex Gilbert, president, was in the chair.

Refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. Eric Fallis and Mrs. Marshall Fallis. During the lunch period, a lively discussion of the topic took place.

Lady Astor 75

PLYMOUTH, England (AP)—Lady Astor, first woman member of the British Parliament, was 75 Wednesday but described herself as "a rather aging 32." WA Caters At Sale

BONARLAW (ENS) — St. Mark's WA, Bonarlaw, catered for the sale at Ray Williams', Hoards Station, on Monday. They were practically sold out of food. Total reciepts after expenses were approximately $128.

Special Committee Calls Halt In Highways Investigation

TORONTO (CP)—A sudden halt to a three-day session of the legislature's select committee investigating alleged highway department irregularities came Wednesday after a hurried interjection by Attorney-General Porter.

The minister interrupted questioning of J. D. Millar, former deputy minister of highways, to say the testimony he was giving was part of the crown's case in forthcoming court proceedings against contracting firms and officials.

Mr. Porter made his interjection after a whispered committee-table conference with H. A. Cotnam, provincial auditor.

It ended the hearings until after the trials of four former employees of the department at Fort William, starting June 7 and until the trials of three contracting firms and 11 persons in Toronto, Whitby and Fort William.

The committee during the next month will visit the United States and tour highway construction projects in northern Ontario. It will hold a two-day session June 3 and 4 in Albany, N.Y., with New York highway officials. On June 9, the committee will travel to Sault Ste. Marie and Sudbury for a two-day inspection tour and on June 16 will leave for Bismarck, N.D., to meet North Dakota highway officials, then travel north to the Lakehead. It will return to Toronto for further meetings the last week of June.

WREN "AMAZED"

Albert Wren (Lib-Lab.—Kenora) said he was "amazed" by Mr. Millar's testimony that he had been interviewed only twice—for a total of 35 minutes—by Duncan Gordon, of J. D. Woods and Gordon Ltd., Toronto management consultants appointed to draft a new organization in the highways department. A 21,000-report was read by Mr. Duncan during the first two days of the hearing.

Mr. Millar said he met Mr. Duncan for 15 minutes in January and for 20 minutes in February.

"Are you saying that was 35 minutes in all and at all times you were the senior official of the department?" asked Mr. Wren. ". . . that's an amazing statement."

The witness said the original investigation which began last fall was the result of routine checks within the department itself, During the investigation Mr. Millar was in constant touch with the provincial auditor's department which launched the full-scale inquiry.

$75,000 Damage In Mill Fire

SEAFORTH (CP) — A spark which danced across a 50-foot conveyor belt touched off a $75,000 blaze that levelled part of a large feed mill Wednesday at this town 30 miles northwest of Stratford.

Men manning two trucks of the Seaforth fire department fought for three hours to control the fire in the new feeds division of the Top Notch Feeds Limited plant. That section, including a three-storey elevator and large storage bins, was undergoing a $60,000 renovation job which was almost complete.

The fire was said to have started in a faulty switch in a motor which operated a conveyor belt moving grain from the milling plant to the feeds section.

Workmen were able to carry tools, filing cabinets, kegs of nails and bags of grain from the fire.

Dense smoke rose hundreds of feet into the air. The pall could be seen as far away as Mitchell, 11 miles east.

Report Next Week

OTTAWA (CP) — External Affairs Minister Pearson is expected to report to the Commons early next week on the Geneva conference on Korean and Indo-Chinese problems. Prime Minister St. Laurent informed the House Wednesday that Mr. Pearson's plans are to return here at the start of next week.

Valdmanis Remanded

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP) — Dr. Alfred A. Valdmanis was remanded Wednesday until Friday when he made another of a series of court appearances on charges of defrauding the Newfoundland government and a German machine company of $420,000.

Commons Extends Shipping Control

OTTAWA (CP)—Legislation to extend federal control involving the rail and ship movement of goods in bulk for a further two-year period was approved Wednesday by the Commons despite opposition protests that the powers are too wide.

Members gave third reading to the legislation. It was introduced because the government plans to permit emergency powers to expire May 31.

Transport Minister Chevrier said the powers contained in the legislation are necessary to ensure the movement of bulk commodities such as grain to meet export requirements. It gives Federal Transport Controller Roy Milner authority over the movement of grain and grain products, ores and minerals, ferrous metals, iron and steel scrap, sand, stone and gravel, pulpwood, woodpulp, poles and logs, coal and coke and sulphur and phosphate.

Early sown fields of spring grain are off to a good start in Durham. Lambton farmers have completed the seeding of oats and barley, and in Halton this work will be wound up by Saturday. A Middlesex farmer has finished the planting of 300 acres of husking corn . . . In Perth county the acreage of corn and soybeans will be increased, partly due to the late season . . . Many farmers in Haldimand are switching from oats to corn, soybeans, millet, and buckwheat.

Delivery of milk in Frontenac is heaviest on record . . . Even in Leeds most of the seeding will be done by Saturday or the first of next week, with favorable weather. Prince Edward cheese factories are receiving milk . . . Farmers across the province have done a rush seeding job this week.

OTONABEE CHAPTER, IODE, held their annual Lilac Tea on Wednesday afternoon—but without lilacs. The tea was at the home of Mrs. D. E. Bell, 505 King Street, who is seen standing with Mrs. Frank Merrett (right) regent of the chapter. Mrs. Bert Jackson, a charter member of the chapter, is seen pouring tea. (Examiner Staff Photo)

Lilacs Not Out For Tea, IODE Switches To Tulips

Ladies of the Otonabee Chapter, IODE, annually hold a lilac tea during the month of May, but this year they were disappointed by the lilacs—not a branch in any of their gardens was sufficiently in bloom to cut—so the 1954 tea will be remembered as the tulip tea.

Mrs. D. E. Bell gave her home at 505 King street for the tea and Mrs. F. J. A. Hall and Mrs. W. A. Burrell took charge of the arrangements.

The tea table bouquet, a solid mass of multicolor tulips, was in a flower bowl meant for tulips with its colored tulip moulding, and the matching candleholders were in the shape of a tulip head.

The pleasing crowd of guests kept the dining-room fully circled throughout the afternoon. Mrs. A. R. McWilliams and Mrs. Gordon Langhorne acted as hostesses, ushering from the living-room to the tea-room.

Tea was poured by Mrs. B. W. Harvey, Mrs. F. A. Gray, Mrs. Bert Jackson and Mrs. Lucy Davis, and tea-room assistants were Mrs. D. W. Clark, Mrs. J. H. Jamison, Mrs. Fred Mowry, Mrs. S. A. Archibald, Mrs. C. H. Sherwood, Mrs. H. M. Wilson, Mrs. H. Lowes, Mrs. A. E. Dryland, Mrs. N. Andrews and Mrs. B. MacLean.

Mrs. I. R. Rattenbury was selling draw tickets on an iced angel cake which was won by Mrs. L. H. Bearne.

Tea tickets were taken at the door by Mrs. W. A. Davern and Mrs. W. G. McLaren.

Chapter Regent Mrs. Frank Merrett and hostess Mrs. Bell received the guests.

Reporting for the treasurer, Mrs. L. G. McGinnis, who was unavoidably absent, J. Trombley showed the past year to have been one of the best financially in the history of the association. It was decided to set aside $140. of the balance on hand as part payment for the swings.

Mrs. J. Heath, in her report as recording secretary, reviewed the highlights of the past year.

Attendance of parents and grandparents was taken by Principal E. C. Prentice with honors going to J. Trombley's room.

Mrs. Frost in her presidential report, spoke of the good work of the past year and thanked the executive and members for their fine co-operation. Two minutes of silence was observed in tribute to Miss Mabel White, a member, who died recently.

Mrs. Jean Watson was convener of the nominating committee and presented the slate of officers.

Canadian Furs Impress Queen Mother, Princess

By MURIEL NARRAWAY

LONDON (CP) — The Queen Mother and Princess Margaret visited the Commonwealth section of the British Industries Fair and lingered longest at the $200,000 fur display.

The Queen Mother, accompanied by Norman Robertson, Canadian high commissioner in London, gave close attention to several garments and said she was "much impressed" by Canada's progress in fur breeding.

Behind her, fashion - conscious Princess Margaret was inspecting mink garments ranging from wild mink to a new honey-blonde color called champagne. She has been photographed several times this year in a full-length mink coat.

The pearl platinum shading of a fox fur called opaline came in for special attention from the Queen Mother, who has shown a love of fox fur in her fashion choice over many years. Her Majesty said the skins interested her because it was the first time she had seen this particular shade. She commented also on palladium fox, a silver-white shade originally called platinum.

A cerulean sapphire mink coat with up-to-date narrow fullness, small collar, soft shoulders and three-quarter, cuffed sleeves, worked in pelts that encircled the arm, held the centre of the stand. Both royal ladies mentioned its delicate color and varied fashion points.

Last year, 12,627 overseas buyers visited the British Industries Fair and this year's figures are expected to equal, or better, that. The Canadian stand, located at one side of the main entrance, is drawing admiring glances.

Women of all ranks, many of whom can not hope to own a mink coat, are entranced by the rich wood-smoke shade of a short coat in lutetia, an Aleutian mink which is the loveliest and most expensive of the furs on show. With fullness rippling from a smooth shoulder yoke of narrow pelts showing little more than the dark backbone marking, the coat has a round stand collar and wide sleeves caught into a narrow cuff.

RANCH FURS

The ranch fur industry is represented by six mutation mink and four dark mink garments, including a silverblu "Breath of Spring" jacket, a full-length silverblu coat and a sapphire stole. Also on show are a full-length beaver coat, a muskrat coat and squirrel jacket.

A fox garment that drew the Queen Mother's attention is a ground-length evening cape with deep curved collar, composed of complete skins separated by pleated silk.

Canadian furs hold special place too in the retail fur markets of Britain. The most expensive coat on display this month is a Canadian sapphire blue mink costing £5,500 (about $15,125). Styled by Britain's National Fur Company, the coat is comprised of 70 skins and 6½ miles of cotton and required 224 hours of skilled craftsmanship.

In the big department stores there are Canadian dyed squirrel coats, £349 for a full-length, and ranch mink stoles at £199.

Bouffant-Gowned Dolls Circle Maypoles At Tea Of St. James' BB Mothers

Lovely little dolls in pretty bouffant gowns circled maypoles on tea and bazaar tables in the St. James' church basement at the maypole tea held Wednesday afternoon by the Baby Band Mothers of the church.

Even the small guests' tables were centred with maypoles and dolls, making the whole tea-room a most charming scene, heightened by pink and blue streamers falling in maypole fashion from the pillars in the room.

Decorating was under the convenership of Mrs. H. Bothwell and she most certainly provided an eye-pleasing effect. Around the maypole on the tea table was a unique rock garden outlined with a white picket fence, and the dolls, with curly blonde, brunette and auburn locks, were in frocks of pink taffeta and net.

The tables laden with bazaar articles, home baking, candy and lovely roses, (for sale at 20 cents each) were also decorated with maypoles set up in traditional fashion. Mrs. W. Miller and Mrs. M. Raines were in charge of the aprons, babies' knitted articles and plastic toys, fancy stationery and other gifts that were offered. Mrs. R. Pirie, Mrs. E. Hess, Mrs. D. Roode, and Mrs. J. McGovarin sold the home baking and Mrs. M. Wright the candy, and Mrs. R. Mader sold roses.

A table displaying lovely layette articles made by the mothers during the year was attended by Mrs. E. Bell. Mrs. Bell was also the general convener of this tea.

Tea room convener was Mrs. J. Dunkerley. The tea was made by Mrs. N. Monks and the plates prepared by Mrs. O. Lunn, Mrs. D. Hess, Mrs. R. Chatten and Mrs. H. Winterbottom.

Hostesses in the tea room were Mrs. G. Townes and Mrs. W. Seabrooke and the servers were Mrs. W. Jordan, Mrs. K. Wesenburg, Mrs. F. Dunford, Mrs. J. Kitney, Mrs. H. Darling, Mrs. S. Frey, Mrs. R. Webb, Mrs. J. Lewis and Mrs. W. Roode.

Tea pourers were past presidents of the group, Mrs. C. Davis, Mrs. C. Jones and Mrs. R. Stewart, and Mrs. L. Bird, president of the WMS.

President Mrs. E. Roberts received, assisted by Mrs. A. L. Shorten, the minister's wife. Tea tickets were taken by Mrs. H. Bell.

A nursery for the guests' small children was in charge of Mrs. W. Post and Mrs. J. Thompson.

Police Matron Addresses Grace Church WA

The Women's Association, Grace United church, held their monthly meeting Tuesday evening in the church. Mrs. H. Lambert was in the chair for opening devotions. Scripture reading and prayer was by Mrs. G. Close. Mrs. G. Walton introduced the speaker, Mrs. M. Shadgett, police matron.

In describing her work Mrs. Shadgett said she looked on it "not as a job but a means of helping the less fortunate". Her calls are variable, some lengthly and even the odd humorous one. "Basis of a great deal of the trouble that leads both young and old is drink" she said.

"Any form of church work dealing with young people is a wonderful thing." She concluded her outline of the work she covers by saying: "Love and affection are more apt to bring some degree of success when working with some of the problems, than hostility."

Mrs. Shadgett was thanked by Mrs. W. Gerow.

President Mrs. J. Waldie presided for the business period. Plans were discussed for the June meeting which is to be a pot luck supper, and it was decided to hold it at the church. Material and wool were given out, to be made up for the December bazaar and tea, with Mrs. H. Lambert in charge of the bazaar table.

Mrs. B. L. Harvey reported on Pleasant to which she and Mrs. A. Tripp went as delegates. An invitation from Stewart Hall WMS to attend their meeting Thursday, May 27, was accepted. The ladies are to meet at the church by 7:15.

A social hour followed the meeting.

DOROTHY DIX

Fiance Eager To Free Girl From Her Selfish Mother

DEAR MISS DIX: My fiance is one of three daughters of a widowed mother with a martyr complex. The other two girls are married, and were smart enough to move quite a distance away, leaving Laura to care for her mother. Now, the mother is a woman in her 40s, healthy, attractive, and with a small income from property left by her husband. She has sisters and brothers, other relatives and friends, yet won't let Laura out of her sight without throwing a tantrum.

These spells of hers are nothing new; she ruled her husband through them. Whenever he wanted to do or buy someething on his own, thre was a fit of crying with, "You don't love me," "I might as well go away," etc.

Perhaps my complaints sound childish, but it seems a shame to see a woman, who is perfectly capable of doing something useful in the world, acting like a child. Naturally, the subject of Laura's marriage brings on a de luxe attack of weeping. I dearly love my fiancee, but I'm not looking forward to spending much of our time in a perpetual vale of tears.

LOU

TOUGH PROBLEM

ANSWER: You are facing one of the toughest problems that can beset a marriage, and one which, if not permanently solved now, will forever rule your home. The combination of a mother determined to get what she wantse by any means at hand, and a compliant daughter who will make any sacrifice for the sake of peace, is well nigh unbeatable. The fact that your future mother-in-law's tactics have been successfully employed with everyone in the family for several years forfeits for her any sympathy that might be her due in the role of a normal, lonely mother.

There is one cogent fact which, if squarely faced, might make your fiancee see reason. This is, that absolutely nothing that has ever been done, or will ever be done for her mother, will make the older woman happy or satisfied. So, though Laura gives her mother abject devotion and slavish care, nothing will ever be enough. Then, what is the good of continual striving? Absolutely none. The girl's salvation lies in getting married and moving away—as did her sisters—to a safe point of vantage. Perhaps a miracle will then make Mom realize how foolish she's been, and how much happier she'll be making a life of her own, instead of relying on those around her to supply every emotional need. Were she too old or too ill for activity, drastic action would be difficult if not imposible. Under existing cricumstances, however, it's the only possible thing to do. In the long run it will turn out to be the kindest step, too, since it will undoubtedly give mother a push toward independence which she needs sorely.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: Many years ago our only daughter died, leaving her baby girl. Her husband remarried shortly after, but he did not tell his child that his wife was not her real mother. He did not permit our granddaughter to visit us and, though we called on them occasionally for the sake of maintaining our acquaintance with the ch d, we were aware of the fact that we were supposed to be quite distant with the girl. However, we haven't visited them in some time now, and only see our grandchild when we meet her on the street, as family friends. She is now 17 and we believe it's about time she knew something about her own mother.—GRANDFATHER.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: It is always a mistake to bring a child up in ignorance of her true parentage; the father has been very foolish in this regard. Eventualy someone is going to tell the girl that her own mother is dead and she will resent her father's attempt at secrecy. In the long run, he's hurting no one as much as himself. There is nothing at all you can do but wait until such time as the truth comes out. It's too bad that you and the girl have been deprived of the precious grandchild-grandparents relationship that could have been enjoyed all these years, but perhaps the future will make up for it.

MARY MOORE SAYS:

Sandwiches For Wedding Reception

In giving you help with your wedding plans in 1954 I'm getting excited over plans for Marianne's and Herbie's wedding in 1955.

We've just heard the startling news that he is posted to a unit which is thousands of miles from home — so it looks as if we have to be Pollyanna-like and console ourselves with the thought that the extra time spent on trousseau preparations will make it all that much lovelier. Last night Marianne and Herbie cut out a 10-yard length of linen tea-towelling (on the living-room floor) to make 12 tea towels. So at least they will be able to dry the dishes—and what's more they have dishes!

But to get back to your 1954 problem.

I promised you quantities for making sandwiches.

SANDWICHES: (amounts are for 50 2-slice sandwiches).

In most cities in Canada you can buy a 2-lb. sandwich loaf. This slices into 22 slices, and if it is what bakeries call a "steam sandwich loaf," when crusts are cut off the loaf is not drastically reduced in volume.

These amounts are for 100 slices of bread made into 50 2-slice sandwiches.

BREAD: 4½ 2-lb. sandwich loaves.

BUTTER: 1½ lbs (room temperature) to spread half of the slices.

MAYONNAISE: 1 32-oz. quart to spread the other half of the slices.

CHICKEN: 1 5-lb. fowl (dressed weight) will yield 1½ lbs. (dressed weight) will yield 1½ lbs. white and dark meat if you have an expert slicer. (There will be a surplus unslicable chicken leftover—so plan to use this in a chicken salad.) Allowing 2 ounces thinly sliced white and dark meat of chicken per sandwich, you will need 100 ounces which means you will have to buy 4 5-lb. fowl (dressed weight) and boil it.

Note 1)—If you roast the chickens the yield will be lower for the chicken is drier.

Note 2)—Chickens should be chilled after cooking, and sliced very cold with sharp knife.

HAM: 4 lbs. thinly sliced boiled or baked boneless ham will make 50 2-slice sandwiches.

EGG: Allowing 3 tablespoons (1½ oz.) per sandwich of chopped egg sandwich filling (mixed with mayonnaise, etc.) you will need slightly less than 4 Imperial pints to make 50 2-slice sandwiches.

LOBSTER or SALMON: Same amounts as for chopped egg above—slightly under 4 Imperial pints for 50 2-slice sandwiches.

NOTE ON THICKNESS OF SLICES

If sandwich bread is sliced on slicing machine, dial may be set to slice the bread thinner and you can get 30 slices to each 2-lb. loaf, but this does not effect amount of filling.

ASPARAGUS ROLLS

You may use either freshly cooked and chilled asparagus or well-drained canned asparagus. Cut a slice of brown or white bread. Spread with well-creamed process or white cream cheese which has been moistened with mayonnaise. Place 2 asparagus tips, end to end, with tips at each corner of bread. Roll slice cornerwise, and cut roll at centre. If necessary skewer the roll shut with toothpick until time of serving, then cut in half.

Next week I will give you more wedding data — miscellaneous this time.

6—In Memoriam

HEGADORAN—In loving memory of a dear father, Harry Carnduff Hegadoran, who passed away 17 years ago today.
They say time heals all sorrows,
And helps us to forget,
But time so far has only proved
How much we miss you yet.
God gave us strength to fight it,
And courage to bear the blow,
But what it meant to lose you
No one will ever know.
—Always remembered by his children, Carnduff, June, Mavis, Harley, Gary and Betty Lou.

HEGADORAN—In loving memory of a dear husband, Harry Carnduff Hegadoran, who passed away May 20, 1937.
Nothing can ever take away
The love a heart holds dear.
Fond memories linger every day,
Remembrance keeps him near.
—Sadly missed by wife, Bessie.

McILWAIN—In loving memory of our dear mother, Jessie McIlwain, who passed away May 20th, 1950.
Memories of happy hours,
Hours we spent with you.
Happy days and happy ways
Happy times we knew.
Memories of other years,
Forever yours and ours,
Linger in our hearts and make sweet memories,
Of mother, dear, when we are apart.
—Lovingly remembered by son Orville, Jane and grandchildren.

McILWAIN—In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Jessie Louise McIlwain, who passed away May 20th, 1950.
Her last parting wish
We would like to have heard
And breathed in her ear
Our last parting words.
Only those who have lost
Are able to tell,
The pain in the heart
In not saying farewell.
—Lovingly remembered by daughter Clara, son-in-law Arthur and grandsons.

McILWAIN—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Jessie McIlwain, who passed away May 20, 1950.
We often sit and think of her when we are all alone,
For memory is the only friend that grief can call its own;
Like ivy on the withered oak, when all other things decay,
Our love for her will still keep green and never fade away.
—Ever remembered by son Bud and daughter-in-law Hazel.

German Shippers Welcome Seaway Project

HAMBURG (Reuters)—The five West German shipping companies operating direct cargo services between Europe and the North American Great Lakes are unanimous in welcoming the St. Lawrence seaway project.

They are especially interested in the possibility of carrying ore and grain by sea direct from the heart of the American continent to European ports.

The companies concerned are members of the Hamburg-Chicago Line and the Hapag-Lloyd group. The Hamburg-Chicago Line comprises the two Hamburg companies A. Kirsten and Sartori and Berger; the Hapag-Lloyd group consists of the Hamburg-America Line, the North-German Lloyd in Bremen and Ahrenkiel and Bene in Hamburg. These five companies joined this year to form one general service.

HAS TWO PARTS

The service is divided into two parts, an "A" and a "B" service. Both services take on loads at Antwerp, Rotterdam, Bremen and Hamburg. The "A" service leaves Hamburg weekly for Montreal, Toronto, Detroit, Milwaukee and Chicago. The "B" service leave once every two weeks for Newfoundland, Quebec, Hamilton, Buffalo, Cleveland, Toledo and, when necessary, ports further inside the Great Lakes.

Nine ships of between 945 and 2,200 tons operate the "A" service. Both services carry varied cargoes to the lakes from Europe: Iron, chemicals, glass, glassware, ceramics, all kinds of machines, optical instruments and cars. Cargoes taken on board in Canada and the United States include synthetic rubber, cars, meat products, grain, machines, asbestos, aluminum and scrap metal.

CAN EXPAND

Spokesman for Sartori and Berger told Reuters that these services could be expanded if and when necessary.

Three years' experience of such direct lines to and from the Great Lakes have shown that freight costs can be reduced by up to 25 per cent, by avoiding overland carriage. Moreover, the spokesman said, no particular navigational difficulties have been encountered.

Sartori and Berger said that the economically ideal tonnage for ships operating from Europe along the completed seaway to the Great Lakes will be 7,000 tons. The companies already have ships of that size, but they will only consider putting these ships on the Great Lakes run if there is a boom in trade.

'Burned' Says Woman

DALLAS (AP)—A woman has sued a variety store for $2,800, charging she was "burned" by a set of "artificial rubber bust forms." She claimed the articles contained chemicals which became soluble when she perspired and caused her to become "poisoned, burned and injured."

Police Ladies' Aux. Tea At Mrs. Stringer's Home

Less familiar to the general public than their husbands, the wives of the city and provincial police of the Kawartha district welcomed the friendship of more than 150 ladies who came to the afternoon tea which they held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. A. Stringer, 565 Stewart street.

The new home of OPP District Inspector and Mrs. Stringer is in an unusual hillside location overlooking a large section of the city and guests enjoyed the view as well as the hospitality extended.

As the day was fine and the temperature comfortable, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, Mrs. Bert Howden and Mrs. Norman Graham, the mayor's wife, received in the breezeway and the ladies attending the guest register and taking tickets were at a table on the lawn.

Mrs. Stringer was assisted in convening the tea arrangements by Mrs. Harold Mesley and Mrs. Gordon Gray. She and Mrs. Mesley took turns receiving also, and Mrs. Gray took tickets with Mrs. E. Crough at the register.

The tea table in the modern panelled living room was laid by Mrs. W. G. Scott with an oyster lace cloth and centred with a silver epergne filled with white tipped red tulips. Triple silver candlabrae held green candles. Baskets of tulips and lilacs throughout the home and at the entrance were brought for the occasion by Mrs. Ernest Beatty.

Sale tables with aprons, "white elephants", candy and home baking were also flower decked. Mrs. Scott was selling the aprons until her supply ran out and then she took a turn serving. Mrs. T. Emmons and Mrs. W. Amos had the novelties, Mrs. Garnet Samis and Mrs. J. K. Smith the home baking and Mrs. D. Farthing and Mrs. James Armstrong the candy.

Refreshment plates were arranged by Mrs. A. Dalton and Mrs. J. Morrow and were served by Mrs. R. Lamb, Mrs. Bruce Tillson, Mrs. J. Healey, Mrs. E. Lunn, Mrs. Jack Munroe, Mrs. S. Keliele, Mrs. G. Gillespie and Mrs. W. Perry. Guests were comfortably seated at quartette tables, also in the living room.

Tea was poured by Mrs. J. W. Thompson, wife of the city police chief, Mrs. W. Wigg, an associate member, Mrs. W. R. Philp, wife of the magistrate, and president Mrs. Howden.

Belleville Fire Dept. Standardizes Gear

The Belleville fire department is having all its equipment standardized this week.

All fire hydrants, incluring those owned by the Belleville public utilities, hose threads and couplings, together with hydrant couplings are being made standard to conform with all other centers in the province.

On Monday a crew of four men with a mobile machine shop moved into the city. The work is being carried out under the supervision of the Ontario Fire Marshal's Department. One-third of the cost is paid by the federal government and two-thirds by the Ontario government.

The local standardization project is part of program of the fire marshal's department to have standard fittings on all fire fighting equipment in all parts of the province.

ing and the sacraments, he emphasized the importance of the minister as a representative of God in all that he did. As a minister he would have the support and co-operation of devoted and loyal people wherever he went. Dr. Patterson offered congratulations and extended best wishes on behalf of Mark Street church. Mr. Mathews brought the best wishes of the presbytery to Mr. Chapman and assured him of their prayers and support.

Following the service a reception was held for Mr. and Mrs. Chapman. An address was read by J. L. Ireland, after which E. Lillico presented Mr. Chapman with a pulpit gown. Mrs. A. Roberts presented Mr. and Mrs. Chapman with a bouquet of roses. These gifts from the Mark Street congregation testified to the esteem in which both Mr. and Mrs. Chapman are held.

Mr. Chapman replied and expressed their deep appreciation for all of the kindness and support given them by the people Mark Street Church. Their help, both financially and through their prayers, had enabled him to complete his preparation for the ministry. His hope was that he might be worthy in his ministry of the confidence placed in him.

During the social hour Dr. Patterson spoke of the fact that history was being made in that Mr. Chapman was the first candidate for the ministry from Mark Street church. He announced that Mr. Chapman would preach in Mark Street June 6, the Sunday before his ordination.

Goebel, director of hospitals and superintendent of schools for the Milwaukee archdiocese, succeeds Rev. Francis Lively of Brooklyn, N.Y., who died in office two months ago.

Asking For Help At Boys' Camp

YMCA boys' work secretary Bill McFarlane is sending out an SOS for citizens to help prepare Camp Kawartha for an influx of boys next month.

Work parties are going out every weekend, to get the site in order, Mr. McFarlane said today. Spearheaded by the Y's Men's Club, members of the boards of directors, committee members and interested citizens have been making the pilgrimage to Stony lake.

The boys' camp runs from June 2 to August 7 under director McFarlane. Already accommodation has been booked for most of this period, although there is still room for more youngsters in both the first and last weeks.

After the boys' camps close, the YWCA takes over until August 18. Directing the girls' camp will be Miss Beatrice Pelsis, YWCA physical director.

On the home front, gym activities have stopped for the season, and the prime emphasis is now on swimming. Aim is to make as many children as possible expert swimmers before they go to camp.

YMCA memberships are available all year round. Some citizens seem to feel that they must wait until fall, when the 1954-55 season begins, but one can join the Y anytime.

Man Sees Moose Standing Beside Road

ORILLIA (CP) — A cottage owner at nearby Washago was startled Wednesday to see a big moose standing beside Highway 11. The animal gazed about for more than a minute, then loped slowly into the bush.

In Toronto, an official of the Ontario department of lands and forests said it is "unusual" for moose to roam as far south as Washago. He said the Washago mooe, estimated at 900 pounds, would be considered a "good-sized" one.

To Choose

According to Mr. Metcalfe more layoffs are anticipated unless the short-work-weeks are accepted. Just how many will be laid off Mr. Metcalfe couldn't forecast exactly. He estimated, however, that further layoffs could possibly involve about 75 more workers.

"These people we will need again and we won't lay off unless we can help it," he said.

The cutbacks in production are expected to affect working conditions at least until the end of the summer, possibly August.

"We're going to lay the facts before the people and let them make the decision," said Fred Burrett, president of Local 5009 today. This will be done at both meetings at which a vote will be taken by the employees. These meetings are to get the viewpoint of the employees and will not necessarily mean their decision will be final.

"We will know within a week what we're going to do," said Mr. Metcalfe.

Pleads Guilty To Assault, Man Warned

Elmer Jacobs, 25, of Burleigh Falls, pleaded guilty to a charge of common assault in magistrate's court today and was fined $20 and $5.50 costs. The assault was against Betty Hughey, 10, of 413 Bellevue St., on April 19.

Detective Dennis Traynor testified that Jacobs allegedly stopped the girl on Bellevue St., about 8.00 p.m. that evening and asked her to direct him to the home of a friend on that street. The girl said she didn't know where the place was and Jacobs picked her up in his arms and carried her toward the end of the street. When she started to scream, he placed a hand over her mouth.

When they arrived at a grassy portion at the end of the street, Jacobs apparently asked the girl to lie down on the grass. She refused and eventually was let go. Medical evidence indicated the girl suffered some shock.

Jacobs had been staying at the home of his sister and had been drinking heavily. He had been asked to go outside and call the two young children of the house. He said he had known them only that day.

Jacobs had previously been convicted of indecent assault and gross indecency, and was warned by magistrate W. R. Philp to watch his step.

Canadian Arrested For Illegal Entry

NEW YORK (CP)—The federal immigration service said today that Alex McDonald of Toronto, brother of the notorious Mickey McDonald of Canada's most-wanted-criminal list, was arrested here Wednesday night and charged with illegal entry into the United States.

The immigration service said McDonald had been in the U. S. about a week. He was arrested because of "his past criminal record," the service said.

Mickey McDonald, sought by RCMP for the last few years, was believed to have fled to the U. S. Authorities here have long held the belief that he has been killed in an underworld fight and buried in some unknown spot.

Harry R. Gardiner

CAVAN (ENS)—The funeral of Harry R. Gardiner, a highly respected resident of Cavan, took place on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock from the Macpherson funeral home, Millbrook.

After a short illness Mr. Gardiner died at the Civic Hospital, Peterborough, on Saturday.

He was the son of early pioneer settlers of Cavan township, Matthew Gardiner and Jane Carr and was in his 82nd year.

By trade he was a carpenter and in the surrounding villages and countryside there are many buildings which give evidence of his fine workmanship.

In 1912 he married Lottie Elliott, also of Cavan, and they went to live in North Battleford, Sask., where he carried on his trade. For several years he was employed in the post office in that town.

About seventeen years ago they moved back to Cavan and bought a home in the village.

He was a member of the United Church, which he attended as long as health permitted. Keenly fond of horses, he was never happier than when training a trotter, of which he has owned some very fine specimens in his day.

About three years ago his wife suffered a stroke and has been confined to bed most of the time since.

Mr. Gardiner's time since then has been spent in giving her the constant care which she needed.

They had no family.

To his wife and his sister, Mrs. Joseph Burns, Cavan, the only surviving member of a family of six children, the sympathy of the community is extended. The Rev. A. M. Butler, pastor of the United Church, Cavan, had charge of the service.

The pallbearers were his nephews, Garnett Burns and George Burns of Peterborough, Erol Burns of Otonabee, Fred Byers and Milburn Richards of Cavan and Emmerson Richards of Frankford.

Flowerbearers were Lloyd Sutton, W. Elson, H. Argue, Milton Carr of Cavan, Garfield Hutchinson of Toronto, Grant, Harold, Joe and Keith Burns of Peterborough.

Interment was in Gardiner's cemetery, Cavan.

Sponsors Assure Future Of Canada House In N.Y.

NEW YORK (CP)—Ray Lawson, Canadian consul-General in New York, said Wednesday night the financial future of a Canada House in New York is assured and sponsors are studying possible sites for the building.

In a speech to the Dalhousie Club of New York, the consul-general said his original call for financial support had been oversubscribed. He had hoped for 12 offers of $100,000 and had received 22.

"Each of these sponsors will offer the Canadian government a long-term option to purchase his interest at cost, plus a small interest lower than the bank rate," Lawson said.

Because of the additional sponsorship, original plans for a $5,000,000 project now could be expanded into an $8,000,000 building.

The sponsors hoped prevailing rentals would carry all costs and that eventually the building could be turned over to the government without cost to the taxpayer.

The consul-general said it is planned to offer space in the building to the government and to Canadian companies and American concerns with interests in Canada.

Lawson originally proposed Canada House in a speech to the Canadian Club of New York in October, 1953.

The building, a dream of more than 20 years in New York's large Canadian colony, will be located within half a mile of Grand Central terminal in the heart of Manhattan. The best site will be picked shortly.

The Canadian government has offices in four buildings of Rockefeller Centre. Elsewhere in Manhattan are branches of five Canadian banks, two Canadian railways and various Canadian businesses.

Saleslady Mrs. Marie Baldwin Wins Sunshine Sweepstakes

The most popular saleslady in Peterborough is Mrs. Marie Baldwin of 143 Princess St., who is the winner of the Peterborough Examiner and city stores sponsored "Sunshine Sweepstakes".

When the results were announced to her today by William J. Garner, assistant general manager of The Examiner, Mrs. Baldwin said: "It's a surprise I never expected."

The prize for winning the title to "Mrs. Saleslady" is a week's vacation — an all expanse-paid trip — at the Glades Hotel, in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Mrs. Baldwin thinks she will make the trip in the fall, since she can choose the time of her vacation.

Mr. Garner presented a large bouquet of roses and carnations, and a return plane ticket to Florida to Mrs. Baldwin. She also received a bouquet from the assistant-manager of the Metropolitan store, Stephen Choma.

Mrs. Baldwin has been employed by the Metropolitan Stores for 26 years and last year received an engraved watch for 25 years service in the company.

"They were so anxious that I would win," she said. "I can't imagine why people would go to all that trouble for me."

Mrs. Baldwin received close to a million votes — the exact total was 867,300. The next three runner-ups were Shirley Foster, of

Commercial Driver Road Menace

Davies Says Trucks Violate Laws With Great Immunity

TORONTO (CP)— Senator W. Rupert Davies charged today that there is an apparent "comradeship" between police and truck drivers that permits trucks to menace lives on Ontario highways with apparent immunity.

In a letter to W. M. Nickle, chairman of the Ontario legislature's committee on traffic safety, Senator Davies called for a crackdown on commercial drivers, especially in the Toronto area.

Mr. Nickle, Progressive Conservative member of the legislature for Kingston, is directing the province's first legislative enquiry into traffic problems.

He said he agreed with the views of Senator Davies and with the Rt. Rev. K. C. Evans, Anglican Bishop of Ontario, who also wrote the committee chairman expressing his views.

Mr. Nickle said he planned to read both letters into the record when his committee meets next Tuesday.

VIOLATIONS SCORED

Senator Davies, who is president of the Kingston Whig-Standard, said that in his opinion there is "a great disinclination on the part of both provincial and municipal police to check up on commercial drivers."

Trucks passed on the wrong side and tore in and out of traffic in Toronto. On the highways it was almost as bad, he said, and "there seems to be a comradeship between police and drivers of commercial vehicles which prevents the police from cracking down on these fellows."

Senator Davies said that on a recent drive from Brantford to Toronto he was going 50 miles an hour and was passed by two huge transports "going so fast that within two minutes they had disappeared from sight."

"I am sure that one must have been going 75 or 80 miles an hour,"

TEMPERANCE LEADER—The Rev. John Coburn died today in Toronto. He was one of the most widely quoted temperance men.

Rev. John Coburn Temperance Leader Dies

TORONTO (CP) —The Rev. John Coburn, 80, retired minister of the United Church of Canada and veteran temperance leader, died today.

Dr. Coburn, who raised his voice throughout Ontario against the "liquor traffic," was one of the country's best-known and most-widely quoted temperance leaders.

From the time he was a young Methodist church minister shortly after the turn of the century until his retirement four years ago he was a stalwart supporter of total abstinance from alcoholic drink.

From 1945 to 1950 he was general secretary of the Canadian Temperance Federation.

United States-born, Dr. Coburn was a son of the late James and Annie Coburn, of Neenah, Wis. He was educated at Victoria College and University of Toronto.

In 1932 he received an honorary doctor of divinity degree from the latter university.

ONTARIO CHARGES

He was received as a probationer in the Methodist Church of Canada in 1893 and was ordained four years later. He served several Ontario charges before being appointed field secretary of the church's board of evangelism and social work in 1920.

Five years later, when the United Church of Canada came into being, he was given the same post in that body.

During the First World War he served overseas as a chaplain with the Canadian expeditionary force, in the 201st and 176th battalions, and the 12th reserve battalion.

At the Ontario provincial election of 1914 as independent temperance candidate for West Simcoe he was defeated.

Dr. Coburn was a director of the Social Service Council of Canada, Canadian Temperance Federation and Ontario Temperance Federation; a member of the ex-

3 French Posts Battle Fiercely To Stem Rebels

HANOI, Indo-China (AP)—Three little defence posts in the southeastern sector of the vital Red river delta battled fiercely today to hold off encircling Vietminh forces as the defenders of Dien Bien Phu tried to do.

French union aircraft parachuted ammunition, guns, and food to Viet Namese defenders in the posts of Yen Phu, Anxa, and Coquan.

They have been under constant heavy mortar attack and machinegun fire for nearly a fortnight.

French fighters and bombers are heavily hitting the besieging Communist-led rebels.

During the last fortnight the Vietminh have cut off all road communication with the three posts and tightened encirclement.

Earlier, the French command said 159 wounded have been brought out of Dien Bien Phu and that it hoped to fly out 100 more today.

Helicopters and Beaver aircraft are making the slow but steady shuttle from Dien Bien Phu to the royal Laotian capital of Luangprabang, where the wounded are relayed to Hanoi.

The evacuation was slowed Thursday night by violent monsoon rains which made flying impossible for several hours. As a result, only 50 were flown out Thursday instead of the scheduled 120.

A high command spokesman today said there still is no word about Dien Bien Phu's lone French nurse, Genevieve de Galard Terraube. He said all that is known of rebel plans to release her was the announcement to that effect by a Communist spokesman Wednesday at the Geneva conference.

See Holdup In Asia Defence Pact

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States may run into difficulty in setting up a collective anti-Communist defence for Southeast Asia without Britain, U.S. officials say, if in the showdown Britain refuses to go along.

Officials here are convinced that definite steps will be taken fairly soon toward creating such a defence system. But they are not certain what stumbling blocks they may run into in the process.

A sign of possible complication came Thursday from New Zealand's foreign minister, T. Clifton Webb, following an hour-long conference with State Secretary Dulles and New Zealand's ambassador here, Leslie Knox Munro.

"I can't conceive of a satisfactory alliance being made that didn't include Britain," Webb said.

Asked further about forming an alliance without Britain, Webb said: "We can't see Britain not wanting to be in. You are asking me to speculate on a situation which we don't believe will arise."

Nothing of great importance, certainly nothing of a formal nature, is believed likely to happen on the coalition project until after the Australian elections May 29. At that time U.S. officials would like to move quickly, and extensive understandings may by then have been reached by U.S. and

Police Break Up Immigration Racket

BARI, Italy (AP)—Police have broken up a gang reported to have fleeced 21 Italian workers out of more than 13,000,000 lire ($21,000) by promising to arrange their immediate entry into Canada.

Police gave this account of the case:

After paying 650,000 lire each, the 21 were taken to Rome and sworn to silence.

Nothing happened for several days. Then the leader of the gang passed them a note saying he had been "taken in" by "Antonio of the Canadian legation" and there would be a delay. The 21 returned to their homes.

The gang leader disappeared but called his wife a day later. She told police he seemed to be "under a threat" when he spoke. Police said they have not yet picked him up.

In Rome, an immigration official in the Canadian embassy declined to comment. He indicated, however, that the matter is firmly in the hands of Italian and international police.

PM Residence Has Small Fire

OTTAWA (CP)—Fire caused a small flurry of excitement today at 24 Sussex street, Prime Minister St. Laurent's residence, but damage was confined to four shingles.

Sparks from a chimney ignited the roof. The prime minister, notified of the outbreak, did not bother to watch firemen putting it out. A little later, when he left for the office, he looked up at the roof, then drove away.

Students Stage Riot In N.Y. Subway

NEW YORK (AP)—High school boys and girls by the hundreds rioted in the subway Thursday, surging in waves through moving cars and smashing all before them. A porter in their path was beaten.

There was no apparent motive beyond sheer rowdyism.

Twenty-four boys and 19 girls were seized for questioning. Later all were released except George Riley, 16, and a 15-year-old juvenile. Riley was held in unusually high bail of $10,000 on a disorderly conduct charge.

Most of the students slithered out of the grasp of cops and vanished.

The young vandals smashed windows, ripped apart seats and hurled them from the trains, broke light bulbs and wrecked vending machines. They pulled emergency cords and held open train doors to disrupt travel schedules.

The riots started after about 1,500 students from four big high schools massed in Van Cortlandt Park in far uptown Manhattan. Police said they thought the gathering was for a picnic or athletic event.

When Riley was arraigned in night court, magistrate Charles F. Murphy, after setting the high bail, said:

"City officials must stop coddling offenders. They must take action. They must be firm in order to prevent such mass irresponsibility."

The young defendant's mother, Mrs. Hortense Riley, said in court her son was "a good boy, but lazy."

Replied Murphy: "Well, he was pretty active today."

Pearson May Give House Secret Committee Report

OTTAWA (CP)—The Commons external affairs committee may get a confidential report soon from External Affairs Minister Pearson on international negotiations at Geneva.

Prime Minister St. Laurent, replying to a series of Commons questions Thursday regarding the Geneva talks, said that Mr. Pearson probably will suggest when he returns next week that he meet the Commons committee "to inform them in confidence of what has taken place there."

It would be "an informal, in-camera discussion," Mr. St. Laurent said, in reply to a question by John Diefenbaker (PC—Prince Albert) for information on Canada's position regarding the recently-stated United Kingdom five-point policy for Southeast Asia.

The prime minister said he is not in a position to give that information to the House.

The situation was one of "very great delicacy" and he was not sure that all the publicity surrounding the Geneva conference on Korea and Indo-China had been helpful in that connection.

Mr. St. Laurent informed Stanley Knowles (CCF — Winnipeg North Centre) that Ottawa has had no communication from the United States government regarding its reported proposal for a Southeast Asian defence pact without British participation.

He suggested, however, that there may have been private discussions at Geneva with the Canadian delegation.

Unless and until there was a communication from the U.S. government, Canada would not make any decisions.

J. H. Ferguson (PC — Simcoe North) pressed for more information on whether the government has had word of Geneva talks on the U.S. proposal.

Mr. St. Laurent replied that the government received a lot of information. But he had not been in Geneva and could not provide an official report.

French Plan Basis

GENEVA (Reuters)—The nine-power indo-China conference agreed today to take a five-point French plan and part of the Vietminh rebel peace proposals as a basis for negotiating an armistice in Viet Nam, conference sources said.

This agreement at the fourth secret session followed western acceptance of Russia's proposal to put aside the dispute over the two smaller Indo-China states, Laos and Cambodia, in favor of talks on armistice terms.

Empty Embassy Costs $4,510

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada is paying $4,510 a year for upkeep of its deserted embassy in Nanking, Communist China, the Commons external affairs committee was informed today.

It is also paying $300 a year rent for a room in Shanghai in which to store furniture once used by the Canadian trade department there.

R. M. Macdonnell, assistant under-secretary in the external affairs department, told Donald Fleming (PC—Toronto Eglinton) that the government has considered selling the Nanking embassy but that there are no likely purchasers.

Other evidence given the committee today disclosed that Jean Desy, Canadian ambassador to France, receives $23,016 in allowances besides salary and that Robert Mayhew, ambassador to Japan, receives $12,624.

Mr. Macdonnell said allowances take into account the cost-of-living, the amount of entertaining which the ambassador has to do and the importance of the country in relation to Canada.

Hopes Raised Break Deadlock

GENEVA (CP) — Two western meetings on Korea and Indo-China today raised new hopes of breaking deadlocks strangling the Geneva Far Eastern Conference.

At one, the West agreed to call for individual committees to tackle armistice proposals for each of the three Indo-Chinese associated states.

At the other, South Korea was reported showing a more flexible attitude on the key problem of all-Korean elections. A British Commonwealth source said today's meeting of the 16-nation Korean group was the "most encouraging" since the Geneva conference opened April 26.

At the Korean meeting, according to the commonwealth source, South Korea showed definite signs of adopting a more flexible attitude on the issue of all-Korean elections.

But he stressed that the U. S. and Korea are still "some distance" apart from other western delegations on the extent of concessions the UN should be willing to make.

Find Czech Opposition Growing Against Reds

VIENNA (AP)—Official Czechoslovak election figures indicated today anti-Communist opposition apparently is far greater than even the Reds are willing to admit.

Czechoslovak voters Sunday elected community, county and regional councils for the first time since the Communists seized power in 1948.

The first Czech figures, announced two days ago, had indicated opposition. Prague radio disclosed that in some areas, like Prague's seventh district, only 86 per cent voted "yes" for the single Communist slate. This was an unusual admission, because the Communists behind the Iron Curtain generally claim a "yes" vote of from 96 to 98 per cent.

Western diplomats here speculated that peasants and farmers, persecuted by Communist officials in their own localities, had expressed their revenge the only way they could—by withholding their votes for these officials.

Costello Plans To Modernize Agriculture

DUBLIN (CP) — Associates of John A. Costello said today that the coalition leader will give top priority to improvement and modernization of agriculture when he takes over as premier of the Republic of Ireland.

Costello's control of the government was assured Thursday night when final returns from Tuesday's general election gave the group of parties headed by him a majority in the new Dail (parliament). Outgoing premier Eamon de Valera conceded that his Fianna Fail (men of destiny) party was defeated and the opposition could form a new government.

The legislature is scheduled to convene June 2.

While plans for formation of the government still are in an early stage, a friend of Costello said the Fine Gael (united Ireland) party chief believes the future of the republic lies in developing her only major asset — 12,000,000 acres of arable land.

LAND NEGLECTED

Through the years this most essential element of the economy has been neglected. The land now is being tilled only at 60 per cent capacity. Costello will try to change that — a policy U.S. economic aid experts also have urged the republic to follow.

With three seats still to be decided at by-elections next week, Tuesday's voting gave the parties this representation in the 147-seat Dail:

Fianna Fail 64, Independents 5, Coalition parties 75. These include Fine Gael 49, Labor 18, Clann na Talmhan (farmers) 5, Clann na Poblachta (republicans) 3.

Fianna Fail suffered a net loss of only six seats, but it had held only a slim two-vote control in Parliament, so the loss was enough to topple it from power.

DOMINANT FIGURE

De Valera, 71 and nearly blind, has been a dominant figure in Irish politics more than 20 years. In that time Costello has been the only man to beat him, and now Costello has done it twice.

From 1948 to 1951, Costello was premier of a coalition government that eventually was ousted by the Fianna Fail.

Economic ills are held largely responsible for the popular old leader's downfall as government chief. The cost of food essentials has jumped since the government withdrew the bulk of its food subsidies in 1952. Taxes have been increased and unemployment has mounted.

TO LEAD IRISH REPUBLIC—John Costello tumbled Prime Minister Eamon de Valera from power by winning control of the Dail in Tuesday's election. Both Costello and de Valera were re-elected personally.—(Federal News Photo)

Guessing Canada's Role

Say Dominion Won't Do More In Asia

By ALAN HARVEY

LONDON (CP) — As the free world gropes toward a new strategy in Asia, The Times in a long editorial today assesses the part that may be played by the various Commonwealth countries, including Canada.

Its general conclusion is that in dealing with the Far East, economic and political action may be more decisive than military measures.

On Canada, The Times makes this comment:

"Canada is far enough from the scene of immediate danger (Indo-China) to take a detached view, though her interest in Asia's eastern fringe is not new. She sent a brigade group to Korea . . . and has kept closely in touch with the Asian members of the Commonwealth.

"It is doubtful whether the claims of her own continental defence and her useful NATO contribution would permit her to play a more active role in Southeast Asia.

"Her direct interest in Malaya is small. Where her interest is clearest is in her desire to strengthen all movements for social and economic consolidation throughout southern and Southeast Asia."

The Times, an independent newspaper, also sums up the interests and possible contributions of other Commonwealth countries. It adds:

"What does emerge from any survey of Commonwealth thought is the widespread conviction . . . that economic and political action can play a great part—greater, perhaps, than air squadrons and divisions—to ensure that the nations against which the Communist threat now bears most heavily will remain independent, sovereign and at peace."

The lengthy editorial broadly reflects the British viewpoint in current thinking about a politico-military alliance in Southeast Asia. This pact, which would be a long-term strategy distinct from the mooted five-power military talks in Washington, has caused a potentially serious cleavage between Britain, which wants to go slow in Asia, and the United States, which views the Far East problem primarily as a military one requiring quick and drastic action.

NO SIMPLE SOLUTION

British caution is induced partly by the feeling that there is no simple solution in the East—the war in Indo-China for instance has an infinitely complicated background—and partly by the desire to associate Asian countries closely with whatever new strategy is evolved.

It appears probable that Canada finds herself much more sympathetic to the British approach. The leading Canadian ministers would likely subscribe to the view expressed today by The Times editorial:

"The powers of the free world have always to remind themselves that they are not facing a simple case of military aggression in the old familiar manner. What they are facing are movements that are carried forward first and foremost by nationalism, that are largely exploited by communism, and that, in Indo-China at least, receive invaluable material help from China."

Oliver Sees Election In Autumn

Suggests Frost May Try Win Snap Verdict

TORONTO (CP)— Ontario Liberal Leader Farquhar Oliver said Thursday night there may be a provincial election this fall and suggested Premier Frost might try to win a snap verdict before "the people realize the magnitude of the sins of omission and commission upon them."

Speaking to a meeting of the Toronto-High Park Liberal Association, he said the Ontario Liberals will have a reform platform for that election when it comes.

He described the municipal taxation record as bad and said the municipalities were starved by the puny grants obtained.

"We will give a charter of liberation to municipalities, giving them rights in their own households," he said.

Referring to highways, he said serious consideration should be given to contract types let and to whom they are awarded. No large contractor should be allowed to bid on small contracts such as constructing culverts.

SHOULD ALLOW BIDDING

This is work which they subcontract, said the Liberal leader. Smaller companies should be allowed to grow, and when larger, be allowed to bid on larger contracts.

Mr. Oliver said present highway department investigation covered only 1950 and one division. He suggested 1949, 1951 and 1952 saw the same conditions prevalent and there was no reason to believe conditions at Fort William would not be found in other divisions.

"We are only starting on this investigation," said Mr. Oliver.

"I can and probably will, suggest other departments to be investigated," said Mr. Oliver.

Council Cancels Judicial Inquiry

OWEN SOUND (CP) — Grey county council decided at a special meeting Thursday night to call off a judical inquiry into the management of the county home and instead ordered an official audit of the home's finances.

It also ordered the dismissal of Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Gould, under suspension for almost a month, as manager and matron of the home.

The special meeting, closed to the press, was called after a petition by 27 of the 41 council members urged reconsideration of the council's decision May 7 to order the judicial inquiry.

Mr. and Mrs. Gould were suspended April 27, a few days after five employees made sworn statements about alleged misdemeanors in the management of the institution.

ORDERS DISMISSAL

A statement issued after the three-hour meeting said the council ordered the manager and matron dismissed "as their services no longer are required." A by-law rescinding the one by which they were appointed will be presented at the next meeting June 7.

The county solicitor was instructed to retain a firm of chartered accountants for a special audit of the home's finances and administration of the trust fund, a system whereby a portion of inmates' old age pension cheques are held in trust. The inquiry is to date back to Jan. 1, 1952.

Warm Weather Allows Seeding In Prairies

Thermometers rose above 80 degrees in the three prairie provinces Thursday, as reported in the CPR crop review issued today. Change in weather this week has permitted seeding to become general in southern Alberta. Work is well advanced in southern and central Saskatchewan.

Percentage of wheat sown in Manitoba up to Thursday is 45 as compared with 72% a year ago. Delayed seeding is expected to result in considerable decrease in wheat acreage, with corrsponding increase in coarse grain sown.

Lift Marshall Ban

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government today lifted its ban on air and sea travel in the area around the Marshall islands atomic proving grounds in the Pacific. The restrictions were imposed during the recent series of hydrogen bomb tests.

Keep 24-Hour Flood Vigil As Rivers In B.C. Dangerous

VANCOUVER (CP)—Anxious residents and emergency crews are keeping a 24-hour flood vigil in the British Columbia interior as swollen creeks creep up to the danger levels.

Cooler temperatures prevailed in the area Thursday, helping to slow down the runoff from snow-clad peaks.

Public works officials at Victoria reported that the situation throughout the province was "fairly steady" during the day and no localities were in a serious position.

A special snow report issued by the government Thursday, consolidating surveys taken up to May 15, expressed cautious optimism, while warning that the critical period was still to come.

The report said that between 20 and 30 per cent of the snow pack had melted already in the areas of the major rivers, Columbia, Kootenay and Fraser.

The worst region in B.C. was along the turbulent Similkameen river, which burst its banks in six places in the area south of Princeton.

BRIDGE WASHOUT

Side roads were cut off and small bridges swept away, while CPR crews worked round-the-clock bridging a washout on the Kettle valley line near Manning, 15 miles west of Princeton.

In the Kootenays, flood control officials at Creston kept a close watch on the Kootenai river which flowed over its banks and inundated 3,000 acres of farm land upstream at Bonners Ferry, Idaho.

"It's all in the lap of the gods now," said Guy Constable, secretary for the Creston water district. "The high water which struck Bonners Ferry was only the run-off from local snow.

"There's still plenty of dynamite left in the hills, masses of ice and snow which, if a hot spell comes up, could cause a very serious situation here."

New York Tremor Shakes Houses

MALONE, N.Y. (AP) — Dishes rattled and houses shook Thursday night as an apparent earth tremor was reported in the northern New York area adjacent to the Canadian border.

There was no immediate report of any serious damage.

The tremor was felt at Ellenberg Center, 40 miles east of here, and at Twin Ponds in the Adirondack mountains, 15 miles to the south.

Massena and Plattsburgh sources said they did not notice any tremor.

State police timed the tremor at 6 p.m. EDT.

Columbia University, at New York City, reported that its seismograph had not recorded any disturbance at the hour the tremor was reported.

All Major Groups Move Up In Trading

Strong industrial groups were papers, utilities, steels, foods, refining oils, textiles and manufacturers. Agricultures and constructions were steady and liquors, financial institutions, motors and the miscellaneous group were off slightly. Most changes were minor fractions but Western Grocers gained $2 in a single trade up to 1 p. m. and General Motors lost the same amount.

Western oils had 24 gains to 18 losses. Central Exploration's 35-cent gain at 1 p. m. was one of the biggest changes.

Senior base metals were well ahead. Junior gains were in pennies. Senior golds were down but juniors, prospects and holding companies gained pennies in light trading. Manitouwadge and Bathurst issues and uraniums were down pennies.

ecutive committee of the Lord's Day Alliance and one-time president of the Toronto conference, United Church of Canada.

He wrote "I Kept My Powder Dry," an anecdotal-type book of incidents during his life-long temperance work.

One of the book's outstanding stories is that of "the battle of 40 bars," an account of the Toronto civic election of 1909, as a result of which temperance forces were successful in having 40 of 150 bars in the city closed.

It was then that Dr. Coburn became, in his own words, "notorious in the temperance fight."

Dr. Coburn was a staunch believer that "liquor traffic has always influenced Canadian and Ontario politics."

His widow is the former Susanna Wesley Emmerson, daughter of Joseph Emmerson. They were married in 1897 and had six children: John Lily, Kathleen, James, Carroll and Frank.

Believe Mother Burned Two Young Children

MONTREAL (CP)—The charred bodies of two young brothers were found Thursday in the basement of their suburban home with their widowed mother dead in an upstairs bedroom from poison.

Police said they believe Mrs. Jacqueline Choiniere, 29, former Bell Telephone operator, first poisoned her sons, Richard, 11, and Jacques, six, then saturated their bodies in gasoline and set them alight. After that she went to her bedroom and poisoned herself.

Mrs. Choiniere and the boys were found in their one-and-a-half storey bungalow in suburban Villeray by a neighbor.

The boys' bodies were discovered on a metal sheet in the cellar. Police said they appeared to have been given ether and some type of acid, but it was not immediately established whether the youngsters died of poisoning before their clothing was set afire.

French officials now holding preliminary talks at Paris.

CONFERENCE FIRST

The British government has decided it will not make commitments of any kind on the Southeast Asia-Indo-China situation until after the current negotiations at Geneva show whether there is to be an end to the fighting.

However, the U.S. is not willing to wait for the Geneva conference to end. President Eisenhower told a press conference Wednesday that he thought a workable defence might be constructed if New Zealand, Australia and the Asian countries were willing to co-operate.

One pertinent point is that what the U.S. is aiming for in the initial stage is not necessarily a formal alliance, but a practical kind of coalition which could be created more quickly.

Meanwhile, U.S. diplomats are reported sounding out friendly members of the United Nations to find out what support they might count on from that quarter.

YMCA Official To Speak To Y's Men

J. Wesley McVicker, secretary of physical education for the Canadian YMCA, will be guest speaker at the local Y's Men's club closing meeting next Thursday. Mr. McVicker is a winner of the Gulick award, the Nobel prize of physical education.

Crests and awards for all types of athletics will be presented at this banquet. Winners in life-saving, track and field, floor hockey and the YMCA's "hi-lo," or hexathlon, program will be honored.

Three trophies in gymnastics will be presented, physical director Fraser Wade said today. The Freddy Williams, Rolly Rennie and Earl Spencley trophies for senior, intermediate and junior gymnastics will be presented under the direction of Y's Men's president, Joe Watson.

All three for whom the trophies are named were former YMCA leaders. Mr. Rennie and Mr. Williams were killed in the Second World War, while Mr. Spencley, a volunteer, lost his life in the Zacks fire three years ago. Arrangements for the final program, including the awards, will be handled by Mr. Watson and Cec Osborne.

Thursday night the local Y's Men paid a surprise visit to the Belleville club, in retaliation for a similar attack from the Belleville Y's Men several weeks ago. Led by boys' work secretary Bill McFarlane, the Peterborough crew completely disrupted the Belleville meeting with firecrackers, starting pistols, and other assorted types of din.

The president of the Belleville group was also presented with two live chickens. No serious casualties were reported among either the Belleville or Peterborough combatants.

he said in his letter. "That is the kind of thing that makes our highways so dangerous and we will never overcome it until the laws are enforced and the penalties are made more severe."

HIGH TOLL TAKEN

Bishop Evans, in his letter, noted with alarm the appalling number of serious or fatal accidents that take place on highway No. 2 in the Kingston area. He said "driving fatigue" of transport and other drivers going from Toronto to Montreal may be at its peak in the Kingston area.

He suggested Ontario should intensify a study of traffic fatigue and should establish "lay-bys" in the Kingston area where drivers could conveniently stop and rest.

The bishop said he suspected the highways department operated on an "eliminate-the-bottleneck" policy that left "death alleys" on the highways.

He thought that from the point of view of hazardous driving No. 2 highway between Kingston and Montreal was a "disgrace to Ontario." He suggested that signboards, blazoning the number of highway fatalities, should be posted on the highways and kept up to date.

MAY YET GET CD PUMPER

Peterborough county, which is considered a unit for civil defence purposes, may yet get one of the federal government's civil defence pumpers. Fire Chief William Sorrie has been assured that when new ones are available Peterborough will be tops on the priority list. This was confirmed Thursday night by John Turnbull of the fire marshal's office who was speaking to district fire chiefs on mutual aid.

Begin Survey Of Public Works Dept.

TORONTO (CP)—A survey of the Ontario public works department will be made, starting next week, by the management consultants firm that recently studied the Ontario highways department.

Announcing the survey Thursday, Public Works Minister Griesinger said J. D. Woods and Gordon Ltd., will look over the department's affairs in line with the policy announced by Premier Frost of reviewing the entire government administration.

(A Toronto paper said today that the survey will likely be followed by one of the planning and development and possibly other departments. The newspage story said highways, public works and planning and development will spend about $200,000,000 this year.)

Mr. Friesinger said investigators for the firm will move into the public works department Tuesday.

OPPOSITION WELCOMES

Commenting on the announcement, Liberal Leader Farquhar Oliver said: "It is apparent such a survey is needed in this as well as other departments and this firm is a qualified one and should be able to present a complete analysis."

CCF Leader Donald MacDonald said "there can be nothing but good come from an investigation of public works too."

Meanwhile, Kelso Roberts (PC—Toronto-St. Patrick), chairman of the legislature's select committee which has been investigating alleged irregularities in the highways department, said the committee will look into United States, British, and possibly German methods of dealing with contracts.

Mr. Roberts welcomed the suggestion by Roy B. Maschino, consulting engineer, that the British system be studied. Mr. Meschino told a press conference Thursday that the British system would save the department millions of dollars annually.

Death Penalty Asked For Hero

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP)—The state has asked the death penalty for a hero of the Morro Castle sea disaster, accused of murdering two neighbors.

In his opening statement Thursday to the jury hearing the trial of George R. Rogers of Bayonne, N. J., prosecutor Julius Canter asked them to "bring in a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree, period, which means the electric chair."

Defence counsel Maurice A. Cohen then took the floor to deny that Rogers had any knowledge of the deaths of William Hummel, 83, and his spinster daughter, Edith, 58.

The state contends that the 57-year-old defendant beat to death the father and daughter, who lived a few doors from his home.

man, was cited as a hero when Rogers, now a television repair the liner Morro Castle burned off the New Jersey coast in 1934. He stayed at his radio operator's post sending S O S signals, and was one of the last persons to leave the ship.

Save Five People From Asphyxiation

TORONTO (CP)—Five persons, including three children and an elderly woman, were saved from possible asphyxiation by an unidentified man early today.

Mrs. Ruth Coffey, 26, was awakened by the smell of coal gas seeping from a faulty furnace in her home in suburban North York. She made her way from the bedroom to the front door and collapsed on the porch.

The man saw Mrs. Coffey sprawled on the porch, raced into the house and awakened her two sons, Michael, 6, and Stephen, 7. He then roused Mrs. Margaret Williams, 65, and a granddaughter, Patsy, 11, assisted them outside and called firemen.

Unemployment Threat Grows CCF Opinion

TORONTO (CP) — Donald C. MacDonald, Ontario CCF leader, said today that while seasonal employment is picking up, the more basic problems of unemployment remain and threaten to become more widespread.

In an address prepared for delivery at a conference sponsored by the CCF trade union committee, Mr. MacDonald said that "the time has come to take another good look at the facts of the situation. This is too serious an issue to become lost in name-calling."

He said official unemployment stood at 559,000 on March 1 and 569,000 on April 1. By May 1 it had dropped less than four per cent.

"All winter provincial and federal cabinet ministers have accused CCF and trade union spokesmen of gloom-mongering every time the seriousness of the unemployment situation was stressed. These Polyanna boys at Ottawa and Queen's Park seem to have been working on the assumption that if everybody remains optimistic, all will be well."

3,000 LAID OFF

Mr. MacDonald said 1,200 men have been laid off indefinitely in Windsor in the last two weeks and another 1,200 in Oshawa. A St. Catharines foundry has laid off 600, another in Port Colborne has closed down for good.

Short-time work with layoffs was becming more widespread in the four major metal manufacturing plants in Galt and unemployment in Sault Ste. Marie had reached the point where it has been declared a "distress area" by the National Employment Service."

Mr. MacDonald saw "disturbing trends" in two basic trends in the Canadian economy — the tapering off of postwar expansion and a decline in export trade.

Marine Officer Kills Family

JACKSONVILLE, N. C. (AP)—A hatchet-wielding marine officer virtually wiped out his family here Thursday night, then took his own life, police reported.

Capt. Michael P. Carroll, stationed at nearby Camp Lejuene, brutally bludgeoned his three children and wife, then stabbed himself in the throat when a neighbor attempted to intervene, police said.

The captain's son, aged about four, was killed at the couple's home at New River, a housing project in Jacksonville's outskirts. The two daughters, aged about six and seven, died about two hours later in hospital. The wife is in critical condition with multiple head cuts.

Police have been unable to determine a motive.

Backward Meters

LEAMINGTON, Ont. (CP)—Traffic committee of this town 30 miles southeast of Windsor has discovered its parking meter program is running backward at the rate of about $1,000 so far this year. A report by the firm which installed the meters said some of the 336 tickers lacked parts. Others had the wrong parts and some were running backwards. A repairman will be hired.

Teach Youth How To Think

Professor Arnold Edinborough, assistant professor of English at Queen's University, addressed the luncheon gathering of some 200 women teachers of Eastern Ontario recently held in Kingston. He referred to the "Open Season on Education" when criticism was levelled at the schools and universities by parents, journalists, politicians, and some edcuationists themselves using as an example of the last group the indictments of Dr. Hilda Neatby in her book, "So Little for the Mind."

In some cases critics were, he siad, woefully inadeqaute to appraise the work of educational institutions. A few offered constructive criticism which worked for good.

The school, Dr. Edinburgh pointed out, is handicapped in its efforts by having to cope with too large classes and by the fact that some people expect the school to prepare the child for every kind of life situation by factual knowledge.

The most important task facing educationists in Dr. Edinborough's opinion is teaching youth how to think rather than what to think.

The guest speaker was thanked by Mrs. Eva Gordon Rankin of Ottawa, newly elected Second Vice-president by the Federation of Women Teachers Association of Ontario.

Others elected to office for Region IV at the Assembly were: Miss Florence Hart, Oshawa, Edcational Status; Miss Marion Weatherhead of Cornwall, Superannuation; Miss Very Pyne of Wellington for Educational Research; Mrs. R. H. Gow of Ottawa has been appointed Provincial Convener of the Goodwill Fund.

At the luncheon meeting, the following reports were presented and discussed: educational legislation, Miss Bessie White, Ottawa; educational finance, Miss Marion Johnson, Billings Bridge; benevolent fund, Mrs. Ruth Clarke, Port Hope; goodwill fund, Mrs. R. H. Gow, Ottawa; teacher education and certification, Miss Beryl Hart; public relations, Miss Cora Bailey, Peterborough; sick benefit, Miss Clara Doughty, educational research, Miss Vera Pyne, Wellington; status, Miss Eleanor Owens, Ottawa; education week, Miss Frances McLeod, Oshawa; superannuation, Miss Marion Weatherhead, Cornwall.

To aid in the recruitment of teachers the Federation of Women Teachers have established a bursary for 1954-55 and it is their hope to increase the number at an early date.

Benevolent and sick benefit funds are also operated for the benefit of teachers who find themselves in need of financial assistance.

New Traffic Lights Installed At Cobourg

COBOURG (ENS) — Installation of traffic lights at the dangerous Division and University intersection will be completed by Saturday.

Operating on a principle which has not been used in Cobourg before. The lights change when a magnetic tripper is actuated by the passing of a car over it. The lights can also be operated manually in order to permit children from the nearby school to cross.

MPs Ask Allowance

LONDON (Reuters)—A group of Conservative and Labor members of Parliament Thursday put forward a motion proposing that their £1,000 salaries should be supplemented by a tax-free expense allowance of £500. The government recently rejected a recommendation that the MPs salaries be increased to £1,500 and that there be a non-contributing pension plan for them.

LONDON (Reuters)—A steward who volunteered to help at the London "crusade" meeting of American evangelist Billy Graham stole pound notes from a collection basket and hid them in a slit in his coat, a court was told Thursday. Norman Burrows, 24, pleaded guilty to stealing £6 from the Evangelical Alliance, sponsors of the "crusade." He was put on probation for three years.

Ex-Captain Facing Murder Charges

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—Murder charges in the ax-and-fire slaying of three American officers in Germany eight years ago were filed here today against James M. Leech, former United States army captain. Extradition papers have been forwarded to the U. S., seeking Leech's return to stand trial.

Victims of the slaying were Maj. Everett S. Cofran, Capt. Adrian L. Wessler and Lieut Stanley Rosewater. Their charred bodies were found in Cofran's house on the banks of the Danube in Passau Jan. 7, 1946.

The slaying of the three officers was one of the most sensational in post-war Germany and lingered unsolved.

Leech, Coffran's deputy as town commander of Passau, was an early suspect in the case, but was released and later returned to his Ohio home.

Two of the three victims had died of ax wounds and the third by fire. They died on the upper floor of Cofran's big house.

Fire billowed from the house in the early morning hours, fed by several cans of gasoline stored in the attic.

GHASTLY ERROR

Authorities said the deaths of two of the men may have been a ghastly error on the part of the slayer. The two were overnight guests of Cofran and one was occupying his bedroom when he was slain.

This is how army authorities described what may have happened the night of the slayings:

The murderer entered the house, armed with an ax, and crept into Cofran's room, then occupied by Rosewater. He struck the sleeping Rosewater with the ax before discovering his error. Then he went to an adjoining bedroom and attacked Wessler, believing he was Cofran. When he learned of his second mistake, he went upstairs to the attic where Cofran slept on a spare bed. Cofran was then bludgeoned.

Then the slayer set fire to the house and fled.

Authorities said Leech had been friendly with a German girl secretary who was discharged by Cofran. Cofran also cancelled an order which would have provided business funds to her father "and financially ruined the old man."

Youthful Hunters Interrupted On Expedition In Middle Of Stalking Deer With Knives

COBOURG (ENS)—The zephyrs of spring drew two youngsters, aged 5 and 6, into a bizarre adventure Tuesday afternoon. As usual, it was the parents who suffered.

Away from home most of the afternoon, when the lads failed to turn up for the evening meal, their worried parents decided it was time to call the police.

The constabulary heard that the two boys had been seen wandering around a wooded pasture field in the north end of the town. When the police caught up to them, the missing youngsters informed them that they were hunting.

Their quarry? A herd of cattle.

Their weapons? A long bread knife and a paring knife from their mothers' kitchens.

Slightly miffed when police interrupted their stalking, the lads said the cattle comprised a herd of deer.

Delivering the youthful hunters to their homes, their finders recommended a seat-warming. Killjoys.

Churchill Denies Gibraltar Deal

MADRID (Reuters)—The Franco government claimed today that Sir Winston Churchill promised during the Second World War that Britain would help Spain regain her past glory as a great power as a reward for neutrality.

The British leader also offered to discuss the return of Gibraltar to Spain, a Spanish foreign office communique said, quoting alleged wartime documents in an attempt to refute Churchill's statement in the House of Commons in London Thursday that Britain made no promise during the war to cede Gibraltar to Spain.

Churchill made his statement in reply to an article written in a Spanish magazine by Generalissimo Franco under a pen-name which accused Britain of a breach of faith.

Protecting Without Asking

The American concern about the spread of Communism in Asia has led the U.S. into its unrealistic support of the discredited Chiang Kai-shek regime, a government without a country to govern. It led it to Americanize Japan. It led it into Korea. It is drawing it into Indo-China. As the most powerful leader of the "Free World" the American worry about Communism in Asia is well-founded. In the great arc of South and East Asia, from Mongolia to the Republic of Indonesia, live a fifth of the people of the world on one-twentieth of its area. Since 1944 this region has been under the shadow or in the grip of Communism. Communists have taken all of China and half of Korea, and are rapidly spreading south. The Americans wanted to stop—and did—the spread of Communism in Europe; they want to do the same in Asia. The Truman Doctrine, and collective security measures (such at NATO) checked the Reds in Europe. The Eisenhower Administration is attempting similar measures in Asia.

* * *

The U.S. has proposed a defensive alliance in Southeast Asia and President Eisenhower seems to be willing to foist this collective security measure on Asia and his own country without the support of Britain, the chief country in the western world with vital colonial interests there and with the greatest experience and knowledge of Asiatic affairs. Surely Britain would be eager to enter such an alliance, considering her colonial and the other Commonwealth countries (Australia, New Zealand, India, Pakistan) which are Asiatic or have strategic Asian problems? No. Britain is reluctant to accept the proposal. Why? The reason is that it views the whole plan with suspicion and the American ability to execute it without involvement in a major war as doubtful.

* * *

Asian countries are not European states with long traditions of democracy or parliamentary government. Asian countries are roused by new national enthusiasms and their populaces (ignorant, superstitious or backward though parts of them are) have wonderful hopes of a new release from the grip of colonialism. Therefore, a defensive alliance fathered by the U.S. is not likely to have great native support, and Asian governments with which it might conclude such arguments are not likely to be popular governments. Further, the United States seems prepared to "protect" through such an alliance, Asian states from Communism even if they do not ask for that protection, even if they do not join the alliance.

* * *

Should a security guarantee be given and a line drawn (as was done in Europe) beyond which Communist aggression would be met by the collective use of all the new allies' forces, the resulting war would almost certainly be a war of Western troops (or Western puppet-troops of Oriental hue) against native and popular national forces. It would not be an Asian war nor would the Alliance be Asian; it would be West against East, white man against coloured, Western Imperialism against Eastern liberty.

* * *

Britain is knowledgeable about Asia, particularly southeast Asia. Its colonial experience is practical and vast and, as this century has shown, enlightened. The American proposal seems impracticable, even if it appears desirable; it is the light of wishful-thinking, not of reality. Britain sees the reality of blundering into an alliance in defence of countries which have not asked for protection.

In The Steps Of Lincoln

The U.S. Supreme Court has ruled, unanimously, that it is unconstitutional to segregate Negro children from white children in American schools. Five states have indicated that they will put an end to segregation at once; others, deep in the South, are bitter about the decision and will make no move to change until change is forced upon them; the Supreme Court does not contemplate any hurried action in these cases. Thus, 91 years after Lincoln's declaration of Emancipation, another move has been taken to make the Negro a citizen in fact as well as in law.

Let us not be surprised at this lapse of time. It is not hard to make laws declaring black men and white men possessors of equal rights, but these laws cannot be made to work until public opinion supports them. Lincoln knew perfectly well that his act of Emancipation was merely the beginning of a process which will have moved with miraculous speed if it is completed by the year 2063. Prejudice is not easily dispelled by law.

This move in the U.S.A. directs our attention once again to South Africa, where the condition of the Negros is little, if any, better than that of the slaves in the Southern U.S. before the Civil War. This may seem an extreme statement to people who conceive of an African Negro as a primitive man in a loincloth, living in the jungle; but in actual fact great numbers of Africans are depressed industrial workers. The Southern slaves were not all jolly Uncle Toms and Topsies, either; probably a majority of them spoke little English and lived in conditions similar to those of African Negros in urban districts. In condition, if not in law, these people are slaves, and they await their Lincoln. Who is he to be? It is a melancholy but a justified reflection that the black people of South Africa are unlikely to better their condition until a war and a violent change of government do the job for them. And even then, it will be many years, and probably centuries, before they will be as well off as a Negro living in New York today.

The Nobility Of The Nose

We have observed before in these columns that Canadians show a decided tendency toward smallness of nose. Look at any three-generation family, and Grandfather, who probably came from the British Isles, will almost certainly have a larger nose than his son, and a much larger nose than his grandson. And now there is a new threat to the grandeur of the male nose. We see an advertisement for a special pair of scissors designed especially to provide 'An Easy, Safe Way to Remove Unsightly Hairs from the Nose.'

Who says they are unsightly? It is true that barbers show a marked yearning to trim any man's eyebrows when he is having his hair cut, and they are also likely to nip hairs from the ears when they are working on the sides of the head. But we cannot recall any barber offering to cut hairs from the nose. We are not sure that such trimming is desirable, and would like to have a medical opinion on the subject. Our view has always been that nature put hair in the nose as a filter, to keep the grosser pollens and bits of flying debris from being inhaled into the lungs. There may be peril in this nose trimming.

Good grooming is one of the fetishes of our age, and we observe that it is always presented as a diminishing process. To be well groomed a man must be constrained, nipped, slicked down, trimmed and flattened. The effect, at worst, is neat, and on men of naturally smooth appearance it is sometimes pleasing. But when it comes to the nose we think that a word of warning is in order.

Napoleon, who had a big nose, said that he chose his marshals for the size of their noses, regarding this as a sure evidence of strong character. It is significant that Napoleon was finally defeated by the Duke of Wellington, who had an even bigger nose than his. In more modern history, the small-nosed Rommel succumbed to the wiles of the generous-nosed Montgomery. If hairs in the nose add anything to the ferocity and character of that organ, we think they should be allowed to flourish unchecked.

Leap, Frog

It is announced that the International Frog Jumping contest is to be held today, and until Sunday, and that prizes of $500 will be awarded to the setter of a new world's record, $300 to the winner (if he fails to set a new record) $150 to the second place frog, and a grading down to a last winner (seventh) of $5.

The site of the competition, (Angels Camp, California) was the locale of Mark Twain's novel The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County. It appears that in 1849 or 1850, when a prize winning jumping frog named Daniel, owned by a certain Jim Smiley, was surreptitiously fed quail shot and failed to jump. A stranger, who had caught a frog a few minutes previously, pocketed a $40 bet, when his frog leaped, while the best Daniel could do was heave.

The world record leap is 16 feet, 2 inches, set in 1939. Judging from the reports circulated, it appears that this distance is almost certain of being bested. One of the Canadian entries (there are four) claims that his frog has leaped 25 feet 4 inches, while a distance of 32 feet, three inches is claimed by an entry from South Africa. The best Canadian showing to date was made last year when the "King of Georgian Bay" jumped 9 feet, 6 inches.

This competition is not expected to provoke any global repercussions, but in view of the tenseness of the international situation, it is refreshing to learn that such a bounding competition can be held with so much uplift.

ITALIAN SCENE

Trade Unions Of Peasants

By WAYLAND YOUNG

THERE ARE eleven trades unions in Italy. One reason for this exorbitant number is that each of the many little bits which went to make up Italy eighty years ago had its own form of land tenure and thus its own sort of peasant; another is that each sort of peasant has now got the choice of Communist, Social Democratic and Catholic unions.

The general geographical picture is this. In the fertile Po Valley of the north the peasants are mainly casual day labourers. They live in small villages and unemployment is low. The barren south, the mountain land of torrent and drought, also has casual day labourers; and unemployment is high. Alongside the day labourers of both north and south are nuclei of regular employees, who in the north live in the farm buildings themselves.

✧ ✧ ✧

THE CASCINA, or northern farm, is set out on three sides of a square. On one side live the regular employees, on the other the livestock; in the middle the owner and his family. In the south nobody lives on the land at all; the landowners live in Rome and the bailiffs and labourers come out from the towns each day.

In the centre, say between Bologna and Naples, the picture is quite different. Here there is share-cropping, mezzadria. The peasant always works on the same estate, and instead of pay he takes home half the produce and markets it on his own account. The landlord looks after capital outlay. In some places the peasants take home more than half; in others they are trying to get the landlords to agree to this.

✧ ✧ ✧

SCATTERED all over Italy there are the peasant proprietors and a new class is now appearing, these landless peasants who are for the first time receiving their own land from the expropriated estates under the present Government's land reform. All these classes have different interests.

The biggest single union is the nation-wide Federation of Day Labourers and Regular Labourers (Federbraccianti). It has 1,-100,000 members, and is affiliated to the Communist-led C.G.I.L. Next is the Federation of Share Croppers (Federmezzadri) with 480,000 members. It too, adheres to the C.G.I.L. Both these unions also belong to a coordinating body called the Land Confederation (Federterra). This body has a third constituent member, the Association of Small Proprietors and Leaseholders (Associazione Coltivatori Diretti) which exists only in the north. It does not adhere to the C.G.I.L. because its members are not primary producers but also marketers who would be out of place in the great producers' federation.

✧ ✧ ✧

THE SMALL-HOLDERS of the south are a fiercer and more backward lot, and no-one has really been able to organize them yet. But there is in Naples a coordinating office for the scattered local Independent Associations of Southern Peasants (Associazione Autonoma Contadini Del Mezzogiorno). This office sends delegates to the Land Confederation, but is not really affiliated to it; nor of course is it affiliated to the C.G.I.L. The leadership is, however, predominantly Communist.

The local Association on the holiday island of Ischia, for instance, has a Royalist president but the Communists deliberately tolerate political diversity in order to get the peasant proprietors used to working together. They encourage the present movement whereby groups of two-hundred smallholders get together and own a bull in common. Later on, perhaps, the loose association will be streamlined and compressed.

✧ ✧ ✧

A NEW organisation has just been formed for the Assignees, the peasants who are now getting their own land out of the big estates and making good their absolute title to it by twenty years' work: (Associazioni Autonome Assegnatari). It is too new even to know its own strength, and it is still a battlefield between political organisers. The Assignee is not very good material for Communism; he has received a big benefit from the Catholic Government, and has a stake in the soil.

✧ ✧ ✧

THEN there is a Catholic union for day labourers and regular labourers (Fisba) and another for share-croppers (Cisiterra). Both of these adhere to C.I.S.L. the Catholic general confederation. The Catholic smallholders' organisation, called Bonomiana after its leader, Bonomi, does not adhere. It is proud of its old independence and long-standing tradition. There is also a shadowy organisation in the south called the Community of Day Labourers (Communita Bracciantì) which cannot make up its mind whether or not it is a trades union. Landowners may belong to it.

Then there are the two Social Democrat organisations; one for labourers (Uilbraccianti) and one for share-croppers (Uilterra). They are, unfortunately, very weak.

✧ ✧ ✧

THE COMMUNIST-LED unions outnumber all the others put together, but probably comprehend less than half of all the peasants. They get their large following by great energy and care in looking after the day-to-day interests of the peasant; not only in collective bargaining, in which they are much tougher than the democratic organisations, but also in helping the peasant in his struggle with forms and red tape.

Communist Deputies often spend their weekends filling up forms for their agricultural constituents, many of whom are in any case illiterate. All in all, the unions do not play politics directly. The Communist Party tells the peasant what he can expect from the installation of political Communism in Italy; the Communist trades union tells him how he can best rub along under capitalism.

✧ ✧ ✧

AFTER THE WAR the workers of Italy, including the peasants, were first organised in unitary trades unions, all belonging to the C.G.I.L. This took time, and even now there are some unorganised workers in remote places. Then began the period of the splits, when first the Catholics, then the Social Democrats, broke away under political leadership from the entrenched Communism of C.G.I.L. Then there was a period of adjustment and poaching and flux, and now the situation is more less ossified.

The only thing, probably, which will change it is the appearance of a new class of workers — such as is appearing now among the beneficiaries of land reform.

An American Opinion: COLOSSUS OF FOREIGN TRADE

Radiochemical Industry Thriving

By JOHN DAVY

BRITAIN'S determination to maintain its position as the world's foremost producer of radio-active materials for peaceful application in science and industry is shown by the rapid expansion of the Radiochemical Centre at Amersham, where the first four of eight new buildings have just been opened.

Up to the present the centre has worked on a laboratory scale, producing several hundred kinds of radio-active material, and each month despatching more than one thousand consignments to customers in thirty-six countries. Now the demand has so increased that the production of some of the more popular materials is being put on a continuous output basis.

Each of the new buildings will house a particular production process. The first of their kind in this country, they look from the outside like the buildings of a well-designed modern sanatorium. Over the entrances are huge glass-fronted blocks housing the complex air-conditioning plants. Inside the visitor is confronted by massive grey walls of interlocking lead blocks four inches thick which protect the workers from the powerful radiations of the materials they handle. Piercing these walls at intervals are windows of special glass, six inches thick, and a number of slender rods with black pistol grips. The latter control the remote-handling tools, an ingenious and elaborate series of pincers, miniature cranes, tongs, hooks and pipettes, with which the maze of complex glass tubes, ducts and pipes behind the lead walls are manipulated.

The radio-active raw material comes from the atomic piles at Harwell, in Oxfordshire, and Windscale, in Northumberland. It is brought into the building in massive lead canisters mounted on a little trolley. A canister is jacked up through a trap door behind the lead walls into the first production chamber. Remotely controlled, its lead stopper is unscrewed; then the small can containing the "hot" material is lifted out and placed on a miniature railway which carries it to the first stage in processing. Until the refined material leaves the building in another heavy lead container it does not emerge from behind the protective walls.

Almost daily, new uses are found for radio-active materials. Thin foils of "radio-Strontium" applied to the eye can heel eye diseases; in industry, welds, joints, forgings and bearings can be inspected and tested with the aid of other radio-active materials; research connected with blood, asthma, resistance to infection, weed-killers and plant and animal physiology has made great strides with their help.

At Amersham there is a standard list of more than two-hundred radio-active chemicals which are constantly in production and held in stock. Other compounds can be "tailored" to suit particular customers. Forty per cent of the total output is exported, a considerable prpoortion of it to dollar countries; last year the total value of the materials produced was £114,000, more than three times that of 1949.

One of the most important products of the centre is radio-active carbon, which is made into a great variety of compounds — one of them glycerine. Natural fats, from which ordinary glycerine is quite cheaply produced, costs seven shillings a pound, or one-fifth of a penny per gram. "Labelled" glycerine, containing a small proportion of radio-active carbon atoms, is worth £2,000 a gram. It is an indication of the potential value of the industry which is being built up at Amersham.

Point of Order

(The Chicago Daily News)

Any day now, we expect to hear of a normally well-behaved family creating a disturbance that was heard three doors away. It will all be because they have learned what "a point of order" is from watching the McCarthy-Stevens row.

Father may suggest steak for Sunday dinner only to have one of the children demand chicken. Mother, to keep the peace, will remind father that the last steak cost $3.65 and wasn't very good anyway. Father will demand a point of order:

"We are talking about next Sunday's dinner. What happened last Sunday is irrelevant. Besides, there was nothing wrong with that steak except that you have never learned to broil one properly."

Will mother raise a further point of order on father's reference to her cooking? She will not. She will suddenly recall that he forgot to clean the bathtub properly and burned another cigarette hole in the rug.

At this point, a competent chairman might save the situation. But father lost that position in the American family some decades ago and mother is too smart to take it — officially.

Bible Message

(From The Authorized Version)

For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost. And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews . . .

And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God . . .

Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood . . . And now, brethern, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. (Acts 20:16-19, 22-24, 26, 32.)

Letter To The Editor

BEAUTIFYING THE RIVER

SIR: I heartily agree with Mrs. Nornabell and the Otonabee Valley Conservation Committee. Having lived on a bank of the Otonabee for several years, in a section which is a beauty spot, I cannot understand how anyone would consider zoning any still unspoiled part of the river bank for heavy industry. True, there is already some industry on the river, but why more? Why not make the most of what we have left? Of course industries are necessary but surely there is ample room for them elsewhere in and around Peterborough, where they will not mar the landscape and pollute the natural waterways.

Perhaps those who have designated the area north of the Inverlea bridge for heavy industry have never sat out and enjoyed the peace and serenity of that scenery or the refreshing coolness of a swim, where it is still safe to swim. We'd be glad to have them come around and see for themselves—and then try to picture what is now a beautiful green bank behind the arches of the Inverlea bridge as an ugly cluster of stark masonry and smokestacks. Let's leave it the way it is now! Zone it for residences and parks. Give more people a chance to enjoy the unspoiled beauties of nature that we are so fortunate to have right here, at no expense to the taxpayers.

This part of the river is still beautiful. Let's keep it that way and get the rest of it and Jackson's creek cleaned up.

Yours truly,
MARY M. SCARLETT.

Says Japanese Treaty "Practical Step"

OTTAWA (CP)—A British Columbia senator who said he has always taken a stand against Japan said Thursday he has now changed his mind and thinks the new trade treaty with Japan is a practical step.

Senator Thomas Reid (L—British Columbia) said in the Senate during debate on the Japanese-Canadian trade treaty signed this year that the western world needs Japan on its side and Japan needs the support of the West in Asia where she is in danger of domination by Communist China.

Ward System For Lindsay Given Approval

LINDSAY (ENS)—Request to inaugurate a new four-ward system for the town was approved without opposition today when a public hearing was held on the subject before representatives of the Ontario Municipal Board.

Two vice-chairmen of the board, W. J. Moore and R. C. Rowland, heard the town's application presented by Clerk W. R. Allely and Assessor Harold Baty.

The confirmation of the move is thought to be effective immediately, though the town may have to publish the new division of wards.

The new system makes the town's main intersection, Kent and Lindsay Sts., the actual as well as geographic centre of the town. From it the area is split evenly in four directions.

Denies H-Bomb Makes Civil Defence Futile

OTTAWA (CP) — Defence Minister Claxton Thursday denied that the destructive force of the H-bomb makes civil defence futile.

"Nothing could be farther from the truth," he said in the Commons.

The number of targets sufficiently important to justify the use of the H-bomb was limited. In addition to the new weapon put even greater emphasis on planned measures for disperal and evacuation.

WINNER OF $4,670 on a radio program, Mrs. Clifford Poff, of Bancroft, looks forward to finishing the frame house she and her husband are building themselves; buying bicycles for her two boys who made "so many trips" mailing entries to the contest; "something nice" for her husband, and a washing machine to replace the hand-operated one she now has. The rest of the money will go in the bank. Here, Harley Weir, Peterborough sales manager of Canada Packers, presents the cheque.

Farmer's Wife Wins $4,670

It started out as an ordinary afternoon in the five-roomed frame house that Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Poff have been building near Bancroft. Mr. Poff and Donald 17, were at work in the Martin Lumber Co. mill. Three children, Areta, 7, Orland, 13, and Wayne, 14, were at school, and Mrs. Poff was "tidying up" around the house. Sharon, 6, was playing with the family dog. A small, secondhand, battery-powered radio was tuned to a Toronto radio station.

Suddenly Mrs. Poff let out a scream and swept Sharon up from the floor. The dog growled and jumped menacingly at the mother. She isn't exactly clear about details for the next few minutes, but she did drop Sharon and pushed the dog outside.

That—says Gladys Poff—is what it's like to suddenly hear you have won $4,670.

The Poffs haven't a telephone and Mrs. Poff felt pretty frustrated about spreading the good news until she spotted the school bus bringing her children home from school. The two little boys and girl were barely out of the bus before their mother was in, excitedly directing the driver to turn around and take her to the mill.

Confused, but convinced, the driver complied.

Clifford Poff saw his wife racing from the bus toward the mill—and immediately pulled a switch that shut off all the machinery. Thirty millworkers stood by until Mrs. Poff could calm down sufficiently to tell her husband that nothing was "wrong"—she was "rich."

The next day or two are still a happy but bewildering blur. Gladys Poff didn't eat; she thinks she might have had a cup of coffee before she took a bus from Bancroft to Peterborough enroute to Toronto to collect her money.

Harley Weir, Canada Packers' Peterborough sales manager, met Mrs. Poff in Peterborough and drove her to Toronto, where he made the presentation of the $4,670 cheque.

How will she use the money?

"I won't waste a cent," declared Mrs. Poff. "A few years ago my husband was hurt in a car accident in Toronto and has been in poor health ever since. He had to sell his business and we had to move around a bit before we finally settled in our own home. My husband and I have built it ourselves; we haven't put in a nail that wasn't paid for. Now $600 will finish it . . . I'll buy one or two pieces of furniture; ours got rough handling in moving . . . I want a washing machine; the one I have operates by hand . . . and I promised a bicycle to each of my boys. They didn't like walking to the mail with my contest entries and I used to say I'd buy them bikes if I won.

"A new radio?

"The little old one I have has done very well for me."

CNE Revamping Entire GrandstandShow

TORONTO (CP) — Cancellation of the appearance of Roy Rogers, Hollywood cowboy actor, and a revamping of the entire Canadian National Exhibition grandstand show appeared likely today after negotiations broke down with a union that has threatened to put the CNE under boycott.

CNE general manager Hiram McCallum reported from New York that he was unsuccessful in attempts to negotiate with Jack Irving, national administrator of the American Guild of Variety Artists.

The Guild and the Toronto Musicians Association, an affiliate of the American Federation of Musicians, have been locked in a jurisdictional dispute here since 300 ex-members of the AVGA joined the musicians' union local. Both sides claim their allegiance.

The AGVA has threatened to put the CNE on its unfair list, thereby preventing Rogers and his troupe from appearing, if it has to appear on the same show with the musicians' group.

The exhibition will be held here Aug. 27-Sept. 11.

Millbrook WA Plans Tea In September

MILLBROOK (ENS)—The WA of St. Thomas' Anglican church met at the home of Mrs. A. A. Smith with 16 present.

Mrs. R. I. Fallis opened the meeting with the Litany and special prayers. The scripture was read by Mrs. William Hilton.

Miss Ellen Kent reported a donation had been received for quilt tops and that quilting would be resumed in September. A letter was read by Mrs. Douglas Sheppard from the Rev. Hall of the diocese of Mosonee telling of the work at the boys' Indian school.

Mrs. Les Graham reported for the visiting committee. It was decided to hold an afternoon tea and baking sale at the home of Mrs. T. A. Campbell on September 10.

Mrs. H. A. Turner reviewed a chapter of the study book. A minute's silence was observed in memory of Miss Olive Balderson, missionary to India, who died recently.

Other Centres Unemployment

A glance at the Ontario regional figures on persons looking for jobs shows that Peterborough is not the only hard-hit area.

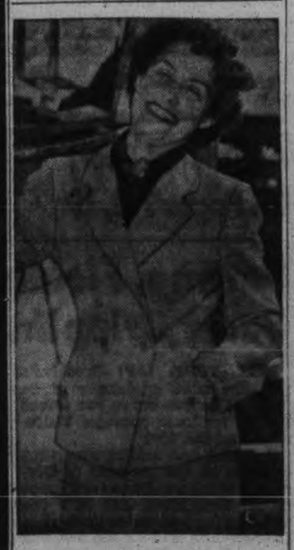
Statistics issued by the Peterborough branch of the national employment service show the number of jobless: April 30, 1954, 2,007; March 31, 1954, 2,706; and April 30, 1953, 1,443.

Here are some other regional figures on unemployment: (They are for April 15, March, 18, 1954 and April 16, 1953, respectively.)

Kingston 1,458 and 1,687 and 997; Kitchener 2,566 and 2,756 and 804; Owen Sound 1,886 and 2,228 and 847; St. Catharines 3,720 and 3,687 and 1,558; St. Thomas 1,163 and 919 and 585; Sarnia 2,050 and 2,431 and 1,464; Stratford 1,060 and 1,026 and 506; Sudbury 4,642 and 4,783 and 3,334.

Hopes At End

OTTAWA (CP)—Transport Minister Chevrier Thursday expressed hope that employee layoffs by the CNR are at an end. He told the Commons that there have been 600 layoffs by the government-owned railway since he reported in February that 1,500 workers had been made idle.



ATTRACTIVE IMMIGRANT—Blue-eyed Jacoba Gerardina (Koosje) Bol, 19, became the 100,000th Dutch immigrant to arrive in Canada since the end of the Second World War when she arrived at Montreal aboard the liner Groote Beer. She was greeted by government and Dutch embassy officials in a multi-language ceremony aboard the liner.—(CP Photo).

Balcombe Takes Failure Calmly

Balcombe remained calm and composed when advised by sheriff Duncan McNaughton of the ruling. The sheriff said Thursday the convicted man was in good spirits until the word came.

Seabrooke and UE Get Close Tilts In Men's League

Men's senior City League softball, embracing five teams, opened its 1954 schedule at the East City Bowl Thursday night before a fine crowd. Seabrooke Motors engaged TP Transports in the curtain-raiser, a piping struggle, emerging victorious to the tune of 6-4 in nine innings of sizzling play; while UEW edged the new Outboard Marine squad 8-7, in an even harder-fought struggle, to the finish.

President Bob Batley officially welcomed the large crowd and predicted a banner year, while Alderman Bob Knox pledged whole-hearted support of his department to softball and sport in general, amid loud applause.

JIM AND HADDY

The arch - rivals Seabrooke's and TPT's, last year's champs, saw Haddy Eakins, last season's most valuable player trophy winner, opposing Jimmy Driscoll on the slab. Bill Sullivan's boys opened a strong offensive in the first inning that netted four runs in all, to give the "mighty mite" a good start; and Driscoll in turn responded with a nice twirling chore to earn victory. Eakins twirled valiantly as well. Each allowed seven safe singles; but the bats of Russ Scriver, Tony Kotowski, Bob Wyatt, Neil Thompson and Red Sullivan proved slightly more potent than their rivals this game in the RBI column. Sullivan homered to deep left centre in the fifth off Jack Mackness' glove for the season's first circuit smash; while Kotowski hit two for four, and Scriver had two runs-batted-in; Thompson a triple, Wyatt a double and an RBI.

Eakins himself knocked in two and scored once to lead his team's offensive; while West twice, Collins, Mackness, Castle and Legrow hit safely for the vanquished. Kotowski fielded brilliantly with Junior West and Doug Loucks also good.

NEW FACES

The afterpiece saw many new and youthful faces on both hustling squads with UE sending Ray Allan to the mound in opposition to the veteran Ron Akers. Neither finished, though both hurled fine ball. Jerry Driscoll replaced Akers to start the seventh; while Jerry Killingbeck relieved Allan in the final frame as the latter faltered, after a spectacular showing, when Marines suddenly sparked anew. Allan received credit for the victory.

Bruce Taylor hit safely twice, one a triple, drove in three and scored two for UE; while Murray Fife did likewise for Marines to lead his club. Bill Corrigan had four safeties, one a triple, Mongraw and Wilson two apiece for Marines; Cupoli and Fuller two safeties for UE. Fielding in the main, proved good for opening play by all clubs.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

By CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Clayt Browne of St. Catharines said some interesting press room talk came out of Maple Leaf Gardens during the Teepees' series. Says: "It had to do with the case of Red Sullivan, sold to Chicago Hawks by Hershey to the amazement of this city and possibly the AHL. When a player turns pro he is not master of his own destiny any more. In Sullivan's case, when called up to the parent Bruins, he was used chiefly to kill off penalties. The inside story is that the Peterborough boy did not fit into Coach Lynn Patrick's particular style of play. You can pass it over lightly by saying that neither was happy over the club connections and circumstances.

* * * * * * *

"Sullivan is admittedly one of the best prospects in the NHL but, if he did not fit into the Bruins' picture, there was little use in retaining him. With Hawks he should become a regular and, when Tobin offers $25,000, Bears accepted it on advice from the Boston club. One can say exactly the same thing existed that sent Bob Hassard from Leafs to Hawks. In both cases, Sullivan and Hassard may become NHL stars and, in the same breath, take it from this agent that Earl Reibel, the 'find' of the early season with Detroit Red Wings, will be joining Sullivan and Hassard on Hawks' roster before winter rolls around again. Pronovost will centre Howe and Lindsay next season." Local fans will recall that Ike Hildebrand is also with the Hawks.

Ross and Rog With A's

Ike isn't ready to start the home senior lacrosse season with the Petes' Trailermen here tonight—it's against St. Kitts at 8:30 in Miller Bowl, weather being okay—but he'll be in action in another month. His fractured leg has healed nicely, we're told. This canny little forward is a high scorer and will be a big help to the Thorpe team when he returns to the fray. The Athletics have added Ken Croft and Norm Corcoran to their lineup and will do their darndest to spoil the Petes' home opening in revenge for the locals' 10-9 win in St. Catharines last week. Ross Powless and Rog Smith will be opposing their old teammates in this one. These top two eastern OLA teams should put up a sizzling struggle, with no holds barred.

Speaking of the VOBL opener in Riverside on the holiday, the Quinte columnist comments: "Many moons have flitted across the heavens, and many a Kawartha pickerel has gone to its skilleted doom since a Belleville ball club crossed diamond rapiers with the enemy from the city of liftlocks, lacrosse champs, river-tossing fans, and Quaker oats. It will be a rebirth of bitter rivalry that has existed between the two cities since the venerable COBL days of Swanston, Heckman, Murray, Harrison, Foley, Ash, Rose and the rest against Williams, Blakely, the Mills brothers, Gibson and others of that golden era." Yes, indeed, it sounds like fun Monday over by the river. A parade at 1:30 and the game goes an hour later.

Men's Loop Starts Off

Prexy Bob Batley, with an assist from Ald. Knox, officially opened the men's City Softball League season before a good crowd at the Ashburnham Bowl last p.m., with two neat tilts then being run off. Seabrooke's came up with a 6-4 triumph o'er the TPT Petes, Jim Driscoll being the winning hurler against Haddy Eakins. Red Sullivan boomed one for the circuit to show why he led the loop in homers last year. UEW took the nightcap in a close fit over Marines, a lively 8-7 fray. Ray Allan on the winners' slab gave way later to Jerry Killingbeck while Ron Akers (fine veteran flinger in a local comeback) was replaced on the other hill by Jerry Driscoll. Pitching and fielding will be better still as the boys shake down into condition, and the weather warms up. But 'twas a tidy opener for the softballers. Next Tuesday, it'll be UE vs Petes, and Marines vs. Lakefield.

A good turnout at the grid meeting in the "Y" last eve, and a 23-man executive was chosen for the coming football season. This body will pick its own officers at a meeting next Tuesday night. Quite a few newcomers to the Orfuns' executive, along with most of those elected last year. The club is well in the hole financially and will try various projects to keep going. The draw on the TV set was put back till the first game late this summer, in order to sell more tickets. Less money will be paid out for coaching and for players' expenses this year as Orfuns will have to operate on a curtailed budget, pretty much a homebrew squad. Incidentally, Cobourg Ghosts may not play at all, as they are heavily in debt from last season.

Claim Canadian Horse Needs Soothing Music

By ALAN HARVEY

LONDON (CP)—Blue Sail, Canada's second English Derby hope in 174 years, looks more and more like a refugee from a Hollywood film script.

Now they're saying—remember all those grade B movies—that the Canadian-owned colt can't win the Derby two weeks hence unless he hears some soothing music.

The report comes from Ireland, where stories about steeds and the supernatural go naturally together. According to the theory, Blue Sail is a high-strung horse who is really happy only when he is listening to a good brass band.

LISTENS TO BAND

So his trainer, the story goes, takes Blue Sail occasionally to Phoenix Park in Dublin, where the band presumably plays music that hath charms to soothe a savage beast.

The Irish report, published in at least one London paper, adds one more incredible chapter to Blue Sail's rather lurid life story.

For one thing, he has won only one race in two years—yet he is fifth favorite, at 100-to-7, for the June 2 Derby.

The stretch - running Irish-bred colt, owned by Frank McMahon and Max Bell of Calgary, has run five races. As a two-year-old he twice ran unplaced in Ireland and then to England in October and ran a close second to Plainsong in a mile race at Ascot.

British Cup Team Takes On Canadians

TORONTO (CP)—Britain's Curtis Cup team will play an unofficial international match against a squad of Canadian women golfers at Montreal Aug. 24, it was announced here Thursday night.

The Canadian team will be picked after the two Dominion championships in Dartmouth, N.S. —the Canadian Women's Close Aug. 5-7 and the Open Aug. 9-14.

Batting, Fielding Slump Badly Crippling Dodgers

NEW YORK (AP)—Brooklyn's snail-like start in defence of its National League crown has placed Dodger freshman manager Walter Alston on the spot.

A batting and fielding slump has engulfed all but a couple of Dodgers, pushing the Brooks one game out of first place, and only one game in front of the seventh-place Chicago Cubs. But for the fact that no other club has been able to put together a sizeable winning streak, the Dodgers might be much lower than their current tied-for-second position. They've won only two more games than they've lost.

When Alston succeeded Charlie Dressen as manager of the two-time pennant-winning Dodgers he was told he was taking over one of the hardest hitting and smoothest fielding ball teams ever assembled.

The front office has never doubted that the Dodgers would win the 1954 pennant. They hired Alston to win the world series, something a Brooklyn team has never been able to do.

But the Dodger sluggers, with the exception of Duke Snider and Jackie Robinson, haven't been hitting a lick. Junior Gilliam, for instance, went hitless in 27 straight times at bat before he beat out an infield single Tuesday night. Carl Furillo is batting .220, Reese and Gilliam .250. Roy Campanella was hitting a lowly .167 before he underwent an operation two weeks ago for the removal of a chip in his left hand.

"That's the thing that's got me worried," Alston said. "Take out three or four games and we haven't had any power at all. That exceptional power I'd heard about just isn't around."

Riggs Advocates Holding World Tennis Tourney

VANCOUVER (CP) — Bouncing Bobby Riggs, one of the world's all-time tennis greats, is still beating the drums for his 14-year-old dream of a world open tennis tournament.

But the former U.S. Davis Cup star and professional champion, here in connection with the Jack Kramer tennis tour, says he believes it will take at least another 14 years to convince amateur tennis moguls the open should be tried.

"Amateur tennis officials in the United States are retarding the progress of the game by not having an open," said the 36-year-old Riggs in an interview.

WOULD BE GOOD

"Why should there be discrimination against tennis pros? It would be the best thing in the world for the game and would help spur interest."

Teaming with Riggs in a formidable doubles attack in aid of the open was Frank Sedgman, one of the stars of the touring pros and former mainstay of Australia's great Davis Cup squads.

Sedgman, who has announced his intention of retiring from the pro tennis circuit this fall and returning to Australia, said such an open would provide players like himself with an opportunity to take part in competitive tennis.

"As things are now, it will be about the end of competitive tennis for me when I return to Melbourne," said Sedgman.

Ball Attendance Showing An Improvement

NEW YORK (AP) — Major league baseball attendance, after hitting the skids the last few years, is taking a turn for the better this season.

An Associated Press survey disclosed today that the 1954 turnstile count is up more than 400,000 over last season, with nine clubs benefitting from the renewed interest.

To date, major league teams have played before an over-all total of 3,001,324 fans as compared to 2,589,235 in a like number of home games a year ago.

Thanks to its new Baltimore entry, which already has surpassed the total paid admissions for St. Louis Browns in 1953, the American League shows a gain of better than 350,000. The Orioles, with a draw of 318,679 at home, are running 216,524 ahead of the defunct Brownies.

GAIN NEGLIGIBLE

The National League's gain is negligible—57,439—but five of its teams are up. Those on the credit side are St. Louis 54,479, Brooklyn 45,210, New York Giants 25,213, Cincinnati 7,327 and Chicago Cubs 2,696.

The spirited play of Detroit Tigers is reflected in an improvement of almost 15,000 in attendance over last season. Boston, Cleveland, Washington and New York Yankees all are trailing their 1953 attendance figures, with New York the biggest loser, 31,872.

11 Horses Entered For Preakness Race

BALTIMORE (AP) — Eleven three-year-olds were entered Thursday for the 78th and richest of all Preakness Stakes as rain pelted ancient Pimlico and left the track resembling a one-mile oval of Maryland crab soup.

This second jewel of the Kentucky Derby-Preakness - Belmont triple crown lacks the presence of Determine, the Derby winner three weeks ago, but the Maryland Jockey Club's great sophomore classic has turned into a whale of a horse race.

Correlation, the long-legged California colt, is expected to be an 8-to-5 favorite of a crowd of some 35,000 at the 5:45 p.m. EDT Saturday postime.

Hasty Road, who finished second in the Kentucky Derby, and the next four finishers are here for the Preakness along with five other horses.

Hasty Road is expected to be the 5-to-2 second choice.

Two others given a good chance to win are Woodvale Farm's Goyamo, and Maine Chance Farm's Jet Action—one of the newcomers to the three-year-old classics. Both are listed at 5-to-1 in the early Preakness line.

Peterborough Grid Orfuns Choose 23-Man Executive

A 23-man executive was elected at the well-attended open annual meeting of the Peterborough Orfuns Football Club in the YMCA last night, and this body will meet next Tuesday evening to choose its officers for the year. Dr. Don Aitken was named chairman of the executive till the officers are elected.

The treasurer's report by Dennis Fitzgerald showed the club was nearly $3,000 "in the red"', and various means of cutting down this debt were discussed. Meantime, it was voted to put off the draw for the TV set until the first game of the season late this summer. Dr. Aitken outlined the grid setup as it affected Peterborough, and pointed out that a considerable saving could be made this year by reducing the salary for coaching and by doing away with importing of players. The minutes of the previous annual session were read by secretary Dr. Wilf Preston.

NO CREST YET

The club is still seeking the ORFU championship crests of 1953 and the John Black Trophy, won last season by Bill Huntley. It was decided to put up the Earl Spenceley Memorial Trophy, with replica, for the most valuable player of the Orfuns in future, this to be voted upon by the players. A Big Four football film was shown to the gathering at the conclusion of business.

Those elected to the 1954 executive were: Dr. Aitken, Gordon McGavin, D. A. McGillis, Mick Magee, Don Bark, Jack Harris, Dr. George Lewis, Gord Beatty, Phil Turner, Dr. Wilf Preston, Stan McBride, Wally Farr, Dr. Les Calvert, Dr. Ralph Smyth, Bill Shadgett, Dick Ouimet, Cec. Perdue, Don O'Connell, Dr. Roger Chenoweth, Bud LaBranche, Bob McCabe, George Ludgate and Bob Hall. Treasurer Dennis Fitzegrald asked to be relieved of his executive duties this year, owing to the pressure of business. One of the executive newcomers, Jack Harris, was connected with the Winnipeg intermediate football team which defeated Orfuns two years ago in the Canadian final.

Cardinals Sweep 17-4 Runaway From Pittsburgh

By BEN PHLEGAR, Associated Press Sports Writer

Can St. Louis Cardinals keep up their tremendous hitting long enough for manager Eddie Stanky to find out if he finally has solved his pitching problems?

If they can, the tight National League pennant race may soon start coming apart at the seams.

The Cardinals arived home from the east today, a game and a half in front of the nearest of the closely bunched contenders. On the road they won nine of 14 games, including a 17-4 runaway at Pittsburgh on Thursday night.

Of even more importance to the Cards was the blossoming of Tom Poholsky as a starting pitcher. He lost a 1-0 heartbreaker in Brooklyn where he allowed only three hits, but went the distance again Thursday night against the last-place Pirates.

PITCHING QUESTION MARK

St. Louis pitching, the club's biggest question mark from the start of spring training, has left a lot to be desired. Manager Stanky has been using Harvey Haddix, Gerry Staley and Vic Raschi. Then he closes his eyes, pulls a name out of the hat and hopes.

At one time or another everybody except Raschi, the $75,000 acquisition from New York Yankees, has been blasted. Seven times the Cardinals' rivals have scored 10 or more runs.

But while the pitching has been shaky, the hitting has been amazing. The team batting average is .295 and five of the regulars are over .300, topped by Ray Jablonski at .374 and Stan Musial at .367.

Even Poholsky got into the hitting act Thursday night. He singled three times in three official times at bat, sacrificed once and drove in four runs. Musial drove in four with his 13th home run and a triple. Alex Grammas had a triple, Del Rice a pair of doubles.

No other games were played in the majors Thursday. The Giants were scheduled in Philadelphia but were rained out.

Richmond Edges Syracuse In 3-1 Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Luke Appling, freshman manager in the International Baseball League, has hopes that his new Richmond Virginians will soon be in the midst of the pennant race in the first season.

A little over a week ago "Old Aches and Pains" had been complaining that his team lacked decent pitching, but Thursday night the Virginians racked up their sixth victory in their last seven games by defeating Syracuse Chiefs 3-1.

The victory moved the Virginians to within one game of sixth place and six out of first. However, the league-leading Havana Cuban Sugar Kings trounced Ottawa Athletics 7-2 in the final of a three-game series in the Canadian capital.

ROYALS WIN

In the only other game, Rocky Nelson blasted a bases - loaded home run in the eighth inning to give Montreal Royals a 4-3 victory over Buffalo Bisons.

Buffalo picked up single tallies from Montreal in the third, fourth and sixth innings before Nelson drove Paul Foytack's second pitch in the eighth high over the centre-field fence.

Havana slammed out 11 hits off two Ottawa hurlers with Clint Hartung and Angel Scull driving out homers for the Kings.

Court Decision Halts Windsor Fire Trucks

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—A court decision halted Windsor fire trucks Thursday.

Screaming to a fire, the trucks came to a red light at a main intersection and stopped until it changed to green. A policeman on the corner stopped all traffic and waved the trucks through, but the firemen ignored the signal.

A few days ago, a Windsor fireman was convicted of careless driving after he was involved in an accident while going through a red light on the way to a fire. He was fined $15.

Firemen have been ordered to stop for all lights pending an appeal.

Germans Needed

BRUSSELS (Reuters)—Lord Ismay, secretary-general of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, warned Thursday night that "the balance of military power still rests with the Soviet Union." Speaking on "five years of NATO" to the Political Economic Society of Belgium, Ismay stressed the need for a German contribution to Western defence.

MIDFIELDERS—One reason for Navy's success in lacrosse is a powerful midfield. Composing it are, left to right, seniors Bill Hoover, Jack Horner and Steve McNally.

Phillies Owner Apologizes To Granny Hamner For Having Him Followed

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Owner Bob Carpenter of the Philadelphia Phillies apologized Thursday for public embarrassment caused second baseman Granny Hamner by a private detective the club hired to see whether players were observing curfew rules.

He told a press luncheon he didn't blame Hamner for being angry after the player caught a private investigator trailing him home from the ball park. The detective was arrested Tuesday night after Hamner reported to police he was being followed.

Hamner had demanded a showdown with Carpenter over what he termed the "Gestapo tactics" of having players shadowed by detectives.

Carpenter said he accepted complete responsibility for the hiring of detectives to check on his players and that he intended to keep on making periodic checks. This had been club policy since he bought the franchise in 1946.

HIS MISTAKE

"Hamner is entirely justified in his attitude," Carpenter said. "If I were in his place I would be even more outraged than he is. It was my mistake. I hired the wrong man to do the job. I still have great confidence in Hamner. He's one of our best players."

Carpenter said the check was not instigated against Hamner, but was intended for all 25 players on the roster. "In fact, the investigator believed he was trailing a player other than Hamner."

In New York, Ford Frick, commissioner of baseball, said all major league baseball clubs at one time or another have had their players' habits investigated. "It used to be quite a common practice, but I think it has been largely discontinued. It's no violation of baseball law."

Hamner, who is the second best hitter in the National League right now with a .365 average, already has felt the barbs of sharp-tongued fans and opposing bench jockeys about the incident. They let him have it Wednesday night as he went hitless in four times at bat against the Milwaukee Braves.

College Convocation

LONDON, Ont. (CP)—Nine ministers of the Church of England received their licentiate in theology at the Huron College convocation here Thursday night. They included: Edward C. Attwell, Brantford; Clarence M. Mitchell, Port Dover; Leslie E. Peterson, Noranda; William O. Straw, Paris, Ont.

FREED AFTER 55 YEARS

CHESTER, Ill. (AP)—Lyman W. Hall, oldest prisoner in the state of Illinois who served more than 55 years for murder, was freed on parole Thursday. Hall, 81, was sentenced to life imprisonment March 6, 1897, for the slaying of a constable.

Driving Tips from R. W. Buyers, General Manager, Ontario Safety League.

HOW TO PARK SECURELY ON A HILL!

Always use curb as extra "brake"!

- Pull hand brake on hard.
- When you park facing downhill turn your wheels to the right. Facing uphill, turn wheels to left. Either way . . . if brakes fail car will wedge into curb and stop.
- If there is no curb where you park, wedge a large stone or piece of wood under one of rear wheels.
- Put gearshift in reverse when you park facing downhill. Put it in low for uphill parking. Engine then acts as additional brake.

Blames Fires On Carelessness

WASHINGTON (CP)—Four out of five forest fires in Canada are due to public carelessness, Edward C. Wood, president of the Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada said today.

This destruction costs each person in the country $6 a year, he told the annual meeting of the National Fire Protection Association here.

Each year an average of 5,000 fires destroys 2,000,000 acres of forest land and burns enough timber to build 85,000 five-room bungalows, he said.

Stressing that "individual responsibility" is needed to cut huge fire losses, Mr. Wood said a pattern of public education beginning in early school grades—as practiced in Scandinavian countries—should be encouraged.

Professor Laird's Address On "Dolls" Intrigues Civic Alumnae And Guests

Well worth the effort for some to come a distance to attend the purple and Gold Banquet of the Civic Hospital Nurses' Alumnae on Thursday evening was the address which followed. The unusual topic was "Dolls." The unusual speaker was Miss Isabel Laird, MA, BE, assistant professor of Psychology at Quen's University.

Miss Laird probably studies many unusual subjects in preparing herself to teach the science that treats of mental phenomena. She says doll are a completely fascinating subject and recommends that anyone who has time to read up on them do so.

She felt that dolls should be particularly interesting to the nurses — and her remarks were directed mainly to the 24 members of this year's graduating class who were the honored guests of the alumnae of this occasion. Doll mannequins are used by both medical and nursing students in their study of anatomy and dissection, today but Miss Laird told that before the knowledge of medicine had grown to the proportions it has in the past 150 years, the doctor used to carry a small doll and his woman patient would indicate on the doll's body where her pains and aches were and he would treat her from that information.

Miss Laird complimented the spokesman for the graduates, Miss Muriel Maxwell on the indication of "knowledge of ignorance" in her speech." This is one of the greatest factors in pushing us forward" the audience was told.

"Everyone forgets, but if you only forget and don't replace your knowledge, you will have done very poorly" Miss Laird told the young nurses. "You need a healthy curiostity and a desire to fill out your knowledge with the new, growing points—knowledge that is growing so fast even experts can hardly keep up."

Dolls have a use in saving lives in some countries and religions, Miss Laird went on. Where once a living person was offered to the gods as a sacrifice there is now used an effigy or doll, and the custom of burying alive the wife and perhaps the whole retinue of an important man who dies has now been mostly abandoned and dolls used instead, her research discovered.

She found that the name "doll" may have come from the word "idol". It is also thought to have come from the name "Dorothys" which was used similarly to some modern slang terms at one time.

Miss Laird reminded that effigys of the Royal Family are still made today and placed in a chapel in London, England, following their deaths. Some families had once the habit of standing effigys of their ancestors upright in their living rooms.

Attachment to dolls is human, and boys have to be taught not to play with dolls" declared the speaker. "It is by playing with dolls that we learn how to express tenderness and no man or woman is real without tenderness. Particularly, no doctor or nurse" she added. "These profesions cannot be practised without tenderness."

An observation by Miss Laird is that girls today do not love their elaborate, mechanical dolls as their mothers did simple dolls. She advised that talking dolls are older than we think and when first manufactured several centuries ago were not very popular. "If dolls are made as practical as tanks, girls may never learn to practise tenderness," she said.

Teddy bears come under the classification of dolls, and the first one was made as a gift to Theodore Roosevelt after a bear-hunting expedition, Miss Laird told. Soon, teddy bears flooded the market and it was feared they were putting dolls out of their place. The origin of some dolls, such as Popeye who was invented solely to get children to eat snipach, she says, has been forgotten though the doll continues. Golliwogs she mentioned as lasting.

Dolls have been use to further international friendship, such as the shipment of 11,000 North American dolls to Japanese children and the return a few months later of a shipment of Japanese dolls. They have also been used many times to smuggle documents, jewels, etc. through border customs, the speaker remembered.

The expression "dolled up", Miss Laird said, comes from the small doll mannequins that were once used by Paris style houses, and others, being dressed up in models of their latest fashions and sent around to prospective buyers.

A variety of tribal and national customs involving dolls were discovered by Miss Laird in her search for information. She said there is no doubt that edible dolls, including the party cookies in the shape of humans, have a psychological connection with cannibalism.

It was interesting to the Alumnae to hear that York Hospital in Philadelphia has prepared a history of nursing with dolls, having in it dolls representing Hygea, goddess of nursing, and Phoebe, the first visiting nurse mentioned in the Bible, and many others.

Miss Laird concluded with direct advice to the graduating class: "You will never marry out of nursing or grow out of this profession. I hope the tenderness and affection that was wrapped up in your dolls, will not be forgotten when you look upon us when we come into your hands to be made better."

"Dolls are not only playthings but symbols of some part of human relationship. Remember always the great significance of dolls."

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Alumnae president Mrs. Gordon Wainwright was chairman of the banquet. Professor Laird was introduced to the guests by Mrs. Phyllis Kingdon and was thanked for her address by Miss Evelyn Taylor.

Mrs. Wainwright also had a message for the graduating class. There will be 28 young women graduated in June but four were unable to be present because of training duties in Toronto. Each is presented with a one-year membership in the Alumnae on graduation. "I congratulate you on taking up nursing—you have put service to humanity ahead of monetary gain" said Mrs. Wainwright. "You have a profession that will always hold you in good stead. Service to others will give you real happiness. I hope you will not stagnate but continue to study, read and travel and above all to have some ideas of your own. Never under-estimate the value of the church in your life" the president concluded.

Two pleasing solos, "The Sunshine of Your Smile" and "Coming Home" were rendered by Mrs. Jessie Spencley and piano music through the dinner was presented by Mr. Donald Barrick.

Accompanist for the soloist was Mrs. A. Watkins and for the anthem Miss Patricia Martyn.

Sweden Keeps Eye On Seaway

STOCKHOLM (Reuters)—Swedish shipowners have been sending small ocean-going freighters into the Great Lakes for many years and indications are they will employ larger ships for the lakes trade as soon as the St. Lawrence seaway is open.

The Swedes were pioneers in building the small freighters designed to negotiate the narrow, shallow canal system along the St. Lawrence to the lakes, but these ships have always been regarded here as an "artificial" class of vessel, difficult to operate at a profit because of their limited carrying capacity.

Because of this, all news relating to the building of the seaway is being followed closely in shipping circles here. The Swedish line most directly concerned with the seaway is the Swedish-American Line. Erik Wijk, managing director, told Reuters:

"When the seaway is completed, it may well mean a large reorganization of Swedish export trade. The Swedish-American line will have to get rid of the specialized types of boats which now penetrate into the Great Lakes, and concentrate on regular traffic with bigger ships."

Adolf Palmquist, head of the Swedish Chicago Line, which now operates six small ships to the lakes, said that he expects to use larger ships once the seaway is completed.

Temple Visit Worries Church

INVERNESS, Scotland (Reuters) — The Free Presbyterian Church of Scotland has told the government that the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh committed an act of "idolatrous worship" by taking off their shoes to visit Ceylon's Buddhist Temple of the Tooth during their royal tour.

(Canada's Prime Minister St. Laurent did the same when he visited the temple during his world tour.)

Church ministers in conference here Thursday unanimously decided to send a message of "grief and alarm" to Prime Minister Churchill.

"Had Her Majesty refused to attend this ceremony the vast majority of her Protestant subjects would have rejoiced," they stated.

Sailing Skipper One Of Last British Waters

By COLIN FROST

LONDON — (AP) — Ebenezer Shrubshall is a sailor with a difference. Never in his life has he tasted strong drink—or coffee, tea or cocoa.

Ebbie is skipper of the Kitty, one of the last sailing ships to trade in British waters. Properly called a spritsail barge, the Kitty is a sea-going ship with all the grace of the days of the windjammer.

More than a thousand sailing barges once plied between the Thames river and Britain's coastal ports. Now only 30 are left. They too will go to the breaker's yard as their skippers die.

Ebbie told his story as he steered the Kitty down the Thames bound for Ipswich on the east coast with 100 tons of maize. John Burford, mate, deckhand and ship's cook all rolled into one, stood in the bows, tending the foresail and keeping watch for other shipping.

"I started when I was 12 as mate to my old father," Ebbie said. "His father was a sailorman too. Now I'm 66 so that makes 54 years afloat.

COMPETITION TOO MUCH

"Not so many years ago probably a hundred barges would be going down the estuary on this side. Today we might see a couple—and we might not. Too much competition from the motor barges.

"The trouble is that these days everybody wants everything in a flaming hurry.

"We might get around to Ipswich for instance in a couple of days, given a fair wind. On the other hand, if the wind stays around in the east, we might take a fortnight. And if we do, there won't be much money in it for Ebbie.

"We get paid by the cargo. Half the freight money goes to the barge owners and half to me and my mate. Fair wind and a quick voyage and we're in the money. Foul wind and a long drag and we don't get much butter on our bread.

"Still, I don't smoke and I only drink water so I get by all right. I reckon my only vice is chocolate biscuits—I can always eat a few o' them.

"I had my first berth as a skipper when I was 20. I've had several barges since then and the Kitty is pretty as any. Not so big as some, the big 'uns go well over 200 tons, but plenty for an old man and a boy to handle.

"In her young days my wife used to sail with me in the summer," Ebbie continued. "Now her sailing days are over—she's been an invalid for 30 years."

Has Radio Station In Backyard

QUEBEC (CP)—A 19-year-old youth, who read news reports and commercials and played record requests for neighbors over a two-watt radio transmitter set up in a backyard shed, was charged Thursday with operating a radio station without a permit.

Judge Laetare Roy reserved decision until June 3 on the charge brought by the transport department against Jean Claude Picard after a neighbor complained the station was interfering with his television set.

Picard testified he set up "station CJCP" along with some friends to amuse himself and "to get used to talking before a microphone by reading the advertisements in the newspapers."

Need More Emphasis On Spelling, Arithmetic

SUDBURY (CP) — Lands and Forests Minister Gemmell said Thursday that increased grants to municipalities by the Ontario government are impossible without taxation.

And he added at a meeting of the Sudbury District Municipal Association:

"The taxpayer today, whether it is in the provincial, federal or municipal field, is taxed to the limit. Further taxation would stifle our growth."

Only one hope—that of a possible new dominion-provincial tax rental agreement—was held out as confining the possibility of new revenues for municipalities from the province.

Postpone Fraud Trial Of Belleville Promoter

TORONTO (CP)—Officials of the Ontario securities commission said Thursday night the trial of James Dolan, Belleville mining stock promoter facing two fraud charges, has been put over to June 29 to give the crown time to locate a key witness.

Dolan, president of Piedmont Mines Ltd., a Quebec property, was charged in March with circulating promotional material to shareholders of the company with intent to defraud. The second charge was laid by a stockholder claiming Dolan defrauded him of $1,000.

The witness, L. Ferris Kendall-Leicester, served as consulting geologist to Piedmont Mines at the company's inception. Gordon Robertson, assistant crown attorney in Belleville, said he is probably not aware he is being sought as a witness in the case.

Convicted Of Pointing Weapon At Sweetheart

KIRKLAND LAKE (CP)—Norman Young, 22, was convicted Thursday of pointing an offensive weapon at a former sweetheart. He was remanded to May 27 for sentence.

Magistrate Siegfried Atkinson said he has doubts about Young's mental condition. Jacqueline Pilon, 16, told the court that Young came into the Pilon home April 28 without knocking and pointed a big black pistol at her.

The court was told that the girl returned two rings to Young after an argument before the incident.

Wants Navy Men To Know About Fund

OTTAWA (CP)—A retired naval officer said Thursday night that former navy men should be told more about financial help available to them in times of difficulty.

Wallace Nesbitt (PC — Oxford) said in the Commons that the work of the RCN benevolent fund should be better publicized. The average former sailor knew little about the fund, which provided up to $300 and sometimes more in times of sickness and other unforseen problems.

Make Progress Against TB Germs

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Significance of the ability of TB germs to learn to "roll with the punches" of anti-tuberculosis wonder drugs has been over-rated, a new study conducted for the U. S. public health service revealed Thursday.

Results of the study, involving almost 600 patients from five of 22 participating hospitals, point "fairly clearly to the conclusion that bacterial resistance has been causing us (doctors) greater concern than it merits," declared Dr. Sumner S. Cohen, director of Glen Lake Sanatorium, Oak Terrace, Minn., one of the participating institutions.

His report—perhaps the most encouraging yet made on a subject that has worried doctors ever since effective drug treatments for TB first started to become available a decade ago—was made at the anniversary meeting of the National Tuberculosis Association.

Dr. Cohen declared evidence of persistance of such resistant germs showed up, for the most part, only in TB cases of long duration and far-advanced lung damage.

Arrest Six

BOSTON (AP)—Six persons, including Otis Archer Hood, four times Communist party candidate for governor, and Ann Burlak Timpson, 43, known as the "Red Flame" of New England textile strikes some 20 years ago, were arrested Thursday night on indictments charging "conspiracy." All were charged with conspiring to advocate the overthrow of the government by force and violence.

Foreign Buyers Take 31 of 47 Holsteins at National Sale . . . Attendance 51 at Norwood 4-H Dairy Calf Club Meeting . . . Shorthorn Bull Sells for $5,000 at Calgary . . . Millbrook Spring Fair June 9.

Foreign buyers of Holstein cattle returned with a swoop to the Canadian market as reflected in their acquiring bids for 31 of the 47 animals consigned to the nation Holstein sale at Oakville May 17.

Four went to Argentina, six to Venezuela and 21 to the United States.

The general average of $681 as compared with $674 was reached without any exceptionally high prices. As reported in the daily new the top was $1,500 paid by Raul Chiso of Buenos Aires to J. M. Fraser, Streetsville, for a bull calf. He also bought the top female at $1,250 from David R. Stevens of St. Mary's Ont.

Harry Haskell of Chadds Ford, Pa., took seven animals, including the second highest priced female, Lifloc Barbara Ann Scepter, a six year old Very Good cow consigned by Norman McConkey of Peterborough, at $1,175. She has a twice-a-day milking record as a three-year-old of 19,253 lbs. milk, containing 728 lbs. fat, and is by the sire Elmcroft Scepter. Haskell also paid $975 to G. E. D. Greene, Agincourt, for a four year old daughter of Emperor of Mount Victoria; $950 to J. J. E. McCague, Alliston, for an eleven months old double grandson of the noted Marksman; and in addition bought bred heifers from Robert Wilkie, Blenheim, at $725, David R. Stevens, St. Mary's at $675, and Hardy Shore and Son, Glanworth, and F. O. Hunter, Norval, at $550 each.

Four bulls averaged $1,056; seven milking females $882; thirty-two bred heifers $584; two open yearlings $550, and two heifer calves $750.

Of the six head that went to Venezuela, one was a fourteen months old bull calf sold by S. B. Roman, Gormley, Ont., to the Minister of Agriculuture, Caracus. It was sired by the $9,000 Houckholme Re-Echo Champion.

Consensus of breeders at the sale regarded the prices and the attendance of buyers from other countries as substantially improving trends in the industry. It was said that interests were also represented from Mexico and New Zealand.

Fear Mass Production

Writing briefly about a reported trend of invasion of the poultry business by mass operations of feed and packing industries, Roy Jewell in the London Free Press says that, if it developed, it could doom the family farm.

In his own opinion "the only way we could hope to compete with mass produced chickens and mass produced hogs, if you like, is to maintain top efficiency in our own production plants and show more inclination to adopt changing marketing methods whenever such a change makes for marketing effectiveness . . . It may be popular to decry marketing legislation which makes it necessary for the minority to fall in line . . . It may also be suicidal."

Evidence is not immediately available as to how far mass operation might be established, but it is a warning that the business of farming is not static, and cannot be taken for granted.

New challenges are showing not only in agriculture, but in various other branches of business, some of it affecting retailers, apart from farming.

✦ ✦ ✦

Dairy Objective $400,000

Dairy farmers of Canada hope to increase their June Set-Aside from the $365,000 last year to $400,000 or more. This is the fourth annual promotion month. Contributions are based on a cent-a-pound of butterfat or milk equivalent produced in June.

Dairy Month has been preceded by intensive advertising and merchandising in February, March and April for concentrated milk products, butter and fluid milk. President Gilbert Mcmillan, Huntingdon, Que., believes that the advertising and public relations program had something to do with the fact that Canadians last year increased their consumption of dairy foods.

✦ ✦ ✦

May 24 At Norwood

Hon. Harold E. Scott will formally open the new exhibition buildings at Norwood Monday, May 24.

The fair board has arranged a program that starts with hardball in the afternoon and winds up with a dance in the new main building at night.

The junior Holstein Club sponsored by the Norwood Fair will take part in a display and competition beginning at 7:30 p.m. The program continues with a concert by the Norwood Cititzens Band, and there will be movies at night of the Norwood Fair of 1953.

✦ ✦ ✦

$280 Holstein Average

Fifty-nine head of Holsteins artificially sired from the Oxford and district cattle breeding association averaged $280 at auction last Saturday at Woodstock for a total of $16,540. Thirty head were bought for export to the U.S. Top price of $500 was reached three times, first for a ten months old bull, and then for a pair of bred heifers. Highest for a milking female was $410. Two bulls averaged $392; nine milking females $303, and 48 bred heifers $271.

✦ ✦ ✦

$157,500 For Hereford

"The world's greatest Hereford auction dispersed 552 head of the late C. A. Smith's herd at Chester, W. Virginia, early this month for the fabulous total of $1,003,505, averaging $1817, compared with the national average of $474 for the breed.

Col. F. E. Birdsall told The Examiner recently that he had visited the Smith farms on several occasions.

"He was a grand personality, and had built up the herd himself," Col. Birdsall said. "On one occasion he pointed to a road, saying that in his boyhood he carried water to the men who were building it."

At the sale several weeks ago $555,050 was paid for 447 females, and 105 bulls brought $448,455. The average price for bulls was $4,271, and females averaged $1,241.

LARRY DOMINO 12TH

The first day crowd saw E. C. McCormick of Wadsworth, O., pay $52,500 for the "second-half" of HC Larry Domino 12th, bringing McCormick's total investment in the bull to $157,500. He had previously paid $105,000 for a half interest, sharing the animal with Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fair of San Antonio, Tex., paid a world record auction price of $100,000 for Hillcrest Larry 25th. The Fairs took 23 head for $162,275, and Bay Manor Farms of Lewes, Del., bought 26 for $71,425.

Bidding on "Larry 25th" started at $5,000, and worked its way up quickly with Fair, a Texas oilman, making a determined effort to buy the five year old animal, which ranks among the top 20 register-of-merit sires of all time.

JUST ONE BID

McCormick had said before the sale began with "L. D." first on the block, that he had only one bid. When he entered the $52,000 price, no other offers were made.

"That's the best starting price I ever received," said Col. Jewett M. Fulkerton, of Liberty, Mo., who handled the sale.

McCormick is an insurance executive in Akron, O. He said he had wondered which half of the great bull he owned. "That worry is over now," he remarked.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., took five cows, three of them costing him $4,250.

Jerseys At Millbrook

"There should be 65 to 70 entries' 'at teh parish show of Peterborough district Jersey Breeders' Club at Millbrook spring fair Wednesday June 9.

"We had that many last year", Roger Hanbidge recalled yesterday, "and we expect as many breeders to exhibit at this year's show. The judge will be Bert McGrath of Valleyanna Jersey Farm, Markham, RR 1.

President Roy Ferren and his committee would like to start the Central Ontario agricultural fair year with a big show and a lot of visitors. They are looking towards Peterborough county for the support that usually comes from the neighbors on this side of the Durham boundary.

51 At 4-H Club Meeting

Norwood 4-H Dairy Calf Club at the farm of Milton Cornish Wednesday night brought out 51 members, including some of the parents in an exceptionally large attendance. Club Leader Walter Clark selected a class of four mature Holstein cows for judging, four or five of the members gave reasons for their selections, and Club Leader Walter Clark made the official placing.

Ken Best, assistant agricultural representative, the lines and other features to look for in the dairy cow, preliminary to the judging, and the program included a special dairy film.

$5,000 For Shorthorn

Top price of $5,000 for a thirteen months old bull featured the auction of Killearn Shorthorns at Calgary on the 13th. The average for 33 young bulls was $993, aggregating $30,800. J. A. Shackleford of Martinville, Virginia, paid the best price of the sale for a son of the imported sire, Cruggleton Cyril. The top ten bulls averaged $2,045.

To Judge Herefords

W. W. Donaldson of Louada Manor Farms will judge the Hereford cattle at Millbrook Spring Fair on June 9. He will be in Chicago for about a week prior to that engagement. Hereford breeders of the district usually make quite a competition of their breed at Millbrook.

4-H Club Pins At 50c

Peterborough Junior Farmers have bought 50 4-H Club pins to encourage the younger boys and girls to wear this official emblem of their organization of 67,000 young Canadians.

They are designed for lapel wear and are suitable for the girls of the clubs. Ken Best has the supply at the Department of Agriculture. Actual cost is 50 cents. These are just as attractive as Rotary or Kiwanis pins and are of durable quality.

AT PIMMETT FARM

Peterborough 4-H Beef Calf Club is meeting Tuesday evening at the farm of M. H. Pimmett & Sons, Indian River.

Lorne Pimett, Club leader is expecting a full attendance, and will have a class or two of Shorthorns for judging, discussion of breed lines and quality.

4-H CLUB MAP

Ken Best has fixed up a map of 4-H Club membership with colored pins indicating where the Club interest is most active. As might be expected, the townships of Otonabee, Smith and Asphodel have the largest pin populations, and there are varying ciusters in Dummer, Douro, Burleigh, Harvey, Belmont, Cavendish. Evidently there are only two in North Monaghan, one pin each in Anstruther, Chandos and Methuen. Across the county borders there are also a few in Emily, Cavan and Percy townships.

Total for the 4-H Clubs is 233 boys and girls, and there are also 110 girls in the homemakers and 50 in the girls garden clubs, with possibly a little duplication among those two. At any rate, the entire membership is around 400.

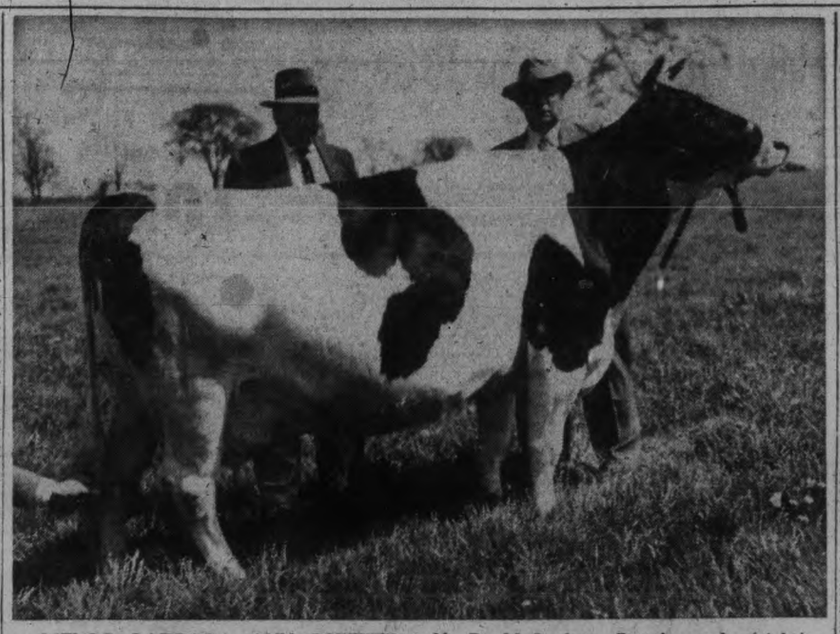
"The response to the Tractor Club has been better than we expected," Mr. Best said Thursday. "Ron Frankish as club leader has a promising group in the Lakefield 4-H Beef Club. Members are from the northern sections of Smith, Dummer and Douro. A lively community spirit is showing behind that group."

A 4-H Beef Club did not materialize at Norwood, and membership in the dairy calf club might have been larger.

"Maybe we'll have more from that area next season," Mr. Best remarked.

The council of Asphodel has been setting the pace for the rest of the county in municipal initiative. Its latest undertaking was the purchase of land and trees for the Norwood High School 4-H Forestry Club.

The fifteen boys of the club set out 5,000 pines Tuesday, and as evidence of official interest Reeve Max Scott, Councillors Carman Metcalfe and Arnold Stevenson, were visitors with Orland Brown. Much of this acceleration of collective interest was begun in Reeve Jim Humphries time, it was quickened by the Asphodel Forums, and the whole effect has been community accomplishment. Ken Best was writing the council a special letter of appreciation of their co-operation with the Norwood boys. They finished the planting of 5,000 trees shortly after 2 p.m.



LIFLOC BARBARA ANN SCEPTER brought the second highest price for a female of $1,175 at the national holstein sale at Oakville this week. She was consigned by N. R. McConkey, Peterborough (right), and bought by J. H. Dodds (left) for H. S. Haskell, Chadds Ford, Pa. Barbara has a yearly record as a three-year-old of 728 lbs. fat from 19,253 lbs. milk.

Ferd Rowland Chairman Kawartha Medical Services

Ferd Rowland of Smith township was elected chairman of Kawartha co-operative medical services at their annual meeting Tuesday night at the department of agriculture office.

Mr. Rowland succeeds W. W. Dawson who has been directing this co-operative insurance enterprise through years of its expansion. The group was sponsored by the Peterborough federation of agriculture and is just one of the achievements of that active rural organization. The vice-president is Harry Garnett, and Miss Olive Bell continues as secretary-treasurer.

The directors appointed for two years were: Mr. Rowland, Mrs. R. R. Stewart, Robert McAdam of Smith and Mrs. Ross MacKay of Dunsford. The other four directors are: Mr. Dawson, Mrs. M. Telford, Mr. Garnett anad Charles English.

The financial statement for the year ending March 31 showed earned premium income of $15,755; the cost of claims incurred $12,726, leaving a gross credit margin of $3,029.

LOSS OF ONE DOLLAR

But, the year's administrative expenses amounted to $3,030, leaving a loss of one dollar in the year's work.

Net savings for the year before patronage returns and taxes on income is $332.

1,618 PERSONS INSURED

"I think we had a very good and useful year," Mr. Dawson said, presiding as chairman. "We spent some extra money on advertising and other educational features to bring the purposes of our association before the public."

The service now has 600 contracts for hospital insurance, comprising 1,618 persons. The monthly average Miss Bell saiad, was 1,587 persons covered.

Total number of days in hospital was 1,522. Only in three or four instances did the hospital period extend beyond 31 days.

Kawartha Co-Op provides medical financial services. It is an agency of insurance of hospital costs, and has been extended during the last year to cover surgical costs.

To get surgical license, 200 contracts were required. The Kawartha membership decided to hook up with Quinte Co-Op of Belleville, thereby obtaining surgical insurance business. Mr. Dawson reported that Kawartha Co-op now has only a few short of the required 200, and is about ready to set up its own surgical coverage, but does not intend to cut adrift from Quinte too suddenly and without considering the position of the companion group.

SUPPLEMENTARY PLAN

Paul Meehan, district fieldman, explained what he called "catastrophe" insurance as the next step affording complete proctection, eventually. If hospital and surgical costs in a particular case exceed $800 or $1,000, part of the charge has to be paid out of personal funds of the patient, and too often a mortgage is incurred.

An extra charge of $2 a year would provide $1,200 from the 600 contract families in Kawartha Co-op. Experience has shown that $1,000 hospital bills are comparatively few.

There might be only one claim for $1,000 or more during a year, and at only a small extra cost the additional insurance would be provided. If there were several of these heavier demands, the executive would distribute the fund as evenly as possible, Mr. Meehan said.

The meeting decided to amend the policy requiring members to retire from the directorate for at least one year after they have been six years in office.

"I believe in having new executives come in from time tto time," Mr. Clark saiad, "but that rule would affect four of our directors at one time, and that seems to be shutting out too many at once."

The members reduced the four to two, and it happened that Mr. Clarke anad Henry Sharpe were the first two coming within the scope of the change as the longest in executive service.

The election of Mrs. MacKay of Dunsford to the board signified expanding interest in that direction. It was said that already quite a number of people in Victotria county wished to come in with Kawartha Medical, and eventually, perhaps, set up their own insurance independently.

Kawartha was established in 1949 through the initiative of the Federation of Agriculture. They began with no experience in the insurance field, anad they now have more than 1,618 protected in hospitalization costs, and 200 in surgical requirements.

"I would like to see more group secretaries," Mr. Meehan said. "They can be a great aid to this work. I know you people appreciate your secretaries, but I am hoping more of them will be enlisted."

Shorthorn Day Speaker From Illinois

The guest speaker at the Shorthorn Club's field day at Louada Manor Farm Saturday June 26 will be Les Mathers of Mason City, Illinois.

That was one of the definite details listed at a meeting of the Peterborough Shorthorn executive Wednesday night with Lorne Pimmett, chairman.

"This field day will have more of an international flavor than we have ever seen in this part of the country," Ab Stoltz, Guelph, field man, said. "The secretary of the American Shorthorn Association wil be here and we expect that there will be several others with him."

The invitation to return to Louada Manor Farms on Pigeon Lake was received from Mr. Cadesky back in the winter. With his substantial co-operation the club proceeded with the sponsorship of the show.

"Our field day at the Manor three years ago was the biggest in Canada that year", Mr. Stoltz said. "And with good weather June 26 we expect to go one better. Leaders of the Shorthorn cattle industry will be here from both sides of the border."

"Anybody who loves good cattle will be welcome," said W. W. Donaldson, farm superintendent, remarked to the Examiner.

The Cadesky place is in Harvey township, and from the south is aproached by way of the new Buckhorn Road. It is likely that the other way through Ennismore will not be open at Gannon's Narrows by that time.

There will be three classes of cattle lined up for judging competitions with prizes for total scores. A special program will be provided for children, inspection of the herd and premises will begin at 10 a.m., lunch will be served at 11.30, and judging begins at 1.30 p.m.

Industrial Design To Be Featured At Trade Fair

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

Foreign visitors will see a display of recent Canadian industrial design at the Canadian International Trade Fair.

The National Industrial Design Council will put on three, May 31-June 11, a show of all Canadian manufactured articles which won NIDC awards in 1954.

Canada will take part, too, in the international exhibition of contemporary design in industry in Milan, Italy, August to November.

An international exhibition of designs in aluminum, selected by NIDC, is also projected, and will be sent on tour of Canada to mark this year's centenary of the discovery of the industrial process of making aluminum.

OFFICE EXHIBITION

Another international exhibition, this time of office furnishings, will be held at the Design Centre, Ottawa, in October. It will show five office settings, three Canadian, one British and one American.

A survey of employment opportunities for Canadians who hold NIDC scholarships for advanced studies in industrial design, indicates that several large Canadian corporations are planning to open their own product-design divisions.

The council is made up of manufacturers, retailers, designers, research and educational officials and acts in co-operation with the industrial design division of the National Gallery of Canada.

ACCOUNTANTS EXPAND

The new chartered accountants building, in Toronto, will be opened May 27 by Premier Frost of Ontario and will provide headquarters for the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants and the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario.

The two-storey structure includes a lecture hall with seating capacity for 150 people, and allows for addition of three more floors.

A press release says the practice of accountancy in Canada now is almost 75 years old, the first institute having been formed in 1880 in Quebec province, and that now all provinces have their individual institutes, which work in co-operation with the Canadian institute.

70 Entries

J. R. Nokes of Manilla is sending seven head, Chas. Fisher and Sons four, Mel Edwards, Lakefield, four and Alan Linton of Cobourg and G. J. Stapleton of Newtonville, four each.

Secretary Wm. Mood told the Examiner that 70 head were entered by breeders for the sale, but the committee culled them down to 36, an indication of the preliminary selection that has been made in the interests of buyers.

The government premium on bulls will be in effect,— 20% of the purchase price, but not exceeding $75.

This is the sixth annual Hereford sale at Peterborough, now an established spring event.

The executive is composed of: President Charles Fisher, Vice-president Alan Linton; past President Homer Hawkey, Secretary Wm. Mood, and directors— Col. Birdsall, Milton Cornish, R. Nokes and R. Warner.

Welsh Festival

CARDIFF, Wales (CP) — The Welsh tourist board executive has agreed to promote a Festival of Wales in 1958. H. T. Edwards, chairman, said "we hope the festival will be on the same lines as the 1951 Festival of Britain." It is hoped every community in Wales will take part.

ENGLISH COWPOKE—Tom Lodge, 18-year-old English youth, with a guitar slung over his shoulder and $50 in his pocket, plans to take up ranching in Pincher Creek, Alberta. Lodge, grandson of the late Sir Oliver Lodge, first principal of Birmingham University, found life in a southern English village too dull, sailed on a small Greek freighter from England to Canada. He arrived in Montreal and hitched his way west, making a brief stop at Winnipeg where he posed for this photo.—(CP Photo).

Town Water Contaminated

TORONTO (CP) — The medical officer of health for nearby Richvale told a meeting of the East Vaughan Township Ratepayers' Association last night that the town water supply is contaminated and is a potential source of typhoid, dysentery and jaundice.

Dr. O. M. King said water from 120 wells on three streets has been tested at the University of Toronto and found to be polluted. He believed several hundred wells were in similar condition.

The contamination was caused by the existence of a shallow water table which serves the wells and by the failure of septic tanks to operate in the rainy season, Dr. King said.

The ratepayers voted to study a sewage disposal system for the area, to be submitted to the township council.

Engage Teachers

LAKEFIELD (ENS)—The Lakefield public school board has engaged Miss Elizabeth Delledonne and Mrs. Ada McAdam to be teachers starting in September.

Coal Industry In Danger Of Extinction

By IRVING C. WHYNOT

HALIFAX (CP)—Nova Scotians were told Thursday night they have to buy more coal or the province stands to lose the 300-year-old industry which employs 12 per cent of the population.

They were warned bluntly that the coal industry is on the brink of disaster and in danger of collapse.

And they were told its loss would cut deeply into a $37,390,000 annual payroll which supports 70,000 persons directly and affects thousands more indirectly.

These warnings, and others just as grim, came at a meeting kicking off an intensive campaign designed to woo domestic customers back to coal from oil and other heating mediums.

The campaign, a joint provincial-company affair, has as its main goal the recapture of the Maritime domestic heating market.

President Lionel Forsyth of Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation said:

"This industry . . . which contributes each year $62,000,000 to the Nova Scotia economy . . . is on the brink of disaster."

"It is vital to the existence of the industry to place in its home market every pound of the product that can and should be used there."

He said oil had knocked 500,000 tons of coal a year off the Nova Scotia market during the last 15 years.

President Freeman Jenkins of United Mine Workers (CCL) district 26, with 12,000 members depending on the mines for a living, said 1,000,000 tons were lost in the Maritimes during the same period.

Federal Mines Minister Prudham said:

"There is good reason to be alarmed."

He said the cost of coal is the big problem.

"To put it crudely the industry has almost priced itself out of the market." But he said he thought the situation could be licked through co-operation.

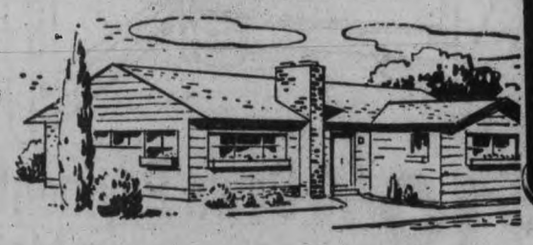
Paint your home in ½ the time*....

For Repainting Surfaces in Reasonable Condition Use TITAN WHITE*

A wonderful new warm white with extra Titanium content, giving it greater hiding power. Brushed smoothly over all but unpainted or badly weathered surfaces according to directions, just one coat of Titan White has an opaqueness equalling two coats of ordinary paint, saving you 50% of the work of repainting. By carefully controlled 'chalking' Titan White retains its gleaming whiteness season after season, allowing minute particles of the paint film to chalk away, taking with them accumulated surface dirt and grime.



For New or Badly Weathered Surfaces Use . . .
High Standard House Paint TWO-COAT SYSTEM

For new wood and painted surfaces in poor condition, whether brick, concrete or stucco, this 2-coat system provides beauty plus complete scientific protection. By means of 'Controlled Penetration' specially compounded oils in High Standard 260 Primer seal all porous surfaces, penetrating the immediate sub-surface just far enough to ensure firmness of the prime coat. Enough oil is left on the surface to form a tough, elastic film, providing an ideal foundation for a finish coat of Titan White or Lowe Brothers' High Standard Exterior Paint.

Lowe Brothers PAINTS

● In choosing Lowe Brothers Exterior Paints too, you get the benefit of laboratory and performance tested formulas. Each contains carefully selected pigments, dispersed in durable paint oils to guarantee tough, elastic paint films. Each is developed to do a specific job and each is tested for film strength, abrasion resistance, drying time, adhesion, surface hardness, viscosity and color permanence. Properly applied, Lowe Brothers High Standard House Paints form a protective coating that resists heat, cold and humidity —stays smooth and resilient season after season.

Coldwell Urges European Air Strength Cut

OTTAWA (CP) — CCF Leader Coldwell has suggested cutting Canada's air strength in Europe by half and troops in Korea by a third.

The two proposals, placed before the Commons Thursday, were among a list of suggested economies which he said could slice "several hundreds of millions of dollars" from a $2,000,000,000 defence program this year.

He was one of several opposition members who proposed economies as the defence department's 1954-55 estimates came under consideration.

Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes VC, Progressive Conservative military critic, said that a sincere desire to save could have brought about a $100,000,000 cut in defence estimates. He urged a detailed study of departmental operations by non-government efficiency experts.

He listed no specific savings and said economies should not be made by dropping various defence items. Spending could be reduced five per cent by teaching service commanders a sense of economy.

They spoke after Defence Minister Claxton outlined the government's defence program and, in particular, joint efforts with the United States for defence of the North American continent.

PRIMARY AIM

Mr. Claxton said the primary aim of continental defence is to protect the West's capacity for massive retaliation, the U.S. strategic bomber force.

The defence against Russian air power could destroy nine out of 10 attacking planes. That percentage still was not good enough, however, and "no doubt additional steps will be taken from time to time" to strengthen continental defences.

Canada's plan of radar, communications and jet fighters to intercept attacking bombers would be in complete operation by this summer or early fall. It had reached the stage where a Russian bomber force heading for U.S. targets might choose some other route than over the Canadian arctic.

Mr. Coldwell said Canada left herself almost defenceless in the air when she sent 12 RCAF squadrons to Europe. Six squadrons should be returned, to save money and give Canada better protection.

As for Canadian troops in Korea, he said that if the United States follows plans to bring home some troops Canada could bring back at least one of the three battalions in the 25th brigade.

CRUISERS IN RESERVE

Other savings proposed included putting the navy's two cruisers in reserve, reducing the stockpile of weapons and equipment which he described as obsolete, and co-operating with the United Kingdom in developing new aircraft.

Mr. Coldwell said the estimates indicate Parliament has lost control over the defence department. Because of secrecy, the department had become law unto itself and no member of Parliament knew what defence requirements should be or how the money was spent.

Gen. Pearkes said he isn't sure North America has a radar warning system as effective as Mr. Claxton indicated. Canada was pitifully short of fighter squadrons for home defence and despite wishful thinking Canadian cities were exposed to air attack.

Mr. Claxton said he doesn't believe there will be a general war in the near future. But the basic aims of the Soviet Union still were imperialism and aggrandizement and Canada's defence spending could not be reduced if her forces were to be kept at present levels.

Princess Margaret travelled on a line not affected by the strike of an overnight journey from London.

She was born at Wilton Grove, near London, Ont., daughter of the late Rev. J. E. and Mrs. Ford.

LONG TRILLIUM SEASON

Cool weather has extended the bloom time of the trilliums, one of the minor effects of this so-called "backward" season. Along a fence on the farm of Burritt Jopling in Smith township the other afternoon, one of a cluster of those national flowers of Canada appeared to be as broad as the face of Little Ben. Some of the trillium buds hadn't even opened. Yellow violets looked about twice their average size.

PROBLEM INCREASES

The number of patients for whom suitable accommodation cannot be provided at Civic Hospital is increasing steadily. There were 82 such cases for April, as compared with 50 during March, and a previous monthly average of 29. "The situation is causing much distress," commented superintendent John Hornal, as the need for a new wing becomes more imperative.

ABOVE BUDGET

The Civic Hospital financial statement shows a debit balance of $6,510.30 in relation to the budget for the first third of the year. With an expenditure of $89,680.88 for April, the hospital is losing an average of about $1,000 a month, although the total revenue is above average. Treasurer T. T. Rodger said expenses have been high during the first portion of the year, but a balance with the budget should be struck before the year is out.

River Bank Rezoned By Board

30-Foot Strip Along Otonabee Set Aside For Agriculture

"This ought to satisfy everybody," said Ernest C. Braund as the planning board rezoned part of the Otonabee river shoreline to agricultural purposes Thursday. This was not the unanimous view of the board one member was heard to observe: "It certainly will not."

In response to pleas from the Otonabee valley conservation committee, the board partially answered their plea for no heavy industry on the lakeshore by approving 30-foot agricultural frontage along both sides of the river. These green belts will run from Wolfe St. north to the Hazlitt St. footbridge and from Park Hill Rd. north to the city limits on the east bank. On the east shore there will be a 30-foot agricultural strip extended north from Park Hill Road.

James Craig, backed by Harold Rehill, wondered if "we have any authority to take people's land and tell them they can't do anything with it." Planning consultant Gordon Culham replied that the rezoning is for agricultural purposes, not for municipal parks. Under these circumstances, lakeshore landowners can continue to use their land.

Mr. Craig thought it should be included in the bylaw that the land could be privately bought for park purposes. He did not feel that Section 11 of the proposed bylaw included the possibility of the horticultural society, for example, buying lakeshore property for private park purposes.

PLENTY OF PARKS

Mr. Culham said "this wouldn't accomplish anything" and added that there are "plenty of parks" in the riverfront area. He echoed Mr. Rehill's observation that parks can be installed in any planning zone, and doubted that the three Otonabee parks — Nicholls Oval, Inverlea and Riverside—would cease to function. Conversion of park space to other uses is "just about the last thing ever done by a municipality."

As the discussion veered to the question of future use of the Otonabee shoreline, planning board chairman Hubert Sills declared: "The municipality can do anything it likes, whenever and however it likes" with reference to zoning.

A UNION STATION FOR PETERBOROUGH was the prospect that brought railway and government officials to Peterborough Thursday to discuss the possibility with city council. Elimination of some of the city's 76 level crossings and easing rush-hour traffic bottle-necks are the ends in view. Shown studying a map of the city to pin-point potential changes are (standing, left to right) J. W. Stewart, superintendent of the CPR Trenton division; G. W. Griffin, engineer of the CPR Trenton division, and A. R. Wilson, superintendent of the CNR Belleville division; seated are Acting Mayor John Dewart and A. Lesage of the board of transport commissioners. —(Examiner Staff Photo)

Many Obstacles In Way Of Union Station But Planning Continues

Officials of Railways and Transport Board Meet Members City Council Discuss Relocating Tracks and Station

Like practically everybody in the city, both the CNR and CPR would probably like to have a union station in Peterborough. Pooling passenger facilities would cut operating costs for both of them.

But there are enough obstacles in the way to make it seem like the dream it has been for the past 35 years.

In spite of this, city council is going to appoint a committee to work out concrete proposals to place before both railways, who will be asked to compute the approximate cost of what the city has in mind.

The committee will also study proposals for eliminating some of the city's 76 level crossings and reducing the motor traffic bottlenecks caused by the railways. In some instances, these will dovetail with the union station project, but not in all.

This was the result of a discussion in city hall Thursday afternoon by members of city council and representatives of both railways, the board of transport commissioners and the provincial department of planning and development.

SUGGEST LOCATIONS

Two locations for a passenger station to serve the two railways were suggested:

1. The point where the two railways now intersect at Bethune St. in the area surrounded by Townsend, Aylmer, Rink and Stewart streets.

2. Somewhere in the general area between Maniece Ave. and Lansdowne St., east of Armour Rd.

On the face of it, the first proposal seems the most logical. But it would mean the surrounding property would have to be purchased and the buildings demolished, to provide sufficient space not only for the station but for parking as well.

Moreover, it would in itself contribute nothing to solving the crossing problems, although it would assist in easing the George St. traffic bottle-neck at the CPR station.

The second location was suggested by Ald. Harold Rehill. In this area, the CPR Havelock line and the CNR Belleville line are only about half a mile apart.

By swinging south towards Lansdowne St., the CPR could continue its track west to cross the Otonabee river somewhere

Blame Children For Setting Keene Barn Fire

KEENE (ENS)—Fire destroyed a barn owned by David McNevan at the west end of the village, Thursday afternoon. Three unidentified children, playing with firecrackers, are thought to have caused the fire.

Melvin Mather, 13, discovered the fire at 4.45 p.m. when he noticed the flames flashing through the cracks in the wall. He called his father, Percy Mather, who attempted to remove a newly-purchased corn binder from the burning building. A padlocked door prevented this action.

Three young boys had been seen playing with firecrackers in the vicinity of the barn and may have entered through a loose board in the wall.

Within half an hour of the discovery of the blaze, the frame and three-year-old steel roof collapsed. In addition to the loss of the new corn-binder, another corn-binder, 1,000 feet of new lumber and a quantity of hay were lost. Everything was insured.

Building Permit Issued For Duplex

The city has issued a building permit to Sam Moldaver to build a double duplex house at Dumble Ave and Nicholls St.

Mr. Moldaver's application for a permit was previously turned down and he subsequently applied to the Ontario Supreme Court for an order of mandamus requiring the city to give him the permit. The Supreme Court was scheduled to hear the application next Tuesday.

City engineer A. E. Chalmers said today he had issued the permit on the advice of city solicitor W. F. Huycke, QC, and after consultation with members of city council. As a result, Mr. Moldaver will not require an order of mandamus.

THIRD APPLICATION

This was the third such application in less than three weeks. On May 6, Chief Justice J. C. McRuer of the Ontario High Court granted an application for an order of mandamus requiring the city to issue a permit to Neil R. Sloggett to enable him to build a motel at 390 George St. S.

Last week, the city instructed the engineer to issue a permit to John Conlin to erect a service station on Parkhill Rd., between Reid and Donegal streets. Mr. Conlin had earlier applied to the Supreme Court for an order of mandamus for the permit. It was decided to grant the permit before the Supreme Court hearing got under way.

Seek To Unite Fire Brigades In Mutual Aid Program

Another attempt is being made to get a firefighting mutual aid program underway in Peterborough county.

Fire chiefs from the City, Bridgenorth, Lakefield, Norwood and Havelock were invited to a meeting Thursday night to hear John Turnbull of the fire marshal's office, Toronto, urge a mutual aid program. Purpose of such a plan would be central direction of firefighting equipment to cope with a serious peace time fire or one caused by wartime bombing.

NOT FINANCIAL PROBLEM

As seen by Turnbull, the problem is not primarily a financial one. The fire marshal's office prefer to see the exchange of equipment among municipalities on a no-cost basis. And they want it done under existing legislation.

"We'd like to see it run on a no-cost basis," he said. "To work this plan at all we can't be involved with costs. It's a case of you help me and I'll help you and it will work itself out over a number of years.

"Mutual aid is a two-way street. We expect every municipality taking part, . .to have a reasonably good standard of fire protection in their own municipality. If you can't help yourself how can you help anybody else?

Co-operation would soon break down, too, if one side sent a "shiny new pumper" and the other side sent an "old coffeepot-type". There must be an honest effort to maintain a good standard of firefighting equipment.

Eventually, the protection should cover the whole county. But those municipalities wanting to get into it must be willing to buy equipment —even if they have to leave it in a neighboring community and have it manned from there.

"It's equipment we want — not money," said Mr. Turnbull. Dollars and cents won't put out a fire."

11 PUMPERS IN COUNTY

At present there are 11 pumpers in the whole county. They are distributed this way: five in Peterborough, two in Bridgenorth, two in Lakefield, one in Norwood and one in Havelock.

The five fire departments (full-time and volunteer) would go to large fires according to a carefully-worked-out plan. For instance, if Chief Allan Clark of Lakefield was afraid the main business section of Lakefield was about to be burned, he would get his first help from Peterborough. His second would come from Bridgenorth (probably one pumper); and his third would also be from Peterborough.

A schedule of direct assistance and standbys would be worked out—all under the direction of Fire Chief William Sorrie, county fire co-ordinator.

MUST BUY MOBILE UNIT

Norwood and Havelock would be covered in the same mutual assistance plan. Presumably other municipalities could join if they showed some inclination for self-help in the first place by buying a mobile piece of firefighting apparatus.

Present at Thursday night's meeting in the general committee room were Fire Chief Sorrie, Captain Frank Shearer, and Fire Inspector Victor Barry of Peterborough; Chief Earl Hamblin, John Hamblin, Harry Wilford, Arnold Perry and Gordon Parker (councillor) of Norwood; chef Ray Bell and Roy Patterson of Havelock, accompanied by Deputy - Reeve Gardner Gawley of Belmont-Methuen; Chief Clark, Bill Hamblin and Albert Buchanan (councillor) of Lakefield.

Another meeting will be held in about a month. In the meanwhile the fire chiefs will discuss the plan with their respective councils.

Workers Choose Short Week At Outboard

As a result of two special meetings Thursday, employees of the Outboard Marine and Manufacturing Co. will begin an alternating three-day and five-day week, effective June 1.

Fred Burritt, president of Local 5009, United Steelworkers of America, said that this condition would exist only as long as the present situation stood, and that any change would result in further negotiations between company and union officials. The present agreement is understood to be in force for a maximum of three months.

However, said Mr. Burritt today, due to further information received today from the company, it is not known whether the short week plan will be put into effect. The conditions have changed so drastically from what union officials outlined to the employees at Thursday's meeting, that it will have to be seriously considered what course must now be followed.

For the past month, due to cutbacks in production schedule, the company has laid off 102 men. The company told union officials that further layoffs would be necessary unless the employees accepted a four-day week. It was decided to break this time into three and five-day weeks to enable the employees to collect some unemployment insurance, impossible under the straight four-day week plan.

NIAGARA SIGHT-SEERS

Six busloads of schoolchildren and their mothers from Curve Lake, Burleigh, Buckhorn and three other country schools in Smith township spent the day at Niagara Falls on Thursday. They held a mass picnic in Queenston Park and climaxed the tour with a trip "down under" to the Cave of the Winds.

Horse Bolts, Woman Thrown From Roller

OMEMEE (ENS) — Mrs Charles Thomas of RR 2, Omemee, Thursday, was thrown off a roller when a team of horses, pulling the machine, bolted. Mrs. Thomas was operating the roller Thursday afternoon.

She was attended by Dr. William Earl of Omemee, who rushed her to St. Joseph's Hospital. She suffered chest injuries and hospital officials say her condition is fair.

Rhee's Liberal Party Wins Majority

SEOUL (AP) — Unofficial returns from almost 90 per cent of South Korea's 203 assembly districts indicated today that president Syngman Rhee's Liberal party won a majority in the one-house legislature in Thursday's election.

Thirty-five unreported districts were in rural areas where Rhee's candidates were strongest. Unofficial returns give the Liberals 88 of the 203 seats, with independent candidates getting 64, Democratic Nationalists 14 and Korean Nationalists two.

There were predictions that final returns would give the Liberals their goal of 110 seats—or eight more than a majority.

Must Be Bad To Be Good In Screen World

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Donna Reed is living proof of the adage that as an actress you've got to be bad to be good.

Miss Reed walked off with an Oscar for playing a shady lady in "From Here to Eternity." This was after playing nice girls for more Hollywood years (13) than she would like to recall.

Now she is back at her home lot, MGM, where she worked eight years in Andy Hardy, Thin Man, Dr. Gillespie and other films before reaching stardom. She came back to the studio as a freelancer to appear with Liz Taylor, Van Johnson and Walter Pidgeon in "The Last Time I Saw Paris."

"The role I play is not really a good girl," she remarked, "but she turns out to be all right in the end. No, it's nothing like 'From Here to Eternity'. That kind of a part comes along only once in an actor's lifetime—if he's lucky."

I asked how the Oscar has changed her professional life. She replied that more scripts are being submitted to her and the roles are better. But she hasn't noticed any increase in films that would cast her as a bad woman.

COLUMBIA BREAK STRANGE

Oddly enough, she left her Columbia contract shortly before she won the Oscar. It seems strange that the studio would let her go at the peak of her career. Donna was just as puzzled as anyone.

"The break came when I turned down a fourth B script that had been sent to me," she related. "I had done the first three, because I don't like to raise a fuss. I could not understand why I was getting that treatment.

'When the fourth B was submitted, I decided it was time to take a stand. Either they were going to capitalize on whatever I had accomplished in 'Eternity' or they were just going to use me. Since it appeared they were doing the latter, I asked to be let go. They agreed to do so."

SHIP-BOARD ARRIVALS — Beaming Capt. Giuseppe Caggiano cuddles twin girls born at sea aboard his ship, the passenger liner Roma, which recently arrived in New York from Naples. The girls, wearing party hats, are Giuseppina, left, and Anna Maria Pietrantonio. They were born four days after the vessel left port. The captain is their godfather. The parents, who plan to live in New York, have four other children, who came along with them.

Need More Taxation If Grants Increased

LONDON, Ont. (CP) — London business men say there should be more emphasis in schools on the basic subjects of spelling, arithmetic and English.

They also would like to see more training given on stencil work, typing reports, preparation of invoice sheets, dictating equipment and calculator and billing machines.

The suggestions were made as a result of a questionnaire sent to business men by the Chamber of Commerce to find out whether secondary schools are turning out properly - trained youngsters for business and industry.

The results were made known Thursday by Hugh T. Smith, secretary-manager, to the Associated High School Boards of Ontario.

Mr. Smith said results showed satisfaction with the present school system, but the business men felt it was essential for the spirit of competition to be instilled into today's youth.

U.S. Government Sues 14 In Alcan Deal

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The United States government Thursday sued seven American citizens and seven Canadians for $88,000, charging fraud in the disposition of surplus U.S. property after the completion of the Alcan highway to Alaska in 1943.

Canadians named as defendants in the suit included William S. Tomlinson Sr., president of the Tomlinson Construction Co., Toronto.

The civil suit specified loss of $34,000 in equipment at Dawson Creek, B.C., and sought equal damages plus penalties.

Executive Editor Dies Suddenly

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Gideon D. Seymour, 52, vice-president and executive editor of the Minneapolis Star and Tribune, died Thursday of a heart attack.

Seymour, former head of the London bureau of The Associated Press, had been with the Minneapolis newspapers since 1939.

He joined The Associated Press in 1923.

The AP moved Seymour to Indianapolis and Chicago before he was named general city editor in New York in 1929. Two years later, he was promoted to chief of the AP bureau in Buenos Aires, followed by assignments to Capetown, South Africa, and Sydney, Australia. In 1936 he moved to London as managing director for the AP in the British Isles.

The two are Bonavista and Twillingate, representing more than 500 fishermen. The federation embraces some 9,000 fishermen. Thousands of Newfoundland fishermen have abandoned the industry because of low prices.

Deny Spying

WEISBADEN (AP)—U.S. military authorities Thursday denied a Moscow assertion that they had parachuted a spy into the Ukraine. The denial came after the Soviet armed forces newspaper Red Star said a Ukrainian exile had been shot after being parachuted into the Soviet Union by the U.S. air force.

SELASSIE SAILS

LE HAVRE (Reuters)—Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia Thursday night embarked aboard the liner United States for New York on a state visit to the United States and Canada.

Kidnaps Children Man 34, Charged

CHICAGO (AP) — A 34-year-old man was charged Thursday night with kidnapping a seven-year-old girl and her three-year-old brother in Beloit, Wis., 10 days ago and taking them to Illinois.

Joseph McElroy, identified by the FBI as having a police record in Michigan and Indiana for molesting children and young girls, was seized by FBI agents and two Beloit policemen at a farm about 50 miles southwest of Chicago.

Guy Banister, special agent in charge of the Chicago FBI office, said McElroy will be arraigned on a charge of violating the Lindbergh law, which carries a maximum penalty of death.

Banistersaid McElroy lured the girl and her brother into his truck on May 11 by offering them chewing gum. The FBI agent said McElroy stopped the truck several times en route from Beloit to Rockford, Ill., and molested the girl sexually.

The children who were not identified by Banister, were freed early the next morning in Rockford.

HOODED INFORMERS—Anti-Mau Mau natives, wearing long hooded cloaks to conceal their identities, are escorted from the guard house at Langata detention camp, near Nairobi, Kenya, to scrutinize natives suspected of Mau Mau terrorism. River Bank

Mrs. Alene Holt felt that the issue of whether or not there should be more parks along the Otonabee was not the relevant issue in any case. She said it was her impression that the Otonabee Conservation commission was asking for more beautification, and less heavy industry, not necessarily for additional park space.

Mrs. Holt also noted that possibility of water contamination is a factor worrying the committee. To this city engineer A. E. Chalmers replied: "There will always be pollution as long as there are people in the city of Peterborough."

Ernest Braund suggested that it might be wise for the planning board to meet again with the committee, to explain to them just why the area cannot be rezoned RM (multiple residential-dwelling.) This was a central plank in the Otonabee committee's crusade against expansion of heavy industry along the river.

Further discussion would be valuable, said Mr. Bruand, because "25 per cent of the people are up in arms" about zoning the rivershore for heavy industry.

CROWD OUT INDUSTRY

"These people just want to crowd out industry," said planner Culham, referring to petitions from the conservation committee. "They want to do away with things, to get just what they want."

Another heavy industry section along the Otonabee, east of the agricultural zone on the east bank will be changed to light industry. This will allow establishment of central and neighborhood commercial centres, plus multiple dwelling units. The area is north of Park Hill Road as far as Moir St.

M. W. Tolton of the Mohan-Hunter dairy was partially successful in his request to have the block bounded by London, Donegal, Gilchrist and McDonnel streets completely light industry. Mr. Culham said he wanted to "hold the line" and preserve residential frontage on London St. (The southern half of the block had been L1, the balance R2). The board moved to expand the L1 section to include Mr. Tolton's property, but not the whole block.

Gordon Hancock pointed out that Mr. Tolton is not the only businessman operative in this area. He mentioned the Harris and Boddy sign store and the Christie Bread Co., both on Gilchrist St. as firms which might be affected by the present zoning.

A call for a "totally new concept of assessment, in all its corrective phases" was registered by Gordon Munro of the Peterborough Lumber Co. in a letter to the planning board. Although the issue seems outside the planning board's jurisdiction, there was considerable discussion of Mr. Munro's suggestion that firms obliged to provide offstreet parking for customers be allowed tax exemptions accordingly.

Mr. Munro "has a point," said James Craig. He noted that parking is a city-wide problem, and if merchants are asked to do their part to relieve congestion, there ought to be some particular provision for them at assessment time.

NOT IMPRESSED

Mr. Culham was not impressed with this argument, declaring that all merchants are protected by uniformity of assessment practices. He claimed that most offstreet parking is for employees only, and that only apartments and funeral homes would readily fall within the classifications implied in Mr. Munro's letter.

Chairman Sills said that the question "has no application to the zoning bylaw." The board agreed to file the letter.

The board was split on the question of rezoning a section of the southeast end of the city from R2 to central commercial. With Gordon Hancock and Harold Rehill in opposition, the board voted to keep the district west of Monaghan Road between Hawley and Little Sts. as R2.

A letter from M. G. Hardill informed the board that the Commercial Press plans to relocate in this section, renting out office space to doctors, dentists and apartments to families. Mr. Hardill pointed to the semi-commercial nature of this area, suggesting that it be rezoned central commercial as far south as McKellar St.

Mr. Rehill saw some merit in Mr. Hardill's suggestion, suggesting that a commercial centre here might be better than more commercialization along the highways. Mr. Sills, however, asserted that rezoning would tend to "clutter up a main thoroughfare," (Monaghan Rd.).

WHERE WILL IT STOP

"Where are you going to draw the line?" Mr. Culham asked, if residential areas are to be made commercial whenever there are "a few small commercial centres" who want a change. He also noted that Mr. Hardill's plans still appear to be tentative.

City Clerk E. A. Outram commented that the city owns two small parcels of land in this section of the city. One is south of McKellar, the other north of Little St. He thought it possible that this second property might some day be used for a new south-end fire hall.

City engineer Chalmers recalled that it had been tentatively planned to zone this area as neighborhood commercial. But except for one small neighborhood commercial pocket on Monaghan Road between Arndon and Cameron streets, everything south of Hawley St. between Erskine Ave. and Monaghan Rd. is R2.

A letter from Williamson Bros. an automotive firm on George St. near Lansdowne Ave. expressed concern about zoning of this area as R2. The letter noted that the firm acquired property in 1948, south of the present site, for expansion purposes. Proprietors claim they might be forced out of business, or at least be compelled to relocate at a loss if expansion plans could not be carried out.

The board moved to inform Williamson Bros. that they can expand on their own property as much as they wish. The gimmick for non-conforming users, however, is that property must continue in its present use.

A close watch should be kept on all non-conforming users, said Mr. Culham. He felt the Williamson situation is "the worst kind of affair there can be" and recommended constant vigilance to see that they "don't go as much as five feet too far."

Although the planning board toiled for, more than three hours Thursday, a large sheaf of complaints remains to be disposed. Mr. Culham will append his suggestions to each complaint, and the board will hold a final meeting to settle the zoning question May 2. Then the revised bylaw is read by city council and appears for approval before the Ontario Municipal Board.

Mr. Outram hoped that this could be accomplished as soon as possible, expressing the views that the bylaw might not be ratified until September if not finally drafted soon.

Charge Trio With Robbery

NORTH SYDNEY, N.S. (CP)—A man and two teen-agers, one of them a son of the victim, were charged Thursday with beating an elderly candy store owner and robbing him of $16,000.

The two youths were flushed out of the woods at St. Peters, 50 miles from here, by an RCMP police dog and officers later found some of the money in the area.

Taxi-driver James Rahey, 28, the third person charged with robbery and violence, was arrested shortly after and police said he carried $700.

No pleas were entered by Rahey, William Banfield, 17, or Gerry Fiander, 16, son of 70-year-old Clarence Fiander who was found badly beaten on the floor of his downtown shop Thursday night.

He remained in an oxygen tent in hospital and doctors said he was badly cut about the head.

Australians Vote May 29

By LOUIS L. LECK
Canadian Press Correspondent

SYDNEY, Australia (CP)—Australian voters on May 29 will elect 123 members of the House of Representatives for a term not to exceed three years.

Prime Minister Robert Gordon Menzies, leader of the Liberal-Country party coalition, seeks re-election in a four-week campaign in which increased social benefits and communism have been the dominant issues. Opposed is the Labor party led by Dr. Herbert Vere Evatt.

A total of 298 candidates have been nominated. At dissolution the Liberal - Country party coalition held 68 seats and the Labor Opposition 53.

TWO RESTRICTED

Of the 123 members in the House all but two hold full voting rights. The two members representing the Northern Territory and the Australian Capital Territory (Canberra) vote only on matters concerning their constituencies although they have the right to debate any matters before the Assembly.

Most of the constituencies have about 40,000 electors, but there are fewer than 10,000 voters in each of the territory seats.

The Australian Senate has 60 members normally elected for a six-year period with half of the membership standing for re-election every three years. Usually Senate elections are held simultaneously with those for the House of Representatives, but the dissolution of both assemblies in 1951 threw the normal electoral procedure out of gear.

After the dissolution an election was held to choose 60 new senators, 30 of whom held office for three years and the remainder for six years.

The election was held in April 1951, but the new senators' terms dated back to the preceding July 1. Consequently a Senate election had to be held last year, when 30 new members were chosen. The next Senate election will be held in 1956.

VOTING QUALIFICATION

All British subjects over the age of 21, with the exception of Australian aborigines, are entitled to vote provided they have lived in Australia more than six months.

The three main parties are the Liberal party, the Country party and the Labor party.

The Liberal and Country parties have been associated in government and in opposition for many years. The present coalition consists of 51 Liberals and 17 Country party members.

Broadly, the Liberal party represents the urban non-labor vote, and the Country party the predominantly farming and grazing constituencies.

In a few strongly anti-Labor seats, both Liberal and Country party candidates are contesting the election. Where Labor is likely to poll well, however, the government parties avoid endorsing two candidates.

The preferential voting system is used in House elections, all constituencies being represented by a single member. For Senate elections, where the senators are elected on a state basis, the proportional representation system is used.

Progress figures are issued at frequent intervals at Australian elections and experienced observers can forecast the result in all but a few seats by about 11 p.m., three hours after the polls close. In some of the big country electorates votes from outlying centres may not be counted until perhaps 14 days after the election day.

SIGNED COMMENT

There are practically no restrictions on press or radio comment during an election campaign.

All printed comment on election issues must carry the name and address of the person responsible. Most Australian newspapers carry a small paragraph naming the member of the editorial taff who accepts responsibility for election comment in each issue. This provision operates only from the date of the issue of the writs to the date when they are returned.

The state - owned Australian Broadcasting Commission allots specified periods of broadcasting time to each of the three major parties, which they may use during the campaign at their discretion.

Private stations also broadcast policy speeches free of charge. Other election publicity is treated as advertising matter and is charged for. Generally the radio stations do not make editorial comment on election issues.

Most Australian daily newspapers are anti-Labor in policy. However, in Melbourne, the Argus is moderately sympathetic and the Age, another morning paper, is neutral. The combined circulation of the Age and Argus is only about half that of the anti-Labor Sun-Pictorial.

In Sydney, one of the two afternoon papers has adopted a pro-Labor line in the present campaign.

CAVAN (ENS)—At the women's institute meeting, Tuesday evening, Mrs. G. A. Spicer of Milbrook, gave a talk and demonstration on the art of shaping hammered aluminum.

Mrs. Spicer brought samples of the craft from the aluminum sheet to the finished product—in forms of beautiful trays and dishes, hammered, polished and designed with flowers. She gave each member a tray.

Delegates were appointed for the district annual meeting to be held in Bethany, June 4. The institute also planned to serve lunch from a booth on the grounds of W. Reynolds, during his coming sale, Tuesday, May 25.

Cassandra Has Meeting With Graham

LONDON (Reuters) — British newspaper columnist William Connor, who described American evangelist Billy Graham as a "Hollywood version of John the Baptist," today told of a meeting with the preacher is a tavern called the Baptist's Head.

Connor, who writes for the mass-circulation Daily Mirror under the name of "Cassandra," said he found Graham was "a teetotaller who is able to make himself completely at home in the spit and sawdust department."

This, he added, is "a very difficult thing to do."

The meeting between the evangelist whose month-long London crusade ends Saturday and the columnist was arranged after an exchange of letters.

SENT A NOTE

Graham sent Connor a note telling him his stories on the opening of the evangelist's crusade here "while not entirely sympathetic . . . were two of the most cleverly written that I have ever read," and asking to meet him.

Connor, replying as "someone fairly hell bent and not averse to a little quiet qickedness," listed several taverns as suitable places for the meeting which took place Thursday night.

Reporting on it, Cassandra noted that he "knows how to be" hostile, suspicious and sceptical and "can wield these unloved qualities like a whip."

But he said he found Graham to be a "good man" and a "simple man" and "goodness and simplicity are a couple of tough customers."

He added: "I never thought that simplicity could cudgel us sinners so damned hard. We live and learn."

"In his position Mr. Orpen could arrange for a wonderful supply of good horses to be brought here," he said.

Mr. Gorman said suspension of thoroughbred horse racing at Montreal has made it difficult for Connaught." He declined to disclose the proposed price.

Connaught Race track is on the western outskirts of neighboring Hull, Que.

Heavier Penalty For Offences Of Traffic Act

Magistrate W. R. Philp intimated in court, today, that he might take the matter of suspending automotive licences in his own hands if the present parade of highway traffic act offences continue. The proposed suspensions would be of considerable longer duration than those imposed by the department of highways.

This announcement followed the conviction of James Kelly, 217½ Charlotte St., on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident on Bethune, St. north of Dublin St., Thursday night. Kelly lost control of his. Car and sideswiped two parked cars, one on each side of the street, causing a total damage of $500 to them and his own car. He returned home after the accident, without reporting it, and was later apprehended by detectives Doug Farthing and Sherman Kelfele. He admitted driving the car involved and also to some drinking before the accident occurred, but denied leaving the accident scene because of his condition.

"Why didn't you report it immediately?", asked magistrate Philp.

"I just got to thinking about it when I got home, but the detectives came before I could report it", Kelly replied.

He was fined $40 and $2.50 costs and his operator's licence suspended.

Primary Schools Hold Services For Empire Day

Since Empire Day falls on Sunday this year, city schools are planning patriotic celebrations today, to commemorate the intangible ties which bind the nations of the British Commonwealth.

The obligations of citizenship will also be stressed at ceremonies in the various public schools. A pamphlet issued by the department of education, and distributed to local teachers, stressed this theme and suggests it be emphasized in local programs.

The primary aim of all schools should be to help each student attain the highest degree of individual development of which they are capable, the Empire Day prospectus notes. An article by D. F. Dadson, of Ottawa's Glebe Collegiate, notes that this development leads to "greater social integration and, hence, gives meaning to schools' observance of Empire Day. (The holiday, usually May 23, was first celebrated in 1899.)

In Peterborough, celebrations in most schools will be built around presentations of portraits of the Queen from the IODE to all the public and separate schools. Mrs. George Barns, regent of the municipal chapter of the IODE, is in charge of arrangements.

Most public schools will follow a pattern similar to one outlined by R. J. Bolton, principal of Prince of Wales, the city's largest public school. At Prince of Wales there will be patriotic songs, classroom choirs, recitations and patriotic addresses by staff and students.

The three secondary schools will take little or no cognizance of Empire Day. C. S. Browne, of PCVS, says it is "too near to examinations" to take time for special ceremonies. Students will, however, sing patriotic songs in assembly.

Nothing is planned at Kenner Collegiate. A school official pointed out that ceremonies would have to be held in the gymnasium, with students standing, and the view was that this would not be desirable. St. Peter's high school is not marking Empire Day in any way.

Separate schools will also welcome representatives of the IODE and receive portraits of the Queen.

Red China Concentrating Planes Opposite Formosa

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Red China's air command is reported to have concentrated a substantial force of jet fighters and light bombers along the mainland coast opposite Formosa, seat of Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist government.

That build-up apparently has been made since the Korean war's end allowed diversion of some of the air strength previously based in Manchuria for Korean operations.

The Red build-up in Chekiang province consists almost entirely of MiG-15 fighters and IL-28 twin-jet bombers, information reaching Washington indicates.

Although the redeployment of planes by the Reds is receiving attention here, there is no indication U.S. officials are unduly alarmed over prospects of an immediate move against Formosa. The redeployment appears to have been gradual, a part of a broader program which has sent even larger number of aircraft to fields in southern China, close to the Indo-China border.

The United States still is holding fast to its policy of promising sea and air aid to head off any invasion attempt by the Reds against Formosa.

NO INVASION ATTEMPT

Dispatches from the Far East indicate Red air sorties over islands off the China mainland which have been seized and held by Chiang's amphibious forces, with Nationalist planes challenging these Red air movements. But there has been nothing suggesting direct invasion attempts against Formosa.

While Washington officials are reluctant to discuss details of the policy for the Formosan - China mainland area, indications are that strikes against the small offshore islands currently held by Chiang's troops would not be considered a reason for involving U.S. ships or aircraft. Most of the island positions now held by Nationalist troops were taken after the U.S. enunciated its Formosan protection policy in 1950, at the start of the Korean war.

No Reaction From Vaccine

CHICAGO (AP)—Not a single case of serious reaction or death has been reported from among the more than 400,000 American school children given inoculations of the Salk polio vaccine.

Dr. Robert F. Korns, a member of the national polio vaccine evaluation team, made the first official report on the mass experiment Thursday to the annual convention of the Illinois State Medical Soci

Since started, Dr Korns said, polio has broken out in Florida, Texas and Michigan. Only three cases have occurred among the 644,000 children in the study group.

One of the polio cases is that of a first-grade pupil in Florida who is included in the study, but who did not receive shots of the vaccine.

The other two cases, one in Michigan and one in Texas, received either the vaccine or an inection of a blank substance of no medicinal value. Half the children in those two states got vaccine and half got the blank substance, and which substance was given will not be disclosed until the final stages of the study.

MPs Argue About Press Interpretation Of Brief

OTTAWA (CP)—Members of the Commons veterans affairs committee argued Thursday over interpretation by The Canadian Press of a Canadian Legion brief submitted to the committee Wednesday.

The CP story said: "The Canadian Legion today charged the Canadian pension commission with lax administration."

Donald M. Thompson, chief service officer, Canadian Legion, said Thursday night in an interview "that from the information we have that is an accurate outline of the legion's position."

The legion brief cited seven cases of commission "failure to search records, failure to assess properly evidence on file, administrative error and unjust presumption being drawn against (pension) applicants."

SAYS MISUNDERSTOOD

Walter Tucker (L — Rosthern), committee chairman, said at the start of Thursday's sitting: "I think every member of the committee would agree that the press misunderstood the brief of the legion."

He said the legion had brought forward the cases not as an indication of general laxity on the part of the commission but to substantiate its claim that pensions, when granted, should be made retroactive to date of application.

The CP story quoted Dr. C. B. Lumsden, legion president, as saying that the number of cases was small compared to the total number of pension claims handled by the commission.

A. J. Brooks (PC—Royal) told Mr. Tucker: ". . . I would rather think you have misunderstood, too, the brief of the legion."

ARGUED AGAINST DELETION

He said the legion was arguing against deletion of sections in the Pension Act which would reduce the maximum period for making pensions retroactive to 18 months from three years.

"I do not think we should minimize it (the legion brief) by saying there were only seven cases quoted here. As I understood the evidence yesterday, the witness giving evidence did not know how many more cases there were."

Frank Enfield (L—York-Scarborough): "He did not say that."

Mr. Brooks: "I remember him saying there were only 11 (other) cases that he had with him and he said there were a great many which did not come to their attention at all . . . I do not think this committee should try to correct the press."

First Polio Injections Given

NEW YORK (AP)—The first phase of the country-wide polio tests is over—and pronounced a success.

Dr. Hart E. Van Riper, medical director of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, said 644,138 children in 44 states have received the first of a series of three injections.

"Except for a few scattered reports still due, this is about the total number of children that will be injected," he said.

More than half the children already have received their second shots, with administration of the final third inoculation to begin the week of May 31. It is spaced four weeks after the second.

All records will be forwarded to the poliomyelitis vaccine evaluation centre at the University of Michigan. Its report early next year is expected to show the degree of effectiveness of the new vaccine.

Two Seamen Freed On Bail

MONTREAL (CP)—Two of 36 British seamen convicted and sentenced Tuesday on charges of failing to obey their captains orders, Thursday were freed on bail of $200 each. They were given their freedom when their lawyer, Marcel Gaboury, gave formal notice of plans to appeal the sentences of the men.

Released were Bernard Lafferty of the freighter Shelldrake and Ronald Barker of the freighter Cibou.

Eighteen men from the Shelldrake were sentenced to 21 days each in jail. The same number of men from the Cibou were sentenced to 15 days in jail and fined six days' pay.

The men were arrested after they went on strike for higher wages. They claimed they could not live on British wages while working the Canadian coastal trade in British ships.

Decorate Rectory

APSLEY —(ENS)—The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Guild of St. George's Anglican Church was held at the home of Mrs. O. Montgomery.

The main items of business were plans for decorating the new mission house to enable Rev. and Mrs. Boddy to take up residence.

Plans were also made for the Ingram-Everett wedding reception.

The hostess served lunch.

SPEED WITH DIGNITY—All went well for Princess Anne (left) as she trailed her parents on the London pier on their return home. Hamilton City Will Celebrate If Collisteo Wins Queen's Plate

(This is another in a series on leading candidates for the 95th running of the Queen's Plate.)

TORONTO (CP) — If a sleek brown colt named Collisteo wins the 95th running of the Queen's Plate June 12, the city of Hamilton probably will have its noisiest celebration since the Tiger-Cat football club won the Grey Cup by beating Winnipeg Blue Bombers in 1953.

Collisteo is owned by two Hamiltonians, Walter Fitzgerald and H. C. (Petey) Burton. Even when they win a cheap claiming race, there is great cheering and shouting.

Fitzgerald and Burton have two candidates for the plate—Collisteo and Pancho. Collisteo, which won $6,660 last year, is the colt which is likely to carry their colors at Woodbine.

The record book shows that no Hamilton horse has won the plate since 1918 when Springside captured the 50 guineas for the late George M. Hendrie. Fitzgerald and Burton nearly made it in 1947 when Burboy was second to Moldy by a half-length.

Turf critics have been almost unanimous in saying the 1953 crop of home-bred juveniles was the best in the history of Canadian racing. Collisteo was regarded as the most promising of the crop.

The son of the distance-running Filisteo and Colleen Pat had been bred by Malcolm Richardson. He was consigned to the yearling sales of 1952 and Burton and Fitzgerald bid to $3,600 before they got him.

He won for them, "first crack out of the box." Elated, they entered him in the Clarendon Plate and the public made him a hot favorite. However, Collisteo finished fourth to Beau Bunty, Trochanter and Windina.

A week later when he gave the most sparkling performance of his brief career in the Victoria Stakes at five furlongs, he sprinted the distance in 58 3-5 seconds, a track record.

His display of blistering speed in that race put Collisteo in sickbay, from "bucked shins." He didn't return to competition for three months, and then hadn't recovered completely from his miseries.

He completed the campaign by running a smashing second to Winda in an allowance race and then was fourth to King Maple, Sgt. Vice and Hi Laude in the Golden Spoon.

Collisteo is back in top form this spring. He is quoted at 10 to 1 in the future book for the Plate and he is a solid fifth choice among the 43 colts and fillies still eligible.

Master Of Tongue-Twisters Boy Of 14 Wins Spelling Bee

WASHINGTON (AP) — William Cashore, a tall, handsome boy who refused to be flustered by a bevy of tongue-twisters, walked off with the national spelling bee championship Thursday.

The 14-year-old eighth grade honor student from St. Helena's School, Center Square, Pa., outspelled 56 slightly sensational orthographers and wound up with the $500 first prize.

After it was all over, William admitted that there were "a lot of them I couldn't spell," but that, lucky for him, those words went to other contestants.

The payoff word was "uncinated," which tripped William Kelley, an 11-year-old from Deering, Mo. after six hours of rugged spelling.

Young Kelley spelled it "unsinated," and Cashore, under the rules, was required to tackle it and then spell the next word correctly. He whipped right on through "uncinated" and "transept."

NEVER HEARD OF IT

Afterwards, young Cashore told reporters he had never heard the word "uncinated," before but "I guess I guessed right." He said he was well acquainted with "transept."

Those words, incidentally mean: Uncinated—hooked, bent at the end like a fishhook.

Transept—one of the lateral members or projections between the nave and choir of a cruciform church.

Kelley wound up with $300 for second prize, while Patricia Brown, 14, Birmingham, Alta., collected $100 for third prize. She missed "miscible," spelling it the way you would think it was spelled, "missible."

GIRLS OF GRADES 11 AND 12 Household Economics at PCVS had their annual afternoon tea for their mothers and their teachers and wives on Tuesday afternoon. Miss Katherine Macdougall who coaches them in their meal-planning and practical cooking is pictured at right. Joan Wood who is graduating from grade 12 is filling the tea cup and Margaret Woodhouse, grade 11 student, who also poured tea, stands beside her mother, Mrs. R. E. Woodhouse. —(Examiner Staff Photo)

Home Ec. Girls Give Tea

Some may think that girls who take the Home Economics course at PCVS are just preparing themselves for the career of housewife, but such is not the case.

True, they do learn to prepare a meal to delight the heart, and stomach, of any man, or to give a delightful afternoon tea, as they did on Thursday for mothers and teachers, and to sew a fine seam, as was evident from the display of coats, dresses, suits and pyjamas in conjunction with the tea.

But, girls graduating in grade 12, Home Ec. can enroll as student nurses and will find this training of very much benefit, or, they may go on in grade 13, go to Teachers' College and become primary school teachers. Various other avenues are open too, because in addition to cooking and sewing they take the same work in other subjects, excepting Latin and French, as the academic students.

There were just five students in grade H11 this year and there are 10 graduating from grade H12. All girls in the school take home economics in grades 9 and 10, but in 11 and 12 it is optional.

Graduating students and their teacher Miss Katherine Macdougall wore distinguishing pink carnations corsages for the teahour. Among their guests on this occasion were Mr. Charles H. Huffman, chairman of the board of education, and Mrs. Huffman, school superintendent Mr. K. S. Wightman and principal Mr. C. S. Browne and Mrs. Browne.

The tea menu and the flower arrangements were first worked out by grade 12 girls as class problems, with Miss Macdougall to be judge of the best one. It happened that she chose the menu submitted by one girl and the flower arrangement planned by another for a very pleasant combination.

Tea was served in the dining room which is nicely furnished in maple. The lace covered table and the buffet were centred with tasteful and attractive arrangements of tulips and fruit blossom branches.

The school silver tea service and a borrowed one were in use by Joan Wood and Margaret Woodhouse, who are secretarys of grades 12 and 11. Presidents Aileen Cowie of H 12 and Marie Nesbitt of H 11 were receiving.

Servers were Aileen Rowbotham, June Skitch, Carolyn Horton, Sylvia Irwin, Vera Quinn aod Barbara Lewis and the plates were prepared by Eileen Davidson, Elaine Drimmie, Betty Dalton and Donna Young.

WILL HANDLE FUND

TORONTO (CP)—A. S. FitzGerald of Windsor was elected president for 1954-55 of the Crippled Children's Foundation Fund at the group's annual meeting Thursday. Other officers elected: Chief Justice J. C. McRuer, vice-president; J. A. Martin, Waterloo, honorary treasurer; D. Spencer Large, Brantford, Trustee.

THE EXPERTS SAY:

Housewives Given Break In New Appliance Designs

By PAULINE KENNEDY

TORONTO (CP) — Housewives have often wished for a standardized cord to fit kitchen electrical appliances, for a portable barbecue at a reasonable price and a garbage container with a lid that doesn't bang when it falls into place.

Such articles are displayed in centres across the country, 1954 award winners of the National Industrial Design Committee which has functioned since 1948.

Some of the award products, mostly designed by Canadians, could be classified as tailor-made for nervous people. There is the five - and - a - half horsepower outboard motor, advertised as the first silent outboard motor. They say you can hardly hear it above the slapping of waves against the boat as it knifes through the water.

WORTHWHILE SERVICES

It may be a small thing but there is a garbage disposal can, of Canadian design, with an added spring which lowers the lid silently. Instead of being worried in the kitchen by a cobweb network of cords—one for the electric kettle, the iron or the toaster—manufacturers are making a standard socket so that one cord will do the trick for all.

Other designs can be classed as "tired housewife" gadgets. Among them is the vacuum cleaner with light aluminum and plastic attachments and a snake-like plastic tube, half the weight of the ordinary rubber tube. In this class also is the aluminum folding lawn chair and the United States - designed food mixer which weighs only two pounds.

One of the most novel designs is a portable barbecue stand, made of wrought iron. Brainchild of designer W. G. Angus of Windsor, Ont., the barbecue burns charcoal and has a built-in spit, with all the tools hung on hooks along the side.

WILL PROVE POPULAR

A boon for young mothers is the three-way convertible baby carriage which strips down to a stroller and has a removable crib box useful in the motor-car. It is the product of a Waterloo, Ont., company.

The 1954 design awards number 110 and were chosen in the fields of personal, household or office equipment. They include everything from a small-model garden tractor to a new type of Canadian manufactured stainless steel flatwere which underselis foreign designs.

They were chosen by a board of industrial design experts inculding Mrs. W. R. Walton, Jr., former national president of the Canadian Association of Consumers. Choice was based on form, function, originality, good value and consumer acceptability for the Canadian market.

Don't put off that dream

Is there a cherished something you've talked about, hoped to do, even planned to do — ever so long? Don't, please don't put it off too long, warns J. P. McEvoy in June Reader's Digest.

Here is his true, if sad, story of a couple who were so practical that they made the fatal mistake of putting off living until it was too late.

Be sure to read "Charlie would have loved this" in June Reader's Digest. It's just one of 42 articles of lasting interest, condensed from leading magazines and current books.

That's when the liver needs mild gentle Carter's Little Liver Pills. These famous vegetable pills help stimulate the flow of liver bile. YOUR WATCH
"Box of Wonders"

A columist said a watchmaker needs the skill of a surgeon and patience of a flagpole sitter after visiting a jeweler for 8 hours! Below are a few reasons for that statement and why cleaning a watch is not as simple a procedure as many people believe when serviced correctly!
The average watch contains 200 parts which in cleaning have to be disassembled, polished cleaned and oiled.
It would take 20,000 of your smaller watch screws to fill an ordinary thimble.
Balance wheel pivots are not more than 3-one thousanths of an inch in diameter which travel 6,000 miles a year.
Speed of this balance wheel is controlled by a hairspring which is literally as fine as a hair.

Women See Need To Study Resolutions Sent Forward

That Councils of Women had better do some research and study before sending forth resolutions, on matters concerning the whole of Canada and even other countries, which they hope will gain recognition and possibly action from government bodies, was a fact plainly presented to the women of Peterborough Council at their meeting Thursday.

Not only could this be quickly realized when resolutions to be voted on at Provincial Council annual meeting next week were dealt with by guest speaker, bank manager Mr. Wilson Gemmell, but it was plainly evident in a reply from a cabinet minister to a resolution that had reached his office.

A copy of the letter from Justice Minister Garson to the National Council of Women, read by corresponding secretary Mrs. W. T. Fanjoy, referred to a resolution asking that the government prohibit the printing of pictures on "cheap, paper-bound books." The minister had evidently heard from this or a similar body of women before, for he asumed that it was "obscene" pictures they wished to prohibit although there was nothing in the wording of their resolution to indicate so. He pointed out that if it was "obscene" pictures they referred to, this matter was already fully taken care of by law and only required enforcement by provincial and municipal officers.

ASKED ADVICE

Mr. Gemmell had been given copies of three resolutions on which president Mrs. A. W. Nelson and delegates from Peterborough Council at Owen Sound on May 25 to 27 will vote, and asked his advice pro or con.

With 20 years banking experience and a good deal of knowledge of economics of this country acquired by outside study, Mr. Gemmell apparently found the resolutions scarcely feasible He outlined some of the many reasons why.

However, he told the women to continue. "You cant help benefit from study—unless you get into places you ought not to be", he said. "Opinions you form should be held lightly and not become manacles on your mind"; Mr. Gemmell cautioned. He remarked on changes in opinion which everyone goes through as he advances in years, particularly citing wide changes in political views.

"The thinking behind these resolutions is good," said Mr. Gemmell. His opinion was "The government has done very well in eliminating big bumps and big drops. It can't be perfect."

NO DEPRESSION

"I don't think there will be a depression, because the essential causes of a depression aren't present today," said the banker. "The basic lack today is thrift and cost consciousness. We've got to be prepared to live a little more frugally."

Mr. Gemmell gave as his opinion also that if we did not have the pay-as-you-go system of collecting income tax and the various "hidden taxes" there would be a lot of economy that we do not have. He feels there should be two prices on every article in a store, one stating the amount of tax on the article, the other its real value.

One resoluion asked "abolishment of excise tax on commodities used in the home." Another had to do with natural resources of Canada being shipped out for manufacture and returned for sale as finished products. He found fault with this in its statement that "hundreds of thousands of Canadians were thus put out of work" and suggested using only "thousands." The question of a "guaranteed wage" was not dealt with.

Mr. Gemmell stressed a quotation "Today's evil may be tomorrow's good, and, today's good, tomorrow's evil," and urged "moderation in all things."

He was introduced by Mrs. A. Moldaver and thanked by Mrs. E. Chambers.

To Give Training Nutrition Practices

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (CP) People all over the world share a dislike for having new dishes foisted on them, a Canadian nutritionist reports after a world tour.

Dr. Margaret Hockin, chief home economist for the United Nations Food and Agricultural Organization, found the surest way to get people to try unfamiliar foods is to add them to the regular diet and adapt them to local cooking.

Dr. Hockin, a native of Truro, N. S., said this has been done successfully in India during a rice shortage when beans and pulses—edible seeds—were substituted.

Next month the FAO will assist in establishing a college at Bombay to train men and women in improved nutritional practices to be applied in cafeterias and other eating places.

Distinctive Styles Sought By Six Canadian Designers

MONTREAL (CP) — Canadian designers of women's clothes plan to bid for greater recognition in the field of milady's fashions.

Six designers meeting here discussed plans to form what may turn out to be the nucleus of a "haute couture" group for Canada.

Aim of the group will be to agree on distinctive Canadian styles that will attract a national and international clientele.

The conference included Parisborn Raoul-Jean Foure who has designed in Canada for 25 years and who styled the gown worn by the wife of Prime Minister St. Laurent at the Coronation; Marcel Martel, veteran Montreal designer, and Marie France, a former assistant to Jacques Fath of Paris.

COMBINED TALENT

Also in the group were France Davies, who designed a skirt for the Queen when she visited Canada, and Jacques de Montjoye who was trained at the Chambre Syndicale de la Couture Parisienne in Paris. Josef Foch represented Norbert Niewelt, a Czech couturier who now makes his home here.

"If eel we can achieve more as a group than by working individually," said Mr. Foure. "Why should designers have to go outside the country to gain recognition? If we are united we should be strong enough to make our presence felt in establishing a Canadian couture."

One objective of the proposed association is a fashion show in the near future. Aim of this and future shows would be to attract customers from Canada and other countries.

Membership in the new organization would be limited to persons making their living as designers. A committee would be established to maintain high standards within the association.

AID YOUNG DESIGNERS

Paris-born Mr. de Montjoye said he feels the association would help young designers trying to become established. He himself came to Canada four years ago and worked with Mr. Foure before going into business for himself in 1952.

France Davies, who was born in Paris, also worked with Mr. Foure before opening her own salon in 1950. Miss Davies' greatest triumph as a designer came when the town of Longueuil, Que., asked her to make a skirt for them to present to the Queen, then Princess Elizabeth, when she visited Canada.

The skirt was accepted by the Queen and later a copy was exhibited by the Canadian government at Rockefeller Centre in New York.

Readers' Friday Column By Mary Moore

ATTENTION F. D. M.: This is the second time of asking F. D. M. to send me her name and address and stamped envelope. I have ready to send her copies of releases" containing the canned meat and mayonnaise recipes she requested.

QUESTION: I noticed a lady wanted to know how to get the lettering out of her sugar bags . . . I do from one to four bags at a time but never more than four. I make up a good warm water solution and put in a good amount of new detergent rinso and let the bags soak overnight . . . if enough soap is added in about 5 min. the blue and red letters are running. Let soak about 24 hours. I heat this water with the bags in it to warm and rub them well on the wash board. By now the bags are pink and blue and no letters visible. Then I make up another soapy solution of rinso and let them stand another 24 hours. By now they have no color in and all they need is bleaching. I soak them again for 24 hrs. in rinso but if you want to get them white quick add a small amount of javex to this water and boil them . . I have lost recipe for reducers' dressing . . my blue plums of last year are bitterly sour. I used the large blue plums and my syrup was 3 sugar to 3 water — I have 12 quarts and can't face them when they're so sour . . . your family seems so real . I am a nurse too so am deeply interested in Marianne. Vicky

ANSWER: Thanks for the instructions re sugar bags and welcome back to column . . I have mailed recipe for reducers' dressing. As you open each jar of plums strain off the syrup and to it add sugar and heat to dissolve it, also sprinkle some dry sugar over the strained plums then pour resweetened syrup over them and use for any purpose you wish. I think they would be best in batter puddings. Or, if pitted, in pies, to which you would add 2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca to thicken the syrup.

QUESTION: I have wanted to write for 2 years . . and for the first time in 15 years can make biscuits (Supreme—that is) . . . would you be kind enough to tell me what method to use for filling your recipes and do you type them onto cards or what? . . . could you tell me how to can my surplus pumpkin and what type is best for pies (to grow that is) . . many thanks— sure wish you had a cookbook printed . . .

Bernice

ANSWER: . . I shortened your letter but was glad to hear we are natives of the same city . . and want to thank you for your kind wishes to Marianne and Herbie. Buy recipe filing boxes, type out the recipes you have tried and are sure your family likes and file them in order, under cakes, cookies, meats pies, salads, etc. and have them in alphabetical order under each of these headings. If the boxes are too full, they are so inexpensive it is simple to buy another. You must have pressure cooker to can pumpkin. Canners do not specify any brand in particular. Kentucky field pumpkin is the only strain I am familiar with.

CANNED PUMPKIN

Cut or break apart after washing, remove seeds and fibres, cut into pieces, steam, bake or boil in small amount of water until tender. Scrape from skins and force through sieve, or mash. Bring to boiling, stirring constantly to prevent scorching. Pack hot, leaving ½-inch headspace. Process at 240 deg. Fahr.—pints 70 minutes, quarts 80.

QUESTION: . . I have a small business and I like to serve tossed salads often, but have trouble with my dressings or at least something! How can I prevent them from being a soggy and greasy looking and tasting mess?, would appreciate recipe for fruit salad dressing. Mrs. J. L.

ANSWER: I have mailed you the recipe for the creamy or all-purpose mayonnaise that appeared in this column March 18. According to many readers it is one of the best recipes yet.

FRUIT SALAD DRESSING

Mix together in top of double boiler 3 tablespoons sugar, 2 tablespoons flour, ½ teaspoon mustard, then stir in 2 eggs, 2 tablespoons vinegar, juice and grated rind 1 lemon, and the juice from 1 20-oz. tin canned pineapple (1 cup). Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly until thick. Chill. Just before serving fold in 1 cup cream, whipped.

DOROTHY DIX

Welcome Friends With Refreshments

DEAR MISS DIX: Lately I noticed that our friends come to visit less and less. Finally, I became so anxious about the situation that I asked a friend about it. She said the reason people don't like to come to our house is that my husband is too insistent on having them accept refreshments, making them feel that a refusal is a personal insult to him. I know my husband is a shy person, and perhaps he does try too hard to please.

JULIE.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: People who come to see you do so for companionship —not food. Instead of rushing refreshments to guests the minute they come in the door, make them feel welcome, and let them know that you're very glad to see them. You might have candy, nuts or crackers at strategic spots around the room, in case they want to nibble, but don't make a big thing over serving until they've been in the house for a while. If at any time a guest refuses food or drink, don't ply him. He knows he's welcome to what you have, and also knows what he wants. Respect his inclinations, and he'll be much more willing to come again.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: Although we've been married for two years, Ben has done nothing about putting any of his property in my name, making a will, or having me named as beneficiary of his insurance. He has grown children by a previous marriage. We are very happy except for this problem.

ERNA

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: These matters certainly should be attended to, and if Ben resents your bringing them to his attention, perhaps some influential friend—a lawyer, banker or businessman—can induce him to make the necessary changes. Some men have almost a superstition about taking definite steps on matters relative to death, and though the task may be unpleasant, it must be done. One often hears of a very prominent man of affairs dying without a will. The best time to take care of these things is when one is in the very pink of health.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: My parents provided a roof and food for their children but no attention or affection. They were absorbed in their business; they let the older children take the responsibiliy for the younger ones and what little time they spent with us was given more to faultfinding than any signs of love. Now we are all grown and regretfully, I must admit there is no family loyalty between us. We are all married, and now our parents complain because we don't show them affection.

D. R

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Since your parents neglect brought you children so much closer together in your young days, it's difficult to understand why it should have the opposite effect now. I can understanad why ties between parents and children would be weak, but not why brothers and sisters would be split. Since you are sensible enough to realize that there is an acute family problem existing among you try to alter the bad situation. Take advantage of every opportunity to have family get-togethers and I think your own offspring will help solidify the general relationship.
